Sixty-fifth session
Agenda item 63

Report of the Human Rights Council

Report of the Third Committee

Rapporteur: Mr. Asif Garayev (Azerbaijan)

I. Introduction

1. At its 2nd plenary meeting, on 17 September 2010, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include in the agenda of its sixty-fifth session the item entitled “Report of the Human Rights Council” and to allocate it to both the plenary and the Third Committee, on the understanding that the Third Committee would consider and act on all recommendations of the Human Rights Council to the Assembly, including those that deal with the development of international law in the field of human rights.

2. The Third Committee considered the item at its 39th, 43rd, 44th and 48th meetings, on 2, 9, 11 and 18 November 2010. An account of the Committee’s discussion is contained in the relevant summary records (A/C.3/65/SR.39, 43, 44 and 48).

3. For its consideration of the item, the Committee had before it the following documents:

(a) Report of the Human Rights Council on its twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth sessions, its thirteenth special session and its fifteenth session;¹

(b) Report of the Secretary-General on revised estimates resulting from resolutions and decisions adopted by the Human Rights Council at its twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth sessions and its fifteenth session (A/65/333 and Corr.1 and Add.1).

4. At the 39th meeting, on 2 November, the President of the Human Rights Council made a statement (see A/C.3/65/SR.39).

* Revised for technical reasons on 13 December 2010.

III. Recommendations of the Third Committee

14. The Third Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

Draft resolution I Report of the Human Rights Council

The General Assembly,

Having considered the recommendations contained in the report of the Human Rights Council and the addendum thereto,¹

Takes note of the report of the Human Rights Council and the addendum thereto¹ and acknowledges the recommendations contained therein.

Draft resolution II
Proclamation of 24 March as the International Day for the Right to the Truth concerning Gross Human Rights Violations and for the Dignity of Victims

The General Assembly,

Guided by the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,¹ the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights² and other relevant instruments of international human rights law and international humanitarian law, as well as the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action,³

Recognizing the universality, indivisibility, interdependence and interrelatedness of civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights,

Recalling articles 32 and 33 of Additional Protocol I to the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949⁴ and article 24, paragraph 2, of the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance, adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution 61/177 of 20 December 2006, according to which each victim has the right to know the truth regarding the circumstances of enforced disappearances, the progress and results of the investigation and the fate of the disappeared person,

Taking into account the right to the truth as defined in Commission on Human Rights resolution 2005/66 of 20 April 2005⁵ and Human Rights Council decision 2/105 of 27 November 2006⁶ and resolutions 9/11 of 24 September 2008⁷ and 12/12 of 1 October 2009⁸ on the right to the truth,

Welcoming Human Rights Council resolution 14/7 of 17 June 2010 entitled “Proclamation of 24 March as the International Day for the Right to the Truth concerning Gross Human Rights Violations and for the Dignity of Victims”,⁹

Acknowledging the reports of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and the significant conclusions therein related to the right to the truth,¹⁰

Recognizing the importance of promoting the memory of victims of gross and systematic human rights violations and the importance of the right to truth and justice,

¹ Resolution 217 A (III).

⁹ Ibid., chap. III, sect. A.

¹⁰ E/CN.4/2006/91, A/HRC/5/7, A/HRC/12/19 and A/HRC/15/33.

Acknowledging, at the same time, the significance of paying tribute to those who have devoted their lives to, and lost their lives in, the struggle to promote and protect human rights for all,

Recognizing in particular the important and valuable work of Monsignor Oscar Arnulfo Romero, of El Salvador, who was actively engaged in the promotion and protection of human rights in his country, and whose work was acknowledged internationally through his messages, in which he denounced violations of the human rights of the most vulnerable populations,

Recognizing the values of Monsignor Romero and his dedication to the service of humanity, in the context of armed conflicts, as a humanist dedicated to defending human rights, protecting lives and promoting human dignity, his constant calls to dialogue and his opposition to all forms of violence to avoid armed confrontation, which consequently led to his death on 24 March 1980,

1. Proclaims 24 March as the International Day for the Right to the Truth concerning Gross Human Rights Violations and for the Dignity of Victims;
2. Invites all Member States, organizations of the United Nations system and other international organizations and civil society entities, including non-governmental organizations and individuals, to observe the International Day in an appropriate manner;
3. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its sixty-sixth session on the implementation of the present resolution.
