United Nations Interim Administration Mission in Kosovo (UNMIK)*Note by the Secretary-General*Corrigendum*1. Summary

The first sentence of the second paragraph should read

The Investigation revealed that Mr. Trutschler had committed several criminal offences to the financial disadvantage of UNMIK: OIOS and OLAF established that he had caused the public electricity provider in Serbia and Montenegro to transfer an amount due to the Kosovo Energy Company (KEK) located in Serbia and Montenegro — $4.3 million — derived from the sale of electricity on the power grid of the former Yugoslavia, to a bank account under his control in Gibraltar.

2. Paragraph 5

The third sentence of the paragraph should read

Its principal corporate office is located in Pristina, Kosovo (Serbia and Montenegro).

3. Paragraph 6

The first and second sentences of the paragraph should read

OIOS identified that Kosovo is part of a widespread energy transfer grid within the geo-political boundary of the former Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. This grid was conceived prior to the 1999 conflict in Kosovo.

4. Paragraph 7

The first sentence of the paragraph should read

Since the end of the conflict in 1999, Kosovo has frequently encountered electricity shortages.
