International Law Commission

Seventy-second session

Geneva, 27 April–5 June and 6 July–7 August 2020

Fourth report on succession of States in respect of State responsibility

by Pavel Šturma, Special Rapporteur

Corrigendum

1. Paragraph 9, line 8

Delete the Netherlands

2. Paragraph 10, line 3

Delete the Netherlands

3. Page 12, footnote 56

For the existing text substitute

<sup>56</sup> See Bijelić v. Montenegro and Serbia, Application no. 11890/05, Judgment of 28 April 2009, Second Section, European Court of Human Rights. A contrario cf. Mytilineos Holdings SA v. I. The State Union of Serbia and Montenegro, 2. Republic of Serbia, Partial Award on Jurisdiction of 8 September 2006, United Nations Commission on International Trade Law, para. 158. In this case, the tribunal took note, after the declaration of independence of Montenegro, that “it appears uncontroversial that the Republic of Serbia will continue the legal identity of the State Union of Serbia and Montenegro on the international level”.
