Notes

Le présent manuel a été établi par le secrétariat de la CNUCED à partir des informations fournies par le Ministère japonais des affaires étrangères. Il explique les grandes lignes du schéma du Japon afin de permettre aux divers responsables et utilisateurs de mieux connaître le SGP.

Le présent manuel s'inspire de la loi sur les mesures douanières temporaires, du décret ministériel d'application de ladite loi et du règlement administratif d'application de la même loi. La version originale japonaise de ces textes est la seule qui fait foi en cas de litige.

Les positions tarifaires indiquées dans la présente publication sont conformes à la classification de la Convention internationale sur le système harmonisé de désignation et de codification des marchandises (SH). Les descriptions des produits énumérés dans les listes ont été revues pour faciliter la compréhension. Les lecteurs peuvent se référer au tarif douanier du Japon publié par la Japan Tariff Association pour avoir de plus amples renseignements sur les positions tarifaires et descriptions de produits admis à bénéficier du SGP et d'autres produits.

Pour de plus amples informations sur le schéma du Japon, on peut consulter le site Web du Ministère japonais des affaires étrangères: <http://www.mofa.go.jp>.

Aide-mémoire: démarche à suivre pour bénéficier du schéma du Japon

Premièrement, déterminez la classification tarifaire du produit considéré

- Déterminez la classification correcte du produit (position tarifaire à partir du SH) destiné à être exporté au Japon.

Deuxièmement, assurez-vous que le schéma s'applique au produit considéré

- Vérifiez que le produit en question est admis à bénéficier des préférences octroyées par le schéma du Japon.
- À cette fin, examinez les listes de produits auxquels s'applique le SGP pour connaître avec précision la classification tarifaire et la description du produit considéré.

Troisièmement, évaluez la marge préférentielle

- Si le produit en question est admis à bénéficier du traitement préférentiel octroyé par le schéma du Japon, évaluez la marge préférentielle afin de calculer le prix que vous pouvez proposer à l'acheteur ou à l'importateur.

Quatrièmement, vérifiez la liste des produits soumis à des plafonds

- Vérifiez les plafonds fixés annuellement et familiarisez-vous avec leurs modalités d'administration.
- Vérifiez la dernière liste récapitulative mensuelle des plafonds publiée au Journal officiel japonais et disponible auprès des bureaux de douane japonais.

Cinquièmement, souciez-vous du respect des critères d'origine

- Assurez-vous que le produit en question satisfait aux critères d'origine arrêtés par le Japon. Chaque schéma définit ses propres critères.

Sixièmement, informez-vous des conditions d'expédition

- Assurez-vous que les conditions d'expédition stipulées sont bien remplies.

Septièmement, préparez les preuves documentaires

- Le schéma de préférences exige la fourniture de la déclaration et du certificat d'origine (formule A) combinés du produit comme preuve documentaire. Le cas échéant, d'autres certificats peuvent être requis.

Notes explicatives concernant le schéma de préférences du Japon

Le système généralisé de préférences (SGP), tel qu'issu de l'accord conclu à la CNUCED, vise à contribuer au développement économique des pays en développement; il applique un régime préférentiel à ces pays en permettant aux produits visés d'être importés sur les marchés des pays donneurs (pays développés) à des taux réduits ou en franchise de douane.

Le SGP du Japon est entré en vigueur le 1<sup>er</sup> août 1971 et expire le 31 mars 2011.

1. Bénéficiaires

Le schéma du Japon accorde un traitement préférentiel à 140 pays et 15 territoires en développement.

Le régime préférentiel est appliqué par décret ministériel aux pays ou territoires qui en font la demande, à condition de satisfaire aux critères suivants:

- L'économie du pays ou du territoire demandeur doit être en voie de développement;
- Le territoire demandeur doit posséder son propre régime tarifaire et commercial;
- Le pays ou le territoire demandeur souhaite bénéficier du traitement préférentiel octroyé par le SGP;
- Le pays ou le territoire demandeur doit être admis, par décret ministériel, à bénéficier d'un traitement préférentiel;
- Seuls les pays demandeurs figurant sur la liste des pays les moins avancés (PMA) établie par l'Assemblée générale des Nations Unies sont admis à bénéficier des préférences spéciales en faveur des PMA.

2. Produits visés (régime préférentiel général)

2.1 Produits agricoles (chap. 1 à 24 du SH)

Le Japon applique un régime préférentiel général à certains produits de l'agriculture et de la pêche correspondant à 339 articles (positions tarifaires à neuf chiffres).

2.2 Produits industriels (chap. 25 à 97 du SH)

Des préférences sont accordées à tous les produits industriels, y compris à ceux qui bénéficient de préférences réservées aux PMA, à l'exception de 118 articles.

3. Ampleur des réductions tarifaires (taux du régime préférentiel général)

3.1 Produits agricoles (chap. 1 à 24 du SH)

Diverses réductions tarifaires, y compris l'admission en franchise de droits de douane, sont appliquées à certains produits de l'agriculture et de la pêche provenant de pays en développement bénéficiaires, à l'exception des PMA.

3.2 Produits industriels (chap. 25 à 97 du SH)

Tous les produits industriels sont en principe admis en franchise de droits de douane, à l'exception des produits bénéficiant de préférences accordées uniquement aux PMA et de certains produits sensibles (78 groupes de produits – 1 264 articles) pour lesquels les droits de douane sont nuls ou ont été réduits à 20, 40, 60 ou 80 % des taux applicables à la nation la plus favorisée (NPF) jusqu'à ce que le plafond fixé soit atteint.

4. Plafonds (régime préférentiel général)

4.1 Plafonds

Les produits agricoles (chap. 1 à 24 du SH) ne sont pas soumis à des plafonds.

Parmi les produits industriels (chap. 25 à 97 du SH), certains ne sont pas soumis à des plafonds. Les autres peuvent être importés en bénéficiant du régime préférentiel général jusqu'à ce que le plafond fixé soit atteint. Les plafonds fixés pour 78 groupes de produits (1 264 articles) correspondant chacun à un chapitre, à une position ou à une sous-position du SH, sont calculés pour l'année budgétaire.

4.2 Méthodes de calcul

Pour calculer le plafond pour les années budgétaires 2000 à 2010, il faut multiplier par 1,03 le plafond de l'année budgétaire antérieure.

4.3 Utilisation des plafonds

Les plafonds fixés pour chaque groupe de produits sont valables pour tous les pays bénéficiaires de préférences, sans distinction. Aucune quantité n'est allouée ou réservée à un pays en particulier. Le taux de droit NPF s'applique lorsque le plafond des importations bénéficiant du régime préférentiel général est dépassé. Le traitement préférentiel général accordé à un bénéficiaire est également suspendu quand ses exportations d'articles donnés dépassent le montant maximum autorisé par pays, à savoir le cinquième de la valeur/quantité totale du plafond fixé pour le groupe de produits visé.

4.4 Administration des plafonds et des montants maximaux autorisés par pays

Les importations des produits visés bénéficient, à hauteur des plafonds fixés et des montants maximaux autorisés par pays, d'un traitement préférentiel dans l'ordre des demandes présentées et font l'objet d'un contrôle mensuel; le taux NPF est imposé le seizième jour du premier mois suivant le mois où les importations ont dépassé le plafond ou le montant maximum autorisé par pays.

5. Mesures de sauvegarde

Lorsque l'augmentation des importations bénéficiant de préférences porte préjudice ou risque de porter préjudice à l'industrie nationale, le traitement préférentiel réservé au produit en question peut être suspendu temporairement.

6. Gradation des bénéficiaires avancés

Les bénéficiaires avancés sont exclus à l'occasion de l'examen annuel de la liste des bénéficiaires du SGP. Le cas échéant, le processus de «gradation» est d'abord «partiel», afin d'en atténuer l'impact sur le pays concerné.

Dans le cas d'une «gradation partielle», le produit d'un pays ou territoire bénéficiaire peut être exclu des produits visés par les préférences si le pays ou le territoire en question est répertorié dans l'Atlas de la Banque mondiale comme pays à haut revenu; ou, dans le cas où il n'y figurerait pas, si son produit national brut (PNB) par habitant est équivalent à celui d'un pays à haut revenu; si les exportations du bénéficiaire au Japon dépassent 25 % des exportations mondiales du produit considéré vers le Japon; et si les exportations de ce produit réalisées par le bénéficiaire en question au Japon sont évaluées à plus de 1 milliard de yen.

Tous les pays ou territoires et produits sont examinés chaque année. Si aucune des conditions ci-dessus n'est remplie, le tarif préférentiel est accordé.

En outre, depuis le 1<sup>er</sup> avril 2000, un pays ou territoire peut être exclu de la liste des bénéficiaires si, pendant les trois années antérieures, il a été répertorié comme pays à haut revenu dans l'Atlas de la Banque mondiale; ou, dans le cas où il n'y figurerait pas, si son PNB par habitant est équivalent à celui d'un pays à haut revenu.

Si un pays ou territoire ne figurant pas sur la liste des bénéficiaires n'est pas répertorié comme pays à haut revenu dans l'Atlas de la Banque mondiale pendant trois années consécutives, il peut bénéficier à nouveau du SGP s'il en fait la demande.

7. Exclusion de produits au cas par cas en fonction de critères de compétitivité

Lors de l'examen annuel, le produit d'un pays ou territoire en développement bénéficiaire qui est considéré comme très compétitif sur le marché japonais est exclu des produits visés par les préférences si pendant deux années civiles consécutives: les exportations du produit en question (à l'exception des produits provenant des PMA) au Japon dépassent en valeur 50 % des exportations mondiales de ce produit au Japon et sont évaluées à plus de 1 milliard de yen.

Néanmoins, aucun produit remplissant ces critères n'est exclu si l'on considère que cela n'est pas indispensable compte tenu de l'existence d'une production nationale ou des diverses incidences sur l'industrie nationale. En outre, les produits assujettis à un plafond qui remplissent ces critères ne sont pas exclus.

Les produits qui ne peuvent remplir les critères susmentionnés pendant deux années civiles consécutives après avoir été exclus peuvent bénéficier à nouveau de préférences tarifaires.

8. Régime préférentiel spécial en faveur des pays les moins avancés (PMA)

L'admission en franchise de droits de douane et l'admission hors contingent sont des mesures préférentielles spéciales octroyées à tous les produits des PMA bénéficiant du régime préférentiel général et aux autres produits faisant l'objet de préférences accordées uniquement à ces pays.

Les importations de cuivre affiné provenant de la République démocratique du Congo et de la Zambie sont frappées de droits de douane nuls, mais le plafond dont elles font l'objet ne sera pas supprimé avant la fin de l'année budgétaire 2005.

9. Règles d'origine

Pour pouvoir bénéficier du régime tarifaire préférentiel, les marchandises exportées par un pays bénéficiaire doivent se voir reconnaître la qualité de produits originaires dudit pays selon les critères d'origine stipulés dans le schéma japonais et avoir été transportées vers le Japon conformément aux règles prescrites.

9.1 Règles en matière de transport (expédition directe)

La règle de l'expédition directe a pour objet de s'assurer que les marchandises conservent leur identité propre et ne subissent pas de modification ou de transformation supplémentaire en cours de transport.

- i) En principe, les marchandises doivent être acheminées directement au Japon, sans transiter par un territoire autre que celui du pays bénéficiaire exportateur.
- ii) Toutefois, des marchandises importées transitant par des territoires autres que celui du pays bénéficiaire exportateur peuvent bénéficier d'un traitement préférentiel si:
  - a) Elles n'ont subi dans le pays de transit aucune opération en dehors d'un transbordement ou d'un entreposage temporaire justifié par des considérations tenant exclusivement aux exigences du transport;
  - b) Le transbordement ou l'entreposage temporaire ont eu lieu dans une zone sous douane ou dans une zone analogue sous contrôle douanier des pays de transit.
- iii) Les marchandises exportées par un pays bénéficiaire à des fins d'entreposage temporaire ou pour des expositions, foires et manifestations analogues organisées dans un pays tiers avant d'être réexportées vers le Japon par leur premier exportateur peuvent bénéficier d'un traitement préférentiel:
  - a) Si leur expédition vers le Japon à partir du pays où s'est tenue l'exposition, etc., s'est faite conformément aux alinéas i ou ii ci-dessus; et
  - b) Si l'exposition, etc., s'est déroulée dans une zone sous douane ou dans une zone analogue, sous la surveillance du pays organisateur.

9.2 Critères d'origine

Des marchandises sont réputées originaires d'un pays bénéficiaire si elles y ont été entièrement obtenues.

Les biens produits entièrement ou partiellement à partir de matières ou de pièces importées d'autres pays ou dont l'origine est inconnue sont réputés originaires d'un pays bénéficiaire si les matières ou pièces en question y ont subi une ouvraison ou une transformation suffisante. D'une façon générale, l'ouvraison ou la transformation est considérée comme suffisante si le bien obtenu correspond à une position tarifaire à quatre chiffres du SH autre que celle dont relèvent les matières ou pièces non originaires utilisées.

Il existe toutefois deux exceptions à cette règle. Premièrement, l'ouvraison ou la transformation subie n'est pas jugée suffisante lorsqu'elle est très simple, même s'il en résulte un changement de position dans le SH (voir à l'annexe 6 les ouvraisons minimales qui ne confèrent pas le caractère de produit originaire).

Deuxièmement, certains biens peuvent obtenir la qualité de produit originaire sans qu'il y ait changement de position dans le SH à condition de remplir certaines conditions (voir à l'annexe 7 la liste des produits transformés pour lesquels les conditions à remplir pour être considéré comme originaire sont précisées).

9.3 Matières importées du Japon

Conformément aux critères d'origine, un traitement spécial est appliqué aux matières importées du Japon par un pays bénéficiaire et utilisées pour la production de biens devant ultérieurement être exportés au Japon (règle des éléments provenant du pays donneur):

- i) Les biens produits dans un pays bénéficiaire exclusivement à partir de matières importées du Japon, ou de matières entièrement obtenues dans le pays bénéficiaire et de matières importées du Japon, sont réputés entièrement obtenus dans ledit pays bénéficiaire;
- ii) Les biens exportés du Japon entrant comme matières premières ou composants dans la production de biens autres que ceux visés à l'alinéa i ci-dessus, sont considérés comme entièrement obtenus dans le pays bénéficiaire.

Toutefois, certains produits obtenus dans un pays bénéficiaire (voir à l'annexe 8 la liste des produits transformés auxquels la règle des éléments provenant du pays donneur ne s'applique pas) ne font pas l'objet d'un traitement spécial.

9.4 Règles d'origine cumulative

Les biens produits dans cinq pays, à savoir l'Indonésie, la Malaisie, les Philippines, la Thaïlande et le Viet Nam, sont considérés comme provenant d'un seul pays bénéficiaire pour la détermination du caractère originaire et l'application de la règle des éléments provenant du pays donneur.

Ce groupe de pays bénéficie des avantages ci-après lorsque les critères de transformation substantielle lui sont appliqués:

- i) Pour le calcul du pourcentage des matières non originaires de ces cinq pays, les biens qui suivent sont réputés originaires de ce groupe de pays:
  - a) Toutes les matières premières constituées uniquement de biens originaires de ces cinq pays;
  - b) Toutes les matières premières constituées uniquement de biens exportés du Japon à destination de ces cinq pays;

- c) Toutes les matières premières constituées uniquement de biens entrant dans les catégories décrites aux alinéas a et b;
- d) La proportion des matières premières qui remplissent les conditions énoncées aux alinéas a à c, si des matières premières provenant d'autres pays (à l'exception des biens importés du Japon) entrent dans la composition des biens;
- ii) Les biens sont réputés originaires de l'un de ces pays si certaines conditions relatives à leur ouvraison ou à leur transformation sont remplies dans tous les pays qui ont participé à leur production.

Les biens admis à bénéficier d'un traitement tarifaire préférentiel en vertu des règles d'origine cumulative sont réputés originaires du pays qui les produit et les exporte au Japon.

Pour bénéficier de ce régime, un certificat d'ouvraison/de transformation cumulative doit être présenté aux autorités douanières en sus du certificat d'origine (formule A) lors de la déclaration d'importation.

9.5 Preuves documentaires (voir l'annexe 9)

i) Preuve de l'origine des biens

a) Preuves documentaires à produire pour tous les biens admis au bénéfice du SGP

Pour que des biens reçoivent un traitement tarifaire préférentiel, un certificat d'origine (déclaration et certificat combinés) (formule A) doit être présenté aux autorités douanières japonaises lors de leur importation. Le certificat doit être délivré par les autorités douanières (ou par tout autre organisme gouvernemental compétent du pays bénéficiaire exportateur ou par d'autres organismes de ce pays, comme les chambres de commerce, agréés par les autorités douanières japonaises) à la demande de l'exportateur des marchandises considérées. Toutefois, aucun certificat n'est exigé pour les envois dont la valeur en douane ne dépasse pas 200 000 yen ou pour les biens dont l'origine est évidente (voir à l'annexe 9 la position tarifaire des produits pour lesquels des preuves documentaires ne sont pas exigées).

b) Matières importées du Japon

Lorsqu'un traitement spécial est demandé au titre de la règle des éléments provenant du pays donneur pour des biens exportés au Japon par un pays bénéficiaire, il faut apporter la preuve que les matières utilisées ont bien été importées du Japon par le pays bénéficiaire en question, en fournissant: un certificat concernant les matières importées du Japon délivré par l'autorité habilitée à délivrer les certificats d'origine (formule A).

c) Origine cumulative

Lorsqu'un traitement spécial est demandé conformément aux règles d'origine cumulative pour des biens produits dans un pays du groupe susmentionné (Indonésie, Malaisie, Philippines, Thaïlande et Viet Nam), un certificat d'ouvraison/de transformation cumulative doit être présenté aux autorités douanières en sus du certificat d'origine (formule A) lors de la déclaration d'importation. Il est délivré par l'autorité habilitée à délivrer les certificats d'origine. Le numéro de référence du certificat d'ouvraison/de transformation cumulative doit être indiqué dans la case n° 4 («Pour usage officiel») du certificat d'origine.

ii) Preuve du transport

Les preuves documentaires à fournir pour attester que les conditions stipulées aux alinéas ii ou iii des règles d'expédition mentionnées plus haut ont bien été remplies sont les suivantes:

- a) Un connaissance direct;
- b) Un certificat délivré par les autorités douanières ou par d'autres organismes gouvernementaux compétents des pays de transit; ou
- c) À défaut des documents susmentionnés, toute autre preuve documentaire jugée suffisante. Toutefois, aucune preuve n'est exigée pour les envois dont la valeur en douane ne dépasse pas 200 000 yen.

10. Information sur les importations bénéficiant de préférences

La valeur (ou la quantité) des importations bénéficiant d'un régime préférentiel pour chaque groupe de produits est publiée mensuellement au Journal officiel japonais.

Pour bénéficier des préférences, les produits doivent avoir été, soit entièrement obtenus, soit suffisamment ouvrés ou transformés conformément aux règles d'origine des pays de destination.
