In-depth study on all forms of violence against women

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 58/185 of 22 December 2003, entitled “In-depth study on all forms of violence against women”,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on the status of preparations for the study;¹

2. Welcomes:

(a) The work undertaken so far in conducting the study, in particular at the expert group meeting on data and statistics on violence against women, held in Geneva from 11 to 14 April 2005, and the expert group meeting on good practices in combating violence against women, held in Vienna from 17 to 20 May 2005;

(b) The initiatives taken at the national, regional and international levels to highlight the study and contribute to its preparation, including the workshop on violence against women, held in Paris on 28 and 29 April 2005, and the consultation at United Nations Headquarters, on 6 and 7 September 2005;

3. Stresses once again the importance, when conducting the study, of close cooperation with:

(a) All relevant United Nations bodies, funds and programmes, including the United Nations Development Fund for Women, the United Nations Children's Fund, the United Nations Development Programme, the United Nations Population Fund, the World Health Organization and the United Nations International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women;

(b) All relevant parts of the Secretariat, in particular the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and the regional commissions;

(c) United Nations treaty bodies, in particular the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women;

(d) Special procedures of the Commission on Human Rights, in particular the Special Rapporteur on violence against women, its causes and consequences;

4. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To seize all opportunities to raise awareness on the conduct of the study and solicit contributions, and in this regard notes with appreciation the launch of a website dedicated to the study and the online discussion that took place from 26 September to 15 October 2005;

(b) To ensure that the conduct of the study on all forms of violence against women will be carried out in close cooperation with the in-depth study on the question of violence against children requested in its resolution 56/138 of 19 December 2001 so as to enable the exchange of appropriate information;

(c) To continue to provide opportunities for consultations with Member States and other stakeholders and to solicit information, including on strategies, policies, programmes and best practices, including from regional organizations;

(d) To continue and, where appropriate, to strengthen cooperation with relevant non-governmental organizations in the preparation of the study;

5. Urges all relevant United Nations bodies, funds and programmes to fully cooperate with the Secretary-General in the conduct of the study;

6. Encourages Member States to contribute to the funding of the in-depth study on all forms of violence against women in order to meet the budgetary requirements for the study;

7. Decides:

(a) To extend to the sixty-first session of the General Assembly the deadline for submission of the report mentioned in subparagraph (d) of its resolution 58/185, in time for its in-depth consideration at that session, at the latest by early September 2006;

(b) To consider the report at its sixty-first session under the item entitled "Advancement of women".
