II. Consideration of proposals

A. Draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.14/Rev.1

8. On 8 November 2005, the Committee had before it a draft resolution entitled "The use of spirulina to combat hunger and malnutrition and help achieve sustainable development" (A/C.2/60/L.14/Rev.1), submitted by the representative of the Dominican Republic on behalf of Burundi, Cameroon, the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Paraguay, which read:

“The General Assembly,

“Noting with concern that hunger and malnutrition are a major impediment to sustainable development, and reaffirming that reducing hunger is a primary target of the Millennium Development Goals,

“Recognizing the value of new technologies to enhance food security in environmentally compatible ways, including through public-private alliances for rural development,

“Noting that the nutritional benefits of spirulina (food micro-algae) have been reported in academic research and in the work of agencies of the United Nations system, including the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and the World Health Organization,

“Noting in particular that the merits of spirulina have been recognized through the adoption of international agreements, namely the Free Agreement for Cooperation in Scientific Research and Humanitarian Use of Micro-alga Spirulina as Food and the Convention for the Use of Food Micro-algae and the Intergovernmental Institution for the Use of Spirulina against Malnutrition,

“Taking into account that an intergovernmental organization known as ‘Convention for the Use of Food Micro-algae and the Intergovernmental Institution for the Use of Spirulina against Malnutrition’ has been established in keeping with the above agreements and has been granted observer status in the work of the Economic and Social Council, in accordance with Council decision 2003/212 of 5 March 2003,

“Aiming to encourage greater attention to the production and use of spirulina for the reduction of hunger and poverty and to combat the food crises,

“1. Takes note of the potential of spirulina to reduce hunger and malnutrition and to improve the prospects for sustainable development;

“2. Calls upon Member States, United Nations agencies and other intergovernmental organizations, as well as non-governmental organizations and the private sector, to encourage the production and use of spirulina;

“3. Emphasizes the importance of assisting national activities for the production and use of spirulina, especially in member countries of the Convention for the Use of Food Micro-algae and the Intergovernmental Institution for the Use of Spirulina against Malnutrition;

“4. Decides to review, at its sixty-second session, the progress made in these areas, and requests the Secretary-General to submit a report, through the Economic and Social Council, on the relevant efforts.”

9. At the 35th meeting, on 9 December, the representative of the Dominican Republic withdrew draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.14/Rev.1 (see A/C.2/60/SR.35).

B. Draft resolutions A/C.2/60/L.24 and A/C.2/60/L.60

10. At the 27th meeting, on 10 November 2005, the representative of Jamaica, on behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and

China, introduced a draft resolution entitled “Report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme on its twenty-third session” (A/C.2/60/L.24), which read:

“The General Assembly,

“Recalling its resolutions 2997 (XXVII) of 15 December 1972, 53/242 of 28 July 1999, 56/193 of 21 December 2001, 57/251 of 20 December 2002, 58/209 of 23 December 2003 and 59/226 of 22 December 2004,

“Reaffirming Agenda 21 and the Plan of Implementation of the World Summit on Sustainable Development (‘Johannesburg Plan of Implementation’),

“Reaffirming also the role of the United Nations Environment Programme as the principal body within the United Nations system in the field of environment, which should take into account, within its mandate, the sustainable development needs of developing countries,

“Reaffirming further that capacity-building and technology support to developing countries in environment-related fields are important components of the mandate of the United Nations Environment Programme,

“1. Takes note of the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme at its twenty-third session and the decisions contained therein;

“2. Welcomes the adoption of the Bali Strategic Plan for Technology Support and Capacity-building of the United Nations Environment Programme, calls for the intensification of ongoing efforts to mobilize resources for its expeditious implementation, and requests to be kept informed of its implementation;

“3. Also welcomes the continued efforts by the United Nations Environment Programme towards the strengthening of environmental emergency response and disaster prevention, preparedness and early warning systems in the aftermath of the Indian Ocean tsunami disaster;

“4. Notes the need to further strengthen the scientific base of the United Nations Environment Programme, to enable it to continue to improve the quantity and quality of environmental data and statistics, including the reinforcement of the scientific capacity of developing countries, through the provision of scientific and technical assistance;

“5. Calls upon the United Nations Environment Programme to continue to strengthen its activities related to small island developing States and least developed countries, in pursuance of the outcome of the International Meeting to Review the Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States, held in Port Louis from 10 to 14 January 2005, and the Brussels Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010;

“6. Emphasizes the need to further enhance coordination and cooperation among the relevant United Nations organizations in the promotion of the environmental dimension of sustainable development, and in this respect welcomes the continued participation of the United Nations Environment Programme in the United Nations Development Group;

“7. Invites Governments in a position to do so to provide additional resources to the Environment Fund to enable the United Nations Environment Programme to fully and effectively implement the Bali Strategic Plan for Technology Support and Capacity-Building;

“8. Welcomes the progress made in the implementation of the provisions of section III.B of the appendix to decision SS.VII/1 of the Governing Council on strengthening the role and financial situation of the United Nations Environment Programme, including the significant broadening of the donor base and increasing total contributions to the Environment Fund, and, in this regard, notes that the Governing Council will review the implementation of those provisions at its twenty-fourth session;

“9. Reiterates the need for stable, adequate and predictable financial resources for the United Nations Environment Programme, and in accordance with resolution 2997 (XXVII) underlines the need to consider the adequate reflection of all administrative and management costs of the Environment Programme in the context of the United Nations regular budget, and requests the Secretary-General to consider an increase in such financial allocations;

“10. Emphasizes the importance of the Nairobi headquarters location of the United Nations Environment Programme, and requests the Secretary-General to keep the resource needs of the Environment Programme and the United Nations Office at Nairobi under review so as to permit the delivery, in an effective manner, of necessary services to the Environment Programme and to the other United Nations organs and organizations in Nairobi;

“11. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its sixty-first session on the implementation of the present resolution;

“12. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its sixty-first session an item entitled ‘Report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme on its ninth special session’.”

11. At its 36th meeting, on 13 December, the Committee had before it a draft resolution entitled “Report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme on its twenty-third session” (A/C.2/60/L.60), submitted by the Vice-Chairman, Stefano Toscano (Switzerland), on the basis of informal consultations held on draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.24.

12. Also at the 36th meeting, the Secretary read out an oral statement of programme budget implications.

13. At the same meeting, the Vice-Chairman orally corrected operative paragraph 6.

14. Also at the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.60, as orally corrected (see para. 25, draft resolution I).

15. In the light of the adoption of draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.60, draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.24 was withdrawn by its sponsors.

C. Draft resolutions A/C.2/60/L.26 and A/C.2/60/L.44

16. At the 27th meeting, on 10 November, the representative of Jamaica, on behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and

China, introduced a draft resolution entitled “Global Code of Ethics for Tourism” (A/C.2/60/L.26), which read:

“The General Assembly,

“Recalling its resolution 56/212 of 21 December 2001 and its decision 58/573 of 13 September 2004,

“Recalling also its resolution 58/232 of 23 December 2003, by which it approved the Agreement between the United Nations and the World Tourism Organization,

“Recalling further the Manila Declaration on World Tourism of 10 October 1980, the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development and Agenda 21 of 14 June 1992, and taking note of the Amman Declaration on Peace through Tourism of 11 November 2000, the Johannesburg Declaration on Sustainable Development and the Plan of Implementation of the World Summit on Sustainable Development, the Declaration of Barbados and the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States, the Mauritius Declaration and the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States, and the Brussels Declaration and the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010,

“Noting the growing socio-economic importance of tourism all over the world, especially in developing countries,

“Stressing the substantial contribution of tourism to poverty eradication, sustained economic growth and sustainable development, as well as cultural understanding and peace among nations and the achievement of the internationally agreed development goals, including the Millennium Development Goals,

“1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;

“2. Expresses its satisfaction with the establishment of the World Committee on Tourism Ethics, composed of high-level experts, for the implementation of the principles of the Global Code of Ethics for Tourism;

“3. Commends the agreement on the Procedures for Consultation and Conciliation for the Settlement of Disputes concerning the Application of the Global Code of Ethics for Tourism;

“4. Reiterates the invitation to Member States to consider introducing, as appropriate, the Global Code of Ethics for Tourism in their national legislations and relevant laws, regulations and professional practices, and, in this regard, recognizes with appreciation those Member States that have already done so;

“5. Requests the Secretary-General of the World Tourism Organization to take all the necessary measures to provide the World Committee on Tourism Ethics with institutional and administrative support for the complete and successful accomplishment of its work;

“6. Calls upon Member States and other stakeholders to give support to the activities undertaken by the World Tourism Organization in favour of developing countries, and to its sustainable tourism programme for eliminating poverty, and also calls upon donor countries to provide funding to the Sustainable Tourism-

Eliminating Poverty (ST-EP) Foundation and, where appropriate, to the ST-EP Trust Fund;

“7. Emphasizes the need for the promotion of sustainable tourism for the benefit of all sectors of society;

“8. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session on the developments relating to the implementation of the present resolution on the basis of the reports of the World Tourism Organization.”

17. At its 33rd meeting, on 2 December, the Committee had before it a draft resolution entitled “Global Code of Ethics for Tourism” (A/C.2/60/L.44), which was submitted by the Vice-Chairman, Stefano Toscano (Switzerland), on the basis of informal consultations held on draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.26.

18. At the same meeting, the Committee was informed that the draft resolution had no programme budget implications.

19. Also at the same meeting, the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, Stefano Toscano (Switzerland), orally corrected the text of the draft resolution.

20. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.44, as orally corrected (see para. 25, draft resolution II).

21. In the light of the adoption of draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.44, draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.24 was withdrawn by its sponsors.

D. Draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.57

22. At the 36th meeting, on 13 December, the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, Stefano Toscano (Switzerland), introduced a draft resolution entitled “International Year of the Potato, 2008” (A/C.2/60/L.57).

23. Also at the 36th meeting, the Committee was informed that the draft resolution had no programme budget implications.

24. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.2/60/L.57 (see para. 25, draft resolution III).

III. Recommendations of the Second Committee

25. The Second Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

Draft resolution I Report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme on its twenty-third session

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 2997 (XXVII) of 15 December 1972, 53/242 of 28 July 1999, 56/193 of 21 December 2001, 57/251 of 20 December 2002, 58/209 of 23 December 2003 and 59/226 of 22 December 2004,

Taking into account Agenda 21¹ and the Plan of Implementation of the World Summit on Sustainable Development (“Johannesburg Plan of Implementation”),²

Reaffirming the role of the United Nations Environment Programme as the principal body within the United Nations system in the field of environment, which should take into account, within its mandate, the sustainable development needs of developing countries, as well as countries with economies in transition,

Reaffirming also that capacity-building and technology support to developing countries, as well as countries with economies in transition, in environment-related fields are important components of the work of the United Nations Environment Programme,

1. Takes note of the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme at its twenty-third session and the decisions contained therein;³

2. Notes that the Governing Council, at its twenty-third session, discussed all components of the recommendations on international environmental governance as contained in its decision SS.VII/1,⁴ and notes that reporting on international environmental governance is included on the agenda of its ninth special session;

3. Welcomes the adoption of the Bali Strategic Plan for Technology Support and Capacity-building,⁵ calls for the intensification of ongoing efforts to implement the Plan with regard both to mobilizing adequate resources, from all sources, as well as the strengthening of cooperation between the United Nations Environment Programme and other stakeholders, based on their comparative advantages, and invites Governments and other stakeholders in a position to do so to provide the necessary funding and technical assistance for its full implementation;

⁵ UNEP.GC.23/6/Add.1 and Corr.1, annex.

4. Also welcomes the continued efforts by the United Nations Environment Programme through the joint United Nations Environment Programme/Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs Environment Unit, taking into account the respective mandates of relevant United Nations entities towards the strengthening of environmental emergency response and disaster prevention, preparedness and early warning systems;

5. Emphasizes the need for the United Nations Environment Programme, within its mandate, to further contribute to sustainable development programmes, the implementation of Agenda 21 and the Johannesburg Plan of Implementation at all levels and to the work of the Commission on Sustainable Development, bearing in mind the mandate of the Commission;

6. Recognizes the need to strengthen the scientific base of the United Nations Environment Programme, as recommended by the intergovernmental consultation on strengthening the scientific base, including the reinforcement of the scientific capacity of developing countries, as well as countries with economies in transition, including through the provision of adequate financial resources;

7. Recalls the resolve of Member States to promote the sound management of chemicals and hazardous wastes throughout their life cycle, in accordance with Agenda 21 and the Johannesburg Plan of Implementation, aiming to achieve that, by 2020, chemicals are used and produced in ways that lead to the minimization of significant adverse effects on human health and the environment using transparent and science-based risk assessment and risk management procedure, by adopting and implementing a voluntary strategic approach to international management of chemicals, and to support developing countries in strengthening their capacity for the sound management of chemicals and hazardous wastes by providing technical and financial assistance, as appropriate;

8. Calls upon the United Nations Environment Programme to continue within its mandate its activities related to small island developing States, in pursuance of the outcome of the International Meeting to Review the Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States held in Port Louis, in January 2005;⁶

9. Emphasizes the need to further enhance coordination and cooperation among the relevant United Nations organizations in the promotion of the environmental dimension of sustainable development, and welcomes the continued active participation of the United Nations Environment Programme in the United Nations Development Group;

10. Welcomes the progress made in the implementation of the provisions of section III.B. of the appendix to decision SS.VII/1 of the Governing Council on strengthening the role and financial situation of the United Nations Environment Programme, including the significant broadening of the donor base and increasing total contributions to the Environment Fund, and in this regard notes that the Governing Council will review the implementation of those provisions at its twenty-fourth session;

11. Reiterates the need for stable, adequate and predictable financial resources for the United Nations Environment Programme, and, in accordance with General Assembly

resolution 2997 (XXVII), underlines the need to consider the adequate reflection of all administrative and management costs of the Environment Programme in the context of the United Nations regular budget;

12. Emphasizes the importance of the Nairobi headquarters location of the United Nations Environment Programme, and requests the Secretary-General to keep the resource needs of the United Nations Environment Programme and the United Nations Office at Nairobi under review so as to permit the delivery, in an effective manner, of necessary services to the Programme and to the other United Nations organs and organizations in Nairobi;

13. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its sixty-first session, under the item entitled “Sustainable development”, a sub-item entitled “Report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme on its ninth special session”.

Draft resolution II Global Code of Ethics for Tourism

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 56/212 of 21 December 2001 and its decision 58/573 of 13 September 2004,

Recalling also its resolution 58/232 of 23 December 2003, by which it approved the Agreement between the United Nations and the World Tourism Organization,

Recalling further the Manila Declaration on World Tourism of 10 October 1980,¹ the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development² and Agenda 21³ of 14 June 1992, and taking note of the Amman Declaration on Peace through Tourism of 11 November 2000,⁴ the Johannesburg Declaration on Sustainable Development⁵ and the Plan of Implementation of the World Summit on Sustainable Development,⁶ the Declaration of Barbados⁷ and the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States,⁸ the Mauritius Declaration⁹ and the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States,¹⁰ and the Brussels Declaration¹¹ and the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010,¹²

Recognizing the important dimension and role of tourism as a positive instrument towards the eradication of poverty and the improvement of the quality of life for all people, its potential to make a contribution to economic and social development, especially of the developing countries, and its emergence as a vital force for the promotion of international understanding, peace and prosperity,

Draft resolution III International Year of the Potato, 2008

The General Assembly,

Noting that the potato is a staple food in the diet of the world's population,

Recalling resolution 4/2005 of the Conference of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, adopted on 25 November 2005,

Affirming the need to focus world attention on the role that the potato can play in providing food security and eradicating poverty in support of achievement of the internationally agreed development goals, including the Millennium Development Goals,

1. Decides to declare 2008 the International Year of the Potato;
 2. Invites the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations to facilitate the implementation of the International Year of the Potato, in collaboration with Governments, the United Nations Development Programme, the Consultative Group on International Agricultural Research centres and other relevant organizations of the United Nations system, as well as relevant non-governmental organizations.
