35/... Situation of human rights in Eritrea

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights and other relevant international human rights instruments,

Recalling resolution 91 and decisions 250/2002 and 275/2003 of the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights,

Recalling also its resolutions 5/1, on institution-building of the Human Rights Council, and 5/2, on the Code of Conduct for Special Procedures Mandate Holders of the Council, both of 18 June 2007, and stressing that the mandate holder shall discharge his or her duties in accordance with those resolutions and the annexes thereto,

Recalling further its resolutions 20/20 of 6 July 2012, 23/21 of 14 June 2013, 26/24 of 27 June 2014, 29/18 of 2 July 2015 and 32/24 of 1 July 2016,

Noting that Eritrea is a State party to international and regional human rights instruments, and urging it to comply with its international obligations and its human rights commitments therefrom,

Noting also the participation of Eritrea in the second cycle of the universal periodic review and its acceptance of 92 recommendations, and its programme with the United Nations Development Programme to implement those recommendations, and calling upon the Government of Eritrea to take immediate concrete measures to implement those recommendations,

Welcoming the action taken by the Government of Eritrea to protect and promote the economic and social rights of its people, including through the early achievement of the Millennium Development Goals and its commitment to the Sustainable Development Goals,

* State not a member of the Human Rights Council.

Welcoming also the commitment of the Government of Eritrea to the promotion of gender equality, including through its programmes to end female genital mutilation and its campaign to end child, early and forced marriage,

Regretting the lack of cooperation by the Government of Eritrea with the commission of inquiry on human rights in Eritrea and continued lack of cooperation with the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Eritrea, including the denial of access to the country,

Recalling the reports of the commission of inquiry, and continuing to express its deep concern at the findings contained therein regarding past and ongoing human rights violations and abuses, such as enslavement, arbitrary detention, enforced disappearance, torture, other inhumane acts, persecution, rape and murder, and that there are reasonable grounds to believe that crimes against humanity have been committed in Eritrea since 1991,

Emphasizing that every citizen has the right to take part in the conduct of public affairs of his or her country, directly or through freely chosen representatives, and expressing grave concern that national elections in Eritrea have not been held since 1993 and that the Constitution of 1997 has never been implemented,

Noting with deep concern the findings of the commission of inquiry regarding crimes involving human rights violations and abuses, committed by government and ruling party officials, military commanders and members of the National Security Office,

Noting the identification by the commission of inquiry of individual suspects and careful maintenance of relevant information that may assist future accountability efforts,

Noting with grave concern the continued use by the Government of Eritrea of arbitrary arrest and detention, including incommunicado detention in extremely harsh and life-threatening conditions, of persons suspected of evasion of national service, attempting to flee the country or unable to produce identity documents, exercising the right to freedom of religion, or freedom of opinion and expression, including those perceived as critical of the Government, and of those who return to the country after having fled national service, as well as those detained in the aftermath of the attempt to take over on 21 January 2013 the building of the Ministry of Information,

Welcoming the release by the Government of Eritrea of 4 Djiboutian prisoners of war following the mediation of the Government of Qatar, on 18 March 2016, while recalling that 13 other Djiboutian prisoners of war are still detained in Eritrea,

Expressing grave concern at the widespread use of indefinite conscription into national/military service, a system that constitutes forced labour, including in a wide range of economic activities, and the reported forced conscription of children into military service, and regretting that the fear and experience of a lengthy national service causes large numbers of Eritreans to leave the country,

Deeply concerned that the situation of human rights in Eritrea is a primary factor in the large number of Eritreans leaving their country, often facing risks of abduction, abhorrent physical and mental abuse and other ill-treatment on their migration path, including abuses by smugglers and human traffickers, while welcoming the participation of the Government of Eritrea in multilateral forums to discuss counter-trafficking efforts,

Noting with deep concern the findings of the commission of inquiry regarding persecution on both religious and ethnic grounds, including of members of non-authorized religious denominations,

7. Reiterates that all those responsible for past and present human rights violations and abuses in Eritrea must be held accountable;

8. Reiterates its calls upon the Government of Eritrea:
