La situation au Soudan

L'Assemblée générale,

Guidée par les principes consacrés dans la Charte des Nations Unies, la Déclaration universelle des droits de l'homme 1/, les Pactes internationaux relatifs aux droits de l'homme 2/ et la Convention internationale sur l'élimination de toutes les formes de discrimination raciale 3/,

Réaffirmant que tous les Etats Membres ont le devoir de promouvoir et de protéger les droits de l'homme et les libertés fondamentales et de s'acquitter des obligations énoncées dans les divers instruments sur cette question,

Rappelant la résolution adoptée à Dakar par l'Organisation de l'unité africaine sur le renforcement de la coopération et de la coordination entre les Etats africains, et l'Accord d'Addis-Abeba de juillet 1990,

1/ Résolution 217 A (III).

2/ Voir résolution 2200 A (XXI), annexe.

3/ Voir résolution 2106 A (XX), annexe.

Noting with deep concern reports of grave human rights violations in the Sudan, particularly summary executions, detentions without trial, forced displacement of persons and torture, described in part in the reports submitted to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session by the Special Rapporteurs on Torture and on Summary or Arbitrary Executions,

Noting the announcement by the Government of the Sudan of its intention to constitute an independent judicial inquiry commission to investigate the killings of Sudanese nationals employees of foreign government relief organizations,

Deeply concerned that access by the civilian population to humanitarian assistance is being impeded, which poses a threat to human life and an offence to human dignity,

Alarmed by the large number of internally displaced persons and victims of discrimination in the Sudan, including members of minorities who have been forcibly displaced in violation of their human rights and who are in need of relief assistance and of protection,

Alarmed also by the mass exodus of refugees into neighbouring countries, and conscious of the burden that this places on those countries, but expressing its appreciation for the continuing efforts to assist them, thereby easing the burden on host countries,

Emphasizing that it is essential to put an end to the serious deterioration of the human rights situation in the Sudan,

Welcoming the efforts of the United Nations and other humanitarian organizations to provide humanitarian relief to those Sudanese in need,

1. Expresses its deep concern at the serious human rights violations in the Sudan, including summary executions, detentions without due process, forced displacement of persons and torture;
2. Urges the Government of the Sudan to respect fully human rights, and calls upon all parties to cooperate in order to ensure such respect;
3. Calls on the Government of the Sudan to comply with applicable international instruments of human rights, in particular the International Covenants on Human Rights and the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, to which the Sudan is a party, and to ensure that all individuals in its territory and subject to its jurisdiction, including members of all religious and ethnic groups, enjoy the rights recognized in these instruments;
4. Calls on all parties to the hostilities to respect fully the applicable provisions of international humanitarian law including article 3 of the Geneva Conventions of 1949, and the additional protocols thereto, to halt the use of weapons against the civilian population, to protect all civilians from violations, including arbitrary detention, ill-treatment, torture and summary execution;

5. Expresses its appreciation to the humanitarian organizations for their work in helping displaced persons and drought and conflict victims in the Sudan, and calls on all parties to protect humanitarian relief workers;

6. Calls on the Special Rapporteur on Summary or Arbitrary Executions to address the killing of Sudanese national employees of foreign government relief organizations;

7. Calls upon the Government of the Sudan to ensure a full, thorough and prompt investigation of the killings of Sudanese nationals employees of foreign government relief organizations by the independent judicial inquiry commission, to bring to justice those responsible for the killings and to provide just compensation to the families of the victims;

8. Calls on all parties to permit international agencies, humanitarian organizations and donor Governments to deliver humanitarian assistance to the civilian population and to cooperate with the recent initiatives of the Department of Humanitarian Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat to deliver humanitarian assistance to all persons in need;

9. Recommends that the serious human rights situation in the Sudan be monitored, and invites the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-ninth session to give urgent attention to the situation of human rights in the Sudan;

10. Decides to continue its consideration of this question at its forty-eighth session.
