<sup>5</sup> This item remains also on the agenda of the fifty-sixth session (item 133) (see A/56/PV.105).

The concept of strategic deployment stocks and its implementation

At its resumed fifty-sixth session, in June 2002, the General Assembly endorsed the concept and implementation of the strategic deployment stocks for one complex mission; approved $141,546,000 for the strategic deployment stocks, taking into account the reserve at the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy, as at 30 April 2002 that met the requirements of the strategic deployment stocks; decided to credit Member States with their respective share of the cash balance of $95,978,945 from the United Nations Protection Force, the United Nations Confidence Restoration Operation in Croatia, the United Nations Preventive Deployment Force and the United Nations Peace Forces headquarters and $45,567,055 from the United Nations Mission in Haiti to fund the strategic deployment stocks; decided also, on an exceptional and ad hoc basis and without prejudice to Article 17 of the Charter of the United Nations, unless notified otherwise by a Member State within 45 days of the issuance of the notification by the Secretary-General of the apportionment of the respective shares of the cash balances in the accounts referred to above, to effect the transfer of the cash balances to the account of the United Nations Logistics Base for the purpose of financing the strategic deployment stocks; decided further, on an exceptional and ad hoc basis and without prejudice to Article 17 of the Charter, that a Member State that did not select the option referred to above would be assessed its respective share of the $141,546,000 as a one-time requirement according to the levels as at 1 July 2002, by taking into account the scale of assessments for 2002, as set out in its resolution 55/5 B, payment to be made in a manner of the Member State's choosing, to include any combination of the cash balances referred to above and/or new funds, to cover its assessed share of $141,546,000; decided, on an exceptional basis, that in the absence of a direct transfer to the strategic deployment stocks, the respective share of the credits from the liquidated missions would be credited to those Member States once their assessed contribution was received; decided also that those provisions would also apply to Member States that had no share in any of the unencumbered balances; authorized the Secretary-General, on an exceptional and ad hoc basis, following the application of Member States' cash transfers, to transfer a portion of the interest income from the Peacekeeping Reserve Fund, taking into account the provisions of General Assembly resolution 51/218 E, so as to make available to the account of the United Nations Logistics Base a total of $141,546,000, inclusive of Member States' contributions, to establish the strategic deployment stock programme; requested the Secretary-General to report to the Assembly at its fifty-seventh session on the expenses incurred in the implementation of the strategic deployment stocks, and decided to review the financing arrangements after

Support account for peacekeeping operations

Under the terms of paragraph 9 of General Assembly resolution 45/258 of 3 May 1991, the support account for peacekeeping operations was established effective 1 January 1990 for the purpose of meeting the needs of departments and offices at Headquarters providing direct support to peacekeeping operations. It became operational on 1 May 1990 by the incorporation of resources relating to the overload posts that were funded from the separate budgets of the five existing peacekeeping operations that were financed at the time outside the scope of the regular budget. Those peacekeeping operations were the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force, the United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus, the United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon, the United Nations Iran-Iraq Military Observer Group and the United Nations Observer Group for Central America.

In his report dated 29 February 1996 (A/50/876, para. 30), the Secretary-General proposed that the support account funding methodology be changed so that the General Assembly would appropriate the Headquarters backstopping requirements for the 12-month period ending 30 June of the following year and that Member States would be assessed on the same scale as that used for peacekeeping assessments. In its related report (A/50/897), the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions recommended approval of the Secretary-General's proposal and stated that the requirements would be prorated among the individual peacekeeping operations rather than appropriated and assessed separately. In its resolution 50/221 B of 7 June 1996, the Assembly approved on a provisional basis, for the period 1 July 1996 to 30 June 1997, the new support account funding arrangements.

The Security Council, by its resolution 626 (1988) of 20 December 1988, established under its authority the United Nations Angola Verification Mission (UNAVEM) for a period of 31 months beginning 3 January 1989. On 30 May 1991, by its resolution 696 (1991), the Council entrusted a new mandate to the Mission (UNAVEM II) for a period of 17 months from 1 June 1991 to 31 October 1992, as proposed by the Secretary-General in line with the Angola peace accords. By its resolution 976 (1995), the Council authorized the establishment of a peacekeeping operation, UNAVEM III, with an initial mandate of six months until 8 August 1995. The mandate of UNAVEM III was extended by the Council in subsequent resolutions, the last of which was resolution 1106 (1997), which extended the mandate until 30 June 1997. By its resolution 1118 (1997) of 30 June 1997, the Council decided to establish, as from 1 July 1997, the United Nations Observer Mission in Angola (MONUA) with an initial mandate of four months. The mandate of MONUA was extended by the Council in subsequent resolutions, the latest of which was resolution 1229 (1999) of 26 February 1999, by which the Council took note of the fact that the mandate of MONUA had expired on 26 February 1999 and endorsed the recommendations of the Secretary-General regarding the technical liquidation of the Mission.

At its resumed fifty-sixth session, in June 2002, the General Assembly took note of the report of the Secretary-General on the final disposition of the assets of MONUA (A/56/900) and approved the donation of assets, with total inventory value of $235,800 and corresponding residual value of $81,700, to various United Nations agencies and non-governmental organizations, as detailed in annex IV to the report of the Secretary-General (decision 56/472).

The Security Council, by its resolution 687 (1991) of 3 April 1991, decided to set up the United Nations Iraq-Kuwait Observation Mission (UNIKOM). In its resolution 689 (1991) of 9 April 1991, the Council noted that the observer unit could be terminated only by a decision of the Council and that the Council should therefore review the question of termination or continuation of UNIKOM, as well as its modalities of operation, every six months.

The Security Council, having reviewed the question of termination or continuation, on 4 April 2002 concurred with the recommendation of the Secretary-General that UNIKOM be maintained, and decided to review the question once again by 6 October 2002 (see S/2002/349).

At its resumed fifty-sixth session, in June 2002, the General Assembly decided to appropriate to the Special Account for UNIKOM the amount of $52,866,800 for the period from 1 July 2002 to 30 June 2003, inclusive of $50,573,200 for the maintenance of the Observation Mission, $2,048,200 for the support account for peacekeeping operations and $245,400 for the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy; noted with appreciation that a two-thirds share of the appropriation, equivalent to $35,244,600, would be funded through voluntary contributions from the Government of Kuwait, that amount to be partially offset by its share of the estimated staff assessment income in the amount of $1,685,900; decided to apportion among Member States the amount of $17,622,200 at a monthly rate of $1,468,516; decided also that there should be set off against the apportionment among Member States their respective share in the Tax Equalization Fund of $842,800 for the period from 1 July 2002 to 30 June 2003 at a monthly rate of $70,233, comprising the estimated staff assessment income of $742,600 approved for UNIKOM, the prorated share of $92,900 of the estimated staff assessment income approved for the support account and the prorated share of $7,300 of the estimated staff assessment income approved for the United Nations Logistics Base; decided further that, taking into account the unencumbered balance of $2,636,200 and other income of $3,949,000 for the financial period ended 30 June 2001, for Member States that had fulfilled their financial obligations to UNIKOM, there should be set off against their apportionment, their respective share of the unencumbered balance of $878,730 and their respective share of other income of $1,316,330; decided that for Member States that had not fulfilled their financial obligations to UNIKOM, their respective share of the unencumbered balance of $878,730 and other income of $1,316,330 in respect of the financial period ended 30 June 2001 should be set off against their outstanding obligations; decided also that, taking into account the decrease in the staff assessment income of $218,900 in respect of the financial period ended 30 June 2001, there should be set off among Member States the amount of $72,960 against the credits from the unencumbered balance; and decided further that, taking into account the voluntary contribution of the Government of Kuwait for the financial period ended 30 June 2001, two thirds of the unencumbered balance of $1,757,470 and other income of $2,632,670 in respect of the financial period ended 30 June 2001 should be returned to the

The mandate entrusted to UNAMSIL under the terms of Security Council resolution 1270 (1999) was to cooperate with the Government of Sierra Leone and other parties in the implementation of the peace agreement, to assist the Government in the implementation of the disarmament, demobilization and reintegration plan, to establish a presence at key locations, to ensure security and freedom of movement of United Nations personnel, to monitor adherence to the ceasefire agreement, to encourage and support the creation of confidence-building mechanisms, to facilitate the delivery of humanitarian assistance, to support the operation of United Nations civilian officials and to provide support, as requested, for the constitutional elections.

142. Financing of the United Nations Operation in Somalia II<sup>19</sup>

The Security Council, by its resolution 751 (1992) of 24 April 1992, decided to establish the United Nations Operation in Somalia (UNOSOM). The mandate and strength of UNOSOM were subsequently increased by the Council in its resolutions 767 (1992) and 775 (1992). Owing to conditions on the ground, of the total authorized strength of up to 4,219, all ranks, only some 700, including 50 United Nations observers, had been deployed by the end of November 1992.

On 3 December 1992, in order to establish a secure environment for humanitarian relief operations in Somalia, the Security Council, acting under Chapter VII of the Charter, adopted resolution 794 (1992), which resulted in the deployment of the Unified Task Force (UNITAF) and of approximately 37,000 troops in southern and central Somalia.

In its resolution 814 (1993), the Security Council acknowledged the need for a smooth transition from UNITAF to the expanded UNOSOM II and decided to expand the size of the UNOSOM force and its mandate (UNOSOM II), which would require the deployment of a military component of up to 28,000, all ranks. The Council took further action in 1993 regarding UNOSOM II (resolutions 837 (1993), 865 (1993), 878 (1993) and 886 (1993)).

By its resolution 897 (1994), the Security Council authorized the gradual reduction of UNOSOM II to a force level of up to 22,000 and necessary support elements. By its resolution 923 (1994) and 946 (1994), the Council renewed the mandate of UNOSOM II for additional periods expiring on 30 September and 31 October 1994, respectively. In its presidential statement of 25 August 1994, the Council endorsed the proposal contained in the report of the Secretary-General of 17 August 1994 (S/1994/977) to reduce the force level of UNOSOM II to 15,000, all ranks, by the end of October 1994. By its resolution 954 (1994), the Council extended the mandate of the Operation for a final period until 31 March 1995.

At its resumed fifty-sixth session, in June 2002, the General Assembly authorized the Secretary-General to retain an amount of $19,616,000 from the balance of appropriations of $40,940,700 to meet the cost of outstanding Government claims; decided to suspend for the immediate future the provisions of regulations 4.3, 4.4 and 5.2 (d) of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations in respect of the remaining surplus of $21,324,700 in order to allow for the reimbursement of troop contributors and in the light of the cash shortage of the Operation, and requested the Secretary-General to provide an updated report in one year; and decided also to defer consideration of the treatment of the increase in staff assessment income of $950,300 in respect of the surplus referred to above (resolution 56/501).

143. Financing of the United Nations Operation in Mozambique<sup>20</sup>

144. Financing of the United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus<sup>21</sup>

By its resolution 186 (1964) of 4 March 1964, the Security Council recommended that a United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus (UNFICYP) be established and that the Force be stationed for three months with a mandate to use its best efforts to prevent a recurrence of fighting, and, as necessary, to contribute to the maintenance and restoration of law and order and a return to normal conditions. Since then, the Council has periodically extended the mandate of UNFICYP, usually for periods of six months at a time, the latest extension of which was by resolution 1416 (2002) of 13 June 2002 for a further period ending on 15 December 2002.

Until recently, UNFICYP was the only United Nations peacekeeping operation that was not financed from assessed contributions by States Members of the Organization. In its resolution 831 (1993) of 27 May 1993, the Security Council decided that those costs of the Force which were not covered by voluntary contributions should be treated as expenses of the Organization, with effect from the next extension of the Force's mandate on or before 15 June 1993.

At its resumed fifty-sixth session, in June 2002, the General Assembly decided to appropriate to the Special Account for UNFICYP the amount of $45,632,400 for the period from 1 July 2002 to 30 June 2003, inclusive of $43,652,700 for the maintenance of the Force, $1,767,900 for the support account for peacekeeping operations and $211,800 for the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy; noted with appreciation that a one-third share of the appropriation, equivalent to $15,210,800, would be funded through voluntary contributions from the Government of Cyprus and the amount of $6.5 million from the Government of Greece, those amounts to be partially offset by their respective shares of the estimated staff assessment income in the amount of $631,900 for the Government of Cyprus and the amount of $270,100 for the Government of Greece; decided to
