Summary*

Rapporteur: Mr. Salah Suheimat (Jordan)

1. The Preparatory Commission for the International Criminal Court, established in accordance with resolution F adopted by the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court on 17 July 1998, met at United Nations Headquarters from 13 to 31 March 2000, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 54/105 of 9 December 1999.
2. Under paragraph 2 of resolution F of the Conference, the Preparatory Commission shall consist of representatives of States which have signed the Final Act of the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court and other States which have been invited to participate in the Conference.
3. Under paragraph 3 of General Assembly resolution 54/105, the Secretary-General was requested to convene the Preparatory Commission, in accordance with resolution F of the Conference, from 13 to 31 March, 12 to 30 June and 27 November to 8 December 2000, to carry out the mandate of that resolution and, in that connection, to discuss ways to enhance the effectiveness and acceptance of the Court.
4. In accordance with paragraph 5 of the same resolution, the Secretary-General invited, as observers to the Preparatory Commission, representatives of organizations and other entities that have received a standing invitation from the General Assembly, pursuant to its relevant resolutions, to participate in the capacity of observers in its sessions and work, and also invited as observers to the Preparatory Commission representatives of interested regional intergovernmental organizations and other interested international bodies, including the international tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and for Rwanda.
5. Under paragraph 6 of resolution 54/105, non-governmental organizations may participate in the work of the Preparatory Commission by attending its plenary and its other open meetings in accordance with the rules of procedure of the Commission, receiving copies of the official documents and making available their materials to delegates.
6. The Director of the Codification Division of the Office of Legal Affairs, Mr. Václav Mikulka, acted as Secretary of the Preparatory Commission. The Codification Division provided the substantive servicing for the Commission.
7. The Bureau of the Preparatory Commission, elected at its 1st and 2nd meetings, on 16 and 22 February 1999, continued its work with the following composition:

* Incorporating documents PCNICC/2000/L.1, PCNICC/1999/L.5/Rev.1 and Add.1 and 2 (those portions the consideration of which was deferred to the next session) and those issued in the following series: PCNICC/2000/WGEC/RT, PCNICC/2000/WGRPE(...)/RT and PCNICC/2000/WGCA/RT.

Chairperson:

Mr. Philippe Kirsch (Canada)

Vice-Chairpersons:

Mr. George Winston McKenzie (Trinidad and Tobago)

Mr. Medard R. Rwelamira (South Africa)

Mr. Muhamed Sacirbey (Bosnia and Herzegovina)

Rapporteur:

Mr. Salah Suheimat (Jordan)

8. At its fourth session, the Preparatory Commission proceeded with its work on the basis of its agenda (PCNICC/1999/L.1), adopted on 16 February 1999.

9. Taking account of the priorities set forth by resolution F of the Conference, the Preparatory Commission agreed on a work plan for the March session, focusing on two essential instruments necessary for the functioning of the Court: the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, and the Elements of Crimes. With respect to the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, the Preparatory Commission concentrated on such rules pertaining to the following parts of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court: Part 2 (Jurisdiction, Admissibility and Applicable Law); Part 4 (Composition and Administration of the Court); Part 5 (Investigation and Prosecution); Part 6 (The Trial); Part 8 (Appeal and Revision); Part 9 (International Cooperation and Judicial Assistance); and Part 10 (Enforcement). With regard to the Elements of Crimes, the Preparatory Commission concentrated on the elements of the crime of genocide and of war crimes. The Commission also held a number of meetings and consultations with respect to the crime of aggression.

10. The coordinators, designated by the Chairperson, in consultation with the Bureau, at the first session of the Preparatory Commission,¹ continued their work also during the fourth session of the Preparatory Commission.

11. At its 16th meeting, on 31 March 2000, the Preparatory Commission took note of the oral reports of the coordinators for the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, the Elements of Crimes and the crime of aggression.

12. At the same meeting, in order to facilitate the task of the Preparatory Commission at its next sessions, the Commission requested the Secretariat to prepare an organized and consolidated text of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence and of the Elements of Crimes on the basis of the proceedings as of the end of the current session of the Commission. In addition, the Chairman announced that the Bureau was of the opinion that it would be useful to have an inter-sessional meeting of the Coordinators and sub-coordinators dealing with the Rules of Procedure and Evidence to ensure consistency, avoid duplication and consider the structure of the Rules without making any changes in the substance of the text. The Chairman also announced that Canada had offered to host the meeting and that arrangements were being made to that effect.

13. The Preparatory Commission was addressed by Judge Richard George May of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia at its 14th meeting, on 20 March 2000, and by Mr. Olara Otunnu, Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Children and Armed Conflict, at its 16th meeting, on 31 March 2000.

14. The Preparatory Commission took note of the informal inter-sessional meeting hosted by the Government of Italy and the International Institute of Higher Studies in Criminal Sciences in Siracusa, Italy, from 31 January to 6 February 2000.

15. The Preparatory Commission also noted with satisfaction that during its fourth session a total of nine delegates had made use of the trust fund which, pursuant to paragraph 8 of General Assembly resolution 53/105 of 8 December 1998, had been established to facilitate the participation of the least developed countries in the work of the Commission. The Preparatory Commission also expressed its appreciation for the recent contributions to the trust fund by the Holy See and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

Crime of aggression

[Original: English]

(Prepared on the basis of the discussion papers proposed by the Coordinator)¹

Consolidated text of proposals on the crime of aggression

Definition of the crime of aggression

Option 1

1. For the purposes of the present Statute, [and subject to a determination by the Security Council regarding the act of a State,] the crime of aggression means [the use of the armed force, including the initiation thereof, by an individual who is in a position of exercising control or directing the political or military action of a State, against the sovereignty, territorial integrity or political independence of a State in violation of the Charter of the United Nations.] any of the following acts committed by [an individual] [a person] who is in a position of exercising control or capable of directing the political or military action of a State:
 - (a) initiating, or
 - (b) carrying out

Variation 1

[an armed attack] [the use of armed force] [a war of aggression] [a war of aggression, or a war in violation of international treaties, agreements or assurances, or participation in a common plan or conspiracy for the accomplishment of any of the foregoing] against another State [against another State, or depriving other peoples of their rights to self-determination], in [manifest] contravention of the Charter of the United Nations, to violate [to threaten or to violate] the [sovereignty,] territorial integrity or political independence of that State [or the inalienable rights of those people] [except when this is required by the principle of equal rights and self-determination of peoples and the rights of individual or collective self-defence]

an armed attack directed by a State against the territorial integrity or political independence of another State when this armed attack was undertaken in manifest contravention of the Charter of the United Nations with the object or result of establishing a military occupation of, or annexing, the territory of such other State or part thereof by armed forces of the attacking State.

¹ The consolidated text of proposals on the crime of aggression was issued at the third session of the Preparatory Commission and the preliminary list of possible issues relating to the crime of aggression was issued at the fourth session.

Add the following paragraph to paragraph 1, variation 1, above:

2. Provided that the acts concerned or their consequences are of sufficient gravity, [acts constituting aggression include] [the use of the armed force includes] [are] the following [whether preceded by a declaration of war or not]:
 - (a) The invasion or attack by the armed forces of a State of a territory of another State, or any military occupation, however temporary, resulting from such invasion or attack, or any annexation by the use of force of the territory of another State or part thereof;
 - (b) Bombardment by the armed forces of a State against the territory of another State or the use of any weapons by a State against the territory of another State;
 - (c) The blockade [of the ports or coasts] of a State by the armed forces of another State;
 - (d) An attack by the armed forces of a State on the land, sea or air forces, or marine and air fleets of another State;
 - (e) The use of armed forces of one State which are within the territory of another State with the agreement of the receiving State, in contravention of the conditions provided for in the agreement or any extension of their presence in such territory beyond the termination of the agreement;
 - (f) The action of a State in allowing its territory, which it placed at the disposal of another State, to be used by that other State for perpetrating an act of aggression against a third State;
 - (g) The sending by or on behalf of a State of armed bands, groups, irregulars or mercenaries, which carry out acts of armed force against another State of such gravity as to amount to the acts listed before, or its substantial involvement therein.
3. When an attack [the use of armed force] under paragraph 1 has been committed, the
 - (a) planning
 - (b) preparing, or
 - (c) orderingthereof by an individual who is in a position of exercising control or capable of directing the political or military action of a State shall also constitute a crime of aggression.

Option 2

For the purposes of the present Statute and subject to a prior determination by the United Nations Security Council of an act of aggression by the State concerned, the crime of aggression means any of the following acts: planning, preparing, initiating or carrying out a war of aggression.

Conditions for the exercise of jurisdiction

Option 1

1. The Court shall exercise its jurisdiction with regard to the crime of aggression in accordance with the provisions of article 13 of the Statute.
2. The Security Council shall determine the existence of an act of aggression perpetrated by the State whose national is concerned in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations before proceedings take place in the Court with regard to the crime of aggression.
3. The Security Council, acting in accordance with article 13 (b) of the Statute of the International Criminal Court, shall first make a decision establishing that an act of aggression has been committed by the State whose national is concerned.
4. The Court, upon receipt of a complaint relating to the crime of aggression under article 13 (a) or (c), shall, with due regard to the provisions of Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, first request the Security Council to determine whether or not an act of aggression has been committed by the State whose national is concerned.
5. The Security Council shall make a decision upon this request within [6] [12] months.
6. Notification of this decision shall be made by letter from the President of the Security Council to the President of the International Criminal Court without delay.

Variation 1

7. In the absence of a decision of the Security Council within the time-frame referred to in paragraph 5 above, the Court may proceed.
8. The decision of the Security Council under paragraph 5 above shall not be interpreted as in any way affecting the independence of the Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction with regard to the crime of aggression.

Variation 2

7. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 above, in the absence of a decision by the Security Council within the time-frame referred to in paragraph 5 above, the Court shall, with due regard to the provisions of articles 12, 14 and 24 of the Charter, request the General Assembly of the United Nations to make a recommendation.
8. The General Assembly shall make such a recommendation within [12] months.
9. Notification of this recommendation shall be made by letter from the President of the General Assembly to the President of the International Criminal Court without delay.
10. In the absence of such a recommendation within the time-frame referred to in paragraph 8 above, the Court may proceed.

11. The decision of the Security Council under paragraph 5 above or the recommendation of the General Assembly under paragraph 8 above shall not be interpreted as in any way affecting the independence of the Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction with regard to the crime of aggression.

Option 2

1. The Court shall exercise its jurisdiction with regard to the crime of aggression subject to a determination by the Security Council in accordance with article 39 of the Charter, that an act of aggression has been committed by the State concerned.
2. When a complaint related to the crime of aggression has been lodged, the Court shall first seek to discover whether a determination has been made by the Security Council with regard to the alleged aggression by the State concerned and, if not, it will request, subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Security Council to proceed to such a determination.
3. If the Security Council does not make such a determination or does not make use of article 16 of the Statute within 12 months of the request, the Court shall proceed with the case in question.

Option 3²

For the purposes of the present Statute and subject to a prior determination by the United Nations Security Council of an act of aggression by the State concerned, the crime of aggression means any of the following acts: planning, preparing, initiating or carrying out a war of aggression.

Explanatory note

A. On the definition of the crime of aggression

- (i) The previous text represents an attempt to consolidate, to the extent possible, the proposals already made on the question of definition of the crime of aggression for the purpose of the Rome Statute.
- (ii) The text accepts two basic principles, which seem to enjoy widespread support: the principle under which the crime of aggression is committed by political or military leaders of a State; and the principle that the planning, preparation or ordering of aggression should be criminalized only when an act of aggression takes place.
- (iii) Option 1 presents three variations after the first sentence in paragraph 1. These variations correspond to most of the various approaches that were suggested with regard to definition: general definition, definition based on the object or result of occupying or annexing the territory of the attacked State or part thereof, general definition plus detailed list of acts taken from General Assembly resolution 3314 (XXIX) of 14 December 1974.

² Option 3 is duplicated and appears also under the definition of the crime of aggression since it covers the two issues, namely, the definition of the crime and conditions for the exercise of jurisdiction.

- (iv) Option 2 covers both the definition and the relationship with the Security Council, and is based, in its definitional part, on article 6 (a) of the Charter of the International Military Tribunal of Nuremberg.
- (v) On some points, square brackets appeared to be inevitable to show the different formulas that were suggested. Where part of the text is added in square brackets, this is not intended to indicate lesser support for that part.

B. On the conditions for the exercise of jurisdiction

- (i) The text is an attempt to consolidate all the proposals circulated so far on this issue, taking also into account views expressed by delegations from the floor.
- (ii) Option 1 is an attempt to reflect views seeking to reconcile the prerogatives of the Security Council with the independence of the Court.

Hence, it is founded on the following considerations:

- Article 5 (2) of the Statute of the International Criminal Court stipulates that the definition of the crime of aggression and the conditions under which the Court shall exercise jurisdiction with respect to this crime shall be consistent with the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations;
 - As set out in article 39 of the Charter, the Security Council has the responsibility for establishing the existence of an act of aggression;
 - The Court exercises its jurisdiction over persons on the crime of aggression (articles 1, 5 and 25 of the Statute);
 - The crime of aggression presupposes the existence of an act of aggression;
 - The trigger mechanism should therefore recognize the primary responsibility of the Security Council to establish the existence of an act of aggression in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter;
 - Variation 2 is based on the assumption that if, for any reason, the Security Council cannot make a decision, the Charter itself provides for an internal mechanism to address the issue.
- (iii) Option 3 embodies both the definition and the relationship between the Court and the Security Council, and is based in its conditional part on the proposal as contained in article 23 (2) of the International Law Commission draft statute for the International Criminal Court.

Preliminary list of possible issues relating to the crime of aggression

Discussion paper proposed by the Coordinator

A possible checklist of issues to be addressed in developing proposals for a provision on aggression in accordance with article 5, paragraph 2, of the Rome Statute and resolution F, paragraph 7, adopted by the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court

N.B. This preliminary list of possible issues is based on an initial review of the Rome Statute with a view to determining the provisions that may in some way be related to the definition of the crime of aggression. This non-exhaustive list is intended to facilitate a thematic discussion of possible issues most of which are closely interrelated.

I. Possible issues relating to the Rome Statute

• Definition

- (i) Whether the definition should be more general in nature referring to what may be the essential characteristics of the crime of aggression.
(Possible instruments of reference: Charter of the United Nations; Nürnberg Charter; Draft Code of Crimes against the Peace and Security of Mankind; case law and other documents)
- (ii) Whether the definition should include a more specific list of acts which could constitute the crime of aggression.
(Possible instrument of reference: General Assembly resolution 3314 (XXIX))
- (iii) Whether it would be possible to identify some acts listed in resolution 3314 (XXIX) and add them to the general definition of the crime of aggression.

• Conditions under which the Court shall exercise jurisdiction

- (i) What role should be played by the Security Council in relation to the jurisdiction of the Court over the crime of aggression?
- (ii) What action, if any, could be taken in the event that the Security Council fails or otherwise declines to determine that an act of aggression has occurred?
- (iii) What are the legal effects on the functions of the Court arising from a determination by the Security Council that an act of aggression was committed by a State?

- Consistency with the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations

- Complementarity and admissibility

How would the provisions of the Statute on complementarity (admissibility, challenges to the Court's jurisdiction) be applicable to the crime of aggression? (This could include issues dealt with in preambular paragraphs 6 and 10, article 1, as well as articles 12 to 19 of the Rome Statute.)

- Ne bis in idem

Applicability of exceptions to the crime of aggression (Rome Statute, art. 20 (3), only refers to crimes in arts. 6, 7 and 8).

- General principles of criminal law

Consider the relationship between the definition of the crime of aggression and the articles on general principles of criminal law:

- (i) Nullum crimen sine lege (art. 22)
- (ii) Nulla poena sine lege (art. 23)
- (iii) Non-retroactivity ratione personae (art. 24)
- (iv) Individual criminal responsibility (art. 25)
- (v) Exclusion of jurisdiction over persons under eighteen (art. 26)
- (vi) Irrelevance of official capacity (art. 27)
- (vii) Responsibility of commanders and other superiors (art. 28)
- (viii) Non-applicability of statute of limitations (art. 29)
- (ix) Mental element (art. 30)
- (x) Grounds for excluding criminal responsibility (art. 31)
- (xi) Mistake of fact or mistake of law (art. 32)
- (xii) Superior orders and prescription of law (art. 33)

- Investigation and prosecution

Consider the provisions concerning the investigation and prosecution of crimes with respect to the crime of aggression (e.g., initiation of an investigation (art. 53))

- National security information

Consider the provisions concerning the protection of national security information in relation to the crime of aggression (art. 57 (3) (c), art. 72, art. 93 (4) and art. 99 (5))

- International cooperation and judicial assistance

These provisions may require further consideration depending upon the applicability of the principle of complementarity to the crime of aggression.

The following parts of the Rome Statute do not appear to raise possible issues regarding the definition of the crime of aggression:

- Part 4. Composition and Administration of the Court;
- Part 7. Penalties (The penalties set forth in article 77 are applicable to all crimes referred to in article 5.);
- Part 8. Appeal and Revision;
- Part 10. Enforcement;
- Part 11. Assembly of States Parties;
- Part 12. Financing;
- Part 13. Final Clauses (The provision on aggression is to be adopted in accordance with articles 121 and 123 pursuant to article 5 of the Rome Statute.)

II. Possible issues relating to the Elements of Crimes

- The elements of the crime of aggression are provided for in resolution F rather than article 9 of the Rome Statute.
- Consider the structure and general provisions of the elements of the other crimes prepared pursuant to article 9 of the Rome Statute to ensure consistency.

III. Possible issues relating to the Rules of Procedure and Evidence

- Review the final text of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence prepared by the Preparatory Commission to determine whether there are provisions that require consideration in relation to the definition of the crime of aggression.

IV. Other possible issues

- What are the legal effects on the ICC of a decision of the International Court of Justice concerning aggression?
