Since the Nagorno-Karabakh region of the Republic of Azerbaijan and its seven districts surrounding that region remain under the Armenian occupation, the Republic of Azerbaijan is unable to guarantee the implementation of its human rights obligations and recommendations of UN HRC Working Group on the Universal Periodic Review in the territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan occupied by Armenia, until the liberation of those territories from the occupation and complete elimination of the consequences of that occupation.

The Republic of Azerbaijan supports the peaceful settlement of Armenia-Azerbaijan Nagorno-Karabakh conflict on the basis of norms and principles of international law particularly those relating to the respect of territorial integrity, sovereignty and inviolability of internationally recognized borders of the states. The aggression of Armenia against Azerbaijan must be stopped and Armenia must withdraw all its occupying forces from all occupied territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan. Only after this, due condition to ensure human rights and freedoms in the occupied territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan would appear.
