Azerbaijan, Burkina Faso, Djibouti, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Kenya, Lebanon, Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Mali, Somalia, Sudan and Syrian Arab Republic: draft resolution

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 47/___ of 18 December 1992 and subsequent relevant resolutions, in particular resolutions 56/106 of 14 December 2001, 57/154 of 16 December 2002, 58/115 of 17 December 2003 and 59/218 of 22 December 2004,

Noting with serious concern the effects of the civil war in Somalia and in particular the destruction of the physical, economic and social infrastructure of Somalia,

Underlining the urgent need for the rehabilitation and reconstruction of the infrastructure,

Also underlining the urgency in rebuilding State institutions and in strengthening the capacity of those institutions,

Welcoming the successful conclusion of the peace process for Somalia, led by the Intergovernmental Authority on Development,

Deeply concerned that the collateral effects of drought continue to worsen, as evidenced by the high levels of malnutrition ranging from 19 to 22 per cent,

Noting with grave concern the effects of the 2004 tsunami which threatens the livelihoods and environment of the coastal population and has had a negative impact on the Somali economy,

Stresses in this regard the need for continued relief, livelihood assistance and equitable resource allocation to vulnerable communities, such as destitute pastoralists and internally displaced persons,

Concerned that the prolonged illegal dumping of toxic and nuclear waste on the Somali coast will cause serious long-term effects on human health, that it poses a very serious environmental hazard, not only in Somalia but in the eastern Africa subregion, and that it is contrary to international law, infringing on the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Somalia,

Underlining the urgent need for humanitarian assistance, relief and reconstruction,

Noting the intrinsic link between the search for peace and reconciliation and the alleviation of the humanitarian crisis in Somalia,

Welcoming the continued focus of the United Nations, in partnership with the newly established Transitional Federal Government of Somalia,

Recalling the statements by the President of the Security Council of 31 October 2001¹ and 28 March 2002,² by which the Council condemned attacks on humanitarian personnel and called upon all parties in Somalia to respect fully the security and safety of personnel of the United Nations, the International Committee of the Red Cross and non-governmental organizations, and to guarantee their complete freedom of movement and access throughout Somalia,
