I. Introduction

1. The First Review Conference of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention on Prohibitions or Restrictions on the Use of Certain Conventional Weapons Which May Be Deemed to Be Excessively Injurious or to Have Indiscriminate Effects (CCW) agreed, inter alia, that “future review conferences should be held more frequently, with consideration to be given to holding a review conference every five years.” (CCW/CONF.I/16, Part I, Annex III, Final Declaration, Article 8).

2. The Second Review Conference of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention agreed, inter alia, that future review conferences should continue to be held on a regular basis. In this connection, the Conference decided, consistent with Article 8.3 (c) of the Convention, “to convene a further Conference five years following the entry into force of the amendments adopted at the Second Review Conference, but in any case not later than 2006, with preparatory meetings starting as early as 2005, if necessary.” (CCW/CONF.II/2, Part II, Final Declaration, Article 8).

3. The Third Review Conference of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention “[...] recalled their agreement reached by the Second Review Conference in 2001 in reviewing Article 8 of the Convention.” (CCW/CONF.III/11, Part II, Article 8).

4. Following the decision of the Third Review Conference, the 2009 Meeting of the High Contracting Parties decided, as contained in paragraph 38 of CCW/MSP/2009/5, that “the Fourth Review Conference of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention would take place in 2011. The Meeting also decided that the Chairperson-designate of the 2010 Meeting of the High Contracting Parties should undertake consultations during the intersessional period on the preparation of the Fourth Review Conference and shall report to the next Meeting of the High Contracting Parties.”

5. At its sixty-fifth session, the General Assembly of the United Nations welcomed the “decision by the 2009 Meeting of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention that the Fourth Review Conference of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention would take place in 2011 and that the Chair-designate of the 2010 Meeting of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention should undertake consultations during the intersessional period on the preparation of the Fourth Review Conference.” (A/RES/65/89, operative paragraph 7)

6. The 2010 Meeting of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention decided, as contained in paragraph 36 of CCW/MSP/2010/5, to convene the Fourth Review Conference of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention from 14 to 25 November 2011 in Geneva.

7. The 2010 Meeting of the High Contracting Parties decided, as contained in paragraph 35 of CCW/MSP/2010/5, that:

“The Group of Governmental Experts (GGE) will meet from 21 to 25 February, from 28 March to 1 April and from 22 to 26 August 2011.

The GGE will conduct preparatory work for the Fourth Review Conference under the overall responsibility of the President Designate.

The GGE will continue its negotiations informed by the Chair’s Text<sup>1</sup> on a draft protocol on cluster munitions, and taking into account other past, present and future proposals by delegations, with a view to making a recommendation for consideration by the Fourth Review Conference, to address urgently the humanitarian impact of cluster munitions, while striking a balance between military and humanitarian considerations. The work of the GGE will be supported by experts on relevant issues.

The GGE will report to the Fourth Review Conference.”

8. The Group of Governmental Experts decided, as contained in paragraph 17 of CCW/GGE/2011-I/4, to recommend for adoption by the Fourth Review Conference the “Provisional Agenda of the Fourth Review Conference”, as contained in CCW/GGE/2010-II/INF.1, and the “Draft Rules of Procedure of the Fourth Review Conference of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention on Prohibitions or Restrictions on the Use of Certain Conventional Weapons Which May Be Deemed to Be Excessively Injurious or to Have Indiscriminate Effects”, as contained in CCW/GGE/2011-I/3.
