Letter dated 15 June 2004 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Republic of Cyprus

Thank you for your letter of 7 June 2004 about the report on my mission of good offices in Cyprus (A/58/835-S/2004/464, annex) and our meeting of 3 June.

As you will have inferred from my report, I take a different view from you on most of the ground covered in your letter and its annex. I do stand fully by my report, including the narrative and the analysis contained therein, the appeals I have formulated and the recommendations I have put forward, to which I hope the Greek Cypriot side will respond positively. It follows that I do not share your characterization of the conduct of the efforts of the United Nations.

(Signed) Kofi A. Annan
