19. At the same meeting, the Coordinator for the World Conference on Human Rights in response to inquiries received by the secretariat, made a statement with regard to paragraph (g) of the draft decision. He said that it was the understanding of the secretariat that the attendance of the invitees described in paragraph (g) of draft decision 2 would be funded from the existing travel budgets of the individual treaty bodies.

20. In response to an inquiry concerning paragraph (e) of draft decision 2, the Coordinator for the World Conference stated that the words "intergovernmental organizations" would include regional intergovernmental human rights organizations.

35. In response to an inquiry concerning the priority of expenditures from the voluntary fund between travel costs and daily subsistence allowances, the Coordinator for the World Conference on Human Rights stated that in the United Nations procedure for authorizing travel, there was no distinction or priority between various expenditures.

36. The Preparatory Committee adopted draft decision 3 without a vote.

37. For the text of the decision, see annex II, decision PC.2/1.

X. REGIONAL MEETINGS

38. The Committee of the Whole considered agenda item 10, concurrently with items 8 and 9, at its 6th and 7th meetings, held on 2 April 1992.

39. The Committee of the Whole had before it the following documents:

Note by the Secretariat (A/CONF.157/PC/19);

Recommendations to the Preparatory Committee at its second session for the World Conference on Human Rights submitted by United Nations human rights treaty bodies: report of the Secretary-General (A/CONF.157/PC/23);

Report of the Chairman of the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session (A/CONF.157/PC/29).

40. At the 2nd meeting of the Preparatory Committee, on 10 April 1992, the representative of the Philippines, on behalf of the Asian Group, orally proposed a draft decision concerning the invitation to participate in the regional meetings for the World Conference on Human Rights, which read as follows:

"At its ... meeting, on 10 April 1992, the Preparatory Committee decided, without a vote, to recommend to the General Assembly that it request the Secretary-General to invite the following non-governmental organizations to the regional meeting for the World Conference on Human Rights: non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council and with competence in the field of human rights and development which have their headquarters in the concerned region, which designate representatives properly accredited by them to participate as observers in the regional meeting."

41. In response to an inquiry concerning the invitation, the Coordinator for the World Conference on Human Rights stated that the invitations to the regional meetings would be issued in accordance with the decision taken by the Preparatory Committee and that if there were no decisions on the matter, the invitations would be sent on the basis of the applicable rules of procedure, in this case the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council.

42. The Preparatory Committee took no action on the draft decision.

43. At the 2nd meeting, on 10 April 1992, the representative of India, on behalf of the Asian Group, orally proposed a draft decision concerning the criteria for participation in the regional meetings for the World Conference on Human Rights as follows:

"Invitation to participate in the regional meetings for the World Conference on Human Rights

"At its ... meeting, on ... April 1992, the Preparatory Committee decided, without a vote, to recommend to the General Assembly that it request the Secretary-General to invite the countries under the following criteria to the regional meetings for the World Conference on Human Rights: countries belonging to the particular regional grouping and which are not members of any other regional groupings.

"For the purposes of this decision, regional groupings correspond to the list as communicated to the Secretary-General of the United Nations by the chairman of the regional group concerned at United Nations Headquarters in New York."

44. In response to inquiries concerning participation at the regional meetings for the World Conference on Human Rights, the Coordinator for the World Conference on Human Rights stated that it was the understanding of the secretariat that the proposal would be dealt with in the same way as the decision taken regarding the date and venue of the World Conference, namely, it should be preceded by appropriate wording requesting the General Assembly, at its resumed forty-sixth session, to be held on 4 or 5 May 1992, to reopen consideration of the agenda item in question so as to enable such a decision to be taken. The Coordinator explained that the adoption of such a decision would entail reconsideration by the General Assembly of its decision, taken at its forty-sixth session and contained in paragraph 4 (d) of resolution 46/116. Should the draft decision be adopted, it would also be necessary to define the references contained in the draft decision to "groupings". With regard to the actual regional participation, the Coordinator for the World Conference on Human Rights stated that the question had to be referred to United Nations Headquarters to ascertain the practice at Headquarters regarding the process of notification of groups.

45. With regard to the question of interpretation of the phrase "within the institutional framework or with the assistance of the regional commissions" (General Assembly resolution 46/116, para. 4 (d)), the Coordinator for the World Conference on Human Rights stated that the regional meetings would be held within the institutional framework of the regional commissions, that is, within the framework of their mandates and terms of reference; the term "with the assistance of" referred to the support that could be extended by the regional commissions to the regional meetings.

46. The draft decision was subsequently withdrawn by the representative of India on behalf of the Asian Group.

48. At its 2nd meeting, on 10 April 1992, the Preparatory Committee had before it draft decision 4, entitled "Studies and documentation", proposed by the Chairman and contained in document A/CONF.157/PC/L.1/Add.1.

49. Draft decision 4 read as follows:

"At its ... meeting, on ... April 1992, the Preparatory Committee decided, without a vote, pursuant to paragraph 4 (e) (i) of General Assembly resolution 46/116:

"(a) To take note of the report of the Secretary-General entitled 'Annotations to the studies', contained in document A/CONF.157/PC/20, and the studies set out therein, as well as of the suggestions made in the course of the examination of the relevant items by the Preparatory Committee at its second session, those contained in document A/CONF.157/PC/25 and in the annex thereto, and those submitted by the Chairman of the Commission on Human Rights in document A/CONF.157/PC/29;

"(b) To request the Secretary-General to initiate the studies on this basis and to submit a progress report at the third session of the Preparatory Committee."

50. At the same meeting, the Coordinator for the World Conference on Human Rights introduced proposals of amendment to draft decision 4 received by the secretariat as follows:

(a) Replace paragraphs (a) and (b) by the following new paragraphs:

"(a) To thank the Secretary-General for his report on suggestions for studies and documentation for the Conference, contained in document A/CONF.157/PC/20, and to welcome with interest the study topics proposed by the Latin American and Caribbean and African Groups in documents A/CONF.157/PC/25 and A/CONF.157/PC/34, respectively, as well as the suggestions made during the discussion on the relevant items by the Preparatory Committee at its second session and those put forward by the Chairman of the Commission on Human Rights in document A/CONF.157/PC/29;"

"(b) To request the Secretary-General, in consultation with the regional groups, to initiate the studies on the basis of those documents and to submit a progress report to the Preparatory Committee at its third session;"

(b) Add a new paragraph (c) as follows:

"(c) That the studies should be made available in all official languages no later than the end of 1992."

51. The representative of the Philippines, on behalf of the Asian Group, proposed to amend the proposed amendments as follows:

In paragraph (a) insert "and A/CONF.157/PC.35" between "A/CONF.157/PC/34," and "respectively" and add at the end of the paragraph "and proposals to be submitted by the Asian and other Groups;"

52. At the same meeting, the Coordinator for the World Conference on Human Rights, at the request of several delegations, explained the process and methodology followed by the secretariat with regard to the studies. He stated that document A/CONF.157/PC/20, which was prepared in accordance with General Assembly resolution 45/155 of 18 December 1990, reflected the outcome of the consultations held between the secretariat and the coordinators of the regional groups, and that the secretariat would continue to reflect the views expressed during the present session of the Preparatory Committee concerning topics and issues to be covered by the six studies. Such consultations would continue until the commencement of the studies.

53. Subsequently, at the same meeting, the Chairman introduced further proposals to amend the draft decision received by the secretariat as follows:

(a) Revise paragraph (a) as follows:

"(a) To take note of the report by the Secretary-General on studies and documentation for the Conference, contained in document A/CONF.157/PC/20, and of the study topics proposed by the Latin American and Caribbean Group and the African Group in documents A/CONF.157/PC/25 and A/CONF.157/PC/34, respectively, as well as the suggestions made during the discussion on the relevant items by the Preparatory Committee at its second session and those put forward by the Chairman of the Commission on Human Rights in document A/CONF.157/PC/29, and to receive proposals to be submitted by the Asian and other Groups;"

(b) The content of paragraph (b) will be revised in accordance with the ideas expressed by the secretariat in the text of the report on the second session of the Preparatory Committee, in a form similar to that used in the report on the first session, as follows:

"(b) It is the understanding of the Preparatory Committee that the Secretary-General of the Conference should consult all the regional groups before undertaking the studies."

54. XII. ORGANIZATION OF FUTURE SESSIONS OF THE PREPARATORY COMMITTEE

66. At its 2nd meeting, on 10 April 1992, the Preparatory Committee had before it a draft decision concerning national action plans, proposed by Australia and contained in document A/CONF.157/PC/L.3, which read as follows:

"At its ..th meeting, on .. April 1992, the Preparatory Committee, at its second session, decided, without a vote:

"(a) To take note with interest of the proposal on national action plans contained in the annex to its report;

"(b) To request the Secretary-General to invite Governments, specialized agencies and regional, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to give consideration to the proposal and to submit comments if they wished; and

"(c) To consider the matter at its third session, with a view to adopting the proposal.

"Proposal: National Action Plans

"Objective

"To establish a specific World Conference activity which will provide, in a practical way, for improved observance of human rights standards.

"Means of achievement

"A written plan of action would be drawn up by each State and submitted to the fourth session of the Preparatory Committee for the World Conference. The action plans would become a document for the World Conference itself. Each State could, if it wished, give an initial progress report on the implementation of its plan at the World Conference. The process could be followed up thereafter within the framework of the Commission on Human Rights.

"Features of the action plan approach

"This approach would enable States to strengthen activities aimed at the promotion of human rights and to link the activities concretely with the World Conference process. It would be a specific, achievable activity which could be followed up after the Conference and which would enable the Conference to have lasting beneficial effects.

"Each State would base its plan on its own situation and circumstances. Each State would set its own agenda, within a framework of shared commitment to the observance of human rights. Thus, the approach would be non-prescriptive.

"The action plan approach would, moreover, apply to all, for every country can improve its observance of human rights.

"Illustrative list of elements which could be included in national plans

"A State could:

"(a) Identify the United Nations or regional human rights instruments it intended to ratify and outline concrete steps by which it would achieve this;

"(b) Indicate its intention to accede to the optional complaints mechanisms provided for in human rights instruments;

"(c) Identify the human rights treaty reservations it intended to remove;

"(d) Pledge itself to submit overdue reports to treaty bodies or to pay outstanding contributions;

"(e) Develop targets in the area of economic, social and cultural rights and indicate what progress has been made towards achieving them;

"(f) Describe legislation or administrative acts it has proposed or adopted which would advance human rights observance, for example by:

"(i) Protecting the rights of minorities and other vulnerable groups;

"(ii) Ensuring women's rights;

"(iii) Strengthening democratic institutions;

"(iv) Incorporating international human rights instruments in domestic law and practice;

"(v) Lifting states of emergency;

"(g) Describe the steps by which it would establish a national institution;

"(h) Strengthen cooperation with regional and international human rights organizations;

"(i) Propose a programme of human rights information and education, including in school curricula and the workplace;

"(j) Undertake a programme of education and training for personnel directly responsible for the protection of human rights;

"(k) Take steps aimed at strengthening the independence of the judiciary;

"(l) Indicate the steps it would take to facilitate the activities of non-governmental organizations in the human rights field;

"(m) Provide financial assistance to other States in the area of human rights;

"(n) Work towards the strengthening of the United Nations Centre for Human Rights."

67. At the same meeting, the representative of Australia withdrew the draft decision. He stated that his delegation intended to submit the same draft decision for consideration at the third session of the Preparatory Committee.

68. At its 2nd meeting, on 10 April 1992, the Preparatory Committee had before it a draft decision concerning the final document of the World Conference, proposed by Australia on behalf of the Western European and other States and contained in document A/CONF.157/PC/L.4, which read as follows:

"At its ..th meeting, on .. April 1992, the Preparatory Committee at its second session decided, without a vote:

"(a) That the final document of the World Conference should reflect the objectives of the Conference, as set out in General Assembly resolution 45/155, that it should be the subject of consensus, that it should be suitable for endorsement by high level participants and that it should lend itself to wide dissemination as a basic human rights document;

"(b) To request the Secretary-General to prepare a provisional draft list of elements which could form the basis of further work on the final document, on the basis of General Assembly resolution 45/155, Commission on Human Rights resolution 1991/30, debate in the Preparatory Committee and the outcome of regional preparatory meetings and to submit the provisional draft list to the Preparatory Committee at its third session;

"(c) To take up consideration of the form and content of the final document of the World Conference at its third session."

69. At the same meeting, several representatives expressed reservations with respect to the draft decision. The representative of Australia subsequently revised the draft decision by deleting initially paragraph (a) and, later, also paragraph (b).

70. The representative of Algeria proposed to amend paragraph (c) by adding at the end of the paragraph "after the adoption of the provisional agenda of the World Conference".

71. The representative of Australia later withdrew the draft decision.

72. At its 2nd meeting, on 10 April 1992, the Chairman orally proposed a draft decision concerning future sessions of the Preparatory Committee, as follows:

"Organization of future sessions of the Preparatory Committee

"At its ... meeting, on 10 April 1992, the Preparatory Committee decided, without a vote, pursuant to paragraph 4 (b) of General Assembly resolution 46/116, that its third session should take place at Geneva from 14 to 25 September 1992."

Order of voting on amendments

Rule 42

When an amendment is moved to a proposal, the amendment shall be voted on first. When two or more amendments are moved to a proposal, the Conference shall vote first on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal and then on the amendment next furthest removed therefrom and so on until all the amendments have been put to the vote. Where, however, the adoption of one amendment necessarily implies the rejection of another amendment, the latter shall not be put to the vote. If one or more amendments are adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted upon.

Order of voting on proposals

Rule 43

1. If two or more proposals, other than amendments, relate to the same question, they shall, unless the Conference decides otherwise, be voted on in the order in which they were submitted. The Conference may, after each vote on a proposal, decide whether to vote on the next proposal.
2. Revised proposals shall be voted on in the order in which the original proposals were submitted, unless the revision substantially departs from the original proposal. In that case the original proposal shall be considered as withdrawn and the revised proposal shall be treated as a new proposal.
3. A motion requiring that no decision be taken on a proposal shall be put to the vote before a decision is taken on the proposal in question.

Rule 44

All elections shall be held by secret ballot unless, in the absence of any objection, the Conference decides to proceed without taking a ballot when there is an agreed candidate or State.
