I. Introduction

1. The United Nations Transition Assistance Group (UNTAG) was established by the Security Council in its resolution 435 (1978) of 29 September 1978 for a period of up to 12 months to ensure the early independence of Namibia through free and fair elections under the supervision and control of the United Nations.
2. By its resolution 629 (1989) of 16 January 1989, the Security Council subsequently decided that 1 April 1989 should be the date on which implementation of resolution 435 (1978) would begin and requested the Secretary-General to prepare at the earliest possible date a report to the Council on the implementation of resolution 435 (1978), taking into account all relevant developments since the adoption of that resolution.
3. The Security Council, in its resolution 643 (1989) of 31 October 1989, expressed its full support for the Secretary-General in his efforts to ensure that resolution 435 (1978) was fully implemented and requested him to prepare appropriate plans for mobilizing all forms of assistance, including technical, material and financial support to the people of Namibia during the period following the elections for the Constituent Assembly until the accession to independence.
4. In its resolution 652 (1990) of 17 April 1990, the Security Council recommended to the General Assembly that the Republic of Namibia be admitted to membership in the United Nations.

II. Updated financial performance report

5. As shown in table 1 below, income to UNTAG totalled $416,162,000, derived from assessed contributions and $23,736,000 from voluntary contributions. The total assessed contributions were fully appropriated by the General Assembly for the operation of UNTAG.

The General Assembly, in its resolution 47/207 of 22 December 1992, decided that the unencumbered balance of appropriations of $2,006,977 gross ($1,952,629 net) should be credited to Member States and that any additional amount remaining in the Special Account after liquidation of obligations owed to Member States should be transferred to the Peacekeeping Reserve Fund.

III. Actions to be taken by the General Assembly

11. In the light of the overall financial situation of the Organization and the fact that as at 15 March 2003 assessed contributions to peacekeeping in the amount of $1.5 billion remain unpaid, the Secretary-General proposes that the return of cash available for credit to Member States be suspended until the financial situation improves.
