86. In accordance with its resolution 25/22, the Human Rights Council will hold a panel discussion on ensuring use of remotely piloted aircraft or armed drones in counter-terrorism and military operations in accordance with international law, including international human rights and humanitarian law (see annex).

Implications for human rights of the environmentally sound management and disposal of hazardous substances and wastes

87. In its resolution 21/17, the Human Rights Council requested the Special Rapporteur on the implications for human rights of the environmentally sound management and disposal of hazardous substances and wastes to develop a guide to best practices regarding the human rights obligations related to the environmentally sound management and disposal of hazardous substances and wastes, and to submit the guide together with his report to the Council at its twenty-seventh session (A/HRC/27/54). The Council will hold an interactive dialogue with the new mandate holder, Baskut Tuncak.

Use of mercenaries as a means of violating human rights and impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination

88. In its resolution 24/13, the Human Rights Council requested the Working Group on the use of mercenaries as a means of violating human rights and impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination to continue the work already done by previous mandate holders on the strengthening of the international legal framework for the prevention and sanction of the recruitment, use, financing and training of mercenaries. The Council also requested the Working Group to report its findings to the Council at its twenty-seventh session. The Council will consider the report of the Working Group (A/HRC/27/50 and Add.1).

Promotion of a democratic and equitable international order

89. In its resolution 25/15, the Human Rights Council requested the Independent Expert on the promotion of a democratic and equitable international order to submit to the Council, at its twenty-seventh session, a report on the implementation of that resolution. The Council will consider the report of the mandate holder, Alfred de Zayas (A/HRC/27/51 and Add.1).

4. Human rights situations that require the Council's attention

Situation of human rights in the Syrian Arab Republic

90. In its resolution 25/23, the Human Rights Council decided to extend the mandate of the independent international commission of inquiry on the Syrian Arab Republic established by resolution S-17/1 to investigate all alleged violations of international human rights law since March 2011 in the Syrian Arab Republic, and requested the commission to continue its work. The Council also requested the commission to present a written report on the situation of human rights in the Syrian Arab Republic during an interactive dialogue at the twenty-seventh and the twenty-eighth sessions of the Council. In its resolution 23/1, the Council requested the Commission to urgently conduct a comprehensive, independent and unfettered inquiry into the events in Al Qusayr, and to include the finding of the inquiry in its report to the Council at its twenty-seventh session. The Council will consider the report of the commission (A/HRC/27/60).

5. Human rights bodies and mechanisms

Cooperation with the United Nations, its representatives and mechanisms in the field of human rights

91. Reference is made to the report of the Secretary-General on alleged reprisals, as well as recommendations on how to address the issues of intimidation and reprisals against those who seek to cooperate or have cooperated with the United Nations, its representatives and mechanisms (A/HRC/27/38) (see para. 40 above).

A. Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples

92. In its resolution 6/36, the Human Rights Council decided to establish a subsidiary expert mechanism to provide the Council with thematic expertise on the rights of indigenous peoples in the manner and form requested by the Council. The Council will consider the report of the Expert Mechanism on its seventh session, held from 7 to 11 July 2014 (A/HRC/27/64).

93. In its resolution 24/10, the Council requested the Expert Mechanism to continue its study on access to justice in the promotion and protection of the rights of indigenous peoples, with a focus on restorative justice and indigenous juridical systems, particularly as they relate to achieving peace and reconciliation, including an examination of access to justice related to indigenous women, children and youth and persons with disabilities, and to present it to the Council at its twenty-seventh session. The Council will consider the study of the Expert Mechanism (A/HRC/27/65).

94. Also in its resolution 24/10, the Council requested the Expert Mechanism to prepare a study on the promotion and protection of the rights of indigenous peoples in natural disaster risk reduction and prevention and preparedness initiatives, including consultation and cooperation with the indigenous peoples concerned in elaboration of national plans for natural disaster risk reduction, and to present it to the Council at its twenty-seventh session. The Council will consider the study of the Expert Mechanism (A/HRC/27/66).

95. In its resolutions 18/8, 21/24 and 24/10, the Council requested the Expert Mechanism to undertake, with the assistance of OHCHR, a questionnaire survey to seek the views of States and of indigenous peoples on best practices with regard to possible appropriate measures and implementation strategies to attain the goals of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, with a view to completing a final summary of responses for presentation to the Council at its twenty-seventh session. The Council will have before it the final summary of responses to the questionnaire (A/HRC/27/67).

96. Reference is also made to the annual report of the High Commissioner on the human rights of indigenous peoples (A/HRC/27/30) and to the half-day panel discussion on the rights of indigenous peoples (see paras. 34 and 78 above and annex).

97. Reference is also made to the report of the Special Rapporteur on the rights of indigenous peoples (A/HRC/27/52) (see para. 75 above).

B. Advisory Committee

98. The Advisory Committee held its twelfth session from 24 to 28 February 2014, and its thirteenth session from 11 to 15 August 2014. In accordance with paragraph 80 of the annex to Human Rights Council resolution 5/1 and decision 18/121, the Council will consider the report of the Advisory Committee on those sessions (A/HRC/27/62) in an interactive dialogue with the Chairperson of the Committee.

99. In its resolution 22/16, the Council requested the Advisory Committee to seek the views and inputs of relevant stakeholders in order to prepare a research-based report on best practices and main challenges in the promotion and protection of human rights in post-disaster and post-conflict situations, and requested the Committee to submit a progress report to the Council at its twenty-sixth session. In its decision 26/116, the Council decided to grant the Committee additional time in order to allow it to submit to the Council the progress report at its twenty-seventh session. Accordingly, the Council will have before it the progress report of the Committee (A/HRC/27/57).

100. In its resolution 24/1, the Council requested the Advisory Committee to seek the views and inputs of relevant stakeholders in order to prepare a study on the possibilities of using sport and the Olympic ideal to promote human rights for all and to strengthen universal respect for them, and requested the Committee to submit a progress report to the Council at its twenty-seventh session. The Council will have before it the progress report of the Committee (A/HRC/27/58).

101. In its resolution 24/2, the Council requested the Advisory Committee to seek the views and inputs of relevant stakeholder in order to prepare a research-based report on the role of local government in the promotion and protection of human rights, including human rights mainstreaming in local administration and public services, with a view to compiling best practices and main challenges, and requested the Committee to submit a progress report to the Council at its twenty-seventh session. The Council will have before it the progress report of the Committee (A/HRC/27/59).

C. Complaint procedure

102. In its resolution 5/1, the Human Rights Council established the complaint procedure as contained in section IV of the annex to that resolution. In paragraph 98 of the annex to resolution 5/1, the Working Group on Situations was requested, on the basis of the information and recommendations provided by the Working Group on Communications, to present the Council with a report on consistent patterns of gross and reliably attested violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms and to make recommendations to the Council on the course of action to be taken.

103. At its twenty-seventh session, the Council will consider the report of the Working Group on Situations on its twelfth session, held from 30 June to 4 July 2014, and any other pending issues relating to the complaint procedure in two closed meetings.

D. Special procedures

104. The Human Rights Council will have before it a note by the Secretariat relating to the twenty-first meeting of the special rapporteurs and representatives, independent experts and chairpersons of working groups of the special procedures of the Council (A/HRC/27/61).

105. The Council will have before it the joint communications report of special procedures (A/HRC/27/72). The full report will be available online.

E. Open-ended intergovernmental working group on a draft United Nations declaration on the right to peace

106. In its resolution 20/15, the Human Rights Council decided to establish an open-ended intergovernmental working group with the mandate of progressively negotiating a draft United Nations declaration on the right to peace. The Council will have before it the report of the working group on its second session, held from 30 June to 4 July 2014 (A/HRC/27/63).

6. Universal periodic review

107. The Working Group on the Universal Periodic Review held its nineteenth session from 28 April to 9 May 2014. The Council will consider and adopt the final outcomes of the review of Norway, Albania, Bhutan, Brunei Darussalam, Costa Rica, Côte d'Ivoire, the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Dominica, Equatorial Guinea, Ethiopia, Nicaragua, Portugal and Qatar (A/HRC/27/3-16).

108. Pursuant to President's statement 9/2 on modalities and practices for the universal periodic review process, the report of the Working Group, together with the views of the State under review concerning the recommendations and/or conclusions, as well as voluntary commitments made and replies presented by the State under review, before the adoption of the outcome by the plenary, to questions or issues that were not sufficiently addressed during the interactive dialogue in the Working Group, would constitute the outcome of the review, to be adopted by the Council at its plenary session through a standardized decision.

7. Human rights situation in Palestine and other occupied Arab territories

109. In accordance with Human Rights Council resolution S-21/1, adopted at its twenty-first special session, the High Commissioner will report to the Council at its twenty-seventh session on the implementation of that resolution, including on measures taken with regard to ensuring accountability for the serious violations of international humanitarian law and human rights in the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including East Jerusalem.

8. Follow-up to and implementation of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action

Integrating the human rights of women throughout the United Nations system

110. In accordance with its resolution 6/30, the Human Rights Council will hold an annual discussion on the integration of a gender perspective throughout its work and that of its mechanisms (see annex).

National institutions for the promotion and protection of human rights

111. Reference is made to the reports of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the Council resolution 23/17 (A/HRC/27/39) and on the activities of the International Coordinating Committee in accrediting national institutions in compliance with the Paris Principles (A/HRC/27/40) (see paras. 41 and 42 above).

9. Racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related forms of intolerance, follow-up to and implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action

Working Group of Experts on People of African Descent

112. In its resolutions 9/14 and 18/28, the Human Rights Council decided to extend the mandate of the Working Group of Experts on People of African Descent for a further period of three years, and requested the Working Group to submit an annual report to the Council on all activities relating to its mandate. The Council will consider the report of the Working Group on its thirteenth and fourteenth sessions, held from 18 to 22 November 2013 and from 31 March to 4 April 2014, respectively (A/HRC/27/68 and Add. 1).

10. Technical assistance and capacity-building

National policies and human rights

113. Reference is made to the report of OHCHR on technical assistance and capacity-building options for integrating human rights into national policies, drawing from worldwide best practices in this field (A/HRC/27/41) (see para. 44 above).

Technical assistance and capacity-building for human rights in the Democratic Republic of the Congo

114. Reference is made to the report of OHCHR on its efforts to increase and enhance its technical assistance programmes and activities to improve the human rights situation in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (A/HRC/27/42) (see para. 45 above).

Technical assistance and capacity-building for Yemen in the field of human rights

115. Reference is made to the progress report of OHCHR on its technical assistance and work with the Government of Yemen to identify additional areas of assistance to enable Yemen to fulfil its human rights obligations (A/HRC/27/44) (see paragraph 46 above).

Cooperation and assistance to Ukraine in the field of human rights

116. Reference is made to the report of the High Commissioner on the implementation of Human Rights Council resolution 26/30 on cooperation and assistance to Ukraine in the field of human rights (see para. 47 above).

Technical and capacity-building assistance for South Sudan in the field of human rights

117. In accordance with its resolution 26/31, the Human Rights Council will hold a panel discussion on the human rights situation in South Sudan (see annex).

118. Reference is also made to the interim report of the High Commissioner on the human rights situation in South Sudan (A/HRC/27/74) (see para. 48 above).

Advisory services and technical assistance to Cambodia

119. In its resolution 24/29, the Human Rights Council decided to extend by two years the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Cambodia, and requested the Special Rapporteur to report on the implementation of his mandate to the Council at its twenty-seventh and thirtieth sessions. The Council will consider the report of the Special Rapporteur, Surya Prasad Subedi (A/HRC/27/70).

120. Reference is also made to the report of the Secretary-General on the role and achievements of OHCHR in assisting the Government and the people of Cambodia in the promotion and protection of human rights (A/HRC/27/43) (see para. 49 above).

Assistance to Somalia in the field of human rights

121. In its resolution 24/30, the Human Rights Council decided to extend the mandate of the Independent Expert on the situation of human rights in Somalia for two years, and requested the Independent Expert to continue his engagement with the Government of Somalia at the national and subnational levels, civil society and the United Nations Assistance Mission in Somalia. The Council will consider the report of the mandate holder, Bahame Nyanduga (A/HRC/27/71).

Technical assistance for the Sudan in the field of human rights

122. In its resolution 24/28, the Human Rights Council decided to renew the mandate of the Independent Expert on the situation of human rights in the Sudan for a period of one year, and requested the Independent Expert to continue his engagement with the Government of the Sudan, considering a full range of information with a view to implementing the projects that would further help the Sudan to fulfil its human rights obligations. The Council also requested the Independent Expert to assist the Government in its strategy to implement the remaining accepted universal periodic review recommendations. The Council will consider the report of the mandate holder, Mashood Baderin (A/HRC/27/69).
