	Zimbabwe <sup>5</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Djibouti was visited by the mandate holders on the situation of human rights in Somalia (in 2011) and in Eritrea (in 2013) but has not yet accepted a visit from other mandate holders concerning its human rights situation.

<sup>2</sup> Lesotho agreed to the visit of the Special Rapporteur on the rights to water and sanitation scheduled from the 4 to 15 February 2019.

<sup>3</sup> Luxembourg accepted a visit request from the Special Rapporteur on trafficking in persons, especially women and children in 2015 (postponed/cancelled by mandate holder due to prior engagements). The request of the Special Rapporteur on extreme poverty in 2015 has not received a response.

<sup>5</sup> In November 2018, Zimbabwe extended an invitation to six mandate holders – the Special Rapporteur on the right to food, the Special Rapporteur in the field of cultural rights, the Special Rapporteur on the independence of judges and lawyers, the Special Rapporteur on the rights to freedom of peaceful assembly and of association, the Special Rapporteur on violence against women, its causes and consequences, and the Special Rapporteur on the negative impact of the unilateral coercive measures on the enjoyment of human rights – to visit the country. Two visits – by the Special Rapporteur on the right to food and the Special Rapporteur on the rights to freedom of peaceful assembly and of association – have so far been confirmed for 2019.

C. Follow-up reports

Three mandates presented reports in which they followed-up on their recommendations made to States:
Working Group on enforced or involuntary disappearances	Follow-up report on the implementation of recommendations made after past visits to Croatia, Montenegro, Serbia and Kosovo <sup>8</sup> in June 2014 presented at the 39 th session of the Human Rights Council in September 2018 (A/HRC/39/46/Add.2).
Special Rapporteur on the promotion and protection of the right to freedom of opinion and expression	Follow-up report on the use of encryption and anonymity to exercise the rights to freedom of opinion and expression in the digital age presented at 38 th session of the Human Rights Council (A/HRC/38/35/Add.5) to a prior report presented to the Council in June 2015 (A/HRC/29/32) in order to update the Council on the issues identified in the 2015 Report.
Special Rapporteur on freedom of opinion and expression	Country visit report on follow-up visit to Mexico (A/HRC/38/35/Add.2).

D. Other follow-up activities

Special Rapporteur on the sale and sexual exploitation of children	Participation in and contributions to several expert group meetings on drafting international principles for the protection of human rights, especially the rights of the child, in the context of surrogacy and in follow-up to the recommendations contained in the thematic report on surrogacy and sale of children presented at the 37 th session of the Human Rights Council in February 2018 (A/HRC/37/60).
Special Rapporteur on human rights and the environment	Organization of and participation in a partnership meeting with UNEP, UNICEF, World Bank, Terre des Hommes, WWF-UK and Global Child Forum in follow-up to the thematic report on children's rights and the environment presented at the 37th session of the Human Rights Council in March 2018 (A/HRC/37/58) and resulting in a decision to organize a series of regional consultations on children's rights and the environment – the first of which is expected to take place in May in Bogota (TBC) – to study the topic in-depth and to deepen the understanding of the regional context at both policy and implementation levels. Organization of a meeting on biodiversity and human rights in May in Nairobi with a number of partners including UNEP, SwedBio, IDLO and Natural Justice in follow-up to the thematic report on biodiversity and human rights presented at the 34th session of the Human Rights Council in March 2017 (A/HRC/34/49) and to discuss specific human rights issues relating to biodiversity (e.g., rights to life, food, housing, health, etc.) in both regional and national contexts, all with a particular focus on groups whose rights are disproportionately affected by the loss of biodiversity (e.g., women, children, local/rural communities, etc.). Organization of a side-event on 12 July 2018 during the High-Level Political Forum on Sustainable Development concerning the theme “SDGs and Human Rights in Post 2020 biodiversity framework) in follow-up to the March 2017 report (A/HRC/34/49).

<sup>8</sup> All references to Kosovo in the present document should be understood to be in compliance with Security Council resolution 1244 (1999).

Follow-up activities undertaken by mandate holders (non-exhaustive list) (2018)

Special Rapporteur on freedom of religion or belief	Participation in several international workshops on the right to freedom of religion or belief that offered a follow-up opportunity to call upon governments to invest in the implementation of the Rabat Plan of Action, the Beirut Declaration on “Faith for Rights” and the Fez Plan of Action, which provide specific commitments by faith-based actors and practical measures to address the related phenomena of incitement to religious hatred, discrimination and violence.
Special Rapporteur on torture and other cruel and degrading treatment or punishment	Developing a Universal Protocol for Investigation Interviewing and Associated Safeguards in follow-up to an initiative by the former Special Rapporteur and with the support of the OHCHR and the Association for the Prevention of Torture.
Working Group on arbitrary detention	Continued to refine the Working Group’s systematic follow-up procedure established in 2016 for its opinions concluding that a deprivation of liberty is arbitrary under which the final paragraphs of such opinions request the government concerned and the source to provide, within six months of the opinion, information on the implementation of its recommendations. While encouraged by an increased response rate in the context of this procedure from both sources and concerned governments, it notes that this does not necessarily imply an increased enforcement of its opinions.  Revision of annual reports to now contain a table reflecting follow-up information received.
Special Rapporteur on the human rights to safe drinking water and sanitation	Commenced a project on the follow-up analysis of official country visits focusing on the implementation of recommendations in country visit reports, the methodology and current status of which is contained in an Annex to the report presented at 39 th session of the Human Rights Council in September 2018 (A/HRC/39/55).  Began follow-up analysis of the first five official country visits undertaken since 2015 (Botswana, El Salvador, Mexico, Portugal, and Tajikistan).
Special Rapporteur on the rights of indigenous peoples	Participation in the conference “Defending the Defenders: New Alliances for Protecting IPR” organized by the International Working Group on Indigenous Affairs in September 2018 with the support of the Foreign Ministry of Denmark, resulting in an outcome document that explicitly endorsed and called for follow-up on the recommendations concerning the theme of criminalization and attacks against indigenous human rights defenders in a report presented at the 39 th session of the Human Rights Council in September 2018 (A/HRC/39/17).
Special Rapporteur on trafficking in persons, especially women and children	Engaged in a preliminary discussion with IOM and UNHCR on how to operationalise recommendations on early identification, referral and assistance of victims and potential victims of trafficking in mixed migration movements in a report presented at the 38 th session of the Human Rights Council in June 2018 (A/HRC/38/45).  Engaged in a preliminary discussion with academia on how to disseminate and follow up on her recommendations to the UN Security Council on integrating a human rights-based approach to trafficking in the women, peace and security agenda contained in a report presented at the 73 rd session of the UN General Assembly in September 2018 (A/73/171).
Special Rapporteur on the promotion of truth, justice, reparation & guarantees of non-recurrence	In follow up to his country visit to Sri Lanka in October 2017, the former Special Rapporteur, Pablo de Greiff, participated as a panellist in a side event on 5 March 2018 during the 37 th session of the Human Rights Council on the theme “Transitional justice in Sri Lanka: Will It Deliver for

Mandate	Description of events organized by mandate holders
Working Group of Experts on people of African Descent	From 19 to 23 March, the Working Group held its 22nd session in Geneva on the theme “Framework for a Declaration on the Promotion and Full Respect of Human Rights of People of African descent”. The conclusions and recommendations of the session were presented to the 39th session of the Human Rights Council (A/HRC/39/69) and also shared during the 16th session of the Intergovernmental Working Group on the Effective Implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action discussion on the elaboration of a draft declaration on the promotion and full respect of human rights of people of African descent. On 29 October, the Working Group organized a side event entitled “Towards a Declaration on the Promotion and Respect of the Rights of People of African Descent” at the UNHQ in New York. The Chairperson of the Working Group moderated a panel that included the Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, the Chairperson of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and the Director of OHCHR-NYO
Independent Expert on the enjoyment of human rights of persons with albinism	On 19 and 20 February 2018, the Independent Expert organized a regional strategy meeting for civil society, at which targets were developed for the Regional Action Plan on Albinism in Africa (2017-2021) and these were linked to targets of the Sustainable Development Goals.[1] As a follow-up to the expert workshop on witchcraft and human rights, held in Geneva on 21 and 22 September 2017 (A/HRC/37/57/Add.2),[2] the Independent Expert, with the Office of the Special Representative of the Secretary General on Violence against Children and civil society organizations,[3] organized a side event on 7 March 2018 on the impact of witchcraft beliefs and practices on children. On 9 March 2018, the Independent Expert organized a workshop on albinism and human rights during the committee sessions of the Pan-African Parliament, held in South Africa. On 16 May 2018, she was invited to address the plenary of the Parliament. These events led to the Parliament’s endorsement of the Regional Action Plan on Albinism via a resolution[4] in which the Parliament referred to the work of the Independent Expert and called for effective protection of the human rights of persons with albinism. On the margins of the thirty-eighth session of the Human Rights Council, the Independent Expert commemorated International Albinism Awareness Day on 13 June 2018 with a photo exhibition titled “Albinism: shining our light to the world”. [5] In September 2018, she organized an exhibition on witchcraft and human rights worldwide.[6] On 20 and 21 September 2018, the Independent Expert collaborated with Trinity Western University to organize a multisectoral round table on albinism and human rights. The meeting’s objective was to build consensus on priorities for research, advocacy and policy. Within the framework of the Addis Ababa road map, the Independent Expert and the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights organized a panel on albinism during its sixty-third regular session of the Commission, held in Banjul, where a progress report was presented on the Regional Action Plan on Albinism. At the same session, the Independent Expert also organized a side event and a photo exhibition,

Mandate	Description of events organized by mandate holders
	with the support of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR). Throughout the year, the Independent Expert engaged with scores of media, researchers and conferences, notably the 4th European Days of Albinism, held from 7 to 11 March 2018, and the first international albinism conference in Asia, held on 9 November 2018 in Tokyo. She also collaborated with the Salif Keita Global Foundation on a national symposium on the rights of persons with albinism, held in Mali on 15 November 2018.
Working Group on the issue of human rights and transnational corporations and other business enterprises	On 20 and 21 February, the Working Group convened an Asia regional consultation on the gender dimensions of the Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights (UNGPs), which was hosted by Ashoka University's Genpact Centre for Women's Leadership (GCWL) in collaboration with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Asia-Pacific and UN Women, at Ashoka University's campus in Sonipat (near New Delhi) in India. The consultation brought together about 150 participants from more than 30 countries. On 30 April, the Working Group convened a consultation on the gender dimensions of the UNGPs organized in collaboration with the OHCHR Regional Office for the Pacific in Suva, Fiji. Apart from UN agencies, civil society organizations (CSOs) and businesses, the Honourable Mereseini Vuniwaqa, who is the Minister for Women, Children and Poverty Alleviation of Fiji, also participated in this consultation. On 17 May, the Working Group convened an open multi-stakeholder consultation on corporate human rights due diligence as part of the consultations for its 2018 report that it presented to the UN General Assembly in September 2018 (A/73/163). On 12 October, the Working Group convened an African regional consultation in Nairobi on the gender dimensions of the UNGPs. It was co-hosted by the Centre for Applied Legal Studies of the University of the Witwatersrand (CALS), Hivos Foundation, the Kenya Human Rights Commission (KHRC), the African Coalition for Corporate Accountability (ACCA) and the OHCHR. On 14 and 15 November, the Working Group convened another consultation on the gender dimensions of the UNGPs in Sydney, Australia. The event was co-hosted by the Australian Human Rights Commission, the Australian Human Rights Institute and the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology (RMIT) University's Centre for People, Organisation and Work (CPOW). From 26 to 28 November, the Working Group chaired the 7th annual UN Forum on Business and Human Rights held in Palais des Nations in Geneva, Switzerland. The Forum brought together more than 2,700 registered participants from more than 130 countries, including a record high participation of the private sector (29% of the total registered participants). Under the theme "Business respect for human rights – building on what works", the Forum programme included more than 70 thematic sessions that focused on emerging practices in different sectors and across value chains, what human rights due diligence implies in relation to specific human rights risks and impacts, including groups at particular risk, and on other "hot" topics, such as the connection between human rights due diligence and artificial intelligence, automation, block chain technology, the role of tech companies in society, civic freedoms and human rights defenders, climate justice and the transition to a green economy, responsible tax conduct, corporate engagement on the SDGs and business in conflict areas, amongst others.
Special Rapporteur in the field of cultural rights	On 28 February and 1 March, the Special Rapporteur convened an expert consultation on "Strengthening the Cultural Rights Approach to the Universality of Human Rights: Challenges, Opportunities and Strategies" in Geneva. The aim of the meeting was to identify the ways in which cultural rights can strengthen universality and its

	interlinkages and synergies with cultural diversity. It also sought to identify strategies for articulating universality in a thoughtful and effective manner and for responding to the current attacks on this foundational concept so as to enhance the enjoyment of human rights, including cultural rights, without discrimination. On 20 March, the Special Rapporteur convened a consultation on the theme of “Strengthening the Cultural Rights Approach to the Universality of Human Rights” in the framework of the 62nd session of the Commission on the Status of Women in New York. On 23 October, the Special Rapporteur held a side event during the 73rd session of the UN General Assembly in New York on “The Universality of Human Rights, Cultural Diversity and Cultural Rights: A Cultural Rights Celebration of the 70th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights” in which the Special Rapporteur discussed her report submitted to the UN General Assembly (A/73/227). On the same day, she held a Facebook Live event on the same topic with literature Nobel Prize Mr. Wole Soyinka. The Special Rapporteur also launched an open consultation and received numerous inputs from relevant partners to inform her next thematic report, which will be presented at the 40th session of the Human Rights Council, that commemorates the 10th anniversary of the mandate and takes stock of the impact of the work of the cultural rights mandate (A/HRC/40/53).
Special Rapporteur on the right to development	The Special Rapporteur on the right to development has initiated the process of convening a series of regional consultations throughout 2018 and 2019 with representatives of Member States from their respective regions, United Nations agencies, intergovernmental organizations, civil society and the private sector, the aim of which is to identify good practices in designing, implementing, monitoring and assessing policies and programs that contribute to the realization of the right to development in various regions. In 2018, the mandate held four out of five regional consultations that occurred in March (for the African Group of States), June (for the Western European and Others and Eastern European Groups of States), October (for Latin American and Caribbean Group of States), and December (for Asia-Pacific Group of States).
