Ad Hoc Committee on the Elaboration of a Convention against Transnational Organized Crime

Sixth session

Vienna, 6-17 December 1999

Item 3 (a) of the provisional agenda *

Consideration of the additional legal instruments:
draft instrument against illegal trafficking in and transporting of migrants, with particular emphasis on articles 7-19

Revised draft Protocol against the Smuggling¹ of Migrants by Land, Air and Sea,² Supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime³

* A/AC.254/20.

¹ The term “smuggling” is used throughout the text in the light of action taken by the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice at its eighth session regarding the draft protocol addressing trafficking in women and children. During the discussion at the first session of the Ad Hoc Committee, several delegations raised the issue of the translation of the term “smuggling” into languages other than English and the problems that it created. Attention will, therefore, be paid to identifying the appropriate term to be used in languages other than English. That will be done in the glossary of terms, which the Secretariat is currently preparing. Existing texts on the subject, such as General Assembly resolutions 48/102 and 51/62 and Economic and Social Council resolution 1995/10, might be useful in this regard.

² In its resolution 53/111, the General Assembly requested the Ad Hoc Committee, inter alia, to discuss the elaboration of an international instrument addressing illegal trafficking in and transporting of migrants, including by sea. The Ad Hoc Committee at its first session was of the view that focusing on illegal trafficking and transporting by sea would be too restrictive.

³ The text of the present revised draft Protocol is based on a proposal submitted by Austria and Italy containing draft elements for an international legal instrument against illegal trafficking and transport of migrants (A/AC.254/4/Add.1). It reflects, inter alia, all comments and proposals made or submitted by delegations at the first session of the Ad Hoc Committee, held in Vienna from 19 to 29 January 1999.

Preamble⁴

The States Parties to this Protocol,

[(a) Taking note of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime,]

(b) Concerned about the rapid development of the smuggling of migrants,

[(c) Alarmed by the significant increase in the activities of transnational criminal organizations that make illicit profits by smuggling migrants across national boundaries,]

[(d) Recognizing that transnational criminal organizations also use the smuggling of migrants to further numerous other criminal activities, thus bringing great harm to the States concerned,]

(e) Concerned that the smuggling of migrants may lead to the misuse of established procedures for immigration, including those for seeking asylum,⁵

[(f) Also concerned that the smuggling of migrants can endanger the lives or security of the individual migrants involved and entails great expense for the international community, including the costs of rescue, medical care, food, housing and transportation,]

[(g) Reaffirming that States should give high priority to preventing, combating and eradicating the smuggling of migrants because of the links of such activity with transnational organized crime and other criminal activities,]

[(h) Convinced that combating the smuggling of migrants requires international cooperation, the exchange of information and other appropriate measures at the national, regional and global levels,]

(i) Also convinced that, to counter this phenomenon, a global approach, including socio-economic measures, is necessary,

(j) Further convinced of the need to provide migrants with humane treatment and full protection of their human rights,

(k) Convinced of the need for a comprehensive international legal instrument to combat all aspects of the transnational smuggling of migrants by land, air and sea,

(l) Stressing the importance of full compliance by States with their obligations under the provisions of the 1951 Convention⁶ and the 1967 Protocol,⁷ and affirming that the present Protocol does not affect the protection afforded under the terms of the 1951 Convention and the 1967 Protocol and other provisions of international law,

(m) Recalling the work of the International Maritime Organization concerning unsafe practices associated with trafficking in or transporting of illegal migrants by sea, in particular the work of the Maritime Safety Committee, which approved the interim

⁴ Several delegations were of the view that the preamble should contain provisions to address the underlying causes of the illegal movement of people and to reaffirm the principle of free movement of people. Most delegations were of the view that it would be most useful to consider the preamble after the finalization of the text of the substantive articles.

⁵ Several delegations were of the view that the question of refugees should also be addressed (see paragraph 2 of article 5 below).

measures for combating unsafe practices associated with the trafficking or transport of migrants by sea,⁸

(n) [Text on decisions of the International Civil Aviation Organization to be added],

[(o) Reaffirming respect for the sovereignty and territorial integrity of all States, including their right to control immigration flows,]

(p) Desiring to supplement the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime by a protocol directed specifically against the smuggling of migrants, as a first step towards the eradication of this crime,⁹

[(q) Declaring that such an instrument must concentrate on crime prevention and criminal justice, in particular the activities of those who organize and facilitate the smuggling of migrants,]

Have agreed as follows:

I. General provisions relating to the smuggling of migrants by land, air and sea

Option 1

Article 1

Relation to the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime

This Protocol supplements the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime (hereinafter referred to as “the Convention”), done at [...], and, as regards the States Parties to this Protocol, those two instruments shall be read and interpreted together as one single instrument.¹⁰

⁸ One delegation suggested that the International Maritime Organization circular containing the interim measures (MSC/Circ.896) could be a useful source of inspiration, but that the drafting of the text of the present instrument should not necessarily be conditioned by that circular.

⁹ One delegation suggested that the preamble should be supplemented with provisions stressing the effects of illegal trafficking or smuggling on national security, as well as the need to strengthen cooperation and coordination between States.

¹⁰ For the discussion on the relationship between the draft Convention and the international instruments whose drafting has been entrusted to the Ad Hoc Committee pursuant to General Assembly resolutions 53/111 and 53/114, see also the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its first session (A/AC.254/9). At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations expressed their preference for option 1 over option 2, while other delegations were of the view that it was too early to decide which option to take. One delegation suggested that the principle of mutatis mutandis application, as reflected in option 2, should be included in the text of option 1. Another delegation suggested that the article should be moved to the chapter on final provisions.

Option 2

Article 1

Application of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime

The provisions of articles [...] of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime (hereinafter referred to as “the Convention”), done at [...], shall also apply mutatis mutandis to this Protocol.

Article 2¹¹

Definitions

1. For the purposes of this Protocol, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) “Smuggling of migrants” shall mean the intentional procurement¹² for profit¹³ of the illegal entry¹⁴ of a person into and/or illegal residence¹⁵ of a person in a State of which the person is not a national or a permanent resident;^{16, 17}

(b) “Illegal entry” shall mean the crossing of borders without complying with the necessary requirements for legal entry into the receiving State;

(c) “Illegal residence” shall mean residence in the territory of a State without complying with the necessary requirements for legal residence in the State concerned;¹⁸

¹¹ The articles on definition (article 2) and purpose (article 3) will need to be reviewed in the light of choices made with regard to options that appear later in the text. In addition, those articles will need to be reviewed to ensure their consistency with the draft Convention.

¹⁶ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested deleting the words “of a person in a State of which the person is not a national or a permanent resident”.

¹⁷ At the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested adding the phrase “or any other procedure for an illegal stay in violation of the national law of a State Party” at the end of this subparagraph.

¹⁸ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations suggested deleting this subparagraph if the words “illegal residence” were to be deleted from subparagraph 1 (a) of this article (see also footnote 15 above).

(d) “Profit” shall mean any property, benefit or advantage obtained directly or indirectly¹⁹ as a result of the smuggling of a migrant,²⁰ including the expectation of or future participation in criminal²¹ activities by the migrant;^{22, 23}

(e) “Fraudulent travel or identity document”²⁴ shall mean any travel or identity document;²⁵

(i) That has been made, falsified or altered in some material way by anyone other than a person or agency lawfully authorized to make or issue the travel or identity document on behalf of a State; or

(ii) That has been improperly issued²⁶ or obtained through misrepresentation, corruption,²⁷ duress or other unlawful manner;²⁸ or

(iii) That is being used by a person other than the rightful holder;²⁹

(f) “Vehicle” shall mean any conveyance that may be used for transportation by land or air;³⁰ and

(g) “Vessel” shall mean every description of water craft, including non-displacement craft and seaplanes, used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water, except a warship, naval auxiliary or other vessel owned or operated by a Government and used, for the time being, only on government non-commercial service.³¹

¹⁹ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested deleting the rest of this subparagraph after the word “indirectly”.

²⁰ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, the deletion of the words “as a result of the smuggling of a migrant” was suggested.

²¹ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations suggested replacing the word “criminal” by the word “illegal”.

²² At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, several delegations suggested that the definition of “profit” should reflect the discussions of the Ad Hoc Committee on article 2 bis of the Convention regarding financial or other material benefit.

²³ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations suggested deleting the words “including the expectation of or future participation in criminal activities by the migrant”.

²⁴ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations suggested that the draft Protocol should not contain definitions of fraudulent travel or identity documents.

²⁶ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested that the word “altered” should be inserted after the word “issued”.

²⁷ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations suggested deleting the word “corruption”.

²⁸ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested deleting this subparagraph.

²⁹ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations suggested deleting this subparagraph, while another delegation recommended moving it to article 4.

³⁰ At the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation raised questions about the content of the term “vehicle”. Another delegation suggested that the word “aircraft” should be defined separately.

³¹ The source of the definition of “vessel” is the definition of “ship” provided in paragraph 2 of the interim measures (MSC/Circ.896, annex). At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, several delegations suggested that, for the wording of the interim measures, the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea should be applied. It was also suggested that the words “naval auxiliary or other vessel owned or operated by a Government and used, for the time being, only on government non-commercial service” should be replaced by the words “or any other government ship”.

2. For the purposes of this Protocol, each State Party shall consider the illegal entry into or illegal residence in the territory of any other State Party equal to illegal entry into or illegal residence in its own territory.³²

*Article 3*³³

Purposes

The purposes of this Protocol are:

(a) To establish the smuggling of migrants as a criminal offence under the respective national laws of States Parties [, when involving an organized criminal group,³⁴ as defined in the Convention]; and

(b) To promote and facilitate cooperation among States Parties to prevent, investigate and prosecute the crime of smuggling migrants.³⁵

³² At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested that this subparagraph should be either deleted or moved to article 4 (Criminalization) or article 6 (Jurisdiction). At the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, several delegations stated that this paragraph needed to be clarified.

³³ See footnote 9 above. Some delegations were of the view that the Ad Hoc Committee would need to consider whether to link the offences covered by this Protocol with organized crime and, if so, how.

³⁵ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations suggested that the words “when life, safety or freedom of the migrant is at risk” be inserted after the word “migrants”. Some delegations suggested that this subparagraph should be focused on the prevention, investigation and prosecution of the smuggling of migrants by organized criminal groups. It was also suggested that this subparagraph should be moved before subparagraph (a) of this article. It was further suggested that the words “as well as to protect the victim of such smuggling, including their human rights” should be inserted at the end of this subparagraph. This last matter was also discussed during the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee. The delegation of Mexico suggested that the protection of victims should be included either in this article or as a new article 1 bis (see also A/AC.254/L.61). Several delegations supported the proposal, while other delegations considered that human rights should be covered under article 5. One delegation suggested that, as an alternative, subparagraph (b) of this article could be combined with article 5.

Article 4
Criminalization

Option 1³⁶

1. States Parties that have not yet done so shall adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as a criminal offence the smuggling of migrants³⁷ [, when committed in the context of transnational organized crime, as defined in the Convention].³⁸

2. States Parties that have not yet done so shall³⁹ adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as a criminal offence [, when committed in the context of transnational organized crime, as defined in the Convention]:⁴⁰

(a) The intentional making, procuring or providing of a fraudulent travel or identity document; and

(b) Knowing that a travel or identity document is fraudulent:⁴¹

(i) Using, possessing,⁴² dealing with or acting on⁴³ such a document; and

(ii) Causing a fraudulent travel or identity document to be used, possessed, dealt with or acted on.

³⁶ At the informal consultations held at the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, the majority of the delegations were in favour of deleting this option, while one delegation suggested retaining paragraph 1 of this option.

³⁷ One delegation suggested that not only individuals but also legal entities (legal persons) should be covered because of the potential involvement of travel companies or corporations.

³⁹ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested replacing the word “shall” by “may”.

⁴⁰ This formulation is provisional, as it will depend on the outcome of the negotiations regarding definitions in the draft Convention (see also footnote 11 above). At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, many delegations suggested removing the brackets, while some preferred to retain them (see footnote 38 above). Several delegations suggested merging paragraph 2 with paragraph 1 of this article, while one delegation recommended moving this paragraph to article 2. Another delegation suggested deleting this paragraph.

⁴¹ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, many delegations suggested that this subparagraph be deleted, while other delegations suggested adding the phrase “for the purpose of smuggling another person across borders”.

⁴² At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested inserting the word “trading” after the word “possessing”.

⁴³ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested deleting the words “dealing with or acting on”.

Option 2⁴⁴

1. States Parties that have not yet done so shall adopt the necessary legislative or other measures to establish the following conduct as criminal offences when committed by an organized criminal group:

- (a) The smuggling of migrants; and
- (b) The intentional;⁴⁵
- (i) Making, procuring or providing of a fraudulent travel or identity document;
- (ii) Using, possessing,⁴⁶ dealing with or acting on such a document; or
- (iii) Causing such a document to be used, possessed, dealt with or acted on, for the purpose of smuggling migrants.^{47, 48}

3. Each State Party shall also adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as a criminal offence the following conduct:

- (a) Attempting to commit an offence set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article;⁴⁹
- (b) Participating as an accomplice⁵⁰ in an offence set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article;⁵¹
- (c) Organizing or directing others to commit an offence set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article;⁵² or
- [(d) In any other way contributing to the commission of an offence set forth in this article by a group of persons acting with a common purpose; such contribution

⁴⁶ At the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations suggested that merely "possessing" such a document should not be criminalized.

⁴⁷ At the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested rephrasing this subparagraph to read as follows: "Causing a third party to use, possess, deal with or act on such a document for the purpose of smuggling migrants".

⁵⁰ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested deleting the words "as an accomplice". At the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation opposed the deletion of those words.

⁵¹ Some delegations were of the view that, notwithstanding paragraph 6 of this article, the concept of participation required clarification.

⁵² At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations suggested inserting the words "or attempting to commit such an offence" after the word "article" and deleting subparagraph (a).

shall be intentional and shall either be made with the aim of furthering the general criminal activity or purpose of the group or be made in the knowledge of the intention of the group to commit the offence or offences concerned].⁵³

4. States Parties shall make the commission of the offences in this article liable to sanctions that take into account the grave nature of the offences.

Option 1⁵⁴

5. States Parties that have not yet done so shall adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as an aggravating circumstance the smuggling of migrants in circumstances that endanger, or are likely⁵⁵ to endanger, the life or safety of persons whose illegal entry is procured or intended.⁵⁶

6. States Parties that have not yet done so shall adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as an aggravating circumstance the exploitation or inhuman or degrading treatment of persons whose illegal entry is procured or intended.⁵⁷

5. States Parties that have not yet done so shall adopt the necessary legislation or other measures to establish as an aggravating circumstance the smuggling of migrants in circumstances:

(a) That endanger, or are likely to endanger, the life or safety of persons whose illegal entry is procured or intended; or

(b) That entail inhuman or degrading treatment⁵⁸ of such persons.⁵⁹

Option 1

⁵³ This subparagraph was proposed by the delegations of Canada and the United States. The language is taken from article 2, paragraph 3 (c), of the International Convention for the Suppression of Terrorist Bombings (General Assembly resolution 52/164, annex) and is intended to ensure that the Protocol will be broad enough to encompass both conspiracy and participation in a criminal organization. At the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations stated that this subparagraph needed to be clarified.

⁵⁴ At the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, there was general agreement that this option should be deleted.

⁵⁵ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested inserting the word “reasonably” before the word “likely”.

⁵⁶ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested that repeated commission of the offence of the smuggling of migrants should be included as an aggravating circumstance.

⁵⁷ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations drew attention to the fact that this subparagraph might overlap with provisions of the revised draft Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, especially Women and Children, Supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime (A/AC.254/4/Add.3/Rev.2).

⁵⁸ At the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested inserting the words “and smuggling of” after the word “treatment”, while other delegations opposed the insertion of those words.

⁵⁹ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, Austria suggested including this wording as an option in the main body of the text, in order to combine paragraphs 5 and 6 of this article. At the informal consultations held during the fifth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, one delegation suggested that the element of “exploitation” in option 1 should be included in option 2.

7. A person whose illegal entry and/or illegal residence is procured or intended by the smuggling of migrants shall not become punishable under this Protocol.⁶⁰

Option 2⁶¹

7. A person whose illegal entry and/or illegal residence is procured or intended by the smuggling of migrants shall not become punishable [under this Protocol].^{62, 63}

7 bis. Nothing in this Protocol shall prevent a State Party from taking action against a person whose conduct constitutes an offence under [its domestic law or]⁶⁴ any other provision on criminalization of this Protocol.

Article 5

Scope of application

1. This Protocol applies to the smuggling of migrants when committed in the context of organized crime as defined in article 2 of the Convention.⁶⁵

2. The provisions of this Protocol shall be without prejudice to the obligations of States Parties under the 1951 Convention⁶⁶ and the 1967 Protocol⁶⁷ relating to the Status of Refugees.⁶⁸

⁶⁰ Some delegations expressed concern that this paragraph might interfere with the operation of national immigration laws. At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, several delegations stressed that, in their view, this provision was important and that all other provisions of the draft Protocol should therefore be consistent with this provision. It was emphasized that the goal of the Protocol would be to function as an instrument that would enable States to effectively prosecute smugglers. In this context, it was evident that criminalization of the migrant would not be intended or desirable. However, several delegations were apprehensive about the possibility of the Protocol granting immunity to illegal migrants, especially if they had committed a crime, including the smuggling of other illegal migrants.

⁶¹ The text of this option was not discussed at the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee. However, there was extensive discussion of the subject among interested delegations, the results of which are reflected in the text and the relevant footnotes.

⁶² Some delegations thought that reference to the Protocol would be inconsistent with the agreed intention of paragraph 7 bis of this option, which is to permit prosecution of those migrants who participated in criminal activities, such as the smuggling of migrants.

⁶⁴ Some delegations considered this phrase to be inconsistent with the agreed intention of paragraph 7 of this option in that the phrase, according to their interpretation, would allow domestic legal provisions that criminalize illegal entry to override the Protocol caveat that migrants per se should not be subject to sanctioning.

⁶⁶ United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 189, No. 2545.

⁶⁷ Ibid., vol. 606, No. 8791.

⁶⁸ At the fourth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, some delegations suggested the inclusion in article 5 of a savings clause similar to that contained in article 15 of the revised draft Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, especially Women and Children. Other delegations recommended placing such a savings clause at the end of this draft Protocol. One delegation suggested including the principle of non-refoulement in article 4. That delegation recalled that reference to humanitarian law was necessary.

*Article 6Jurisdiction*⁶⁹

1. Each State Party shall take legislative measures to establish its jurisdiction over the offences mentioned in article 4 of the present Protocol in accordance with article 9 of the Convention.

2. If more than one State Party intends to resume jurisdiction over an alleged offender in accordance with paragraph 1 of this article and with article 9 of the Convention, the States Parties concerned shall consult each other with a view to renouncing jurisdiction in order to render possible proceedings in the territory of the State Party most directly affected by the commission of the smuggling of migrants.⁷⁰

II. Smuggling of migrants by sea⁷¹*Article 7Cooperation and mutual assistance*

1. States Parties shall cooperate to the fullest extent possible to prevent and suppress the smuggling of migrants by sea, in conformity with the international law of the sea and all generally accepted relevant international instruments.⁷²

2. A State Party that has reasonable grounds to suspect that a vessel, which is flying its flag or claiming its registry, which is without nationality or which, though flying a foreign flag or refusing to show a flag, is in reality of the nationality of the State Party concerned, is engaged in the smuggling of migrants by sea may request the assistance of other States Parties in suppressing the use of the vessel for that purpose. The States Parties so requested shall render such assistance as is reasonable under the circumstances.⁷³

Article 7 bisMeasures against the smuggling of migrants by sea

1. A State Party that has reasonable grounds to suspect that a vessel exercising freedom of navigation in accordance with international law and flying the flag or ⁶⁹ It is understood that the provisions on extradition, mutual legal assistance and other forms of international cooperation in criminal matters that would appear in the Convention would apply to the Protocol. In addition, it is understood that any provisions relating to human rights of detainees should be contained in the draft Convention. However, there is a need to review the question of whether any additional provisions would be necessary in view of the specific nature of the Protocol.

⁷⁰ Some delegations were of the view that this paragraph should be made consistent with article 9 of the draft Convention.

⁷¹ In the previous version of the draft Protocol (A/AC.254/4/Add.1/Rev.2), this chapter included only one article (article 7). For the sake of clarity, the delegations of Austria and Italy proposed the structure included in the present version. With the exception of the titles of the articles and amendments to make references to paragraphs or articles consistent with the new proposed structure, no changes have been made to the text.

⁷² The language of this provision has been derived from article 17, paragraph 1, of the United Nations Convention against Illicit Traffic in Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances of 1988 (the 1988 Convention) and from paragraph 8 of the interim measures (MSC/Circ.896, annex).

⁷³ The language of this provision has been derived from article 17, paragraph 2, of the 1988 Convention and from paragraph 11 of the interim measures (MSC/Circ.896, annex).

displaying marks of registry of another State Party is engaged in the smuggling of migrants may so notify the flag State, request confirmation of registry and, if confirmed, request authorization from the flag State to take appropriate measures with regard to that vessel.⁷⁴

The flag State may authorize the requesting State, inter alia:

(a) To board the vessel;

(b) To inspect the vessel; and

(c) If evidence is found that the vessel is engaged in the smuggling of migrants, to take appropriate action with respect to the vessel, persons and cargo on board, as authorized by the flag State.⁷⁵

2. A State Party that has taken any action in accordance with paragraph 1 of this article shall promptly inform the flag State concerned of the results of that action.⁷⁶

3. A State Party shall respond expeditiously to a request from another State Party to determine whether a vessel that is claiming its registry or flying its flag is entitled to do so and to a request for authorization made pursuant to paragraph 1 of this article.⁷⁷

4. A flag State may, consistent with paragraph 1 of article 7, subject its authorization to conditions to be agreed by it and the requesting State, including conditions relating to responsibility and the extent of effective measures to be taken, including the use of force.⁷⁸ A State Party shall take no additional actions without the express authorization of the flag State, except those necessary to relieve imminent danger or those which follow from relevant bilateral or multilateral agreements.⁷⁹

5. Each State Party shall designate an authority or, where necessary, authorities to receive reports of the smuggling of migrants and to respond to requests for assistance, confirmation of registry or the right of a vessel to fly its flag and authorization to take appropriate measures.⁸⁰

6. When there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a vessel is engaged in the smuggling of migrants by sea and it is concluded in accordance with the international law of the sea that the vessel is without nationality or has been assimilated to a vessel without nationality, States Parties shall conduct an inspection of the vessel, as necessary. If the results of the inspection indicate that the vessel is engaged in the smuggling of migrants, States Parties shall take appropriate measures in accordance with relevant domestic and international law.⁸¹

⁷⁴ The language of this provision has been derived from article 17, paragraph 3, of the 1988 Convention.

⁷⁵ The language of this provision has been derived from article 17, paragraph 4, of the 1988 Convention.
