Annex to the letter dated 4 April 2018 from the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of Azerbaijan to the United Nations Office at Geneva addressed to the President of the Human Rights Council

Statement of the spokesperson of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Hikmat Hajiyev, on the occupation of the Kalbajar region of Azerbaijan and the April escalation of 2016 – Baku, 2 April 2018

As part of the war unleashed by Armenia against Azerbaijan and Armenia's systematic policy of aggression and occupation against Azerbaijan on 2 April 1993, the Kalbajar region of Azerbaijan was occupied by the armed forces of Armenia. Kalbajar is located beyond the administrative boundaries of the Nagorno-Karabakh region of Azerbaijan and the offensive operation to occupy Kalbajar was mainly carried out from the territory of Armenia by use of heavy weaponry, Mi-24 helicopter gunships and advanced fixed wing aircraft.

As a result of the occupation, around 60,000 inhabitants of Kalbajar were subjected to ethnic cleansing and were expelled from their native lands, 511 innocent civilians were killed, 321 people were taken hostage or missing. Currently, more than 70,000 Kalbajar residents are living in many different regions of Azerbaijan as internally displaced people.

Private property of Kalbajar inhabitants was plundered and destroyed. Along with that center of the Kalbajar region, around 150 villages, dozens of historical-cultural monuments, one museum, Istisu sanatorium, more than 110 libraries, around 100 schools, 9 kindergartens and some hospitals were razed on the ground by the armed forces of Armenia. Serious damage was inflicted on the rich historical-cultural heritage of Kalbajar.

The Museum of History in the Kalbajar district, with its unique collection of ancient coins, an ancient cemetery, an Albanian cloister and churches in Vang village, Lech castle, Ulukhan castle, Galaboynu castle, Mosques in the Kalbajar district and in the villages, Taglidash bridge, the Cultural House after name of Ashig Shamshir and other historical monuments were destroyed by the armed forces of Armenia.

The original architectural features of the Ganjasar and Khudavank cloisters in the Kalbajar region, belonging to the ancient Albanian Christian heritage of Azerbaijan and having no connection with the Armenian Church, were changed to incorporate them into the Armenian Church.

Predatory exploitation of natural mineral resources of Kalbajar is also being carried out. Base Metals CJSC, which is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Armenia's Vallex Group CJSC, registered in Liechtenstein, since 2002 has been exploiting the Gyzybulag underground copper-gold mine near Heyvaly village in the occupied Kalbajar district of Azerbaijan. Predatory exploitation of that mine led to its almost complete depletion.

Since 2007, GPM Gold, a subsidiary of GeoProMining Ltd., has been extracting ore in Soyudlu gold mine in the occupied Kalbajar district.

The construction of the Vardenis-Aghdara highway through the occupied Kalbajar district of Azerbaijan is directly linked to gaining access to the areas in the occupied territories rich in natural resources and to facilitate exporting goods and minerals out of the occupied territories to Armenia and international markets.

As a result of predatory and illegal exploitation of mineral resources of Kalbajar serious damage has been inflicted on the environment.

Without due diligence, imports of minerals, including gold extracted from the occupied Kalbajar and other regions of Azerbaijan, by some western countries are matter of serious concern.

By blatantly violating international humanitarian law, Armenia transfers settlers and conducts demographic change of the occupied Kalbajar region, as was also confirmed by the OSCE fact-finding mission.

Following the statement of the President of the Security Council on 6 April 1993 (S/25539), the Council adopted resolution 822 (1993) with regard to the occupation of the Kalbajar region of Azerbaijan. Resolution 822 reaffirmed the principle of “the inadmissibility of the use of force for the acquisition of territory” and demanded “immediate withdrawal of all occupying forces from the Kelbadjar district and other recently occupied areas of Azerbaijan”.

Following the adoption of Security Council resolution 822 (1993), the CSCE Minsk Group, composed of the nine countries, worked out the “timetable of urgent steps” to implement the resolution. Instead of withdrawing its armed forces from the occupied territories of Azerbaijan as demanded by the resolution, Armenia, on the contrary, continued to occupy the Agdam, Jabrayil, Gubadly, Fizuli and Zangilan regions of Azerbaijan in 1993.

In his report to the President of the Security Council dated 27 July 1993, the Chairman of the CSCE Minsk Conference, Mr. Mario Raffaelli, emphasized that the Armenian side had disregarded Security Council demands, launched an attack, seized new territories in Azerbaijan and challenged the mediation efforts towards a settlement.

Along with resolution 822 (1993), the Security Council adopted resolutions 853 (1993), 874 (1993) and 884 (1993), and demanded immediate, unconditional and full withdrawal of the occupying forces from all seized lands of Azerbaijan. However, Armenia until now continues to disregard the implementation of the Security Council demands.

The escalation of the situation and attack of densely populated Azerbaijani civilians with heavy weapons along the line of contact by the armed forces of Armenia on 2 April 2016, once again demonstrated that continuation of the occupation of the lands and the illegal presence of the Armenian armed forces in the seized lands of Azerbaijan remains a major threat to regional peace and security. In response to the attacks of Armenia, the armed forces of Azerbaijan have taken counter measures, which resulted in providing security of Azerbaijani civilians and the liberation of strategically important lands of Azerbaijan from the occupation.

Armenia has to understand that the occupation of Azerbaijan’s lands, including the Kalbajar region, is temporary. The only way to achieve a durable and lasting settlement is to ensure the unconditional and complete withdrawal of the Armenian armed forces from the occupied territories of Azerbaijan, and the exercise by the forcibly displaced population of its inalienable right to return. The Armenian side, instead of wasting time and misleading its own people and the international community, must cease its policy of annexation and ethnic cleansing and comply with its international obligations and engage constructively in the conflict settlement process.

All responsibility falls on the Armenian side for the maintenance of the status quo of the occupation.
