10. Requests the Secretary-General, under the authority given to him by paragraph 3 of resolution 970 (X), to continue in 1958 to make arrangements for the payment of part of Members' contributions in currencies other than United States dollars as comprehensive as practicable.

731st plenary meeting,
14 December 1957.

1224 (XII). Offer by the Government of Chile of land in Santiago to be used as office site for the United Nations and other international organizations

The General Assembly,

Having regard to the reports of the Secretary-General²⁸ concerning the offer by the Government of Chile to transfer to the United Nations, free of charge, a plot of land in Santiago for the construction of a building to house United Nations and specialized agency offices located in Chile,

Taking note of resolution 138 (VII) of the Economic Commission for Latin America, of 28 May 1957, which was transmitted to the Secretary-General for consideration by the General Assembly at its twelfth session, and the report of the ad hoc committee on a building for the Economic Commission for Latin America established within that Commission pursuant to the said resolution,

Considering, in the light of the details given in the Secretary-General's report,²⁹ the indubitable advantages presented by the offer of the Government of Chile for improved conduct of the work of the United Nations in Latin America,

Considering that the construction of such a building will make possible the establishment of common services for the United Nations and the specialized agencies having offices at Santiago, which has been repeatedly requested at various meetings of United Nations organs concerned with administrative matters,

Considering the need for effective measures to ensure that this plan is executed in the most satisfactory manner possible,

1. Requests the Secretary-General to accept with thanks the generous offer of the Government of Chile;

2. Authorizes the Secretary-General to open with Governments of States members of the Economic Commission for Latin America such negotiations as may be necessary with regard to the financing of the construction of the United Nations building at Santiago, and to convene such meetings with representatives of those Governments as he may deem desirable;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to present to the General Assembly at its thirteenth session, in accordance with the proposals he has made, detailed plans for the construction of the building, together with final financial arrangements and such observations thereon as may be made by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions.

731st plenary meeting,
14 December 1957.

1225 (XII). United Nations salary, allowance and benefits system: amendments to the Staff Regulations

The General Assembly,

Having considered the reports of the Secretary-General³⁰ and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions³¹ on certain outstanding questions relating to the United Nations salary, allowance and benefits system,

Resolves that the Staff Regulations of the United Nations shall be modified by the amendments annexed to the present resolution, with effect from 1 January 1958:

731st plenary meeting,
14 December 1957.

ANNEX

Regulation 3.4 (Dependency benefits)

Add a new paragraph (c), to read:

"(i) With a view to avoiding duplication of benefits and in order to achieve equality between staff members who receive dependency benefits under applicable laws in the form of governmental grants or income tax exemption and staff members who do not receive such dependency benefits, the Secretary-General shall prescribe conditions under which the dependency allowance for a child specified in (a) (i) above shall be payable to the extent that the dependency benefits enjoyed by the staff member or his spouse under applicable laws amount to less than such a dependency allowance.
