Fifty-fifth session

Item 113 of the provisional agenda*

Programme of activities of the International Decade of the World's Indigenous People

Status of the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Populations

Report of the Secretary-General

I. Mandate of the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Populations

1. Convinced that the establishment of a voluntary trust fund would constitute a significant development for the future promotion and protection of the human rights of indigenous populations, the General Assembly, by resolution 40/131 of 13 December 1985, decided to establish the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Populations (hereinafter referred to as "the Fund"). The purpose of the Fund is to assist representatives of indigenous communities and organizations to participate in the deliberations of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations of the Subcommission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights by providing them with financial assistance, funded by means of voluntary contributions from Governments, non-governmental organizations, other private or public entities and individuals.

2. By resolution 50/156 of 21 December 1995, the Assembly extended the mandate of the Fund to assist representatives of indigenous communities and organizations to participate in the deliberations of the open-ended inter-sessional ad hoc working group of the Commission on Human Rights on a draft declaration on the rights of indigenous people and, by resolutions 53/130 of 9 December 1998 and 54/150 of 17 December 1999, extended it to the open-ended inter-sessional ad hoc Working Group of the Commission on Human Rights on the possible establishment of a permanent forum for indigenous people in the United Nations system.

* A/55/150.

 In accordance with General Assembly resolution 54/248, sect. C, para. 1, this report is being submitted on 18 July 2000 so as to include as much updated information as possible.

II. Administration

3. The Fund is administered in accordance with the relevant Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations on general trust funds by the Secretary-General, through the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and with the advice of the Board of Trustees (hereinafter referred to as “the Board”).

4. The Board is composed of five persons with relevant experience in issues affecting indigenous populations, who serve in their personal capacity. The members are appointed by the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Chairperson of the Subcommission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights, for a three-year renewable term. At least one member is a representative of a widely recognized organization of indigenous people. The current five members whose term of office expires on 31 December 2002 are themselves indigenous experts: Victoria Tauli-Corpuz (Chairperson, Philippines), Michael Dodson (Australia), Naomi N. Kipuri (Kenya), José Carlos Morales (Costa Rica) and Tove Sovndahl Petersen (Greenland/Denmark).

5. The most recent biennial report of the Secretary-General on the status of the Fund, indicating the activities undertaken with the resources of the Fund and showing income and expenditure as well as the pledges and payments made to the Fund, was submitted to the General Assembly at its fifty-third session (A/53/282). The present report updates the information contained in that report.

6. The secretariat of the Fund and Board, located at the Trust Funds Unit, Support Services Branch, Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights at Geneva, comprises the Secretary of the Fund and one Professional and one General Service staff member who are paid from programme support costs.

7. The Board meets with the donors to the Fund at its annual sessions. The secretariat also provides information to the donors at an informal consultative meeting organized before the end of each fiscal year. It also meets with donors, upon request.

III. Applications for grants

8. The General Assembly, the Commission on Human Rights and the Secretary-General, based upon the recommendations of the Board, have adopted the criteria for the selection of beneficiaries (see annex I to the present report).

9. Applications for grants should be sent by applicants and received by the secretariat of the Fund and Board no later than 1 November each year. They are then analysed, summarized and presented to the Board at its annual sessions, held in April.

IV. Contributions

10. In order to meet requests for funding during a current year, contributions to the Fund should be paid by the end of March in order to be available and duly recorded by the United Nations Treasurer before the first day of the annual session of the Board. Contributions made after that month are carried over to the following session of the Board.

V. Twelfth session of the Board

11. The twelfth session of the Board was held at Geneva, from 12 to 14 April 1999. On 22 April, the High Commissioner for Human Rights approved, on behalf of the Secretary-General, the recommendations of the Board at that session (see E/CN.4/Sub.2/AC.4/1999/6).

B. Applications for grants

24. The Board considered 119 applications from indigenous communities and organizations requesting financial assistance to participate in the eighteenth session of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations, to be held at Geneva from 24 to 30 July 2000, and 36 applications requesting financial assistance to participate in the fourth session of the Working Group on a draft declaration, scheduled to be held at Geneva from 16 to 27 October 2000.

C. Recommendations of the Board of Trustees

25. Having examined the applications for grants in the light of the established criteria for selection, the Board recommended approval of: (a) 66 grants, for an amount of US$ 163,000, to allow representatives of indigenous communities and organizations to attend the session of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations; and (b) 27 grants, for an amount of US$ 102,200, for representatives of indigenous communities and organizations to attend the session of the Working Group on a draft declaration (for the lists of beneficiaries, see E/CN.4/Sub.2/AC.4/2000/4).

26. A total of US$ 265,200 was therefore approved for disbursement in 2000.

27. The Board also recommended that sufficient funds (amounting to a minimum of US$ 100,000) be allocated for grants to allow indigenous representatives to attend a possible meeting on a permanent forum in 2001, pending the adoption of a resolution by the General Assembly which could further extend the mandate of the Fund. It was agreed that priority should in this case be given to beneficiaries who had participated in the first and second sessions of the ad hoc Working Group on a permanent forum in 1999 and 2000 and that all applicants should comply with the criteria previously recommended by the Board.

28. The Board noted with satisfaction that, given the amount of new contributions paid by donors and the new applications received from indigenous organizations and communities, it had been able to recommend in 2000 an increased number of grants. It also noted the increase in the number of grants approved since the beginning of the International Decade of the World's Indigenous People (see annexes III and IV to the present report).

29. The Board met for one hour with interested donors to thank them and inform them of the activities of the Fund and the Board.

D. Implementation

30. At the date of preparation of the present report, all of the travel grants to attend the Working Group on Indigenous Populations had been processed.

VII. Fund-raising

31. In view of the increasing demand for financial assistance and the additional mandates entrusted to the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Populations, the General Assembly, in its resolution 54/150, encouraged Governments to support the International Decade of the World's Indigenous People by, inter alia, contributing, together with other donors, to the Fund.

32. Also, the Commission on Human Rights, in its resolution 2000/56 of 25 April 2000,⁴ appealed to all Governments, organizations and individuals in a position to do so to consider contributing to the Fund.

33. Further, the Subcommission on the Promotion and the Protection of Human Rights had also recommended, in its resolution 1999/19 of 26 August 1999,⁵ that the High Commissioner for Human Rights, Coordinator for the Decade, consider holding a special fund-raising meeting to encourage financial contributions to the Fund.⁵

34. The Board members followed up a proposal made by the High Commissioner as Coordinator of the Decade to assist them in their fund-raising efforts and recommended that the High Commissioner send a letter of appeal to donors for additional contributions, to be paid by the end of the year, to allow the Board to increase further the number of grants and the representation of indigenous communities and organizations in 2000. The High Commissioner therefore sent a letter on 1 October 1999 appealing for new contributions and agreed to do the same in 2000.

35. At the invitation of the Bureau, the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, addressed the Commission on Human Rights at its fifty-sixth session and appealed for new and regular contributions. The Chairperson estimated that an amount of US$ 600,000 would be necessary to cover the expenditure foreseen for 2001.
