

by the dismissal from employment, arrest, deportation and exile of the persons, leaders and members of African political organizations concerned,

Noting with the gravest concern and regret that South African military troops stationed in the Territory have been considerably reinforced, and that the local police, aided by the military forces, have raided Native homes, locations and reserves in search of evidence of political activity and to clear urban areas, which are regarded as European, of passless Natives,

Noting particularly that all these actions are repugnant to the letter and spirit of the Mandate, and have led to mounting tension and unrest in the Territory,

Noting with the deepest disappointment and regret that the unbending line of policy and method pursued by the South African Government in its administration of the Territory, contrary to its solemn obligations under the Mandate, has resulted in the oppression of the indigenous inhabitants and, in particular, that fourteen Africans were charged with alleged public violence in connexion with the disturbances that occurred in the Windhoek Location in December 1959, in which eleven Africans were killed and others wounded when police and soldiers opened fire on a crowd of Location residents who were protesting the impending removal to the new location at Katutura,

Noting, however, that, according to the statement made by the Minister for Foreign Affairs of South Africa at the 1218th meeting of the Fourth Committee, on 21 November 1961, the Court found that the evidence before it did not justify conviction and the defendants were discharged,

1. Urgently calls upon the Government of the Republic of South Africa and the Administration of South West Africa immediately to desist from further acts of force in the Mandated Territory designed either to suppress African political movements or to enforce apartheid measures imposed by law and administrative rulings, to refrain from vexatious prosecutions of Africans on political grounds, and to ensure the free exercise of political rights and freedom of expression to all sections of the population;

2. Draws the attention of the petitioners concerned to the report of the Committee on South West Africa on conditions in the Territory²¹ and to the special report of the Committee on the implementation of General Assembly resolutions 1568 (XV) of 18 December 1960 and 1596 (XV) of 7 April 1961¹⁸ submitted to the Assembly at its sixteenth session, as well as to the action taken on the reports by the Assembly.

1704 (XVI). Committee on South West Africa

The General Assembly,

Recalling that the Committee on South West Africa was established by General Assembly resolution 749 A (VIII) of 28 November 1953,

Considering that under its resolution 1702 (XVI) of 19 December 1961 a United Nations Special Committee for South West Africa was set up,

1. Decides to dissolve the Committee on South West Africa;

²¹ Ibid., part II.

2. Recognizes that the reports submitted annually by the Committee, and the special reports requested of it, have provided the General Assembly with valuable information on the situation in South West Africa, thus enabling the Assembly to use those reports as a basis for carrying out its responsibilities of supervision in regard to the Mandated Territory;

3. Expresses its appreciation to the Committee for its unremitting efforts on behalf of the people of the Territory of South West Africa and for its contribution to the attainment of the objectives of the United Nations;

4. Expresses its very special appreciation to Mr. Enrique Rodríguez Fabregat, Chairman of the Committee and representative of Uruguay, and to the Member States which served on the Committee, for the devotion with which they have performed their duties.

*1083rd plenary meeting,
19 December 1961.*

1705 (XVI). Special educational and training programmes for South West Africa

The General Assembly,

Considering that, among the policies pursued by the Republic of South Africa in the administration of the Territory of South West Africa under the Mandate, an important feature is to restrict the indigenous inhabitants to a rudimentary system of schooling and training designed to confine the people to menial occupations for the purpose of keeping them in a state of subservience to the European minority,

Considering, in particular, that the South African Government deprives South West Africans of access to a complete secondary education or to higher education within South West Africa or South Africa, and also denies them travel documents and other facilities for taking advantage of educational opportunities in other areas,

Considering that it is one of the sacred duties of the United Nations to promote:

(a) Higher standards of living, full employment, and conditions of economic and social progress and development,

(b) Solutions of international economic, social, health and related problems, and international cultural and educational co-operation,

Considering that the United Nations, in carrying out its duty under Article 55 of the Charter, has created machinery for economic, social and technical assistance and that substantial assistance has been rendered to peoples of the less developed countries, including peoples in colonial and Trust Territories,

Recalling its resolution 1566 (XV) of 18 December 1960 in which it requested the assistance of the specialized agencies and of the United Nations Children's Fund in the economic, social and educational development of South West Africa, and its resolution 1527 (XV) of 15 December 1960 regarding assistance to former Trust Territories and other newly independent States,

Recognizing, in particular, the urgent need to ensure the educational advancement of South West Africans beyond the limitations imposed by the Bantu educational system in force in South West Africa and South Africa, and to prepare them for service in the administration of their country,
