1. The Preparatory Commission for the International Criminal Court, established in accordance with resolution F adopted by the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court on 17 July 1998, met at United Nations Headquarters from 16 to 26 February, 26 July to 13 August and 29 November to 17 December 1999 in accordance with General Assembly resolution 53/105 of 8 December 1998 to carry out the mandate under that resolution and, in that connection, to discuss ways to enhance the effectiveness and acceptance of the Court.

2. Under paragraph 2 of resolution F of the Conference, the Preparatory Commission shall consist of representatives of States which have signed the Final Act of the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court and other States which have been invited to participate in the Conference.

1. Opening of the session.
2. Election of officers.
3. Adoption of the agenda.
4. Organization of work.
5. Implementation of resolution F of the Final Act of the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court, adopted on 17 July 1998, and paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 53/105 of 8 December 1998.
6. Adoption of the report.

9. Also at its 1st meeting, the Preparatory Commission agreed that its rules of procedure were the rules of procedure of the General Assembly as applied to the Main Committees together with paragraphs 6 and 7 of General Assembly resolution 53/105.

10. Taking account of the priorities set forth by resolution F of the Conference, the Preparatory Commission agreed on a work plan focusing on two essential instruments necessary for the functioning of the Court: the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, and the Elements of Crimes.

* Incorporating documents PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1, PCNICC/1999/L.4/Rev.1 and those issued in the following series: PCNICC/1999/WGEC/RT, PCNICC/1999/WGRPE(...)/RT and PCNICC/1999/WGCA/RT.

11. In order to facilitate the tasks of the Preparatory Commission, the Chairman, in consultation with the Bureau, designated the following coordinators:

- Mr. Herman von Hebel (Netherlands) for the Elements of Crimes;
- Ms. Silvia Fernandez de Gurmendi (Argentina) for the Rules of Procedure and Evidence;

12. Taking account of the remaining tasks of the Preparatory Commission listed in resolution F of the Conference, at the first session, the Chairman, in consultation with the Bureau, asked Mr. Tuvako Manongi (United Republic of Tanzania) to serve as coordinator for the crime of aggression. In addition, the Chairman designated Mr. Hiroshi Kawamura (Japan) as the contact point in respect of the draft texts of financial regulations and rules, a budget for the first financial year and the rules of procedure of the Assembly of States Parties; and Mr. Cristian Maquieira (Chile) as the contact point for the draft texts of a relationship agreement between the Court and the United Nations, basic principles governing a headquarters agreement to be negotiated between the Court and the host country, a draft agreement on the privileges and immunities of the Court, and the request contained in paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 53/105.

13. At its 3rd meeting, on 26 February 1999, the Preparatory Commission took note of the oral reports of the coordinators for the Elements of Crimes and for the Rules of Procedure and Evidence with respect to the work accomplished at the first session. At the same meeting, for ease of reference of delegations, the Preparatory Commission requested the Secretariat to prepare a document on the basis of the oral reports of the coordinators and to annex it to the proceedings of the Preparatory Commission at its first session (PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1, annex).

14. At its second session, the Preparatory Commission proceeded with its work on the basis of its agenda (PCNICC/1999/L.1), adopted on 16 February 1999.

15. The Preparatory Commission also undertook a number of informal consultations with respect to the crime of aggression.

16. At its 7th meeting, on 9 August 1999, the Preparatory Commission agreed on the following arrangements concerning the question of the crime of aggression:

(a) A working group on the crime of aggression would be established at the outset of the next session of the Preparatory Commission;

(b) At the next and the following sessions of the Preparatory Commission, the plenary traditionally held each Monday morning would be maintained, but would be significantly shorter, essentially limited to brief reports by the coordinators;

(c) A meeting of the Working Group on the Crime of Aggression would follow each of the Monday morning plenary meetings, until the end of the morning;

(d) Informal consultations on the crime of aggression would be conducted at other times where possible and appropriate, it being understood that this should be without prejudice to the requirements of the work on subjects which must be completed by 30 June 2000. Within the limits of what was practicable, the Secretariat would endeavour to provide the best possible facilities for those informal consultations;

(e) The above arrangements were based on a clear and general understanding that they would remain unchanged until 30 June 2000, and that no additional requests concerning organization of the work with respect to the crime of aggression would be made before that date.

17. At its 5th meeting, on 30 July 1999, the Preparatory Commission was addressed by Judge Gabrielle Kirk McDonald, President of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia.

18. At its 8th meeting, on 13 August 1999, the Preparatory Commission took note of the oral reports of the coordinators for the Rules of Procedure and Evidence related to Part 4 and to Parts 5, 6 and 8 of the Rome Statute and of the coordinator for Elements of Crimes on the work accomplished at the second session. At the same meeting, for ease of reference of delegations, the Commission requested the Secretariat to prepare a document on the basis of the oral reports of the coordinators and to annex it to the proceedings of the second session (PCNICC/1999/L.4/Rev.1, annex).

19. At its third session, the Preparatory Commission proceeded with its work on the basis of its agenda (PCNICC/1999/L.1), adopted on 16 February 1999.

20. At its 12th meeting, on 17 December 1999, the Preparatory Commission took note of the oral report of the coordinators for Elements of Crimes and for the Rules of Procedure and Evidence for Parts 2, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of the Statute and of the coordinator for the Crime of Aggression. At the same meetings, the Commission noted that it had completed a first reading of the Elements of Crimes and the Rules of Procedure and Evidence.

21. At the same meeting, the Preparatory Commission took note that the General Assembly by its resolution 54/105 of 9 December 1999 had renewed the mandate of the Commission and, in accordance with paragraph 3 of that resolution, the Secretary-General was requested to convene the Commission from 13 to 31 March, 12 to 30 June and 27 November to 8 December 2000.

22. In order to facilitate the task of the Preparatory Commission at its next sessions, the Commission requested the Secretariat to prepare an organized and consolidated text of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence and of the Elements of Crimes on the basis of the proceedings of the first, second and third sessions of the Commission (see annexes II and III respectively).

23. The Preparatory Commission took note of the Intergovernmental Regional Caribbean Conference for the signature and ratification of the Statute of the International Criminal Court hosted by the Ministry of the Attorney General of Trinidad and Tobago and the No Peace Without Justice Foundation, in Port-of-Spain from 15 to 17 March 1999, as well as the Port-of-Spain Declaration resulting therefrom; the international seminar on victims' access to the International Criminal Court hosted by the Government of France in Paris from 27 to 29 April 1999; the informal inter-sessional meeting hosted by the International Institute of Higher Studies in Criminal Sciences in Siracusa, Italy, from 21 to 27 June 1999; and the two briefing sessions on ratification and implementation legislation of the Rome Statute, hosted by the International Human Rights Law Institute of DePaul University and Parliamentarians for Global Action on 31 July and 7 August 1999 at United Nations Headquarters in New York.

24. The Preparatory Commission also noted with satisfaction that, during its first, second and third sessions, a total of 52 delegates had made use of the trust fund which, pursuant to paragraph 8 of General Assembly resolution 53/105, had been established to facilitate the participation of the least developed countries in the work of the Commission. The International Human Rights Law Institute of DePaul University provided accommodation for those delegates that attended the second session.

4. The Court, upon receipt of a complaint relating to the crime of aggression under article 13 (a) or (c), shall, with due regard to the provisions of Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, first request the Security Council to determine whether or not an act of aggression has been committed by the State whose national is concerned.
5. The Security Council shall make a decision upon this request within [6] [12] months.
6. Notification of this decision shall be made by letter from the President of the Security Council to the President of the International Criminal Court without delay.

Variation 1

7. In the absence of a decision of the Security Council within the time-frame referred to in paragraph 5 above, the Court may proceed.
8. The decision of the Security Council under paragraph 5 above shall not be interpreted as in any way affecting the independence of the Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction with regard to the crime of aggression.

Variation 2

7. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 above, in the absence of a decision by the Security Council within the time-frame referred to in paragraph 5 above, the Court shall, with due regard to the provisions of articles 12, 14 and 24 of the Charter, request the General Assembly of the United Nations to make a recommendation.
8. The General Assembly shall make such a recommendation within [12] months.
9. Notification of this recommendation shall be made by letter from the President of the General Assembly to the President of the International Criminal Court without delay.
10. In the absence of such a recommendation within the time-frame referred to in paragraph 8 above, the Court may proceed.
11. The decision of the Security Council under paragraph 5 above or the recommendation of the General Assembly under paragraph 8 above shall not be interpreted as in any way affecting the independence of the Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction with regard to the crime of aggression.

Option 2

1. The Court shall exercise its jurisdiction with regard to the crime of aggression subject to a determination by the Security Council in accordance with article 39 of the Charter, that an act of aggression has been committed by the State concerned.
2. When a complaint related to the crime of aggression has been lodged, the Court shall first seek to discover whether a determination has been made by the Security Council with regard to the alleged aggression by the State concerned and, if not, it will request, subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Security Council to proceed to such a determination.
3. If the Security Council does not make such a determination or does not make use of article 16 of the Statute within 12 months of the request, the Court shall proceed with the case in question.

Option 3¹

For the purposes of the present Statute and subject to a prior determination by the United Nations Security Council of an act of aggression by the State concerned, the crime of aggression means any of the following acts: planning, preparing, initiating or carrying out a war of aggression.

Explanatory noteA. On the definition of the crime of aggression

- (i) The previous text represents an attempt to consolidate, to the extent possible, the proposals already made on the question of definition of the crime of aggression for the purpose of the Rome Statute.
- (ii) The text accepts two basic principles, which seem to enjoy widespread support: the principle under which the crime of aggression is committed by political or military leaders of a State; and the principle that the planning, preparation or ordering of aggression should be criminalized only when an act of aggression takes place.
- (iii) Option 1 presents three variations after the first sentence in paragraph 1. These variations correspond to most of the various approaches that were suggested with regard to definition: general definition, definition based on the object or result of occupying or annexing the territory of the attacked State or part thereof, general definition plus detailed list of acts taken from General Assembly resolution 3314 (XXIX) of 14 December 1974.
- (iv) Option 2 covers both the definition and the relationship with the Security Council, and is based, in its definitional part, on article 6 (a) of the Charter of the International Military Tribunal of Nuremberg.
- (v) On some points, square brackets appeared to be inevitable to show the different formulas that were suggested. Where part of the text is added in square brackets, this is not intended to indicate lesser support for that part.

B. On the conditions for the exercise of jurisdiction

- (i) The text is an attempt to consolidate all the proposals circulated so far on this issue, taking also into account views expressed by delegations from the floor.
- (ii) Option 1 is an attempt to reflect views seeking to reconcile the prerogatives of the Security Council with the independence of the Court.

Hence, it is founded on the following considerations:

- Article 5 (2) of the Statute of the International Criminal Court stipulates that the definition of the crime of aggression and the conditions under which the Court shall exercise jurisdiction with respect to this crime shall be consistent with the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations;
- As set out in article 39 of the Charter, the Security Council has the responsibility for establishing the existence of an act of aggression;
- The Court exercises its jurisdiction over persons on the crime of aggression (articles 1, 5 and 25 of the Statute);

¹ Option 3 is duplicated and appears also under the definition of the crime of aggression since it covers the two issues, namely, the definition of the crime and conditions for the exercise of jurisdiction.

- The crime of aggression presupposes the existence of an act of aggression;
 - The trigger mechanism should therefore recognize the primary responsibility of the Security Council to establish the existence of an act of aggression in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter;
 - Variation 2 is based on the assumption that if, for any reason, the Security Council cannot make a decision, the Charter itself provides for an internal mechanism to address the issue.
- (iii) Option 3 embodies both the definition and the relationship between the Court and the Security Council, and is based in its conditional part on the proposal as contained in article 23 (2) of the International Law Commission draft statute for the International Criminal Court.
