I. Mandate of the Fund

1. In its resolution 46/122 of 17 December 1991, the General Assembly established the United Nations Voluntary Trust Fund on Contemporary Forms of Slavery, which receives voluntary contributions from Governments, non-governmental organizations, other private and public entities and individuals. The purpose of the Fund is to provide financial assistance to representatives of non-governmental organizations from different regions that deal with issues related to contemporary forms of slavery so they may participate in the deliberations of the Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery and to extend humanitarian, legal and financial aid, through established channels of assistance, to individuals whose human rights have been severely violated as a result of contemporary forms of slavery.

II. Administration and Board of Trustees

2. Pursuant to General Assembly resolution 46/122, the Fund is administered by the Secretary-General, through the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), in accordance with the relevant financial regulations and rules of the United Nations on general trust funds for humanitarian assistance and with the advice of a Board of Trustees.

3. The Board is composed of five experts with relevant experience in the field of human rights and, in particular, with issues of contemporary forms of slavery, serving in their personal capacities. The current members of the Board, appointed by the Secretary-General for a three-year renewable term, in consultation with the Chairperson of the Subcommission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights, with due regard to equitable geographical distribution, are Swami Agnivesh (Chairperson), Theo van Boven, Cheikh Saad-Bouh Kamara, Tatiana Matveeva and José de Souza Martins.

III. Beneficiaries

4. In accordance with the selection criteria adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution 46/122, the beneficiaries of assistance from the Fund shall be: (a) representatives of non-governmental organizations dealing with issues of contemporary forms of slavery who would not, in the opinion of the Board, be able to attend the session of the Working Group without the assistance provided by the Fund and who would be able to contribute to a deeper knowledge on the part of the Working Group of the problems relating to contemporary forms of slavery; and (b) individuals whose human rights have been severely violated as a result of contemporary forms of slavery (see annex I).

IV. Grant cycle

5. Applications for travel or project grants for 2005 must be submitted by 15 September 2004 for analysis by the secretariat of the Fund and Board. Admissible applications will be examined by the Board at its next session, scheduled to be held in January 2005. At that session, the Board will adopt recommendations for grants, which will then be submitted for approval to the High Commissioner for Human Rights on behalf of the Secretary-General. The grants approved should be paid in February/March 2005. Beneficiaries of project grants then have to provide satisfactory narrative and financial reports on the use of their grants before 1 November 2005. Until satisfactory reports on the use of previous grants are received, no new project grant can be paid.

6. Admissibility of new applications: during the period between the receipt of the application and the next session of the Board, the secretariat of the Fund decides on the admissibility of applications on the basis of the mandate of the Fund.

7. Selection process: admissible application forms are verified as to their conformity with approved selection criteria and additional information is requested from the organization if necessary. Reference organizations and specialized networks are consulted as well if necessary. The complete application form is then summarized and analysed by the secretariat in accordance with the selection criteria, to facilitate the work of the Board of Trustees. At its annual session, the Board reviews all applications declared admissible, including the original application form, the summary analysis prepared by the secretariat and any other relevant information. The Board then makes recommendations to the Secretary-General in accordance with the guidelines of the Fund and Board. After the session the secretariat reviews all the Board's recommendations for consistency with relevant United Nations administrative and financial rules and regulations. The High Commissioner for Human Rights approves, on behalf of the Secretary-General, the recommendations that are acceptable, along with any new best practices identified during the annual session.

8. Payment of grants: the beneficiary organizations are requested to approve all conditions attached to the grant such as providing narrative and financial reports on the use of grants by a given deadline. Upon receipt of this confirmation, the secretariat of the Fund requests the financial services of the United Nations Office at Geneva to pay the project grant promptly. In the case of travel grants, the beneficiary receives a plane ticket from his or her local travel agency and then a daily subsistence allowance (DSA) in the form of a cheque upon arrival at the session of the Working Group.

9. Monitoring: the secretariat reviews all narrative and financial reports received from beneficiary organizations on the use of project grants and asks for additional information if needed. OHCHR field presences and other United Nations field offices such as those of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) may be requested to provide to the secretariat of the Fund additional information on the organization or project. Travel grants are closely monitored before and during the session of the Working Group. Beneficiaries are requested to provide a copy of any statement they make during the session as part of their reporting obligation.

10. Evaluation by the Board and secretariat: in performing their evaluation, the Board and the secretariat carry out the following activities:

(a) At its annual session the Board reviews the situation of all travel and project grants allocated in previous years. When the Board is satisfied with the reporting from a given organization, it recommends closing the file. If the report is not complete the Board makes a recommendation requesting specific additional information. No new grants will be allocated to that organization until the Board is satisfied with its report;

(b) Board members may visit projects financed by the Fund within their geographic region; the secretariat of the Fund may also visit projects;

(c) Board members, who are respected United Nations experts in the field of contemporary forms of slavery, establish, if needed, direct contacts with project leaders in the field, during sessions of the Board, or at the sessions of the Working Group, the Commission on Human Rights and the Subcommission on the Promotion and the Protection of Human Rights, in order to better evaluate the use of the grants. The secretariat also meets with project leaders;

(d) Reference organizations and specialized networks may be invited to the session of the Board at which their applications are examined in order, inter alia, to provide additional information on specific organizations or projects, answer questions and explain their activities to the Board;

(e) Concerning travel grants, the Chairman, or another Board member if possible, attends the Working Group session in order to meet with all beneficiaries present and assess the impact of their participation on the deliberations of the Working Group.

V. Payment of contributions

11. In order to meet the requirements of the grant cycle and meet new requests for funding, new voluntary contributions should be paid to the Fund by the end of 2004 so that they can be duly recorded by the United Nations Treasurer well in advance of the next session of the Board. Contributions that cannot be recorded before the next session of the Board will be considered at the following session.

VI. Ninth session of the Board of Trustees

12. During the 10 meetings of its ninth session (26-30 January 2004), the Board of Trustees examined information prepared by its secretariat concerning previous grants paid from 2000 to 2003, applications for new travel and project grants, the financial situation of the Fund, including new contributions and pledges (see annex II, sect. A), and the implementation of the new recommendations approved in 2003. The Board met with the Acting High Commissioner, as well as representatives of donor and other interested Governments and staff members of OHCHR working on other activities relevant to the mandate of the Board. Detailed information concerning the ninth session of the Board of Trustees can be found in document E/CN.4/2004/78/Add.1, section II.

VII. Approval and implementation of recommendations

13. All the recommendations made by the Board of Trustees at its ninth session were approved on 23 February 2004 by the Acting United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights on behalf of the Secretary-General. Eight out of nine beneficiaries attended the twenty-ninth session of the Working Group (28 June-

2 July 2004). One beneficiary was refused an entrance visa for Switzerland. Only two project grants were kept pending until additional information requested from the applicants had been received by the Board.

14. The Board noted with satisfaction that, thanks to new contributions from previous and new donors, appeals by the High Commissioner, the Board and Fund secretariat and recommendations of the Subcommittee on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights and the Working Group, it had been able to recommend 20 new grants in 2004. The relevant statistics since the Board started allocating grants in 1997, including the number of travel and project applications received and the amount of money requested, as well as the number of grants received and the amount of money allocated by the Fund, are shown in the following table.

Statistics on the allocation of travel and project grants, 1997-2004

<sup>a</sup> Every year about 50 applications are received that are not admissible, as they do not fall within the mandate of the Fund, arrive after the established deadline or are incomplete.

<sup>b</sup> The total amount available for grants was paid in 1997 ($23,850), and no new contributions were paid.

VIII. Twenty-ninth session of the Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery

15. At its twenty-ninth session, the Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery had before it the report of the Secretary-General to the Commission on Human Rights concerning the situation of the Fund (E/CN.4/2004/78 and Add.1).

16. A member of the Board of Trustees, Mr. de Souza Martins, attended the session and introduced the documentation available and the beneficiaries of travel grants attending the session and described the financial situation of the Fund.

17. The Working Group invited the Board of Trustees to continue to promote the participation at the annual sessions of the Working Group of individuals and organizations from as large a number of countries as possible and to continue contributing to projects implemented at the grass-roots level that directly assist victims of contemporary forms of slavery.

18. The Working Group also expressed its gratitude to all those who had contributed to the Fund and strongly encouraged them to continue doing so, especially in view of the thirtieth anniversary of the Working Group. It also recalled that the General Assembly had appealed to all Governments to respond favourably to requests for contributions to the Fund, urged Governments and non-governmental organizations, other private or public entities and individuals to contribute to the Fund and encouraged them to do so if possible by September 2004, in order to enable the Fund to fulfil its mandate effectively in the year 2005.

IX. Needs assessment

19. Applications for grants amounting to approximately $727,000 were received in 2004. The Board was able to recommend only about $180,700 (just under one quarter of the total amount requested). In the Board's view, in order to be able to fulfil its mandate and to satisfy the new applications envisaged for 2005, and also taking into consideration that the Board had recommended for expenditure almost all the money available at its ninth session, the Fund would need new contributions amounting to at least $325,000 before the tenth session of the Board, scheduled to be held at the end of January 2005.

20. New contributions and pledges have already been made for the tenth session of the Board (see annex II, sects. C and D).

X. Fund-raising for the tenth session of the Board of Trustees

21. The Board adopted its revised cost plan for 2005 on the basis of the increase in new applications for grants and the increase in new contributions received in 2004.

22. During its tenth session, the Board held its annual meeting with regular and new donor Governments and other interested Governments (see E/CN.4/2004/78/Add.1, paras. 30 and 31).

23. The Board recommended that the secretariat of the Commission on Human Rights continue to invite the Bureau to request the Chairperson or another member of the Board to deliver a brief speech to the Commission for the purpose of introducing the report of the Secretary-General on the Fund, providing the Commission with updated information on its work and the financial situation of the Fund and inviting donors to contribute to the Fund.

XI. How to contribute to the Fund

24. Voluntary contributions to the United Nations Voluntary Trust Fund on Contemporary Forms of Slavery may be made as follows:

XII. Recommendations

26. In the view of the Board of Trustees of the Fund, in order to be able to satisfy all new applications envisaged for 2005 and to fulfil its mandate satisfactorily, the Fund would need at least $325,000 more before the tenth session of the Board, scheduled to be held at the end of January 2005. As recommended by the Board at its ninth session and approved by the Acting

United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights on behalf of the Secretary-General, donors are invited to contribute to the Fund by the end of the year in order that the contributions may be duly recorded by the United Nations Treasurer in advance of the annual session of the Board.
