2. States not members of the Commission and international governmental organizations may attend the session as observers and participate in the deliberations. In addition, invited international non-governmental organizations may attend the session as observers and represent the views of their organizations on matters where the organization concerned has expertise or international experience so as to facilitate the deliberations at the session.

III. Annotations to agenda items

1. Opening of the session and scheduling of meetings

3. The forty-seventh session of the Working Group will be held at the Vienna International Centre, from 10 to 14 September 2007. Meeting hours will be from 9.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. and from 2 to 5 p.m., except on Monday, 10 September 2007, when the session will be opened at 10 a.m. There will be five working days available for consideration of the agenda items at that session. The Working Group is expected to hold substantive deliberations during the first nine meetings (that is from Monday to Friday morning), with a draft report on the entire period being presented for adoption at the tenth and last meeting of the Working Group (on Friday afternoon).

2. Election of officers

4. In accordance with its practice at previous sessions, the Working Group may wish to elect a Chairperson and a Rapporteur.

4. Revision of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules

(a) Previous deliberations of the Working Group

5. At its thirty-first session (New York, 1-12 June 1998), the Commission, with reference to discussions at the special commemorative New York Convention Day held in June 1998 to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards (New York, 1958) (“the New York Convention”), considered that it would be useful to engage in a discussion of possible future work in the area of arbitration. It requested the Secretariat to prepare a note that would serve as a basis for the consideration of the Commission at its next session.¹

6. At its thirty-second session (Vienna, 17 May-4 June 1999), the Commission had before it a note entitled “Possible future work in the area of international commercial arbitration” (A/CN.9/460). Welcoming the opportunity to discuss the desirability and feasibility of further development of the law of international commercial arbitration, the Commission generally considered that the time had come to assess the extensive and favourable experience with national enactments of the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration (1985) (“the Model Law”), as well as the use of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules and the UNCITRAL Conciliation Rules, and to evaluate, in the universal forum of the Commission, the acceptability of ideas and proposals for improvement of arbitration laws, rules and practices.² When the Commission discussed that topic, it left open the question of what form its future work might take. It was agreed that decisions on the matter should be taken later as the substance of proposed solutions became clearer. Uniform provisions might, for example, take the form of a legislative text (such as model legislative provisions or a treaty) or a non-legislative text (such as a model contractual rule or a practice guide).³

7. At its thirty-fifth session (New York, 17-28 June 2002), the Commission adopted the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Conciliation.⁴

8. At its thirty-ninth session (New York, 19 June-7 July 2006), the Commission adopted legislative provisions amending the Arbitration Model Law on the form of arbitration agreement and interim measures. The Commission adopted as well a recommendation on the interpretation of article II, paragraph (2) and article VII, paragraph (1), of the New York Convention.⁵

9. At that session, the Commission agreed that the topic of revising the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules should be given priority. The Commission noted that, as one of the early instruments elaborated by UNCITRAL in the field of arbitration, the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules were recognized as a very successful text, adopted by many arbitration centres and used in many different instances, such as, for example, in investor-State disputes. In recognition of the success and status of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, the Commission was generally of the view that any revision of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules should not alter the structure of the text, its spirit, its drafting style, and should respect the flexibility of the text rather than add to its complexity. It was suggested that the Working Group should undertake to carefully define the list of topics which might need to be addressed in a revised version of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.⁶

10. The topic of arbitrability was said to be an important question, which should also be given priority. It was said that it would be for the Working Group to define whether arbitrable matters could be defined in a generic manner, possibly with an illustrative list of such matters, or whether the legislative provision to be prepared in respect of arbitrability should identify the topics that were not arbitrable. It was suggested that studying the question of arbitrability in the context of immovable property, unfair competition and insolvency could provide useful guidance for States. It was cautioned however that the topic of arbitrability was a matter raising questions of public policy, which was notoriously difficult to define in a uniform manner, and that providing a pre-defined list of arbitrable matters could unnecessarily restrict a State’s ability to meet certain public policy concerns that were likely to evolve over time.⁷

⁶ Ibid., para. 184.

⁷ Ibid., para. 185.

11. Other topics mentioned for possible inclusion in the future work of the Working Group included issues raised by online dispute resolution. It was suggested that the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, when read in conjunction with other instruments, such as the UNCITRAL Model Law on Electronic Commerce and the Convention on Electronic Contracts, already accommodated a number of issues arising in the online context. Another topic was the issue of arbitration in the field of insolvency. Yet another suggestion was made to address the impact of anti-suit injunctions on international arbitration. A further suggestion was made to consider clarifying the notions used in article I, paragraph (1), of the New York Convention of “arbitral awards made in the territory of a State other than the State where the recognition and enforcement of such awards are sought” or “arbitral awards not considered as domestic awards in the State where their recognition and enforcement are sought”, which were said to have raised uncertainty in some State courts. The Commission also heard with interest a statement made on behalf of the International Cotton Advisory Committee suggesting that work could be undertaken by the Commission to promote contract discipline, effectiveness of arbitration agreements and enforcement of awards in that industry.⁸

12. After discussion, the Commission was generally of the view that several matters could be dealt with by the Working Group in parallel. The Commission agreed that the Working Group should resume its work on the question of a revision of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. It was also agreed that the issue of arbitrability was a topic which the Working Group should also consider. As to the issue of online dispute resolution, it was agreed that the Working Group should place the topic on its agenda but at least in an initial phase, deal with the implications of electronic communications in the context of the revision of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.⁹

13. At its forty-fifth session (Vienna, 11-15 September 2006), the Working Group considered the question of a revision of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, and defined the list of topics which might need to be addressed in a revised version of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, on the basis of notes prepared by the Secretariat (A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.143 and A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.143/Add.1). The considerations of the Working Group at that session are reflected in document A/CN.9/614.

14. At its forty-sixth session (New York, 5-9 February 2007), the Working Group started considering a revised draft of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, on the basis of notes prepared by the Secretariat (A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.145 and A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.145/Add.1) and completed its first review of articles 1 to 21 of the revised draft of UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. The considerations of the Working Group at that session are reflected in document A/CN.9/619.

15. At its forty-seventh session, the Working Group is expected to complete its consideration of articles 22 to 41 of the revised version of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, on the basis of a note prepared by the Secretariat (A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.145/Add.1) and to commence its second review of the revised draft of UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, on the basis of a note prepared by the secretariat (A/CN.9/WG.II/WP. 147).

⁹ Ibid., para. 187.

(b) Documentation

16. The Working Group will have before it notes by the Secretariat regarding the revision of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules (A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.145/Add.1 and A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.147).

17. A limited number of the following background documents will be made available at the session:

18. UNCITRAL documents are posted on the UNCITRAL website (<http://www.uncitral.org>) in all the official languages of the United Nations. Delegates may wish to check the availability of the documents by accessing the Working Group's page in the "Working Groups" section of the UNCITRAL website.

6. Adoption of the report

19. The Working Group may wish to adopt, at the close of its session, a report for submission to the forty-first session of the Commission, scheduled to be held in New York from 16 June to 11 July 2008, subject to confirmation by the Commission at its fortieth session. The main conclusions reached by the Working Group at its ninth meeting (on Friday morning) will be summarily read out for the record at the tenth meeting and subsequently incorporated into the report.

7. Forty-eighth session of the Working Group

20. The Working Group may wish to note that its forty-eighth session is scheduled to be held in New York from 4 to 8 February 2008, subject to confirmation by the Commission at its fortieth session.
