The Council of the League at the summit level,

Having considered:

- The note of the Secretariat,
- The report of the Secretary-General on joint Arab action,
- The previous resolutions of the Council at the ministerial level on this topic, the recent being resolution 7992 (145th ordinary session, 11 March 2016) and resolution 8043 (extraordinary session of 28 May 2016),

Recalling all relevant resolutions of the Council of the League at the summit level, the most recent being resolution 614 (26th ordinary session, Sharm el-Sheikh) of 29 March 2015),

Decides

1. To reaffirm the centrality of the question of Palestine to the Arab nation as a whole, as well as the Arab identity of occupied East Jerusalem, the capital of the State of Palestine;

2. To affirm that a just, comprehensive peace is a strategic choice and that it can only be achieved by ending the Israeli occupation of all Palestinian and Arab territories; enabling the Palestinian people to exercise its inalienable right to self-determination and to establish an independent, fully sovereign State of Palestine; releasing all political prisoners from occupation prisons; and resolving the question of the Palestine refugees on the basis of international law, internationally recognized resolutions, the Arab Peace Initiative and the resolutions adopted at successive Arab summits;

3. To reaffirm the sovereignty of the State of Palestine over all Palestinian territory occupied in 1967, including East Jerusalem, as well as its airspace and territorial waters and borders with neighbouring countries;

4. To extend full support and stand in solidarity with the valiant Palestinian people, which resolutely and determinedly stands up to myriad daily Israeli attacks and aggressions against its land, sacred sites and property;

5. To warn Israel, the occupying Power, that it must not continue to antagonize Arabs and Muslims throughout the world through the dangerous escalation of its illegal policies and measures, which are aimed at Judaizing the blessed Al-Aqsa Mosque and dividing it spatially and temporally; to regard any laws aimed at entrenching such measures as null and void; and to warn that such schemes could spark a religious conflict in the region, a development for which Israel, the occupying Power, would bear full responsibility;

6. To condemn all crimes committed by the Israeli occupation Government against the Palestinian people; to call on the international community, particularly the Security Council, which is responsible for maintaining international peace and security, to hold Israel, the occupying Power, directly responsible for the crimes and terrorism committed by the occupation government and settlers against the defenceless Palestinian people and its property; to call for international human rights law and international humanitarian law to be applied in Palestinian territory and for the perpetrators of such crimes to be referred to the International Criminal Court;

7. To welcome international and Arab efforts aimed at ending the Israeli occupation, particularly the French initiative undertaken in the context of the international ministerial meeting held in Paris on 6 March 2016. The meeting issued a joint statement stressing the need for a comprehensive end to the Israeli occupation that began in 1967; the settlement of all permanent status issues on the basis of Security Council resolutions, particularly resolutions 242 \(1967\) and 338 \(1973\); the importance of implementing the Arab peace initiative and following up the French initiative by holding an international peace conference before the end of 2016 with a view to formulating a multilateral international mechanism to fully end the Israeli occupation of the State of Palestine and the Arab territories occupied since 1967 in accordance with specific time frames to be agreed and implemented. The European Union has welcomed the French initiative and expressed its support for it and for the recent Egyptian efforts to advance the peace process;

8. To call on the members of the Quartet on the Middle East to: review its position and reconsider its report issued on 1 July 2016, much of the content of which is biased towards Israeli positions and equates the occupation authority with the Palestinian people under occupation; comply with the terms of reference of the peace process, United Nations resolutions and international law, and take action on that basis in order to resolve, rather than manage, the conflict; and support the convening of an international peace conference, in accordance with the French initiative, which is aimed at creating a multilateral international mechanism to end the Israeli occupation within a specified time frame;

9. To call on the Group of Arab States at the United Nations and the Arab Republic of Egypt, which is the Arab member of the Security Council, to continue working with international and regional groups and States members in the Security Council to ensure that the Security Council does not endorse the last report of the Quartet;

10. To call for the continuation of Arab efforts approved at the Sharm el-Sheikh summit (26th ordinary session) by resolution 615 of 29 March 2015, to make contacts and hold consultations in order to once again mobilize the international support required for the Security Council to consider a resolution that reaffirms the commitment to the foundations, principles and terms of reference of the Arab Peace Initiative and the principle of the two-State solution, sets a timetable for ending the Israeli occupation of the State of Palestine and achieving a final settlement, and establishes an international monitoring mechanism to ensure that the resolution is implemented faithfully; and to continue consultations to that end with States members of the Security Council and with regional and international groups;

11. To request the reduced Arab Ministerial Committee on ending the Israeli occupation of the territory of the State of Palestine to propose and work for the adoption of a new draft resolution in the Security Council condemning the Israeli colonial settlement in the territory of the occupied State of Palestine;

12. To call on the High Contracting Parties to the Fourth Geneva Convention to assume their responsibilities and enforce compliance with the Convention in the territory of the occupied State of Palestine, including in East Jerusalem, by putting an end to Israeli violations of international humanitarian law and international human rights law; and to also call on the High Contracting Parties to hold a conference that leads to the creation of an international protection system, as a follow-up to the Conference of High Contracting Parties to the Fourth Geneva Convention held on 17 December 2014;

13. To urge the Security Council to adopt a resolution on providing international protection to the Palestinian people, and to implement its relevant resolutions, particularly resolutions 904 (1994) and 605 (1987), which affirmed the applicability of the Fourth Geneva Convention in Palestinian territory and underlined the need to provide international protection in Palestinian territory, including in Jerusalem;

14. To propose the creation of an international protection regime in the territory of the occupied State of Palestine at an emergency special session of the United Nations General Assembly, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 377A(V) (“Uniting for Peace”);

15. To call on the League of Arab States and the Organization of Islamic Cooperation to coordinate and consult with international actors to support the Palestinian leadership’s request for international protection for the Palestinian people; and also to call on them to work with the international community in order to ensure that an international resolution is adopted on providing the Palestinian people with international protection from the illegal measures of and the violations committed the Israeli occupiers and the terrorism perpetrated by occupying Israeli army and the settlers;

16. To denounce the nomination and election of Israel, the occupying Power, to chair the Sixth Committee (Legal) of the United Nations General Assembly on the grounds that Israel, the occupying Power, is not qualified to assume such a post, particularly given that it has a black record of violations of international law, international humanitarian law and United Nations resolutions, and commits daily crimes against the Palestinian people and its land, property and sacred sites;

17. To request the Secretary-General of the League of Arab States, in consultation and coordination with the Secretary-General of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation, to continue taking appropriate measures to ensure that the violations, attacks and crimes committed by Israel against the Palestinian people are monitored and documented, in preparation for taking appropriate legal action; and to call for the convening of further meetings of Arab experts on international law, in order to put in place an appropriate mechanism for taking such action;

18. To support the efforts of the State of Palestine to become a member of international organizations and to accede to international treaties and covenants, as doing so is the legitimate right of the State of Palestine, and to support the request of the State of Palestine to join the International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL);

19. To urge the Prosecutor of International Criminal Court to complete the investigative phase of the cases referred to the Court by the State of Palestine;

20. To reaffirm its categorical and absolute refusal to recognize Israel, the occupying Power, as a Jewish State; to condemn all illegal Israeli measures aimed at changing the demographic and geographical composition of the occupied Palestinian territory, including East Jerusalem; and to warn of the perils of that racist approach and its grave repercussions for the Palestinian people and the region, as it violates all the terms of reference for peace and the spirit of the Arab Peace Initiative;

21. To reject any proposal for the creation of a Palestinian State with provisional borders or the partition of Palestinian territory; to stress that is necessary to respond to Israeli schemes to separate the Gaza Strip from the rest of the State of Palestine; and to warn all parties against persisting with such schemes;

22. To continue to support the resolutions adopted by the Central Council of the Palestine Liberation Organization calling for a review of all Palestinian political, economic and security relations with Israel, the occupying Power, so as to compel Israel to comply with the instruments that it has signed and to respect international law and authoritative international resolutions;

23. To affirm respect for the legitimate Palestinian national authority, led by President Mahmoud Abbas; to praise the efforts of President Abbas to achieve Palestinian national reconciliation; to emphasize the commitment to unified Palestinian representation, in order to preserve the Palestinian people's gains and rights; and to stress that maintaining a unified Palestinian national front under the leadership of the Palestine Liberation Organization, the legitimate and sole representative of the Palestinian people, is the best way to safeguard Palestinian national rights;

24. To urge all Palestinian factions to form a Palestinian national unity Government that is capable of responding to challenges carrying out its duties on the ground; and to further urge them to hold general election in accordance with the agreements concluded by the factions;

25. To condemn the Israeli Government's policy of applying Israeli law to the settlements established on land belonging to Palestinian citizens in the occupied state of Palestine, which implies the annexation of that land; to condemn Israeli efforts to expand the annexation of Area C, which accounts for 60 per cent of the territory of the occupied West Bank; and to warn that continuing work on the illegal El settlement project, the completion of its infrastructure and Israel's intentions and plans for gradual construction, is merely the culmination of a systematic policy aimed at Judaizing East Jerusalem and isolating it from its surroundings, and dividing the West Bank into two separate parts, thereby completely precluding the principle of the two-State solution;

26. To stress that the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA) must continue to fulfil its responsibilities towards the Palestine refugees without reducing its services; to call on States members and donor organizations to assist UNRWA and provide support for its budget;

27. To support the steadfastness of the Palestinians who remained in Palestine after 1948 and their defence of their rights against the provocative and racist policies and laws of the Israeli Government, which have been condemned, against the Palestinian people; and to call for 30 January of each year to be declared an international day of solidarity with the Palestinians who remained in Palestine after 1948;

28. To call for Arab and Islamic governments, parliaments and federations to continue their joint efforts to increase international recognition of the State of Palestine; to call on States that have not recognized it to do so; and to thank all States and parliaments that have recognized the State of Palestine, with East Jerusalem as its capital;

29. To stress that any resumed negotiations aimed at resolving the Arab-Israeli conflict must be based on clear terms of reference and a defined time frame for ending the Israeli occupation of the territory of the State of Palestine, including East Jerusalem, backed by international guarantees;

30. To affirm that it condemns and opposes any State, institutional or corporate policies or positions that violate international law, undermine the principle of the two-State solution and support the Israeli occupation of the State of Palestine; to call on States, institutions or corporations that have adopted such policies or positions to reconsider them; and to stress the need to put in place a mechanism to respond to such policies and positions;

31. To request the Group of Arab States in Geneva to continue urging States and various regional groups to in favour of resolutions concerning Palestine in the Human Rights Council; and to follow up on the implementation of the recommendations contained in the report of the independent commission of inquiry;

32. To commend the efforts of the Committee on the Exercise of the Inalienable Rights of the Palestinian People to declare 2017 the international year to end the Israeli occupation of the State of Palestine, including East Jerusalem, and to call on States members and the Secretariat to work to ensure that the United Nations adopts that initiative;

33. To request the Group of Arab States at the United Nations to continue:

- To follow up on efforts in the Security Council aimed at ensuring that it shoulders its responsibility to maintain international peace and security, end the occupation, and put an end to all unlawful Israeli practices;
- To follow up on efforts to have the Security Council adopt a legally binding resolution that condemns colonialist, expansionist Israeli schemes and settler terrorism, and calls for a halt to all settlement activity;
- To mobilize support in the General Assembly for resolutions concerning the question of Palestine and all other efforts to end the Israeli occupation of all occupied Palestinian and Arab territories;

- To follow up the request of the State of Palestine to be granted full membership in the United Nations;
- To call on the United Nations to continue documenting the rights and property of refugees in the historic land of Palestine, and preserving and updating such records, including land registries, in order to ensure a just solution to the plight of the refugees in accordance with General Assembly resolution 194 (III);
- To call on the United Nations to fulfil its responsibilities and take the measures required, through an appropriate mechanism, to prevent the disposal of the property of Palestine refugees in the territory of Palestine that was occupied in 1948, as any such disposal is null, void and illegal.

*(Summit resolution 641 — 27th ordinary session — 25 July 2016)**

3. 4. 9. To condemn continued Israeli measures to enforce a racist law targeting the right of Palestinian Jerusalemites to reside in Jerusalem; condemn Israel's withdrawal of Israeli identity cards from thousands of Jerusalemites who live inside and outside the suburbs of Jerusalem; and call upon all international institutions to pressure Israel, the occupying Power, to discontinue its racist decisions and laws, which empty Jerusalem of its Palestinian inhabitants by imposing high taxes, destroying homes and refusing to grant construction permits;

10. To call on the United Nations, Security Council and Human Rights Council to ensure that Israel, the occupying Power, honours the Fourth Geneva Convention and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and facilitates visits by residents of the occupied Syrian Arab Golan to their families and relatives in the mother country Syria through the Qunaytirah crossing under the supervision of the International Committee of the Red Cross;

9. To condemn the Israeli occupation forces' practices and provocations in the Syrian Arab Golan, including the hostile, escalatory and irresponsible statements made recently by the Israeli prime minister concerning the occupied Syrian Arab Golan; to condemn the Israeli occupation Government's holding of meetings in the Golan Heights; to emphasize that such meetings are an escalation that violates the rules of international law and relevant United Nations resolutions, as well as a blatant challenge to the will of the international community and Security Council resolution 497 \(1981\), which most clearly regards the imposition by Israel of its laws, authorities and will in the occupied Syrian Arab Golan Heights as null and void and having no legal effect. In addition, these measures are a flagrant violation of Security Council resolutions 242 \(1967\) and 338 \(1973\), the recent relevant resolutions of the United Nations General Assembly and the advisory opinion issued by the International Court of Justice in 2004 in this regard. Moreover, they directly threaten international peace and security and thwart all international plans and efforts aimed at achieving a permanent, just, comprehensive peace in the region;

10. To call on Israel, the occupying Power, to immediately release from Israeli prisons and detention centres, all Syrian prisoners, some of whom have been detained for more than 29 years, and to treat them in a manner consistent with international humanitarian law; to call on the international community and human rights organizations and agencies to expose Israeli violations of the rights of imprisoned residents of the Golan, condemn Israeli practices, pressure Israel, the occupying Power, to permit the representatives of the international Committee of the Red Cross to visit the Arab Syrian prisoners in Israeli detention centres accompanied by physicians to ascertain the prisoners' physical and mental health and protect their lives, and to regard the continued detention of these prisoners as a blatant violation of United Nations resolutions, international humanitarian law and the most basic human rights principles;

11. To endorse successive United Nations resolutions, the most recent of which is General Assembly resolution 70/17, adopted on 25 November 2016, which stresses the illegality of Israeli settlement activity and other Israeli activities in the occupied Syrian Golan since 1967;

12. To demand that Israel, the occupying Power, comply with the above-mentioned General Assembly resolution, which reaffirms the Assembly's determination that all relevant provisions of the Regulations annexed to the Hague Convention (IV) of 1907 and the Geneva Convention Relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War continue to apply to the Syrian territory occupied by Israel since 1967, and calls on to the parties thereto to respect and ensure respect for their obligations under those instruments, in all circumstances;

13. To urge the international community to remain committed to United Nations resolutions that reject Israeli settlement activity in the occupied Syrian Arab Golan by condemning the practices of the Israeli Government, which seeks to attract thousands of Israeli families to settle on the occupied Syrian Arab Golan, most recently through a settlement campaign mounted by the so-called Golan Regional Council under the slogan, "Come to the Golan", which is currently referred to as the "farms project"; call upon Israel to desist from changing the physical character, demographic composition, institutional structure and legal status of the occupied Syrian Golan; and stress the need to allow the displaced persons of the population of the occupied Syrian Golan to return to their homes and to recover their property;

14. To condemn the Israeli Government's policy, which has destroyed the peace process and led to steadily escalating tension in the region; to call on the international community to compel Israel, the occupying Power, to apply United Nations resolutions concerning Israel's full withdrawal from the occupied Syrian Arab Golan and all occupied Arab territories to the 4 June 1967 borders.

Decides

To reaffirm full solidarity with Lebanon; to provide political and economic support to Lebanon and its constitutional institutions, in order to safeguard Lebanese national unity and Lebanon's security, stability and sovereignty over its entire territory; to emphasize the right of the Lebanese people to liberate or recover the Lebanese Shab'a Farms, the hills of Kafr Shuba and the Lebanese portion of the town of Ghajar; to uphold their right to use legitimate means to resist any aggression; and to emphasize the need to distinguish between terrorism and legitimate resistance against Israeli occupation, the latter being a right enshrined in international instruments and the principles of international law, and therefore cannot be considered an act of terrorism;

2. To support Lebanon's call on the international community to implement Security Council resolution 1701 (2006), which is based on resolutions 425 (1978) and 426 (1978), by putting a definitive end to Israel's violations and constant threats against Lebanon and its civilian facilities and infrastructure;

3. To welcome and endorse the conclusions adopted by the successive meetings of the International Support Group for Lebanon, the most recent of which was held on the margins of the seventieth session of the General Assembly of the United Nations on 30 September 2015;

4. To commend the national role of the Lebanese Army and security forces in maintaining domestic stability and peace and supporting efforts to extend the sovereignty of the Lebanese State as far as its internationally recognized borders; to commend the sacrifices made by the Lebanese Army in its fight against terrorism and terrorist and takfirist organizations, particularly those mentioned in Security Council resolution 2170 (2014); to condemn the reprehensible attacks against several areas of Lebanon; to welcome the assistance provided to Lebanon by friendly countries, particularly the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia; to urge all States to strengthen the capacity of the Lebanese Army to fulfil its responsibilities, as it is the cornerstone of security, stability and civil peace in Lebanon; and to condemn the abduction of Lebanese soldiers by terrorist organizations in August 2014 and demand their release in order to thwart the schemes of those wishing to ignite domestic and regional strife;

5. To condemn all of the terrorist acts, armed deployments and terrorist bombings that have targeted several areas of Lebanon, killing many innocent civilians; to reject all futile attempts to sow discord, undermine the foundations of coexistence, civil peace and national unity and disrupt security and stability; to emphasize the need to combat extremism, fanaticism, takfirism, sectarianism and interference in the internal affairs of Lebanon; to cooperate and coordinate fully in order to counter and eradicate terrorism, and eliminate its sources of funding; to cooperate in sharing information and expertise, and building capacity; and holding accountable the perpetrators of terrorist acts and crimes against humanity and those who incite violent and destructive acts and sectarianism, which endanger peace and security, and to tighten sanctions against them and take preventive measures in that regard;

6. To support the steadfast resistance of Lebanon to the ongoing Israeli aggression, including, in particular, the July 2006 aggression; to pray for God's mercy on the souls of the Lebanese victims; to stress that the Lebanese people's cohesion and unity in confronting and resisting the Israeli aggression are a guarantee of the country's future, security and stability; to characterize Israeli crimes as war crimes whose perpetrators must be prosecuted; to hold Israel fully responsible for its attacks and to compel it to compensate the Lebanese Republic and its citizens; to welcome United Nations General Assembly resolutions concerning the oil slick on Lebanese shores, the most recent of which is resolution 70/194 of December 2015, which requires Israel to provide financial compensation for the damage caused to Lebanon when Israel bombed the Jiyeh electric power plant during the July 2006 war;

7. To condemn Israeli land, sea and air violations of Lebanese sovereignty, including:

- The Israeli penetration of Lebanese society through the planting of agents and propagation of espionage networks;
- Israeli violations of Lebanon's sovereign and economic rights in its territorial waters and exclusive economic zone and its oil and gas resources located in its maritime areas;
- The all-out electronic warfare that Israel is waging against the Lebanese Republic, as evidenced by the noticeable increase in the number of towers, antennas and devices for observation, spying and surveillance, all of which are intended for piracy and espionage against all Lebanese communication and data networks;
- Israel's refusal to hand over complete, accurate information and maps pertaining to the locations of all unexploded ordnance, including the quantity and the types of cluster bombs that it dropped indiscriminately on populated civilian areas during its attack on Lebanon in the summer of 2006;

8. To underscore the following points:

- There is a need to safeguard Lebanon's unique pluralistic formula, which is based on equality between Muslims and Christians, religious coexistence, dialogue, tolerance and mutual acceptance; to condemn its diametric antithesis, namely, such nihilist terrorist organizations as Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant and the Nusrah Front, whose crimes against humanity mimic Israel's exclusionary policies based on the Jewish character of the State and its hostile actions against Arab Muslims and Christians;

- The Lebanese Government must be supported in its policy of promoting Lebanon's Arab and international presence and spreading its message of cultural diversity, particularly in confronting Israel; minorities must remain indigenous and fundamental components of the social fabric of the States in the region; minority rights must be safeguarded and attacks against minorities prevented; and crimes committed against minorities must be characterized as crimes against humanity;

- The Lebanese Government complies with the authoritative international resolutions and is striving to uncover the truth regarding the assassination of the late Lebanese Prime Minister Rafiq Hariri and members of his entourage, and it is doing so without politicization or reprisal and in a manner that would not adversely affect the stability, unity and civil peace of Lebanon;
- The Lebanese Government must be supported in its efforts to follow up on the disappearance of Imam Musa al-Sadr and his two associates, Sheikh Muhammad Ya'qub and the journalist Abbas Badrudin, in order to free them, to hold accountable officials of the former Libyan regime, and to close the case;

9. To welcome the following:

- The efforts of the Lebanese Government and people, despite the country's limited resources, to host displaced Syrians; to emphasize the need to assist Lebanon in that regard, to share the burden, including the numbers of refugees involved, and to stem the growth of the problem; to emphasize that the presence of those displaced persons in Lebanon is temporary, in the light of the existential threat that it poses to the country; to make every effort to ensure that they return to their homes as soon as possible; to commend the Lebanese Government's intensive efforts to reduce the number of displaced Syrians in Lebanon and to guarantee the security of both Lebanese and Syrians; and to reduce the burden borne by the Lebanese people and its economy, as Lebanon finds itself on the brink of a social, economic and security cataclysm that endangers its very existence;
- The initiative taken by Lebanon to appeal to the International Criminal Court prosecutor to bring charges in respect of Israel's war crimes in Gaza and the ongoing crimes against humanity committed by terrorists in Iraq;

12. To request the League of Arab States to intensify consultations and enhance coordination with the Organization of Islamic Cooperation and the relevant United Nations agencies in respect of humanitarian relief and distribution of relief assistance in Somalia; and to request Arab States and the Secretariat to provide the necessary material and technical support to help the Somali Government meet the growing humanitarian needs of Yemeni refugees arriving in Somalia and of Somalis returning home from Kenya and Yemen;

13. To support the Somali Government's efforts to combat illegal fishing in Somali waters and the dumping of toxic waste on Somali coasts, both of which are crimes that endanger the health of Somali citizens, hinder the Somali people's access to their natural resources and affect the safety of the coastlines of several Arab States that border the Gulf of Aden and the Red Sea;

14. To condemn the piracy off the coast of Somalia and in Gulf of Aden; to strengthen Arab cooperation to combat piracy; to work with ongoing international efforts to combat piracy and bring to trial its perpetrators; to reject any attempts to internationalize the Red Sea region; and to strengthen Arab cooperation to achieve security in the Red Sea and Gulf of Aden, taking into account the responsibility of the Arab States that border the Red Sea to secure their coasts;

Item 13 — The occupation by Iran of the three Arab islands in the Arabian Gulf belonging to the United Arab Emirates: the Greater Tunb, the Lesser Tunb and Abu Musa (resolution 651)

The Council of the League at the summit level,

Having considered:

- The note of the Secretariat,
- The report of the Secretary-General on joint Arab action,

Guided by previous summit resolutions, the most recent of which was resolution 627 (26th ordinary session, Sharm el-Sheikh, 29 March 2015), regarding the occupation by Iran of the three Arab islands in the Arabian Gulf belonging to the United Arab Emirates: the Greater Tunb, the Lesser Tunb and Abu Musa,

Reaffirming the communiqués issued and the resolutions adopted on the same matter by the Council at the ministerial level, the most recent of which was resolution 8010 (145th ordinary session) of 11 March 2016,

Decides

1. To reaffirm without qualification the absolute sovereignty of the United Arab Emirates over its three islands of the Greater Tunb, the Lesser Tunb and Abu Musa and to support all peaceful measures and means adopted by the United Arab Emirates to regain its sovereignty over the occupied islands;

2. To denounce the continued consolidation by the Iranian Government of its occupation of the three islands and its violation of the sovereignty of the United Arab Emirates, which can only undermine security and stability in the region and pose a threat to international peace and security;

3. To condemn the building by the Iranian Government of housing facilities in which to settle Iranians on the three occupied United Arab Emirates islands;

4. To condemn the Iranian military manoeuvres being conducted also on the three occupied islands of the United Arab Emirates, namely, the Greater Tunb, the Lesser Tunb and Abu Musa, and in those islands' territorial waters, airspace, continental shelf and exclusive economic zone, which constitute an inseparable part of the United Arab Emirates; and to request Iran to desist from such violations and acts of provocation, which constitute interference in the internal affairs of an independent, sovereign State; do not promote confidence-building; threaten security and stability in the region; and endanger the security and safety of regional and international navigation in the Arabian Gulf;

5. To condemn the opening by Iran of two offices on the island of Abu Musa, which belongs to the United Arab Emirates, and to call upon Iran to close down those illegitimate facilities and respect the sovereignty of the United Arab Emirates over its territory;

6. To denounce and condemn the planned fact-finding visit of the members of the National Security and Foreign Policy Committee of the Iranian Consultative Assembly to the occupied islands belonging to the United Arab Emirates, namely, the Greater Tunb, the Lesser Tunb and Abu Musa, an act that would violate the sovereignty of the United Arab Emirates over its territory and would be inconsistent with attempts to find a peaceful settlement; and to call upon Iran to desist from taking such provocative steps;

7. To commend the United Arab Emirates on its initiative to find a peaceful and just settlement to the issue of the three occupied islands (the Greater Tunb, the Lesser Tunb and Abu Musa) with the Islamic Republic of Iran;

8. To appeal once again to the Iranian Government to end its occupation of the three islands of the United Arab Emirates, refrain from trying to impose a fait accompli by force, desist from establishing any installations there for the purpose of modifying the islands' demographic composition, revoke all measures unilaterally taken and remove all installations built by Iran on the three Arab islands, inasmuch as such measures and claims are null and void, lack any legal effect, do not detract from the established right of the United Arab Emirates over its three islands and are acts that run counter to the provisions of international law and the Geneva Conventions of 1949; and to call upon the Iranian Government to adopt peaceful means for resolving the existing dispute over them in accordance with the principles and norms of international law, including agreement to refer the matter to the International Court of Justice;

9. To express the hope that the Islamic Republic of Iran will reconsider its position of rejecting the effort to find a peaceful solution to the question of the three occupied islands of the United Arab Emirates either through direct, earnest negotiations or through recourse to the International Court of Justice;

10. To call upon Iran to translate its stated desire for improved relations with the Arab countries and for dialogue and détente into practical measures, both in word and in deed, in the form of a genuine response to the earnest appeals launched by His Highness Sheikh Khalifa Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, President of the United Arab Emirates, and by the States members of the Gulf Cooperation Council, the Arab States, international groups, friendly nations and the Secretary-General of the United Nations, calling for a solution to the dispute over the three occupied islands by peaceful means in accordance with customary practice and the covenants and rules of international law, either through direct, earnest negotiations or through recourse to the International Court of Justice, with a view to building trust and enhancing security and stability in the Arabian Gulf region;

11. To have all Arab States undertake, in their contacts with Iran, to raise the issue of that country's occupation of the three islands and stress the need to end it, based on the fact that the three islands are occupied Arab territory;

12. To inform the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the President of the Security Council of the importance of maintaining the issue on the list of matters of which the Security Council is seized until Iran ends its occupation of the three Arab islands and the United Arab Emirates regains full sovereignty over them;

13. To request the Secretary-General of the League to follow up this matter and report to the Council of the League at its next session.

(Summit resolution 651 — 27th ordinary session — 25 July 2016)

Item 14 — Iranian interference in the internal affairs of Arab States (resolution 652)

The Council of the League at the ministerial level,

Having considered:

- The note of the Secretariat,
- The report of the Secretary-General on joint Arab action,

Recalling its previous communiqués and resolutions on the topic, the most recent of which is resolution 8011 (11 March 2016),

Mindful of the discussions that took place at the third meeting of the quadripartite Arab ministerial committee tasked with following up on the crisis with Iran and means of responding to Iran's interference in the internal affairs of Arab States, which was held in Nouakchott on 23 July 2016,

Mindful of the statements made by the heads of the delegations and the Secretary-General,

Decides

1. To emphasize that cooperative relations between Arab States and the Islamic Republic of Iran must be based on the principle good-neighbourly relations, and that the parties must refrain from the use or threat of force; to denounce Iranian interference in the internal affairs of Arab States, as that is a violation of the norms of international law and the principles of good-neighbourly relations and State sovereignty; and call on the Islamic Republic of Iran to refrain from taking provocative actions that undermine confidence-building and threaten security and stability in the region;

2. To reaffirm that it condemns the breach of the inviolability of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia in Tehran and its Consulate General in Mashhad, holds the Islamic Republic of Iran responsible for those incidents, and demands that Iran comply with the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations (1961) and the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations (1963); to emphasize that the perpetrators and those responsible for those blatant, disgraceful attacks must be brought to justice in a public trial;

3. To demand that the Iranian Government immediately cease granting asylum and shelter to persons convicted of acts of terror and members of terrorist groups, and to demand that it extradite such persons immediately to the competent authorities in the Kingdom of Bahrain;

4. To deplore and condemn the hostile and inflammatory statements that Iranian officials continue to make against Arab States, and to call on the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran to cease making hostile statements or taking provocative actions and to halt media campaigns against Arab States, as such conduct is blatant interference in the internal affairs of those States;

5. To call upon the Iranian Government to desist from its policies that kindle sectarian conflicts and refrain from supporting groups that fuel such conflicts in the States of the Arabian Gulf; and to call upon the Iranian Government to stop supporting and financing armed parties and militias in Arab States;

6. To condemn Iran's ongoing occupation of the three islands of the United Arab Emirates (Greater Tunb, Lesser Tunb and Abu Musa); to reaffirm categorically that the United Arab Emirates has full sovereignty over the islands; and to express its support for all peaceful means and measures chosen by the United Arab Emirates to restore its sovereignty over the islands which, according to international law, are under occupation;

7. To condemn and denounce Iran's ongoing interference in the internal affairs of the Kingdom of Bahrain by supporting terrorism, training terrorists and smuggling arms and explosives; provoking sectarian strife; making statements at various levels to undermine security, order and stability; and establishing terrorist groups in Bahrain that are financed and trained by the so-called Iranian Revolutionary Guard and the terrorist Hizbullah party. Such conduct is contrary to the principles of good-neighbourly relations and non-interference in internal affairs set out in the Charter of the United Nations and prescribed by international law;

8. To commend the efforts of the security services of the Kingdom of Bahrain, which were able to thwart a terrorist plan in January 2016 and arrest the members of the terrorist organization that was meant to carry out the plan. That organization, which is supported by the so-called Iranian Revolutionary Guard and the terrorist Hizbullah party, was planning to commit a series of grave terrorist acts throughout Bahrain;

9. To denounce Iran's intervention in the Syrian crisis, which has had serious repercussions for the future of Syria and its sovereignty, security, stability, national unity and territorial integrity, and to emphasize that such intervention is detrimental to efforts to resolve the Syrian crisis through peaceful means in accordance with the Geneva Communiqué;

10. To denounce Iran's intervention in the internal affairs of Yemen and its backing of forces opposed to the legitimate Government of Yemen, a stance that has affected the security and stability of Yemen, neighbouring countries and the region as a whole;

11. To request the Secretary-General to continue coordinating with the Foreign Ministers of the quadripartite Arab committee composed of the United Arab Emirates (Chair), Bahrain, Saudi Arabia and Egypt, with a view to developing an Arab action plan to respond to Iranian interventions in the Arab region; mobilizing international support for Arab opposition to Iran's interventions in the Arab region and to mobilize international support for the Arab stance against such interventions;

12. To include an item entitled "Iranian interventions in the internal affairs of Arab States" on the agendas of Arab platforms of cooperation with international and regional groupings;

13. To include an item entitled "Iranian interventions in the internal affairs of Arab States" on the agenda of twenty-seventh session of the Council of the League at the summit level;

*(Summit resolution 65* — 127th ordinary session — 25 July 2016)*

Item 15 — Arab position on the violation by Turkish forces of the sovereignty of Iraq (resolution 653)

The Council of the League of Arab States, at the summit level

Having considered:

- The note of the Secretariat,

- * – The Republic of Iraq expresses the following reservation to the resolution on Iranian intervention in the domestic affairs of the Arab States, which was adopted by the League Council at the ministerial level at its 145th session on 11 March 2016, as follows:
1. Iraq expresses its reservations regarding the title of the resolution.
  2. Iraq completely rejects paragraph 6 and 7 of the resolution because it supports the honourable national opposition, namely, the Lebanese Hizbullah party, which is part of the Lebanese Government that represents the Lebanese people.
- Lebanon expresses its reservations regarding paragraphs 7 and 8, because they refer to Hizbullah as a terrorist party. This designation is unacceptable because it is not sanctioned by the United Nations and is contrary to the Arab Convention on the Suppression of Terrorism, particularly in view of the distinction made between resistance and terrorism. Hizbullah is a key player in Lebanon and represents a large number of Lebanese. It also has substantial representation in Parliament, the ministries and the constitutional institutions of Lebanon. We support the other paragraphs of the resolution, although some of them infringe on the policy of disassociation adopted by the Lebanese Government. In particular, Lebanon supports paragraph 2, which condemns the attacks against the Saudi missions in Iran. Lebanon condemns any intervention in the domestic affairs of the Arab countries. We condemn any intervention in the internal affairs of Arab States. We have requested that the phrase “terrorist Hizbullah party” should be deleted from both paragraphs, so that we might be able to endorse the entire resolution without any reservations.
- In order to confront the mounting threat posed by terrorist organizations, Algeria calls for the international community to coordinate its efforts to combat such organizations in the context of the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy and on the basis of common goals. The international community should also follow the rules of international law, particularly by adhering to United Nations bulletins and lists with regard to the designation of terrorist groups, which do not include political parties that are recognized at the national and international levels, and that contribute to national political and social life. All actors, whether Governments or parties, must refrain from interfering in the internal affairs of States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations.
- Comment made by the Tunisian Republic: regarding paragraphs 7 and 8 of the resolution, Tunisia recalls the following position, which it expressed at the meeting of the Council of the League at its 145th ordinary session in March 2016:
- All forms of intervention in the internal affairs of States, and all practices that threaten regional security and stability, must be rejected. Tunisia is concerned for the security of the Gulf States. It calls upon all parties to resolve disputes through dialogue and peaceful means and to foster the values of good neighbourliness and peaceful coexistence.
  - The fact that Hizbullah has helped liberate a part of Lebanese territory from the Israeli occupation does not entitle it, or any other party, to take any actions that could undermine security and stability in the region.
  - The United Arab Emirates expresses a reservation to this resolution.
  - The Kingdom of Bahrain expresses a reservation to this resolution.
  - The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia expresses a reservation to this resolution.
  - The state of Qatar expresses a reservation to this resolution.

- The report of the Secretary-General on joint Arab action,
- Resolution 7987 of the Council of the League at the ministerial level (extraordinary session), dated 24 December 2015,
- The letter dated 29 December 2015 from the Secretary-General of the League of Arab States, Nabil Elaraby, addressed to the President of the Security Council, Samantha Power,
- The note from the delegation of the Republic of Iraq No. 3/jim/4/3266 dated 27 June 2016,

Decides

1. To reaffirm the provisions of resolution 7987 of the Council of the League at the ministerial level, adopted on 24 December 2015, condemning the incursion of Turkish forces into Iraqi territory, which is a violation of Iraqi sovereignty and a threat to Arab security, and demanding that the Turkish Government withdraw its forces immediately and unconditionally;

2. To call on the States members of the League, in accordance with the principle governing bilateral relations, to request the Turkish Government to withdraw its forces from Iraqi territory in implementation of resolution 7987 of the Council of the League, adopted at its extraordinary session of 24 December 2015, and to raise the matter in its communications with States members;

3. To call on States members to request the Turkish Government to refrain from interfering in the internal affairs of Iraq and to stop taking such provocative actions, which undermine confidence-building and threaten the security and stability of the region;

4. To reiterate its support for the Iraqi Government in any measures it may take in accordance with the relevant principles of international law to ensure that the Turkish Government withdraws its forces from Iraqi territory, with a view to consolidating the sovereignty of the Government of Iraq over its entire territory;

5. To approve the addition of a standing agenda item entitled “Incursion of Turkish forces into Iraqi territory and halting Turkish interference in neighbouring Arab countries” to the agenda of the Council of the League of Arab States at the summit level until such time as those forces have fully withdrawn;

6. To request that the Secretary-General of the League continue to follow up on the implementation of resolution 7987 of the Council of the League, adopted at the extraordinary session of 24 December 2015, and to submit a detailed report to the Council at its next ordinary session;

7. To reiterate that the Arab member of the Security Council, the Arab Republic of Egypt, should continue to press for the withdrawal of Turkish forces from Iraqi territory and take all necessary measures until such time as those forces have fully withdrawn.

Item 16 — Maintenance of Arab national security and counter-terrorism (resolution 654)

The Council of the League at the summit level,

Having considered:

- The recommendation of the second meeting of the Follow-Up Committee for the Implementation of Resolutions and Commitments at the ministerial level held in Nouakchott on 23 July 2016,

Reaffirming the Council's commitment to maintaining Arab national security and combating all terrorist organizations, groups and movements and violent extremism through collective Arab action at the political, security, defence, ideological, judicial and media levels,

Reaffirming the need to strengthen Arab national security, combat terrorism and adopt all measures and actions needed to preserve the national independence of Arab States and restore their security, peace and stability,

Convinced of the need for a political solution to the armed conflicts taking place in several Arab States in order to realize their peoples' aspirations for freedom, dignity and social justice, and uphold the rule of law and justice that underpin the equal right of all citizens to participate in political life,

Inspired by the principles of Arab solidarity and the need for collective action to address dangers and threats in the Arab region, eradicate and defeat terrorist organizations and restore security, domestic peace and stability,

Recalling the relevant resolutions of the League of Arab States, particularly resolution 628, the declaration of the Sharm el-Sheikh summit and resolutions 7804, 8018 and 8019 of the Council of the League at the ministerial level,

Decides

1. To request the Secretary-General, in coordination with the Chair of the summit and the Arab summit troika, to continue consultations with the States members to implement resolution 628 of the Council of the League at the ministerial level (29 March 2015), which provides for the establishment of a joint Arab force;
2. To strongly condemn the criminal operations of Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL), al-Qaeda and other armed, extremist groups and movements that promote religious, sectarian or ethnic slogans to incite violence, extremism and terrorism; to condemn terrorism in all its forms and manifestations as an attack on all countries without exception; and to oppose all forms of extremism and violent currents;

To strengthen communication and coordination with various national, regional and international initiatives and efforts to combat and eliminate terrorism and its causes; to implement international conventions on the combating of terrorism; to strengthen coordination among the Arab States and with the international community, both States and organizations, to dry up the sources for the financing of terrorism and terrorism organizations;

8. To firmly condemn the acts of terror perpetrated by the terrorist organization ISIL, particularly its use of mustard gas projectiles to bombard the district of Tazah in the Republic of Iraq; and to call on Arab and international organizations to provide all forms of assistance to alleviate the effects of that terrorist act, particularly by providing medical assistance for persons who were critically injured in the attack;

9. To underscore that the Council of Arab Ministers for the Interior has an important role to play in combating terrorism and violent extremism, particularly in the light of its considerable efforts to combat terrorism organizations, movements and groups; and to provide the necessary support for its efforts;

10. To re-evaluate and update strategies and conventions aimed at combating terrorism and extremist groups in accordance with developments in the activities of the criminal groups; to create a reliable integrated legal and security system to eradicate terrorism;

11. To welcome all national initiatives of the States members and the outcomes of the conferences and seminars that they have held on combating terrorist organizations and extremism, and to promote those outcomes with a view to eradicating terrorism. In particular, the Council decides:

- To reaffirm the importance of World Interfaith Harmony Week, which was adopted by the United Nations General Assembly in a resolution which it adopted by a consensus based on the initiative and proposal of His Highness King Abdullah II ibn Al-Hussein of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan in 2012, and Jordan's other initiatives, including the Amman Message, which enshrines the principles of tolerance, moderation, peaceful coexistence, and A Common Word;

The Council of the League of Arab States at the summit level, at its 27th ordinary session, followed with great concern the abduction of a number of Qatari citizens in Iraq, who had entered Iraq with official permission from the Iraqi Ministry of Interior in coordination with the Iraqi Embassy in Qatar.

The Council emphasizes that, by carrying out this act of terrorism, the kidnappers have blatantly violated international law, human rights, Islamic law and the bonds of brotherhood among Arabs.

The Council emphasizes its full solidarity with the Qatari Government regarding any legal measure which it adopts. The Council expresses its hope that the contacts being held by the Qatari Government with the Iraqi Government will result in the release of the abductees and their safe return to their country. The Council calls upon the Iraqi Government to bear responsibility for the safety and release of the abductees.

Nouakchott Declaration (Summit 27 (16/07)/31 — Declaration) (0300))

We, the leaders of the Arab States, meeting in the 27th session of the Council of the League of Arab States at the summit level on 20 Shawwal 1437 corresponding to 25 July 2016 in Nouakchott, the capital of the Islamic Republic of Mauritania:

Reaffirming the principles and objectives contained in the Charter of the League and subsequent treaties and protocols,

Determined to realize and give effect to such principles and objectives so as to serve and strengthen inter-Arab relations and bonds based on Arab solidarity and the supreme interests of the nation,

Mindful of our historical responsibilities to our Arab countries and desiring to keep pace with the aspirations of the Arab people, maintain basic freedoms and consolidate democratic values, justice and equality to build societies capable of remaining steadfast in the face of contemporary global challenges,

Inspired by the resolutions of the Arab summit held in Sharm el-Sheikh in the Arab Republic of Egypt during 28-29 March 2015, which emphasize the importance of examining the challenges facing Arab national security and the need to adopt the necessary measures to deal with these challenges in order to maintain the unity and territorial integrity of the Arab States,

Having assessed the current conditions of the Arab world from the perspective of the fundamental changes and events that have occurred in the Arab region in recent years and the enormous challenges which they pose to the structure of the Arab regional order,

Having reviewed the options for defining the strategic approaches for establishing a new course in joint Arab action that strengthens inter-Arab relations and opens broader horizons for Arab-African cooperation based on an interest in establishing an “Arab Neighbourhood Zone” that protects Arab national security and helps counter terrorism,

Declare

1. We are committed to pursuing the most effective practical ways for addressing the threats and dangers facing Arab national security by developing mechanisms for combating terrorism and strengthening Arab security and peace by disseminating the values of peace, moderation and dialogue and renouncing the culture of extremism, sowing of discord and stirring up of hatred to enable the Arab societies to defend themselves and maintain their cohesion and independence as a path towards a safe, prosperous Arab future.

2. We reaffirm the centrality of the Palestinian issue in our joint Arab action, continued support of the resilience of the Palestinian people in the face of systematic Israeli aggression and the dedication of all efforts to achieving a comprehensive, just permanent solution based on the Arab peace initiative, Madrid principles, rules of international law and relevant United Nations resolutions. In this context, we welcome recent Egyptian efforts to promote the peace process. We also welcome the French initiative, which calls for holding an international peace conference to pave the way for: the halting of all Israeli settlement activity to thereby guarantee the right of the Palestinian people to establish, according to a specific timetable, its independent state within the 4 June 1967 borders with its capital in East Jerusalem and with full sovereignty over its airspace, territorial waters and international borders; a just solution for the issue of refugees; the lifting of the Israeli blockade on the Gaza Strip; the release of all Palestinian prisoners; and the halting of attacks on al-Aqsa Mosque and Israeli actions intended to Judaize East Jerusalem. We call upon the international community to implement United Nations resolutions enjoining the end of the Israeli occupation and the withdrawal of Israel from the occupied Arab territories, including the Syrian Arab Golan, to the 4 June 1967 borders and from the occupied lands in south Lebanon. We call upon the international community, including the Security Council, to assume its responsibilities to end the occupation and provide international protection for the Palestinian people. We commend the efforts of the Committee on the Exercise of the Inalienable Rights of the Palestinian People to declare 2017 the international year to end the Israeli occupation of the State of Palestine, including East Jerusalem. We urge the States members and Secretariat to take action to ensure that the United Nations adopts this initiative.

3. We are firmly convinced of the need to enhance the bonds of brotherhood and Arab cohesion based on unity of purpose and destiny, develop inter-Arab relations, move beyond existing disputes and establish a structure for Arab action that takes into account the current changes and the aspirations of the Arab people based on a commitment to address Arab conflicts through amicable means, achieve national reconciliation and settle temporary differences to preclude any pretext for foreign intervention in and encroachment on the domestic affairs of the Arab States. Accordingly, we call on the parties in Libya to make urgent efforts to complete the rebuilding of the Government and to oppose the terrorist groups. We call on the Libyan House of Representatives to complete the actions needed to approve a National Reconciliation Government. We also affirm our support for the legitimate Government of Yemen, as represented by His Excellency President Abdrabuh Mansur Hadi, and our support for the continuation of consultations in Kuwait with a view towards producing positive results based on the terms of reference in Security Council resolution 2216, other relevant Security Council resolutions, the initiative and executive mechanisms of the Cooperation Council for the Arab States of the Gulf, and the outcomes of the Yemeni National Dialogue Conference so as to preserve the unity of Yemeni state institutions and the unity and territorial integrity of Yemen. In the same context, we hope that the brothers in Syria will reach a political solution that is based on the preservation of Syrian unity and that maintains the country's independence and the dignity of its people according to the Geneva Communiqué of 30 June 2012, the declarations of the International Syria Support Group and relevant Security Council resolutions. We support Iraq in respect of the preservation of its unity and territorial integrity, its confrontation with terrorist groups and its efforts to liberate its territory from the terrorist organization ISIL. We welcome the progress that has been made in the Somali national reconciliation and rebuilding of state institutions. We affirm our solidarity with the Republic of the Sudan in its efforts to strengthen peace and development throughout the Sudan and to maintain its national sovereignty. We welcome the national dialogue process that is ongoing. We welcome the ongoing efforts to promote the Sudan Arab Food Security Initiative as a foundation of Arab national security. We hope the International Arab Conference on Reconstruction and Development in the Sudan scheduled for 2017 will achieve its desired objective.

4. We reject foreign intervention in the internal affairs of the Arab States, particularly Iranian interventions, which threaten Arab national security.

5. We firmly desire to create an environment that is resistant to extremism by consolidating democracy, good governance and respect for human rights; expanding the participation of women and promoting youth to harness their energies, capabilities and vitality to promote Arab societies and assume decision-making posts to enhance their role and involvement in society; and fortifying youth with knowledge and awareness to prevent them from falling into the trap of organizations involved in violence and illegal immigration.

6. We seek to consolidate the values of solidarity and interdependence among the Arab States, support human capacities, cultivate Arab scientists and dedicate concern to Arab labour to enable it to take advantage of the lion's share of job opportunities in the Arab world to thereby strengthen the bonds of brotherhood and maintain our identity and cultural and civilizational foundations.

7. We are resolved to maintain our cultural unity and commitment to literary Arabic as a symbol of Arab identity and a receptacle of Arab thought and culture, and to promote and develop the Arabic language by enacting national legislation that protects it, preserves its heritage, enables it to absorb modern science and technology and thereby contribute to the scientific revolution and digital society, and diffuses the Arabic language regionally to buttress the Arab culture and civilization. We are also resolved to strengthen the international status of the Arabic language to enrich world cultures and human civilization.

8. We shall act to develop and expand the content of the Joint Arab Action System and mechanisms, request joint Arab institutions to develop the operating methods of the Joint Arab Action System, expedite the implementation of existing Arab integration projects, expand opportunities for investments among the Arab States, create mechanisms to help the least developed Arab countries rehabilitate their economies, channel Arab investments in the public and private sectors towards the promotion of small and medium enterprises that target youth, promote the green economy to achieve sustainable development and reduce environmental risks according to the terms of reference of the Paris Climate Change Conference (2015). We call upon all Arab States to participate effectively in the 22nd session of the Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, which will be hosted by the Kingdom of Morocco in Marrakesh in November 2016.

9. We support Arab and international humanitarian relief efforts to provide urgent aid to those who have been made refugees and have been displaced by wars and conflicts, develop Arab humanitarian and relief work mechanisms, introduce the necessary mechanisms within the Arab system to meet the urgent humanitarian needs and help affected persons and the countries hosting them.

10. We renew our call to compel Israel to join the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and subject its nuclear installations and programmes to international supervision and the comprehensive safeguards regime. We request the Arab ministers for foreign affairs to review various nuclear and WMD disarmament issues and to study all available alternatives for safeguarding Arab national security and regional security. We emphasize the need to make the Middle East region free of weapons of mass destruction.

11. We call for the strengthening of cooperation and partnerships between the League of Arab States and emerging states and regional and international blocks and organizations in forums and institutional frameworks, particularly, Arab-African cooperation, which constitutes a key strategic dimension. We call for the building of effective partnerships that achieve the interests of all parties and contribute to the flourishing of international cooperation. In this regard, we welcome the holding of the fourth session of the Arab-African summit in Malabo, the capital of Equatorial Guinea, in November of this year based on the principles and rules established in the previous two summits.

12. We welcome the appointment of His Excellency Ahmed Aboul Gheit as the Secretary-General of the League of Arab States. We wish him success in performing his duties. We express our deep appreciation to Nabil Elaraby, the former Secretary-General of the League, for his efforts throughout his term to strengthen joint Arab action under exceptional circumstances in the Arab world and extremely complex regional and international challenges. We thank the officials and employees of the Secretariat for their enthusiasm and hard work in ensuring the success of the summit proceedings.

13. We express our deep gratitude to His Excellency President Mohamed Ould Abdel Aziz, President of the Islamic Republic of Mauritania, and to the Mauritanian people and Government for the warm reception, gracious hospitality, skilful organization and smooth management of the summit proceedings.

meeting of the 27th of ordinary session of the Council of the League of Arab States at the summit level (Summit 27 (16/07)/31 — statement) (0314))

In the name of God, the Merciful

May peace and blessings be upon His prophets and messengers

Your highnesses,

Prime Ministers,

Mr. Secretary-General of the League of Arab States,

Mr. Secretary-General of the Cooperation Council for the Arab States of the Gulf,

Mr. Secretary-General of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation,

Excellencies,

Distinguished guests,

Ladies and gentlemen,

I am first of all pleased to welcome you warmly to the city of Nouakchott and to express the pride of the people and Government of the Islamic Republic of Mauritania in welcoming you to your second country on this happy occasion of the 27th ordinary session of the Council of League of Arab States at the summit level.

It is an important event long-awaited by all Mauriticians. For the first time, our country is honoured to host the summit of the League of Arab States. We highly value your presence in the land of the minaret and hospice. We thank you for enduring the long trip despite the preoccupations of leadership weighing upon you.

On behalf of all of us, I would like to thank His Excellency President Abdel Fattah Al Sisi, the President of the Arab Republic of Egypt, for his good efforts throughout Egypt's presidency of the past session of this summit, which has greatly advanced joint Arab action.

I also warmly salute his Excellency Idriss Deby Itno, President of the Republic of Chad and rotating Chairperson of the African Union for his presence with us today, which reflects the depth of the relations that bind the Arab world with the African continent as well as the desire of all of us here to strengthen and develop these relations.

I would also like to thank His Excellency Nabil Elaraby for the great work he has done during his tenure as Secretary-General of the Arab League. I welcome His Excellency Ahmed Aboul Gheit, Secretary-General of the League, and wish him success in his new duties.

The League of Arab States was established 70 years ago. It is a regional organization concerned with defending the vital interests of the Arab nation, coordinating joint Arab action and acting positively in the international arena to serve international peace and security. The Arabs have achieved considerable successes in a number of areas, including the elimination of colonialism in the Arab world, the promotion of inter-Arab solidarity and cooperation and the unification of the Arab States' positions on international issues. They have done so in circumstances that have generally been unfavourable.

Their success can be attributed to the selflessness of the Arab leaders since the establishment of the League in serving a joint enterprise and constantly adhering to a spirit of reconciliation and consensus on the fateful issues of the nation.

We are currently facing major challenges, chief among which is creating a just, permanent solution to the central Arab issue, namely the Palestinian issue, as well as addressing terrorism and reducing foci of tension and conflict stoked by foreign interference in the domestic affairs of the Arab States. The achievement of sustainable, integrated development in the Arab region is also a major task for our nation to reclaim the leading position it occupied among the nations during the golden age of its history.

The troubled conditions and resurging crises of the Arab region at present have led some to believe that the Palestinian issue has receded among the Arabs' priorities. This in turn has encouraged the Israeli Government to withdraw from the peace process and persist with its settlement policy.

The Palestinian issue is the primary issue of the Arabs and all free people in the world and will remain so until a just, permanent solution is found based on relevant United Nations resolutions and the proposals of the Arab initiative, which represent a strong foundation for arriving at the desired solution, so that the region can finally enjoy peace, security and stability.

In this context, resumption of negotiations between the Palestinians and Israelis, based on binding international guarantees, known deadlines, the freezing of settlement activity, the halting of violence against Palestinians, the lifting of the unjust Israeli blockade on the Palestinians and the reconstruction of what was destroyed in the aggression are all essential conditions for reaching a final solution to the conflict in the Middle East region.

The region will continue to be a source of instability unless a permanent, just solution is found for the Palestinian issue that ensures the Palestinian people's legitimate rights to establish its independent state with its capital in Jerusalem and the withdrawal of Israel from the occupied Syrian Golan Heights and Lebanese Shebaa Farms, so that all states in the region can live in peace, security and cooperation.

Terrorism is one of the greatest challenges facing humanity today. Blind violence that claims innocent lives, rips apart societies and destroys countries, especially in the Arab region, requires all of us to confront terror groups forcefully and decisively and to resist the hateful, extremist rhetoric that uses Islam as a cover. Despite the successes which our countries have achieved individually in combating terrorism, which have greatly reduced the phenomenon, uprooting terrorism requires the development of a collective, multidimensional strategy.

This strategy must be based on the achievement of sustainable development in the Arab world. Sustainable development will fulfil the aspirations of all segments of our peoples, particularly the most fragile. Our Governments and security agencies must coordinate in developing integrated plans for eliminating the danger of terrorism. The role of religious institutions must be strengthened to fortify youth against the propaganda of extremist organizations and to provide an accurate image of Islam's tolerance, moderation and humane message, which champions virtue, good character traits and morals.

In Mauritania, we have applied this approach by enhancing the effectiveness of our Armed Forces and security forces to enable them to move the battle to the terrorists' lairs. We have initiated a dialogue between our venerable clerics and youth who have been lured into adopting extremist ideas. We have launched major development projects for the most fragile groups.

All of these actions have enabled us to eliminate the danger of terrorism within our borders and to dry up its springs and tributaries.

The time has come to find comprehensive solutions for the crises that are sweeping some of the Arab countries. Such solutions must preserve those countries' territorial unity and restore harmony among their constituents. There is no alternative in Syria to a political agreement among all the parties that is based on the preservation of the unity of Syria and the engagement of all parties in rebuilding the country and its institutions on foundations decided by the Syrian people and its national political elites. Five years of armed conflict have brought Syria only destruction, killing and displacement of the population and the rending of the country's social fabric, which has historically been cohesive.

In Yemen, the internecine fighting would have undermined the unity of society and fragmented the State had it not been for the good efforts to address the crisis by encouraging the parties to the conflict to enter into serious negotiations. We hope that the negotiations will lead to a political agreement that preserves the Yemeni state as a unified entity and establishes rules for existing legitimate institutions.

In this context, we greatly appreciate the sound leadership of Kuwait in sponsoring the negotiations between the Yemeni parties and the desire of His Highness Sheikh Sabah al-Ahmad al-Jaber Al Sabah to bring together the Yemeni parties and help them achieve a comprehensive agreement that stops the destructive war and begins the reconstruction process. We salute the great efforts made by the United Nations through the special envoy of the Secretary-General for Yemen, which aim to facilitate and ensure the success of the negotiations.

In recent years, Libyans have suffered from instability and the build-up of terrorist groups, which endanger neighbouring countries and threaten the entire Sahel.

More now than ever, we are called upon to support the efforts of the brothers in Libya to devise a comprehensive agreement that preserves the territorial unity of Libya, generates stability, engages all Libyans in the management of public affairs and launches reconstruction.

In Iraq, we salute the victories of the Iraqi people in regaining control over all its territory and the cohesion of all of sects and denominations, which has restored Iraq to its natural position in the Arab nation.

We salute the great efforts made by the Somali people to restore security and stability after decades of internecine fighting. We appreciate the major role undertaken by the African Union Mission to Somalia alongside the Somali security forces to strengthen peace and security.

Despite all that has been achieved, Somalia continues to need the support of its brothers and friends to achieve stability within the entire Federal Republic of Somalia.

We look forward to the development of a comprehensive approach to solve all conflicts affecting the Arab States based on a common vision that prevents the spread of crises and conflicts to other countries. All of us are responsible for healing the rift and pursuing reconciliation among brothers. What unites them is so much greater than that which can be exploited to sow dissension among them.

Successfully addressing these challenges requires the consolidation of security and stability and the achievement of sustainable development that takes advantage of the Arab world's human capacities, enormous resources and excellent geographic position to develop a comprehensive economic strategy. The strategy should be based on the integration of our countries. It should incentivize employment and provides a favourable climate for unleashing our region's youthful energies and enabling our youth to contribute effectively to public life and play a major role in development.

In conclusion, I again welcome you to your second country, Mauritania, which, throughout history, has been a cultural bridge between the Arabs and the Africans. The Mauritanian people are proud of their pioneering role in spreading Arab and Islamic civilization throughout the African continent.

Welcome to this part of the Arab world. I hope that you have a pleasant stay in Mauritania. May our Arab nation achieve great progress and may its endeavours be well rewarded and successful.

Statement of His Excellency Ahmed Aboul Gheit, Secretary-General of the League of Arab States at the opening meeting of the 27th of ordinary session of the Council of the League of Arab States at the summit level (Summit 27 (16/07)/31 — statement) (0282))

In the name of God, the Merciful,

Mr. Mohamed Ould Abdel Aziz, President of the Islamic Republic of Mauritania and Chair of the 27th Arab summit

Mr. Idriss Deby, President of the Republic of Chad and current Chair of the African Union,

Excellencies, your Majesties,

Ladies and gentlemen,

Allow me to express my great pleasure at taking up the duties of my new position at the 27th Arab summit in this beloved place in our great Arab world, Nouakchott, the capital of the Islamic Republic of Mauritania, a venerable Arab metropolis that has proudly maintained its special identity throughout history and has been a beacon of culture, enlightened thought and Arab-African cultural synthesis.

I would like to extend to President Mohamed Ould Abdel Aziz and the Mauritanian people and Government the heartfelt gratitude of the delegation of the Secretariat for the gracious hospitality and warm welcome, which are so characteristic of your noble Arab people. I would also like to congratulate you on the assumption of the Chair of the Arab summit and for your splendid organization of the summit. I trust that your Chair of the new session will be busy, effective and fruitful.

I would like to express my deep gratitude to His Excellency President Abdel Fattah Al Sisi, President of the Arab Republic of Egypt, for his discerning leadership at the helm of joint Arab action during his Chair of the 26th session of the Arab summit, his considerable efforts in the service of joint Arab action and for most capably and responsibly defending Arab issues and the security of the Arab States.

As you all know, defending Arab issues and the security of the Arab States is my primary mission upon assuming my responsibilities as the Secretary-General of the League of Arab States at the start of this month. I would therefore like to present to you my brief, preliminary vision of the main topics and issues of joint Arab action, bearing in mind that I am currently engaged in studying a number of files which I will ask the States members to dispose of in the coming period.

1. I would like to emphasize on this auspicious occasion that I will be the guarantor of the joint Arab action process according to its treaties, regulations and rules. I will maintain the impartiality of the Secretariat vis-à-vis all States members. I will seek to use all my abilities to promote the role of the League in word and deed, develop its performance and expand the scope of its activity according to the will of the States members and the aspirations of our Arab peoples.

2. I am well aware of the gravity of my responsibility and the magnitude of the challenges facing the League in the current environment of the Arab world. I believe in the necessity for Arab integration in its broad sense. The Arab League is an institutional framework that embraces Arab solidarity. It is the firm tie that preserves our identity and existence.

After trying to assess the League's current situation, I have reached the conclusion that the League is in urgent need of renewal, updating and the necessary financing for this purpose in order to keep pace with the changes sweeping the region and to evolve to be able to help maintain our countries' independence and sovereignty.

3. We must be vigilant about what is happening in our region, as we are concerned for our fate and the future of our countries first and foremost. Action to halt the deterioration and fragmentation occurring in a number of Arab countries must not be left to others. We must intensify Arab action to improve our situation, regain the initiative and act in an Arab framework. We must review the ways for addressing a number of Arab crises in view of the League's diminished or non-existent role in handling such crises in past years. The League is more qualified than international organizations to bring about the necessary and desired settlements and reconciliations.

4. The Arab nation is fighting a fierce war against terrorism. This cursed scourge is worse than ever before. It is striking inside Arab societies without mercy. Victory in the war against terrorism and extremism requires the development of mechanisms and techniques that ensure the implementation of the resolution adopted by the Council of the League in September 2014. It requires the development of agreements and commitments concerning Arab cooperation and coordination and the mobilization of Arab resources to lead a regional and international movement to eliminate terrorism, which has adopted the Arab world as a base and theatre for its destructive, criminal operations. I see terrorism as threatening the fundamentals of the nation state and distorting the tolerant creed of Islam. The settlement of political crises and the restoration of stability in troubled regions will undoubtedly help dry up the springs, swamps, and incubators of terrorist organizations, which are destroying any semblance of life and stability in the Arab societies.

5. The Palestinian issue, the end of the Israeli occupation of Palestinian and other Arab territories and the establishment of an independent Palestinian state with its capital in East Jerusalem are top priorities for collective Arab political action. Developments in the Palestinian issue in recent years and the extremely intransigent, arrogant positions of Israel on a political solution in general and a two-state solution in particular have, in my assessment, come to require new political approaches. Such approaches must be creative and earnest. They must seek to rebalance the international equation for dealing with the requirements for achieving a permanent, just peace. This requires taking advantage of the recent signs of international momentum towards rescuing the two-State solution from oblivion.

6. There is a trend towards the development of an integrated Arab plan. The League has a leading role in coalescing Arab wills around the plan. This requires continuing all efforts conducive to building cohesive Arab societies that keep pace with the times.

Arab societies are proud of their past. They do not let the past fetter their present or future. They look forward confidently to building a promising future for our youth and safe, stable societies that engage in dialogue, not internecine fighting, and that promote noble religious values devoid of extremism or resort to violence.

7. The stability of the Arab States, mobilization of their capabilities and protection of their security are the launch pad for development projects. For this purpose, we must create a climate of regional stability based on respect for the values of good neighbourliness, non-intervention in the domestic affairs of the Arab States and interaction with changes in a way that preserves Arab interests first and foremost.

8. Our review of a number of features of joint Arab action leads me to stress the need to review economic projects for Arab integration, which are currently experiencing difficulties. We must first review the method for completing the Greater Arab Free-Trade Area in preparation for introducing the Arab Customs Union. We must also examine the implementation of several vital projects among the Arab States in the area of ground and maritime transportation, the linkage of electricity grids, the strategy for encouraging investments in the Arab region, the Arab Food Security Project and social policies. Regarding social policies, the most important issues relate to poverty reduction, empowerment of women and youth, protection of children, maintenance of human rights and other key issues affirmed by successive Arab summits. The Arab States as a group are called upon to implement the Sustainable Development Goals for 2015-2030 and to submit periodic reports on progress achieved in this regard. Therefore, I have decided to propose an Arab coordination mechanism for following up this important subject.

Excellencies, your Majesties,

I pray that God grant us success in our activities in leading this nation in this critical time and in transforming the slogan of hope under which this summit has convened into a tangible reality which the masses of Arab people can experience and be optimistic about. Optimism has become a rare commodity which we could all use in these difficult days.

Thank you, Mr. Chair.
