Annex : List of thematic and country specific procedures of the Commission on Human Rights (prepared in accordance with Commission resolution 1997/37)		43

Item 1. Election of officers

1. Rule 15 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council provides that "at the commencement of its first meeting of a regular session the Commission shall elect, from among the representatives of its members, a Chairman, one or more Vice-Chairmen and such other officers as may be required".

Item 2. Adoption of the agenda

2. Rule 7 of the rules of procedure provides that "the Commission shall at the beginning of each session, after the election of its officers, ... adopt the agenda for that session on the basis of the provisional agenda".

3. The Commission will have before it the provisional agenda (E/CN.4/1998/1 and Corr.1) prepared by the Secretary-General in accordance with rule 5 of the rules of procedure, as well as the present annotations relating to the items included in the provisional agenda.

Item 3. Organization of the work of the session

4. At its fifty-third session, the Commission decided, in its decision 1997/123, to recommend to the Economic and Social Council that, in the light of the positive experience gained by rescheduling the dates of the fifty-second and fifty-third sessions, pursuant to the Council's decision 1994/297 of 29 July 1994, and bearing in mind Council decision 1995/296 of 25 July 1995, that the dates for the Commission's annual regular session be rescheduled to take place in March/April each year, instead of earlier in the year, and that, accordingly, the fifty-fourth session be rescheduled to take place from 16 March to 24 April 1998. The Economic and Social Council approved the recommendation in its decision 1997/291.

5. The attention of the Commission is drawn to the relevant resolutions concerning control and limitation of documentation (inter alia, General Assembly resolution 33/56 and Economic and Social Council resolutions 1981/83 and 1982/50). Furthermore, the Commission at its past 14 sessions set time limits for statements (see E/1997/23-E/CN.4/1997/150, paras. 10-11). In view of the existing financial constraints and the overall reductions imposed, the session must be most carefully planned from the outset, bearing in mind the absolute need for maximum effectiveness in the use of the resources available.

6. The attention of the Commission is also drawn to Economic and Social Council decision 1997/290 of 22 July 1997, by which the Council, taking note of Commission on Human Rights decision 1997/119 of 16 April 1997, decided to authorize, if possible within existing financial resources, 40 fully serviced additional meetings, including summary records, in accordance with rules 29 and 31 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, for the Commission's fifty-fourth session. The Council approved the Commission's request to the Chairman of the Commission at its fifty-fourth session to make every effort to organize the work of the session within the times normally allotted, so that the authorized meetings would be utilized only if absolutely necessary.

7. In a statement on the organization of the work of the session made by the Chairman on 18 April 1997 agreed on by consensus by the members of the Commission, the Commission, inter alia, affirmed that, as far as possible, decisions should be made and resolutions adopted by the Commission without a vote. However, voting, in accordance with the rules of procedure, should take place when an agreement cannot be reached. The Commission will continue to keep this matter under review.

8. The attention of the Commission is also drawn to Economic and Social Council resolution 1990/48 of 25 May 1990 in which the Council authorized the Commission to meet exceptionally between its regular sessions, provided that a majority of States members of the Commission so agreed. In this connection, the Economic and Social Council adopted, on 28 July 1993, decision 1993/286 on the procedure for special sessions of the Commission on Human Rights.

13. In its decision 1997/118, the Commission, bearing in mind its resolution 1996/19, entitled "Tolerance and pluralism as indivisible elements in the promotion and protection of human rights", and the need to allow time for the implementation of the resolution, decided to defer consideration of this question to its fifty-fourth session under the relevant agenda item.

The Commission will have before it the report of the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/1998/17).

16. At its fifty-third session, the Commission adopted resolution 1997/1, in which it requested the Secretary-General to report on the implementation of that resolution and to provide the Commission with all United Nations reports issued between sessions of the Commission that dealt with the conditions in which the citizens of the Palestinian and other occupied Arab territories were living under the Israeli occupation. - (b) The effects of the existing unjust international economic order on the economies of the developing countries, and the obstacle that this represents for the implementation of human rights and fundamental freedoms

18. At its fifty-third session, in its resolution 1997/17, the Commission decided to request the Secretary-General to submit reports to the General Assembly at its fifty-second session and to the Commission on Human Rights at its fifty-fourth session, under the relevant agenda items, on progress towards the realization of the rights set forth in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, giving due reflection to:

20. In its decision 1997/103, the Commission decided to authorize the open-ended working group on structural adjustment programmes and economic, social and cultural rights to meet for one week, at least four weeks before the fifty-fourth session of the Commission, with a mandate: (a) to gather and analyse information on the effects of structural adjustment programmes on economic, social and cultural rights; and (b) to elaborate basic policy guidelines on structural adjustment programmes and economic, social and cultural rights which could serve as a basis for a continued dialogue between human rights bodies and the international financial institutions, and to report to the Commission at its fifty-fourth session. In order that the working group might carry out its mandate, the Commission also decided to request the Chairman of the Commission, in consultation with the regional groups, to appoint an independent expert, preferably an economist specialized in the area of structural adjustment programmes, to study the effects of structural adjustment policies on economic, social and cultural rights in cooperation with the Centre for Human Rights. The expert should update previous work done on this subject within as well as outside the United Nations and submit a consolidated study, including a draft set of guidelines, to the Commission at its fifty-fourth session. The attention of the Commission is drawn to the following resolutions and decisions adopted by the Sub-Commission at its forty-ninth session that are relevant to the present agenda item: 1997/1 (Congo); 1997/2 (Bahrain) and 1997/3 (Democratic People's Republic of Korea) (see E/CN.4/1998/2-E/CN.4/Sub.2/1997/50, chap. II).

Sub-item (a) Question of human rights in Cyprus

101. This question has been considered by the Commission since its thirty-second session, when it adopted resolution 4 (XXXIII) of 27 February 1976. In its decision 1997/121, the Commission decided to retain the sub-item on its agenda and to give it due priority at its fifty-fourth session, it being understood that action required by previous resolutions of the Commission on the subject would continue to remain operative, including the request to the Secretary-General to provide a report regarding their implementation. At its present session the Commission will have before it the report of the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/1998/55).

Sub-item (b) Study of situations which appear to reveal a consistent pattern of gross violations of human rights as provided for in Commission resolution 8 (XXIII) and Economic and Social Council resolutions 1235 (XLII) and 1503 (XLVIII): report of the Working Group on Situations established by Economic and Social Council resolution 1990/41 of 25 May 1990

102. By resolution 1503 (XLVIII) of 27 May 1970, the Economic and Social Council established a procedure for dealing with communications concerning alleged violations of human rights. Particular situations referred to the Commission by the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities under Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) were placed before the Commission for the first time at its thirtieth session in 1974. Since then particular situations relating to 75 countries have been placed before the Commission under the procedure.

103. From its thirtieth session, in 1974 (see Commission decision 3 (XXX) of 6 March 1974), the Commission annually set up a working group of five of its members, due account being taken of considerations of geographical distribution, to meet for one week prior to the Commission's following session to examine the particular situations referred to the Commission by the Sub-Commission under Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) and those situations of which the Commission was seized under that procedure, and to make recommendations to the Commission on the course of action to take in respect of each particular situation. By resolution 1990/41 of 25 May 1990, the Economic and Social Council, acting on the recommendation contained in Commission resolution 1990/55 of 7 March 1990, authorized the establishment of the working group, to be referred to as the Working Group on Situations, on a permanent basis, instead of the earlier ad hoc basis.

104. At its thirtieth session, the Commission decided that the Governments concerned should henceforth be invited to submit written observations relating to the particular situations referred to the Commission (decision 3 (XXX), para. 4).

105. In 1978, the Commission decided to issue invitations, during the first week of each session, to the States directly concerned, asking them to send representatives to address the Commission and to answer any questions put by members of the Commission (decision 5 (XXXIV)).

106. In 1979, the Commission decided to authorize its Working Group on Situations in future to communicate the text of the relevant recommendations as soon as possible to the Governments directly concerned, in order to facilitate their participation in the examination of the situations concerning their countries, as provided for in Commission decision 5 (XXXIV) (decision 14 (XXXV)).

107. In 1980, the Commission decided that the States invited to attend the closed meetings of the Commission under Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) should have the right to attend and to participate in the entire discussion of the situation concerning them, and to be present during the adoption of the final decision taken in regard to that situation (decision 9 (XXXVI)).

108. All actions taken under the procedure governed by Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) remain confidential until such time as the Commission may decide to make recommendations to the Council. The documentation pertaining to the procedure is also confidential.

109. At its fifty-fourth session, the Commission will have before it the report of the Working Group on Situations, as well as other confidential documents pertaining to the sub-item, including the confidential report of the forty-ninth session of the Sub-Commission (E/CN.4/1998/R.1 and addenda). Observations which may be received from the Governments concerned (to be issued in the E/CN.4/1998/R.2 series) will also be made available. In addition, the Commission will have before it the relevant earlier material relating to the situations of which the Commission is seized. The above-mentioned confidential documents will be handed to the members of the Commission at the session.

110. Chapter XV of the report of the Sub-Commission on the work of its forty-ninth session is also relevant to this sub-item.

report to the Commission on Human Rights at its fifty-fourth session. The interim report of the Special Rapporteur to the General Assembly at its fifty-second session is contained in document A/52/482, annex.

167. At its present session, the Commission will have before it the report of the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/1998/101), as well as the reports on her missions to Kenya (E/CN.4/1998/101/Add.1) and to Mexico (E/CN.4/1998/101/Add.2). The attention of the Commission is also drawn to paragraphs 12 to 15 of resolution 1997/22 adopted by the Sub-Commission at its forty-ninth session.

Sub-item (c) Programme of Action for the Prevention of the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography

168. At its forty-eighth session, the Commission, in its resolution 1992/74, adopted the Programme of Action for the Prevention of the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography. The Commission requested all States to inform the Sub-Commission periodically of measures adopted to implement the Programme of Action and on the efficacy of such measures and requested the Sub-Commission to submit every two years a report to the Commission on the state of implementation of the Programme of Action by all States.

169. The Sub-Commission, at its forty-eighth session, in its resolution 1996/12, requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Commission at its fifty-fourth session a report on measures adopted to implement the Programme of Action.

170. At the present session, the Commission will have before it a note by the Secretariat (E/CN.4/1998/100) transmitting the report of the Secretary-General to the Sub-Commission (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1997/11), containing the replies received from States concerning the implementation of the Programme of Action.

Sub-item (d) Question of a draft optional protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the prevention of the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography, as well as the basic measures needed for their prevention and eradication

171. At its fiftieth session, in its resolution 1994/90, and in follow-up to General Assembly resolution 48/156, the Commission decided to establish an open-ended inter-sessional working group of the Commission on Human Rights responsible for elaborating, as a matter of priority and in close cooperation with the Special Rapporteur and the Committee on the Rights of the Child, guidelines for a possible draft optional protocol on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography, as well as the basic measures required for their prevention and eradication.

172. At its fifty-first session, in its resolution 1995/78, the Commission decided that the working group should elaborate, as a matter of priority and in close cooperation with the Special Rapporteur and the Committee on the Rights of the Child, and on the basis of the guidelines contained in annex I of its report (E/CN.4/1995/95), a draft optional protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography.

173. At its fifty-third session, the Commission considered the report on the third session of the working group (E/CN.4/1997/97) and, in its resolution 1997/78 requested the working group to meet for a period of two weeks, or less if possible, prior to the fifty-fourth session of the Commission to finalize the draft optional protocol before the tenth anniversary of the Convention on the Rights of the Child. At the present session, the Commission will have before it the report of the working group on its fourth session (E/CN.4/1998/103).

Item 21. Follow-up to the World Conference on Human Rights

174. In its resolution 1997/69 the Commission on Human Rights requested the High Commissioner for Human Rights to continue to report on the measures taken and the progress achieved in the comprehensive implementation of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action. The Commission will have before it the report of the High Commissioner (E/CN.4/1998/104).

Report of the High Commissioner for Human Rights

175. The General Assembly in its resolution 48/141 of 20 December 1993 decided to create the post of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and, inter alia, requested the High Commissioner to report annually on his activities, in accordance with his mandate, to the Commission on Human Rights and, through the Economic and Social Council, to the General Assembly.

176. At its fifty-third session, the Commission, in its resolution 1997/68, took note with appreciation of the report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and decided to continue the consideration of this question at its fifty-fourth session under the present agenda item.

177. In connection with the present item and with item 9 of the provisional agenda, the attention of the Commission is also drawn to a note by the High Commissioner transmitting the report of the meeting of special rapporteurs/representatives, experts and chairpersons of working groups of the special procedures of the Commission on Human Rights and of the advisory services programme, held in Geneva from 21 to 23 May 1997 (E/CN.4/1998/45).

Item 22. The question of conscientious objection to military service

178. At its fifty-first session, the Commission, in its resolution 1995/83, requested the Secretary-General to transmit the text of that resolution to all States Members of the United Nations and to include the right of conscientious objection to military service in the public information activities of the United Nations, including the United Nations Decade for Human Rights Education. The Secretary-General was also requested to submit to the Commission at its fifty-third session an update of the information provided in the annexes to the report by Mr. Asbjørn Eide and Mr. Chama Mubanga-Chipoya, entitled Conscientious Objection to Military Service (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.85.XIV.1), submitted to the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities at its thirty-sixth session, taking into account information from Governments and non-governmental organizations and any further information available to him. The Commission decided to consider this matter further at its fifty-third session under an agenda item with a new title: "The question of conscientious objection to military service".

179. At its fifty-third session, the Commission had before it the report of the Secretary-General prepared pursuant to resolution 1995/83 (E/CN.4/1997/99). In its decision 1997/117, the Commission decided to defer consideration of the question of conscientious objection to military service to its fifty-fourth session.

Item 23. Indigenous issues

180. In its decision 1996/102, the Commission on Human Rights decided to add a new agenda item, entitled "Indigenous issues", to its agenda.

A permanent forum for indigenous people

181. The Commission on Human Rights, in its resolution 1997/30, requested the High Commissioner to convene the second workshop on a permanent forum for indigenous people in the United Nations system for a period of three days prior to the fifteenth session of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations. The second workshop on a permanent forum was held in Santiago de Chile from 30 June to 2 July 1997. The Commission also requested the High Commissioner to transmit the report of the workshop to the Working Group, inviting it to express its views, and to submit the report, together with any comments arising from discussions in the Working Group, to the Commission at its forty-fourth session. The Commission will have before it the report of the workshop (E/CN.4/1998/11 and Add.1). The comments of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations are contained in paragraphs 109-124 of the report of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations on its fifteenth session (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1997/14).

Working group of the Commission on Human Rights to elaborate a draft declaration

182. In its resolution 1995/32, the Commission decided to establish an open-ended inter-sessional working group of the Commission with the sole purpose of elaborating a draft declaration, considering the draft contained in the annex to Sub-Commission resolution 1994/45, entitled "draft United Nations declaration on the rights of indigenous peoples". In its resolution 1997/31, the Commission recommended that the working group meet for 10 working days and submit a progress report to the Commission at its fifty-fourth session. The Economic and Social Council approved that decision in its resolution 1997/50. The working group met from 27 October to 7 November 1997. The Commission will have before it the report of the working group on its third session (E/CN.4/1998/106).

International Decade of the World's Indigenous People

183. The General Assembly, in its resolution 48/163 of 21 December 1993, proclaimed the International Decade of the World's Indigenous People commencing on 10 December 1994. In its resolution 50/157, the General Assembly adopted the Programme of Activities for the International Decade of the World's Indigenous People as contained in the annex to the resolution and requested the Secretary-General to report on progress made at the national, regional and international levels to the General Assembly at its fifty-first session (see A/51/499). The Commission on Human Rights, in its resolution 1997/32, invited the High Commissioner for Human Rights to report to it at its fifty-fourth session. The Commission will have before it the report of the High Commissioner (E/CN.4/1998/107).

184. At its forty-ninth session, the Sub-Commission adopted resolutions 1997/10 (Permanent forum within the United Nations for indigenous peoples), 1997/12 (Study on indigenous land rights), 1997/13 (Protection of the heritage of indigenous people), 1997/14 (Working Group on Indigenous Populations), 1997/15 (International Decade of the World's Indigenous People) and decision 1997/110 (Study on treaties, agreements and other constructive arrangements between States and indigenous populations).

185. The attention of the Commission is also drawn to draft decisions 1, 2 and 3 relating to indigenous issues, recommended to the Commission for action, contained in chapter I of the report of the Sub-Commission on its forty-ninth session.

Item 24. Election of members of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities

186. In accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 1334 (XLIV) of 31 May 1968 and 1986/35 of 23 May 1986 and decisions 1978/21 of 5 May 1978 and 1987/102 of 6 February 1987, the Commission on Human Rights, at its forty-fourth session in 1988, elected 26 members of the Sub-Commission, as well as their alternates, from nominations of experts made by States Members of the United Nations on the following basis: seven members from African States; five members from Asian States; three members from Eastern European States; five members from Latin American States; six members from Western European and other States.

187. Pursuant to the procedure established in Council resolution 1986/35, members of the Sub-Commission were to be elected for a term of four years and half of its membership and the corresponding alternates, if any, were to be elected every two years.

188. As the term of office of half of the membership of the Sub-Commission has expired, the Commission is called upon to elect Sub-Commission members and alternates in accordance with the following pattern: three members from African States; three members from Asian States; one member from Eastern European States; three members from Latin American States; and three members from Western European and other States.

189. At its fifty-fourth session, the Commission will have before it a note by the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/1998/108 and addenda) containing the names and biographical data of the candidates nominated for election by Member States.

190. In its resolution 1997/22, the Commission reaffirmed that members of the Sub-Commission should discharge their functions in their personal capacity and called upon States to nominate as members and alternates independent experts of recognized competence in the field of human rights, as well as to respect fully the independence of elected members and alternates. The Commission also requested States nominating candidates for the Sub-Commission to submit nominations sufficiently early to enable the members of the Commission to assess thoroughly the qualifications of the nominees. It may be recalled that the Sub-Commission, in its resolution 1987/32, drew the particular attention of the Commission on Human Rights to the recommendation of the Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery that the Commission should try and prevail upon all Governments to nominate more women for election to the Sub-Commission.

191. The attention of the Commission is drawn to Economic and Social Council resolution 1983/32, by which the Council decided that, notwithstanding paragraph 2 of article 13 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Council, certain rules should henceforth apply to the Sub-Commission. Under these rules, the nomination of a candidate for membership of the Sub-Commission may be accompanied by a nomination of an expert of the same nationality, to be elected simultaneously with the candidate for membership, who may serve temporarily as an alternate if the member is unable to attend; the qualifications for alternates are to be the same as for members and no person may serve as an alternate for a member except the expert so elected.

Item 25. Draft provisional agenda for the fifty-fifth session of the Commission

192. Rule 9 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council provides that, at each session of the Commission, the Secretary-General shall submit a draft provisional agenda for the Commission's subsequent session, indicating in respect of each agenda item the documents to be submitted under that item and the legislative authority for their preparation, in order to enable the Commission to consider the documents from the point of view of their contribution to its work and of their urgency and relevance in the light of the current situation.

193. The Commission will have before it, before the conclusion of the fifty-fourth session, a note for its consideration containing a draft provisional agenda for its fifty-fifth session, together with information concerning the corresponding documentation (E/CN.4/1998/L.1).

Item 26. Report to the Economic and Social Council on the fifty-fourth session of the Commission

194. Rule 37 of the rules of procedure provides that the Commission shall submit to the Council a report, which shall normally not exceed 32 pages, on the work of each session containing a concise summary of recommendations and a statement of issues requiring action by the Council. It shall as far as practicable frame its recommendations and resolutions in the form of drafts for approval by the Council.
