18. SUHAKAM regarded it necessary for the Government to take legal, policy and administrative measures to address issues related to indigenous peoples' right to land, including the lack of recognition of indigenous peoples' concept of native customary rights to land, inclusion of native customary land in protected areas and development projects, inadequate compensation for the loss of their land, territories, crops and resources. The Government should apply the principle of free, prior and informed consent.<sup>19</sup>

19. SUHAKAM noted the problems faced by migrant workers, including irregular or long working hours, incomplete and irregular payment of wages, deplorable living conditions, and the lack of appropriate personal identification card while their passports are held by their employers.<sup>20</sup>
