International Law Commission

Sixty-fourth session

Geneva, 7 May-1 June and 2 July-3 August 2012

Filling of casual vacancies in the International Law Commission

Note by the Secretariat

1. By a letter dated 22 July 2012 addressed to the Chair of the International Law Commission, Stephen C. Vasciannie submitted his resignation from the Commission. There is therefore one casual vacancy in the membership of the Commission.

2. In this case, article 11 of the Statute of the Commission is applicable. It prescribes that in the case of a vacancy, the Commission shall fill the vacancy having due regard to the provisions contained in articles 2 and 8 of the Statute.

Article 2 reads:

1. The Commission shall consist of thirty-four members who shall be persons of recognized competence in international law.
2. No two members of the Commission shall be nationals of the same State.
3. In case of dual nationality a candidate shall be deemed to be a national of the State in which he ordinarily exercises civil and political rights.

Article 8 reads:

At the election the electors shall bear in mind that the persons to be elected to the Commission should individually possess the qualifications required and that in the Commission as a whole representation of the main forms of civilization and of the principal systems of the world should be assured.

3. The term of the member to be elected by the Commission will expire at the end of 2016.
