.../... Postponement of the twenty-first session of the Working Group on the Right to Development

At its organizational session held on 7 December 2020, the Human Rights Council decided to adopt the following text:

“The Human Rights Council,

Recalling its decision 45/113 of 6 October 2020 on the postponement of the implementation of certain activities mandated by the Council,

Stressing the need to appropriately address all activities mandated by the Council on an equal footing,

Having noted that the twenty-first session of the Working Group on the Right to Development could not be held as scheduled in the United Nations calendar of meetings for 2020 owing to the restrictions imposed due to the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic,

Decides to postpone the organization of the twenty-first session of the Working Group and to reschedule it in 2021, together with its twenty-second session, which is also scheduled in 2021.”

* Reissued for technical reasons on 3 December 2020.

 State not a member of the Human Rights Council.

 On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Movement of Non-Aligned Countries.
