COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Third session
-----INDIA AND THE UNITED KINGDOM: PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
TO THE DRAFT DECLARATION ON HUMAN RIGHTSGENEVA TEXT AS AMENDED BY DRAFTING
COMMITTEE (E/CN.4/95)Article 1

All men are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed by nature with reason and conscience and should act towards one another like brothers.

Article 2

In the exercise of his rights everyone is limited by the rights of others and by the just requirements of the democratic state. The individual owes duties to society through which he is enabled to develop his spirit, mind and body in wider freedom.

Article 3

1. Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration, without distinction of any kind, such as race, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, property status, or national or social origin.

PROPOSED TEXT

Substitute:

All people, men and women, are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed by nature with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in the spirit of brotherhood.

Substitute:

The exercise of the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration shall be subject only to such restrictions as are necessary to secure due regard for the rights of others and the welfare and security of all.

1. No Amendment

2. All are equal before the law regardless of office or status and entitled to equal protection of the law against any arbitrary discrimination or against any incitement to such discrimination, in violation of this Declaration.

Article 4

Everyone has the right to life, to liberty and security of person.

Article 5

Slavery is prohibited in all its forms.

Article 6

No one shall be deprived of his personal liberty or kept in custody except in cases prescribed by law and after due process. Everyone placed under arrest or detention, shall have the right to immediate judicial determination of the legality of any detention to which he may be subject and to trial within a reasonable time or to release.

Article 7

Everyone shall have access to independent and impartial tribunals in the determination of any criminal charge against him, and of his rights and obligations. He shall be entitled to a fair hearing of his case and to have the aid of a qualified representative of his own choice, and if he appears in person to have the procedure explained to him in a manner in which he can understand it and to use a language which he can speak.

/Article 8

Substitute:

2. All are equal before the law regardless of office or status and are entitled to equal protection of the law against any arbitrary discrimination.

No Amendment

Substitute:

No one shall be held in slavery or involuntary servitude.

Substitute:

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest or detention.

Substitute:

Everyone, in the determination of his rights and obligations or of any criminal charge against him, is entitled to a fair hearing by an impartial tribunal.
