Proposed programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005

Draft resolution submitted by the Chairman following informal consultations

Questions relating to the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its resolutions 41/213 of 19 December 1986, 42/211 of 21 December 1987, 45/248 B, part VI, of 21 December 1990 and 56/253 of 24 December 2001,

Recalling its resolutions 57/280 and 57/282 of 20 December 2002,

Recalling also its resolutions 57/292 of 20 December 2002 and 57/311 of 18 June 2003,

Reaffirming the respective mandates of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions and the Committee for Programme and Coordination in the context of the proposed programme budget for 2004-2005,

Having considered the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005¹ and the relevant reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions² and the Committee for Programme and Coordination³ thereon,

1. Reaffirms that the Fifth Committee is the appropriate Main Committee of the General Assembly entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters;

2. Reaffirms also rule 153 of its rules of procedure;

3. Reaffirms further the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation

¹ A/58/6 (Introduction), A/58/6 (sects. 1-35), A/58/6 (Income sects. 1-3) and A/58/6/Corr.1.

² Official Records of the General Assembly, Fifty-eighth Session, Supplement No. 7 (A/58/7); and A/58/7/Add.xx and xx.

³ Ibid., Supplement No. 16 (A/58/16).

and the Methods of Evaluation⁴ and the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations;

4. Welcomes the timely submission of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005;¹

5. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination on the programme narrative of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 contained in the report of the Committee on the work of its forty-third session,³ subject to the provisions of the present resolution, as reflected in annex I;

6. Approves the programme narratives of section 14, United Nations Environment Programme and section 24, Human rights, as also reflected in annex I;

7. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions concerning posts and non-post resources contained in its reports on the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005,² subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

8. Decides that a vacancy rate of 5.5 per cent for Professional staff and 3.8 per cent for General Service staff shall be used as a basis for the calculation of the budget for the biennium 2004-2005;

9. Decides also to maintain the current practice of recosting, with the exception of section 23 of the proposed programme budget for the forthcoming biennium, Regular programme of technical cooperation, to which recosting should not be applied;

10. Decides further to revert to the question of recosting at its fifty-ninth session in the context of the first performance report, and in this regard requests the Secretary-General to include in the said report information on the variation between the projected recosting needs arising from inflation and currency movements, as at October 2003 and the time of his report;

11. Requests the Board of Auditors, in consultation with the Secretary-General, to examine the recosting methodology and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session, including proposing the most appropriate mechanism for managing the currency aspects of the recosting methodology;

12. Notes the observations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions related to the concept of "managing the staffing table as a whole" contained in paragraphs 73 to 78 and 143 of its report;⁵

13. Reaffirms paragraph 35 of its resolution 57/300 of 20 December 2002;

14. Requests the Secretary-General to commence, on an experimental basis, with the redeployment of posts, as necessary, in the course of the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005, to meet the evolving needs of the Organization in attaining its mandated programmes and activities, in accordance with the following principles:

⁴ ST/SGB/2000/8.

⁵ Official Records of the General Assembly, Fifty-eighth Session, Supplement No. 7 (A/58/7).

(a) The experiment shall be limited to the redeployment of up to 50 posts organization-wide;

(b) The experiment shall not imply any change in the human resources management policies of the Organization;

(c) The proposed programme budget shall remain the principal instrument for the Secretary-General to set out the resources and staffing requirements of the Organization;

(d) The authority to redeploy posts shall in no way prevent the Secretary-General from requesting additional posts during the course of the experiment;

(e) The experiment shall not exacerbate high vacancy rates in any budget sections;

(f) The experiment shall not apply to language services;

(g) Redeployment between sections shall only be carried out after all possibilities of using resources available within budget sections that will benefit from the transfer have been exhaustively explored;

(h) The experiment shall not be implemented as a result of General Assembly resolutions calling for the implementation of decisions "within existing resources";

(i) Reporting to the General Assembly in the context of the annual budget performance reports;

(j) Requesting the Secretary-General to provide information periodically to the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions on actions taken;

15. Also requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the experiment shall in no way limit the opportunities for external recruitment for posts at any level;

16. Further requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at the second part of its fifty-ninth session on the implications of the experiment for human resources management policies;

17. Requests the Secretary-General to submit, through the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, a comprehensive report for consideration by the General Assembly at its sixtieth session on the progress of and lessons learned from the experiment, including, inter alia, the following aspects:

(a) Implications for relevant financial regulations and rules of the Organization;

(b) Additional implications, if any, for human resources management policies;

(c) Constraints encountered by the Secretary-General in exercising the flexibility granted to him in General Assembly resolutions 48/228 C of 29 July 1994 and 50/214 of 23 December 1995, as well as in regulation 5.6 of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations;

(d) Measures to ensure that such a policy will not have any negative impact on sections with high vacancy rates;

(e) An elaboration of the elements requested in paragraph 35 of its resolution 57/300;

(f) Recommendations concerning the possible application of this approach to managing the staffing table in the future;

18. Decides that the staffing table for each year of the biennium 2004-2005 shall be as contained in annex II to the present resolution;

19. Decides also, notwithstanding the proposal of the Secretary-General and the recommendations of the Advisory Committee, to approve new posts to be funded from the regular budget for the biennium 2004-2005, as set out in annex III to the present resolution;

20. Recalls paragraphs 8 and 9 of its resolution 57/300, and in this regard notes the Secretary-General's proposal in his report on administration and management of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights⁶ regarding the establishment of two posts, 1 P-5 and 1 P-4, in subprogramme 2, as well as a D-1 post and a P-4 post in subprogramme 3 of section 24, Human rights, of the proposed programme budget of the biennium 2004-2005, related to the implementation of actions 3 and 4 of his report on strengthening of the United Nations: an agenda for further change;⁷

21. Decides to establish the above-mentioned posts as referred to in annex III to the present resolution;

22. Decides also to consider this issue further in the context of the decisions of the relevant intergovernmental bodies on the issues referred to in paragraphs 8 and 9 of resolution 57/300;

23. Decides further to reclassify four P-4 posts to the P-5 level, one in section 15, Human settlements, one in section 17, International drug control, and two in section 22, Economic and social development in Western Asia, one D-1 post to the D-2 level in section 30, Internal oversight, and one D-2 post to the Assistant Secretary-General level in section 27, Humanitarian assistance;

24. Decides to approve the post conversions requested by the Secretary-General and recommended by the Advisory Committee, with the exception of the two posts, 1 P-4 and 1 P-3, which had been proposed for conversion to section 5, Peacekeeping operations, from the Voluntary Trust Fund for Assistance in Mine Action, as set out in annex IV to the present resolution;

25. Requests the Secretary-General to suspend recruitment action for new vacancies in General Service posts for the biennium 2004-2005, with the exception of safety and security personnel and editorial assistants (text processors) in language functions, and requests the Secretary-General to report on the progress made and on the impact of these measures in the context of the performance reports;

26. Decides to abolish six General Service posts, three in the Department of Economic and Social Affairs and three in the Economic Commission for Europe;

27. Decides also to reduce further by 3,200,000 United States dollars the proposed provision for restoration of common services;

⁶ A/58/569.

⁷ A/57/387 and Corr.1.

28. Decides further to reduce the provision for general temporary assistance by 2.5 million dollars;

29. Decides that the reduction described in paragraph 28 above should not be applied to section 2, General Assembly affairs and conference services;

30. Decides also to reduce by 2 million dollars the provision for overtime and night differential, as described in paragraph 84 of the first report of the Advisory Committee on the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005,⁵ further decides that the relevant reductions should not be applied to security operations, and invites the Secretary-General to elaborate on resource needs for overtime and night differential in the context of the first budget performance report;

31. Requests the Secretary-General to discontinue the practice of paying higher subsistence rates to middle and senior level United Nations staff members;

32. Decides to reduce the total appropriation for publications by 400,000 dollars;

33. Decides also to maintain provisions for the United Nations Truce Supervision Organization at the level recommended by the Secretary-General;

34. Decides further to appropriate an amount of 38,200 dollars, under section 9, Department of Economic and Social Affairs, requested for the preparation of Executive Committee papers on common strategic policy issues and/or support for the Committee's work on publications in advancing the Millennium Development Goals;

35. Decides to appropriate an amount of 78,500 dollars, under section 9, Department of Economic and Social Affairs, requested under subprogramme 2 for consultants and experts;

36. Decides also to defer the appropriation of the budgetary provisions for the Joint Inspection Unit for 2005;

37. Decides further to appropriate an amount of 1,858,600 dollars for consultants and experts for the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development;

38. Decides to appropriate an amount of 56,731,900 dollars for the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees for the biennium 2004-2005;

39. Decides also to reduce the allocation for information centres by 2 million dollars;

40. Decides further to defer consideration of 590,000 dollars for a network back-up system at the United Nations Office at Geneva until such time as all viable alternatives have been explored and reported on to the General Assembly;

41. Decides to restore an amount of 105,200 dollars under section 28, Department of Public Information, for supplies and materials under outreach services;

42. Recalls its decision 57/574 of 20 December 2002, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to strengthen the web site through further redeployment to the language posts required and to report on the status of its implementation to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session;

43. Decides to consider the Secretary-General's proposal on the transfer of the technical secretariats of the Fifth and Sixth Committees at its fifty-ninth session, with a view to taking a decision in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2006-2007;

44. Recalls its resolution 57/24 of 19 November 2002 and regulation 5.6 and the criteria set forth in rule 105.6 (a), of the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation,⁴ and requests the Secretary-General to report, in the context of the first performance report, on the possibilities of absorptions or mobilization of extrabudgetary resources for the Repertory of Practice of the United Nations;

45. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session on improving the implementation of regulation 5.6 (a) and rule 105.6;

46. Also requests the Secretary-General to continue to implement the information and communication technology strategy and to provide a progress report thereon to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session on the impact of investments in information and communication technology;

47. Further requests the Secretary-General to review the structure and functions of all liaison offices or representation in New York of organizations headquartered elsewhere funded from the regular budget and to report to the General Assembly at its resumed fifty-eighth session on possibilities for improving their effectiveness;

48. Requests the Secretary-General to undertake a fundamental and comprehensive review of the regular programme of technical cooperation and to make appropriate proposals to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session;

49. Also requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session a proposal for the progressive implementation of article 20 of the statute of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees with a view to its full implementation;

50. Further requests the Secretary-General to conduct, through the Office of Internal Oversight Services, a review of the operation and management of United Nations libraries, with a view to assessing staffing requirements for those libraries in the light of technological advances in the delivery of information services, and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session;

51. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session on proposals for developing a more robust capability within the Office of Human Resources Management to enable it to reduce the level of underrepresentation of Member States and the number of unrepresented Member States;

52. Also requests the Secretary-General to entrust the Office of Internal Oversight Services with the task of conducting a study on the availability in local labour markets of the skills for which international recruitment for the General Service category now takes place and to report to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session on the findings and their implications;

53. Reaffirms the provisions of paragraph 5 of General Assembly resolution 57/307 of 15 April 2003 and requests the Secretary-General to ensure the independence of the United Nations Administrative Tribunal and the separation of its secretariat from the Office of Legal Affairs, and requests the Secretary-General to submit to it at its fifty-ninth session the report requested in the above-mentioned resolution on its financial independence;

54. Requests the Secretary-General to report on further progress made to increase the capacity of the Economic Commission for Africa to communicate and transmit data electronically, in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2006-2007;

55. Reaffirms paragraphs 15 and 17 of resolution 57/300, in particular where the General Assembly requests the Secretary-General, with assistance from the Office of Internal Oversight Services, to proceed as quickly as possible to conduct a systematic evaluation of the impact, efficiency and cost-effectiveness of all activities of the Department of Public Information, and to report on progress made to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session through the Committee on Information and the Fifth Committee;

56. Reaffirms also that the Official Documents System, as an archival and retrieval system of official documents, should cover the entire Organization, including the United Nations Office at Nairobi and all regional commissions, and in this regard requests the Secretary-General to pursue vigorous implementation and to report to the General Assembly at its fifty-ninth session on the progress made;

57. Emphasizes the priority it attaches to the necessity of improving and modernizing the conference facilities at the United Nations Office at Nairobi, and in this regard requests the Secretary-General to keep under review the issue of the construction of additional facilities at the Office and to report thereon to the General Assembly in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2006-2007, in the light of experience gained from operating the modernized conference facilities;

58. Requests the Secretary-General to present a comprehensive report to the Assembly at its fifty-ninth session, addressing possible measures on how to improve the performance of the Development Account, including ways and means aimed at bringing a more focused approach to project formulation, complementarity, implementation and evaluation, as well as to make proposals on increasing its funding in accordance with General Assembly resolutions 52/12 B of 19 December 1997 and 54/15 of 29 October 1999.
