1327 (XIII). International collaboration in respect of Non-Self-Governing and Trust Territories in Africa

The General Assembly,

Having regard to the objectives set forth in Chapter XI, and particularly Article 73 d, and in Chapter XII of the Charter of the United Nations,

Having regard to its resolution 331 (IV) of 2 December 1949 on international collaboration in connexion with economic, social and educational conditions in Non-Self-Governing Territories,

Considering that the terms of reference contained in Economic and Social Council resolution 671 A (XXV) of 29 April 1958 establishing an Economic Commission for Africa take fully into account measures to be taken towards the economic advancement of Non-Self-Governing and Trust Territories in Africa, including its social aspects, these measures lying within the scope of the Commission's activities,

Considering that many Territories on which information is transmitted by the Administering Members concerned under Article 73 e of the Charter and a majority of Trust Territories are in Africa, and that the terms of reference of the Economic Commission for Africa provide for such Territories to become associate members of the Commission,

1. Welcomes the establishment of the Economic Commission for Africa as an important step towards the further raising of the levels of living in Non-Self-Governing and Trust Territories in Africa;

2. Expresses the hope that all African Territories will apply for associate membership in the Economic Commission for Africa through the Member States responsible for their administration;

3. Requests the Member States concerned to encourage and expedite such applications for associate membership;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit the present resolution to the Economic and Social Council and to the Economic Commission for Africa at their forthcoming session.

*789th plenary meeting,
12 December 1958.*

1328 (XIII). Racial discrimination in Non-Self-Governing Territories

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 644 (VII) of 10 December 1952 inviting the Members responsible for the administration of Non-Self-Governing Territories to abolish discriminatory laws and practices in those Territories,

Noting the need for providing more adequate information on human rights,

Noting further that the progress made in certain Territories towards the removal of practices and the abolition of laws based on racial grounds has been limited,

Having regard to the fundamental importance of race relations, particularly under modern conditions, for the attainment of the objectives of Chapter XI of the Charter of the United Nations,

Recognizing the necessity of intensifying the promotion and encouragement of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all, regardless of race, sex, language or religion,

1. Reaffirms its resolution 644 (VII), and draws the particular attention of the Administering Members to the recommendation contained in paragraph 2 thereof concerning the examination of existing discriminatory laws, statutes and ordinances, and their application, with a view to the abolition of any such discriminatory provisions and practices;

2. Urges all Members responsible for the administration of Non-Self-Governing Territories to pay special and constant attention in the future to the implementation of the terms of its resolution 644 (VII);

3. Invites the Administering Members to include in the annual reports submitted under Article 73 e of the Charter of the United Nations information on the measures taken by them for the implementation of the present resolution.

*789th plenary meeting,
12 December 1958.*

1329 (XIII). Economic development of Non-Self-Governing Territories

The General Assembly,

Having regard to the objectives of Chapter XI and particularly Article 73 a of the Charter of the United Nations,

Recalling its resolution 1152 (XII) of 26 November 1957,

Bearing in mind the terms of Economic and Social Council resolution 671 (XXV) of 29 April 1958, which established the Economic Commission for Africa,

Considering that the association of some Non-Self-Governing Territories with the European Economic Community is likely to affect their economic development and their attainment of the objectives set forth in Article 73 b of the Charter,

Invites the Administering Members to examine the advisability of adopting in the Non-Self-Governing Territories an investment policy which will ensure balanced economic development and the progressive increase of the per caput income of the inhabitants of those Territories.

12 December 1958.*
