THIRD COMMITTEE

DRAFT INTERNATIONAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Article 21

All paragraphs of which have been adopted separately by the Third Committee, and which has been rejected as a whole

1. Everyone has the right to work, to just and favourable conditions of work and pay and to protection against unemployment.

2. Everyone, without distinction as to race, nationality or sex, has the right to equal pay for equal work.

Every person who works has the right to receive such remuneration as will, in proportion to his capacity and skill, assure him a decent standard of living for himself and his family.

3. Everyone is free to form and to join trade unions for the protection of his interests.

4. Every person has the right to follow his vocation freely, in so far as existing conditions of employment permit.
