Ad Hoc Committee on the Elaboration of a Convention against Transnational Organized Crime

Fourth session

Vienna, 28 June-9 July 1999

Item 4 (a) of the provisional agenda*

Consideration of the additional international legal instruments:

draft instrument against illegal trafficking in and transporting of migrants

Draft Protocol against the Smuggling<sup>1</sup> of Migrants by Land, Air and Sea,<sup>2</sup> Supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime<sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The term “smuggling” is used throughout the text in the light of action taken by the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice at its eighth session regarding the draft Protocol Addressing Trafficking in Women and Children. During the discussion at the first session of the Ad Hoc Committee, several delegations raised the issue of the translation of the term “smuggling” into languages other than English and the problems that it created. Attention will, therefore, be paid to identifying the appropriate term to be used in languages other than English. That will be done in the glossary of terms, which the Secretariat is currently preparing. Existing texts on the subject, such as General Assembly resolutions 48/102 and 51/62 and Economic and Social Council resolution 1995/10, might be useful in this regard.

<sup>2</sup> In its resolution 53/111, the General Assembly requested the Ad Hoc Committee, inter alia, to discuss the elaboration of an international instrument addressing illegal trafficking in and transporting of migrants, including by sea. The Ad Hoc Committee at its first session was of the view that focusing on illegal trafficking and transporting by sea would be too restrictive.

<sup>3</sup> The text of the present draft protocol is based on a proposal submitted by Austria and Italy containing draft elements for an international legal instrument against illegal trafficking and transport of migrants (A/AC.254/4/Add.1). It reflects all comments and proposals made or submitted by delegations at the first session of the Ad Hoc Committee, held in Vienna from 19 to 29 January 1999.

Preamble<sup>4</sup>

The States Parties to this Protocol,

[(a) Taking note of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime,]

(b) Concerned about the rapid development of the smuggling of migrants,

[(c) Alarmed by the significant increase in the activities of transnational criminal organizations that make illicit profits by smuggling migrants across national boundaries,]

[(d) Recognizing that transnational criminal organizations also use the smuggling of migrants to further numerous other criminal activities, thus bringing great harm to the States concerned,]

(e) Concerned that the smuggling of migrants may lead to the misuse of established procedures for immigration, including those for seeking asylum,<sup>5</sup>

[(f) Also concerned that the smuggling of migrants can endanger the lives or security of the individual migrants involved and entails great expense for the international community, including the costs of rescue, medical care, food, housing and transportation,]

[(g) Reaffirming that States should give high priority to preventing, combating and eradicating the smuggling of migrants because of the links of such activity with transnational organized crime and other criminal activities,]

[(h) Convinced that combating the smuggling of migrants requires international cooperation, the exchange of information and other appropriate measures at the national, regional and global levels,]

(i) Also convinced that, to counter this phenomenon, a global approach, including socio-economic measures, is necessary,

(j) Further convinced of the need to provide migrants with humane treatment and full protection of their human rights,

(k) Convinced of the need for a comprehensive international legal instrument to combat all aspects of the transnational smuggling of migrants by land, air and sea,

(l) Stressing the importance of full compliance by States with their obligations under the provisions of the 1951 Convention<sup>6</sup> and the 1967 Protocol,<sup>7</sup> and affirming that the present Protocol does not affect the protection afforded under the terms of the 1951 Convention and the 1967 Protocol and other provisions of international law,

(m) Recalling the work of the International Maritime Organization concerning unsafe practices associated with trafficking in or transporting of illegal migrants by sea, in particular

<sup>4</sup> Several delegations were of the view that the preamble should contain provisions to address the underlying causes of the illegal movement of people and to reaffirm the principle of free movement of people. Most delegations were of the view that it would be most useful to consider the preamble after the finalization of the text of the substantive articles.

<sup>5</sup> Several delegations were of the view that the question of refugees should also be addressed (see paragraph 2 of article 5 below).

the work of the Maritime Safety Committee, which approved the interim measures for combating unsafe practices associated with the trafficking or transport of migrants by sea,<sup>8</sup>

(n) [Text on decisions of the International Civil Aviation Organization to be added],

[(o) Reaffirming respect for the sovereignty and territorial integrity of all States, including their right to control immigration flows,]

(p) Desiring to supplement the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime by a protocol directed specifically against the smuggling of migrants, as a first step towards the eradication of this crime,<sup>9</sup>

[(q) Declaring that such an instrument must concentrate on crime prevention and criminal justice, in particular the activities of those who organize and facilitate the smuggling of migrants,]

Have agreed as follows:

I. General provisions relating to the smuggling of migrants by land, air and sea

Option 1

Article 1

Relation to the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime

This Protocol supplements the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime (hereinafter referred to as “the Convention”), done at [...], and, as regards the States Parties to this Protocol, those two instruments shall be read and interpreted together as one single instrument.<sup>10</sup>

Option 2

Application of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime

The provisions of articles [...] of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime (hereinafter referred to as “the Convention”), done at [...], shall also apply mutatis mutandis to this Protocol.

<sup>8</sup> One delegation suggested that the International Maritime Organization circular containing the interim measures (MSC/Circ.896) could be a useful source of inspiration, but that the drafting of the text of the present instrument should not necessarily be conditioned by that circular.

<sup>9</sup> One delegation suggested that the preamble should be supplemented with provisions stressing the effects of illegal trafficking or smuggling on national security, as well as the need to strengthen cooperation and coordination between States.

<sup>10</sup> For the discussion on the relationship between the Convention and the international instruments whose drafting has been entrusted to the Ad Hoc Committee pursuant to General Assembly resolutions 53/111 and 53/114, see also the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its first session (A/AC.254/9).

Article 2<sup>11</sup>

Definitions

1. For the purposes of this Protocol, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) “Smuggling of migrants” shall mean the intentional procurement<sup>12</sup> for profit of the illegal entry of a person into and/or illegal residence of a person in a State of which the person is not a national or a permanent resident;

(b) “Illegal entry” shall mean the crossing of borders without complying with the necessary requirements for legal entry into the receiving State;

(c) “Illegal residence” shall mean residence in the territory of a State without complying with the necessary requirements for legal residence in the State concerned;

(d) “Profit” shall mean any property, benefit or advantage obtained directly or indirectly as a result of the smuggling of a migrant, including the expectation of or future participation in criminal activities by the migrant;

(e) “Fraudulent travel or identity document” shall mean any travel or identity document:

(i) That has been made, falsified or altered in some material way by anyone other than a person or agency lawfully authorized to make or issue the travel or identity document on behalf of a State; or

(ii) That has been improperly issued or obtained through misrepresentation, corruption, duress or other unlawful manner; or

(iii) That is being used by a person other than the rightful holder;

(f) “Vehicle” shall mean any conveyance that may be used for transportation by land or air; and

(g) “Vessel” shall mean every description of water craft, including non-displacement craft and seaplanes, used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water, except a warship, naval auxiliary or other vessel owned or operated by a Government and used, for the time being, only on government non-commercial service.<sup>13</sup>

2. For the purposes of this Protocol, each State Party shall consider the illegal entry into or illegal residence in the territory of any other State Party equal to illegal entry into or illegal residence in its own territory.

<sup>11</sup> The articles on definition (article 2) and purpose (article 3) will need to be reviewed in the light of choices made with regard to options that appear later in the text. In addition, those articles will need to be reviewed to ensure their consistency with the Convention.

<sup>12</sup> One delegation considered the concept of “procurement of illegal entry” to be problematic. In the view of that delegation, it would be better to make reference to complicity in and aiding and abetting the violation of national migration laws.

<sup>13</sup> The source of the definition of “vessel” is the definition of “ship” provided in paragraph 2 of the interim measures (MSC/Circ.896, annex).

Article 3<sup>14</sup>Purposes

The purposes of this Protocol are:

- (a) To establish the smuggling of migrants as a criminal offence under the respective national laws of States Parties, [when committed in the context of transnational organized crime, as defined in the Convention];<sup>15</sup> and
- (b) To promote and facilitate cooperation among States Parties to prevent, investigate and prosecute the crime of smuggling migrants.

Article 4Criminalization

1. States Parties that have not yet done so shall adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as a criminal offence the smuggling of migrants<sup>16</sup> [when committed in the context of transnational organized crime, as defined in the Convention].<sup>17</sup>

2. States Parties that have not yet done so shall adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as a criminal offence [when committed in the context of transnational organized crime, as defined in the Convention]:<sup>18</sup>

- (a) The intentional making, procuring or providing of a fraudulent travel or identity document; and

- (b) Knowing that a travel or identity document is fraudulent:

- (i) Using, possessing, dealing with or acting on such a document; and

- (ii) Causing a fraudulent travel or identity document to be used, possessed, dealt with or acted on.

3. Each State Party shall also adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as a criminal offence the following conduct:

- (a) Attempting to commit an offence set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article;

- (b) Participating as an accomplice in an offence set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article;<sup>19</sup>

- (c) Organizing or directing others to commit an offence set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article; or

<sup>14</sup> See footnote 9 above. Some delegations were of the view that the Ad Hoc Committee would need to consider whether to link the offences covered by this Protocol with organized crime and, if so, how.

<sup>15</sup> This formulation is provisional, as it will depend on the outcome of the negotiations regarding definitions in the draft Convention (see also footnote 11 above).

<sup>16</sup> One delegation suggested that not only individuals but also legal entities (legal persons) should be covered because of the potential involvement of travel companies or corporations.

<sup>19</sup> Some delegations were of the view that, notwithstanding paragraph 6 of this article, the concept of participation required clarification.

[(d) In any other way contributing to the commission of an offence set forth in this article by a group of persons acting with a common purpose; such contribution shall be intentional and shall either be made with the aim of furthering the general criminal activity or purpose of the group or be made in the knowledge of the intention of the group to commit the offence or offences concerned].<sup>20</sup>

4. States Parties shall make the commission of the offences in this article liable to sanctions that take into account the grave nature of the offences.

5. States Parties that have not yet done so shall adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as an aggravating circumstance the smuggling of migrants in circumstances that endanger, or are likely to endanger, the life or safety of persons whose illegal entry is procured or intended.

6. States Parties that have not yet done so shall adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as an aggravating circumstance the exploitation or inhuman or degrading treatment of persons whose illegal entry is procured or intended.

7. A person whose illegal entry and/or illegal residence is procured or intended by the smuggling of migrants shall not become punishable under this Protocol.<sup>21</sup>

Article 5

Scope of application

1. This Protocol applies to the smuggling of migrants when committed in the context of organized crime as defined in article 2 of the Convention.<sup>22</sup>

2. The provisions of this Protocol shall be without prejudice to the obligations of States Parties under the 1951 Convention<sup>23</sup> and the 1967 Protocol<sup>24</sup> relating to the Status of Refugees.

<sup>20</sup> This subparagraph was proposed by the delegations of Canada and the United States of America. The language is taken from article 2, paragraph 3 (c), of the International Convention for the Suppression of Terrorist Bombings (General Assembly resolution 52/164, annex) and is intended to ensure that the Protocol will be broad enough to encompass both conspiracy and participation in a criminal organization.

<sup>21</sup> Some delegations expressed concern that this paragraph might interfere with the operation of national immigration laws.

Jurisdiction<sup>25</sup>

1. Each State Party shall take legislative measures to establish its jurisdiction over the offences mentioned in article 4 of the present Protocol in accordance with article 9 of the Convention.

2. If more than one State Party intends to resume jurisdiction over an alleged offender in accordance with paragraph 1 of this article and with article 9 of the Convention, the States Parties concerned shall consult each other with a view to renouncing jurisdiction in order to render possible proceedings in the territory of the State Party most directly affected by the commission of the smuggling of migrants.<sup>26</sup>

II. Smuggling of migrants by sea

Article 7

Measures against the smuggling of migrants by sea

1. States Parties shall cooperate to the fullest extent possible to prevent and suppress the smuggling of migrants by sea, in conformity with the international law of the sea and all generally accepted relevant international instruments.<sup>27</sup>

2. A State Party that has reasonable grounds to suspect that a vessel which is flying its flag or claiming its registry, which is without nationality or which, though flying a foreign flag or refusing to show a flag, is in reality of the nationality of the State Party concerned is engaged in the smuggling of migrants by sea may request the assistance of other States Parties in suppressing the use of the vessel for that purpose. The States Parties so requested shall render such assistance as is reasonable under the circumstances.<sup>28</sup>

3. A State Party that has reasonable grounds to suspect that a vessel exercising freedom of navigation in accordance with international law and flying the flag or displaying marks of registry of another State Party is engaged in the smuggling of migrants may so notify the flag State, request confirmation of registry and, if confirmed, request authorization from the flag State to take appropriate measures with regard to that vessel.<sup>29</sup> The flag State may authorize the requesting State, inter alia:

- (a) To board the vessel;
- (b) To inspect the vessel; and

<sup>25</sup> It is understood that the provisions on extradition, mutual legal assistance and other forms of international cooperation in criminal matters that appear in the Convention would apply to this Protocol. In addition, it is understood that any provisions relating to human rights of detainees should be contained in the Convention. However, there is a need to review the question of whether any additional provisions would be necessary in view of the specific nature of the Protocol.

<sup>26</sup> Some delegations were of the view that this paragraph should be made consistent with article 9 of the Convention.

<sup>27</sup> The language of this provision has been derived from article 17, paragraph 1, of the United Nations Convention against Illicit Traffic in Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances of 1988 (the 1988 Convention) and from paragraph 8 of the interim measures (MSC/Circ.896, annex).

4. A State Party that has taken any action in accordance with paragraph 3 of this article shall promptly inform the flag State concerned of the results of that action.<sup>31</sup>

5. A State Party shall respond expeditiously to a request from another State Party to determine whether a vessel that is claiming its registry or flying its flag is entitled to do so and to a request for authorization made pursuant to paragraph 3 of this article.<sup>32</sup>

A flag State may, consistent with paragraph 1 of this article, subject its authorization to conditions to be agreed by it and the requesting State, including conditions relating to responsibility and the extent of effective measures to be taken, including the use of force.<sup>33</sup> A State Party shall take no additional actions without the express authorization of the flag State, except those necessary to relieve imminent danger or those which follow from relevant bilateral or multilateral agreements.<sup>34</sup>

7. Each State Party shall designate an authority or, where necessary, authorities to receive reports of the smuggling of migrants and to respond to requests for assistance, confirmation of registry or the right of a vessel to fly its flag and authorization to take appropriate measures.<sup>35</sup>

8. When there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a vessel is engaged in the smuggling of migrants by sea and it is concluded in accordance with the international law of the sea that the vessel is without nationality or has been assimilated to a vessel without nationality, States Parties shall conduct an inspection of the vessel, as necessary. If the results of the inspection indicate that the vessel is engaged in the smuggling of migrants, States Parties shall take appropriate measures in accordance with relevant domestic and international law.<sup>36</sup>

9. When evidence exists that a vessel is engaged in the smuggling of migrants by sea, States Parties shall:

(a) Ensure the safety and the humanitarian handling of the persons on board and ensure that any actions taken with regard to the vessel are environmentally sound; and

11. States Parties shall take, adopt or implement such measures in conformity with international law with due regard to:

(a) The authority of the flag State to exercise jurisdiction and control in administrative, technical and social matters involving the vessel; and

States Parties shall take such additional legislative or other measures as they consider appropriate to prevent means of transportation operated by commercial carriers from being used in the commission of offences established under article 4 of this Protocol. <sup>44</sup> This article was proposed by the delegation of the United States of America and supported by a number of other delegations. Many other delegations expressed concern about the issue of the return of migrants and about the compatibility of such a provision with human rights instruments, as well as about the potential implications of such a provision on extradition.

1. For the purpose of examining the progress made by the States Parties in achieving the implementation of the obligations undertaken in the present Protocol, the States Parties will provide periodic reports to the Conference of the Parties to the Convention.

<sup>45</sup> One delegation proposed the deletion of this article because the issue of implementation and reporting requirements would be covered by the Convention.
