2. Concerned by reports of trafficking in persons, especially of migrant workers for forced labour, the Special Rapporteur reiterates her interest in carrying out visits to Kuwait, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates. Moreover, on the basis of information concerning trafficking in persons particularly for purposes of forced labour and sexual exploitation, the Special Rapporteur sent a second request to the Government of Nigeria for an invitation to visit in 2007. The Special Rapporteur has, moreover, accepted an invitation from the Government of Belarus to visit that country. She is furthermore in discussions with the Government of Thailand to carry out a visit, tentatively in September 2007, jointly with the Special Rapporteur on the sale of children, child pornography and child prostitution. In addition, she reiterates her interest in visiting Japan.
