Decisions

At its 3278th meeting, on 17 September 1993, the Council discussed the item entitled "The question concerning Haiti".

At the same meeting, following consultations held earlier among members of the Council, the President made the following statement on behalf of the Council.<sup>14</sup>

"The Security Council deplores the recent upsurge in violence in Haiti, particularly the events of 11 and 12 September 1993, when at least a dozen people were assassinated, including a prominent supporter of President Aristide, during a church service.

"The Council is deeply concerned at these developments as well as at the existence of organized armed civilian groups in the capital which are attempting to interfere with the new constitutional Government's proper assumption of its functions.

"The Council considers it imperative that the constitutional Government of Haiti assume control over the security forces of the country, and that those responsible for the activities of the organized armed civilian groups throughout the country, and particularly in Port-au-Prince, be held personally accountable for their actions and removed from their functions. It also urges the Haitian authorities to take immediate measures with a view to disarming these groups.

"The Council strongly calls upon the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces, also in his capacity as signatory to the Governors Island Agreement,<sup>6</sup> to carry out his responsibilities to the fullest by ensuring immediate compliance with the letter and the spirit of the Agreement.

"The Council will hold the Haitian military and security authorities personally responsible for the safety of all United Nations personnel in Haiti.

"Unless there is a clear and immediate effort by the security forces to put an end to the present levels of violence and intimidation, and unless the above requirements are met, the Council will have no alternative but to consider that the authorities responsible for public order in Haiti are not complying in good faith with the Agreement.

"Therefore, should the Secretary-General, in accordance with resolution 861 (1993) of 27 August 1993, and having received the views of the Secretary-General of the Organization of American States, inform the Council that, in his opinion, there is a serious and consistent non-compliance with the Agreement, the Council will immediately reinstate those measures provided for in its resolution 841 (1993) of 16 June 1993 appropriate to the situation, with particular emphasis on those measures aimed at those deemed responsible for the non-compliance with the Agreement.

"The Council reaffirms that all the parties in Haiti are bound to comply with their obligations under the Agreement, as well as with those embodied in the relevant international treaties to which Haiti is party and in all relevant Council resolutions.

"The Council will closely monitor the situation in Haiti in the coming days."

At its 3282nd meeting, on 23 September 1993, the Council discussed the item entitled "The question concerning Haiti: report of the Secretary-General (S/26480 and Add.1)".<sup>7</sup>
