The Board of Auditors transmits to the General Assembly the audited financial statements for the relevant financial period of the United Nations and other funds and programmes for which the Board has audit responsibility. Under the provisions of article VII of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations and the annex thereto, the Board submits reports to the Assembly on the results of its audits and issues opinions as to whether the financial statements properly reflect the recorded transactions and whether those transactions were in accordance with the Financial Regulations and legislative authority and present fairly the financial position as at the end of the financial period of each of the activities reported on. The reports of the Board are commented upon by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, which also submits a report thereon to the Assembly.

At its sixty-third session, the General Assembly reiterated its request to the Secretary-General and the executive heads of the funds and programmes of the United Nations to ensure full implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors and the related recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions in a prompt and timely manner and to hold programme managers accountable for non-implementation of the recommendations (resolution 63/246 A); reiterated that the issue of outstanding assessed contributions is a policy matter of the Assembly, and urged all Member States to make every possible effort to ensure the payment of their assessed contributions in full and on time; and requested the Secretary-General to provide, in the next report on the implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors concerning the United Nations peacekeeping operations, a full explanation for the delays in the implementation of all outstanding recommendations of the Board, the root causes of the recurring issues and the measures to be taken (resolution 63/246 B).

At its sixty-fourth session, the General Assembly noted the concerns as contained in the qualified audit opinion of the Board of Auditors on the financial statements of the voluntary funds administered by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees for the year ended 31 December 2008, after its modified opinion on the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2007, noted also the measures taken by the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to address the seriousness of its financial problems, and encouraged the High Commissioner to implement all the recommendations of the Board and to report to the relevant governing bodies on progress made; and reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to provide in his reports on the implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors on the accounts of the United Nations, as well as on the financial statements of its funds and programmes, a full explanation for the delays in the implementation of the recommendations of the Board, in particular those not yet fully implemented that are two or more years old, and likewise to indicate in future reports an expected time frame for the implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors, including priorities, benchmarks and deadlines, and measures to hold office holders accountable (resolution 64/227).

At the same session, the General Assembly noted with concern the findings of the Board of Auditors as contained in its report on the capital master plan for 2008, and emphasized the importance of the full implementation of the recommendations of the Board, and requested the Secretary-General to provide, in his eighth annual progress report, the steps taken and the progress achieved towards the full implementation of those recommendations (resolution 64/228) (see also item 132).

Questions relating to the programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011

At its sixty-fourth session, the General Assembly acknowledged the current challenges caused by the global financial crisis and decided not to assess in 2010 half of the amount for recosting pending review of the issue in the context of the first performance report on the programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General, in the context of the first performance report, to report on options for protecting the United Nations against fluctuations in exchange rates and inflation.

At the same session, the General Assembly noted with concern that the review of the Secretariat's public information organizational framework, requested in paragraph 120 of its resolution 62/236, had not been carried out, and requested the Secretary-General to undertake the requested review as a matter of priority and to include the results of the review in the first performance report on the programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011 (resolution 64/243).

At its resumed sixty-fourth session in March 2010, the General Assembly took note of the Secretary-General's report on the limited budgetary discretion (A/64/562) and endorsed the conclusions and recommendations contained in the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (resolution 64/260).

At the same resumed session, the General Assembly took note of the report of the Secretary-General on revised estimates relating to the programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011 related to the Emergency Preparedness and Support Unit (A/64/662), and endorsed the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/64/7/Add.22), subject to the provisions of the resolution (resolution 64/260).

At its thirtieth session, in 1975, the General Assembly decided to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-first session an item entitled “Financial emergency of the United Nations” (resolution 3538 (XXX)). The Assembly considered this question at its thirty-first to thirty-ninth sessions (resolutions 31/191, 32/104, 33/430, 35/113, 36/116 A and B, 37/13, 38/228 A and B and 39/239 A and B and decision 34/435).

An item entitled “Current financial crisis of the United Nations” was included in the agenda of the fortieth session at the request of the Secretary-General (A/40/247). The Assembly considered this item at its fortieth and forty-second to forty-fifth sessions (resolutions 42/212, 43/215, 44/195 A and B and 45/236 A and B and decisions 40/471, 40/472 and 42/460).

135. Scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations

The regular budget of the United Nations is apportioned among its Member States in accordance with the scale of assessments approved by the General Assembly on the recommendation of the Committee on Contributions (see item 115 (b)). The scale of assessments has also been used to apportion the costs of the capital master plan. The scale, as modified by the provisions of resolutions 55/235 and 55/236 and other resolutions concerning the financing of peacekeeping operations, has also been used to apportion the cost of peacekeeping operations among Member States. The assessment rates used for the regular budget and peacekeeping operations are also used for apportioning the costs of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia.

At its fifty-fourth session, in 1999, the General Assembly decided that requests for exemption under Article 19 of the Charter must be submitted by Member States to the President of the Assembly at least two weeks before the session of the Committee on Contributions, so as to ensure a complete review of the requests (resolution 54/237 C).

At its fifty-seventh session, the General Assembly endorsed the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee on Contributions concerning multi-year payment plans, as contained in paragraphs 17 to 23 of its report (A/57/11). Among those recommendations were that the Secretary-General should be requested to provide information on the submission of multi-year payment plans to the Assembly through the Committee and to submit an annual report to the Assembly through the Committee on the status of Member States' payment plans as at 31 December each year (resolution 57/4 B).

At its sixty-fourth session, the General Assembly adopted a scale of assessments for the period 2010-2012, based on the recommendations of the Committee on Contributions and using the same methodology applied to the preparation of the scale of assessments for the previous three scale periods. The Assembly recognized that the current methodology could be enhanced bearing in mind the principle of capacity to pay and should be studied in depth and in an effective and expeditious manner, taking into account views expressed by Member States. The Assembly decided to review, at its earliest opportunity, all elements of the methodology of the scale of assessments with a view to a decision before the end of its sixty-sixth session to take effect, if agreed, for the 2013-2015 scale period; and requested the Committee, in accordance with its mandate and the rules of procedure of the Assembly, to make recommendations, and report thereon to the Assembly at the main part of its sixty-fifth session (resolution 64/248).

136. Human resources management

At its sixty-third session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to take advantage of the existing mechanisms for conflict resolution and mediation in order to facilitate dialogue between staff and management; to ensure that measures to identify and promote future leaders had clear criteria and mechanisms for selection and that they were implemented within the framework of the staff selection system, and to provide information on their financial implications; to provide information on the circumstances in which the renewal of a temporary appointment for up to one additional year could be granted; to ensure that all anticipated and immediate vacancies were properly advertised and filled quickly, and to report on the success of that endeavour to the Assembly at its sixty-fifth session; to include analysis of the implementation of the human resources action plans in the context of the report on the composition of the Secretariat; to submit to the Assembly, for consideration at its sixty-fifth session, a feasibility study, building on audit reports, to determine whether the broadening of the scope of the national competitive examination would serve to further strengthen the capacity of the Organization for programme delivery, as recommended by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions; to ensure the expeditious placement of successful candidates from national competitive examinations; to report to the Assembly at its sixty-fifth session on the implementation of the recommendations of the Joint Inspection Unit aimed at reducing the length of the national competitive recruitment examination process and improving the national competitive recruitment examination roster management, as well as setting time frames for completion of the process; to review the current performance appraisal system in consultation with staff through the appropriate channels, and to report thereon to the Assembly at its sixty-fifth session; to submit proposals aimed at encouraging voluntary mobility of staff in the context of the review of the mobility policy, without prejudice to the different needs of duty stations and the field; to make full use of the grade structure and to submit a concrete proposal to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session on how and where P-1 positions might be used more effectively; to ensure that each vacancy announcement identified accurately the skills, education and experience required; and to continue his efforts to attain equitable geographical distribution in the Secretariat and to ensure as wide a geographical distribution of staff as possible in all departments, offices and levels, including the Director and higher levels, of the Secretariat; reiterated its requests to the Secretary-General to take all necessary measures to ensure, at the senior and policymaking levels of the Secretariat, equitable representation of Member States, especially those with inadequate representation at those levels, and to continue to include relevant information thereon in all future reports on the composition of the Secretariat; to present proposals to effectively increase the representation of developing countries in the Secretariat, and to report thereon to the Assembly at its sixty-fifth session; to ensure, through the Management Performance Board, the monitoring of the implementation of the human resources action plans, including the principle of equitable geographical distribution in the Secretariat at all levels, as set out in relevant Assembly resolutions, and the verification of the effective application of measures of transparency and accountability, including in the selection, recruitment and placement processes; to post information regarding the human resources action plans on the United Nations website and to report to the Assembly thereon in the context of the Management Performance Board report, as requested in section X, paragraph 8, of Assembly resolution 61/244; to increase his efforts to attain and monitor the goal of gender parity in the Secretariat, in particular at senior levels, and in that context to ensure that women, especially those from developing countries and countries with economies in transition, were appropriately represented within the Secretariat, and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session; to adhere to existing guidelines on the selection and recruitment of consultants and individual contractors; to include, in future reports on the employment of retirees, analysis on reasons for patterns and trends that emerge from data presented; to report to the Assembly at its sixty-fifth session on the implementation of the human resources management information technology system; and to strengthen programmes to promote health in hardship posts, including through psychological support and disease awareness, with a view to promoting productivity and a better work environment; recalled its request to the Secretary-General to reduce, to the extent possible, the number of unrepresented and underrepresented Member States in the Secretariat by 30 per cent by 2010, compared to the level in 2006, and requested him to report to the Assembly thereon, as appropriate, in the context of his report on human resources management; recognized that considerable change had taken place in the composition and the number of staff of the global United Nations Secretariat in the past two decades, recalled the reports of the Secretary-General, and requested him to submit to the Assembly, at its sixty-fifth session, proposals for a comprehensive review of the system of desirable ranges, with a view to establishing a more effective tool to ensure equitable geographical distribution in relation to the total number of staff of the global United Nations Secretariat; and to gradually incorporate within his report on the composition of the Secretariat the overall number of staff, regardless of sources of funding, on contracts of one year or more (resolution 63/250).

At its resumed sixty-third session, in April 2009, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report to it at its sixty-fifth session regarding the status of the review of staff members eligible for consideration as at 30 June 2009 for a permanent appointment (resolution 63/271).

137. Joint Inspection Unit

At its twenty-first session, in 1966, the General Assembly established the Joint Inspection Unit for an initial period of four years (resolution 2150 (XXI)), and subsequently decided to continue the Unit until 31 December 1973 (resolution 2735 A (XXV)) and then for a further period of four years beyond that date (resolution 2924 B (XXVII)). At its thirty-first session, the Assembly approved the statute of the Joint Inspection Unit as a subsidiary organ of the Assembly and of the legislative bodies of the specialized agencies that accepted the new statute (resolution 31/192). The membership of the Unit was increased from 8 to not more than 11 Inspectors, with effect from 1 January 1978.

The General Assembly considered this question at various sessions from its twenty-first to sixty-third sessions (resolutions 2150 (XXI), 2360 A (XXII), 2735 A (XXV), 2924 B (XXVII), 31/192, 32/199, 37/124, 38/229, 39/242, 40/259, 41/213, 42/218, 43/221, 44/184, 45/237, 48/221, 50/233, 54/16, 54/255, 55/230, 56/245, 57/284 A and B, 58/286, 59/267, 60/258, 61/238, 61/260, 62/226, 62/246 and 63/272).

At its fiftieth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, and invited the executive heads of organizations participating in the Joint Inspection Unit, to take the necessary measures to ensure that the thematic reports of the Unit were listed under the appropriate substantive agenda items of the work programmes of the General Assembly, other pertinent organs and bodies of the United Nations and the appropriate legislative organs of the other participating organizations (resolution 50/233).

At its fifty-fourth session, the General Assembly endorsed the follow-up system annexed to the Unit's report (A/52/34) and invited the Unit to include in its annual reports approved recommendations that had not been implemented (resolution 54/16).

At its fifty-fifth session, the General Assembly decided to consider the annual reports of the Unit on an annual basis (resolution 55/230).

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly decided that the Unit should include in its annual reports information on implementation and the results achieved by organizations in respect of their follow-up to the recommendations of the Unit, as endorsed by their legislative bodies, and the arrangements put in place by participating organizations for reporting thereon (resolution 59/267).

At its sixty-first session, the General Assembly requested that reports of the Unit include information on savings, acceptance rate of recommendations and implementation status by impact category (resolution 61/238, sect. I).

At its resumed sixty-first session, in April 2007, the General Assembly decided to consider jointly the annual report and programme of work of the Joint Inspection Unit at the first part of its resumed sessions, starting from the sixty-second session (resolution 61/260).

At its resumed sixty-third session, in April 2009, the General Assembly stressed the need for the Unit to continuously update and improve its medium- and long-term strategy for 2010-2019, taking into account the dynamics and challenges of the environment in which it undertook its activities, and decided to consider any resources associated with the implementation of the medium- and long-term strategy approach in the context of future programme budgets (resolution 63/272).

At its resumed sixty-fourth session, in May 2010, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, in his capacity as Chair of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination, to expedite the implementation of the resolution, including through the expected provision of support to the Unit by the secretariats of the participating organizations in the preparation of its reports, notes and confidential letters, and the consideration of and action on the recommendations of the Unit in the light of pertinent resolutions of the Assembly, and to report to the Assembly on an annual basis on the results achieved (resolution 64/262).

138. United Nations common system

The General Assembly, by its resolution 3042 (XXVII), decided in principle to establish an international civil service commission for the regulation and coordination of the conditions of service of the United Nations common system. By its resolution 3357 (XXIX), the Assembly approved the statute of the International Civil Service Commission. The United Nations common system comprises 13 organizations that have accepted the Commission's statute and, together with the United Nations itself, participate in the United Nations common system of salaries and allowances. Other organizations have not formally accepted the statute but fully participate in the Commission's work and/or apply the common system of salaries, allowances and benefits. Under its statute, the Commission is required to submit an annual report to the Assembly, which is also to be transmitted to the governing organs of the other organizations of the common system, through their executive heads.

139. United Nations pension system

The United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, the Regulations for which were adopted initially by the General Assembly at its third session, in 1948 (resolution 248 (III)), is administered by the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board, currently consisting of 33 members, one third of whom are elected by the Assembly and the corresponding legislative bodies of the other member organizations, one third by the executive heads of those organizations and one third by the participants.

The Fund comprises the United Nations and 22 other member organizations. As at 31 December 2009, the total number of active participants was 117,580, and there were 61,841 periodic benefits in award.

At its forty-sixth session, in 1991, the General Assembly decided to consider this item on a biennial basis, in even years (resolution 46/220).

At its sixty-fourth session, the General Assembly approved expenses, chargeable directly to the Fund, totalling $154,749,100 net for the biennium 2010-2011 and a revised estimate of $109,757,800 for the biennium 2008-2009 for the administration of the Fund, and also approved the additional amount of $1,438,800 above the level of resources set out in section 1 (Overall policymaking, direction and coordination) of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011 as the United Nations share of the cost of the administrative expenses of the central secretariat of the Fund (resolution 64/245).

The Board held its fifty-seventh session from 15 to 23 July 2010 in London. It recommended to the General Assembly approval of amendments to the Regulations of the Fund to allow additional contributions for part-time staff for a limited period of time (maximum of three years). It also recommended to the Assembly changes in the Pension Adjustment System of the Fund to suspend the special index provision for all separations as from 1 January 2011.

Article 17, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations provides that the General Assembly shall examine the administrative budgets of the specialized agencies referred to in Article 57 with a view to making recommendations to the agencies concerned. This provision is repeated in rule 157 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly. At its forty-seventh session, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit the next statistical report by the Administrative Committee on Coordination to the Assembly at its forty-ninth session and thereafter every second year, and to add to the material covered therein information on assessed and voluntary contributions paid by Member States and non-Member States in each of the two prior calendar years (decision 47/449).

At its sixty-fourth session, the General Assembly reaffirmed the independence and separate and distinct roles of the internal and external oversight mechanisms; encouraged United Nations internal and external oversight bodies to enhance the level of their cooperation with one another; emphasized the importance of effective internal oversight of good cooperation at all levels between management and OIOS; requested the Secretary-General to address recurring recommendations of OIOS dealing with issues that were systemic in nature; and requested him to ensure the full implementation of the accepted recommendations in a prompt and timely manner (resolution 64/232).

Also at its sixty-fourth session, under the item entitled "Review of the implementation of General Assembly resolutions 48/218 B, 54/244 and 59/272", the Assembly endorsed the observations, comments and recommendations on the effectiveness, efficiency and impact of OIOS contained in the annex to the annual report of the Independent Audit Advisory Committee (A/64/288), requested the Secretary-General to ensure the full implementation of paragraphs 20 (a) to (c), 20 (e), 27, 29, 33, 35 and 39 of the annex, and further requested him to take no action on paragraphs 19, 20 (d), 21, 22, 24, 42 and 43 of the annex (resolution 64/263).

In addition, the Assembly decided to increase the level of compensation for death for all categories of uniformed personnel to $70,000; reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to make the fullest possible use of facilities and equipment at the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy, in order to minimize the costs of procurement for field missions. The Assembly further requested the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to achieve economies of scale and efficiencies in air operations through better planning and optimal use of available resources without undermining safety and operational requirements and rotation and troop deployment cycles; to provide detailed information on the measures undertaken to mitigate the environmental impact of peacekeeping missions in the context of his next overview report; to strengthen efforts for the prevention, prompt investigation, enforcement of disciplinary action and assistance to victims of sexual exploitation and abuse; to take all necessary measures to prevent unsubstantiated allegations of misconduct from damaging the credibility of any United Nations peacekeeping operation and to ensure that appropriate steps were taken to maintain and restore the image and credibility of any peacekeeping mission, troop-contributing country or United Nations peacekeeping personnel in cases where allegations of misconduct were ultimately legally unproven; to submit proposals for a standardized funding model for the first year of peacekeeping operations for consideration by the Assembly at the second part of its resumed sixty-fifth session, on the understanding that the model should not in any way derogate from the legislative role of the Assembly in the consideration and approval of budgets; to further develop, in close consultation with troop-contributing countries, predefined modules and service packages to improve the quality and expedite the delivery of services to field missions, including civilian response capabilities; to further develop specific proposals in consultation with Member States, in particular troop-contributing countries, on functions and resources to be transferred to the global service centre at Brindisi, in the context of the budget of the United Nations Logistics Base, for the consideration of the Assembly at its sixty-fifth session, addressing the issues raised in paragraphs 108 to 110 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/64/660), without prejudice to a decision of the Assembly at its sixty-fifth session; to ensure the attainment of projected benefits and to further identify subsequent annual benefits of the regional service centre at Entebbe; to further develop and operationalize the concept of the establishment of a transportation and movements integrated control centre responsible for the planning and movement of personnel and cargo, in close consultation with Member States, in particular troop-contributing countries; to reflect, when developing budget proposals for the missions to be served by a regional service centre, the posts, positions and related costs of a regional service centre in the respective budget proposals, including the results-based-budgeting framework; to present more than one option for any future proposed regional service centre for the consideration and approval of the Assembly; to provide an update on the implementation of the integrated human resources management framework to the Assembly during its consideration of human resources management issues at its sixty-fifth session; to take into account, in consistency with the objectives of the Global Field Support Strategy, the risks involved in using single source or multifunctional contracts in developing further proposals related to logistics modules; to submit an annual progress report on the implementation of the Global Field Support Strategy; to entrust the Office of Internal Oversight Services with conducting an audit of the implementation of the Global Field Support Strategy and to submit a report thereon to the Assembly at the second part of its resumed sixty-sixth session (resolution 64/269, sects. in the context of the support account for peacekeeping operations for the period from 1 July 2011 to 30 June 2012; reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to review the level of the support account on a regular basis, taking into consideration the number, size and complexity of peacekeeping operations; recalled its request to the Secretary-General in section III, paragraph 3, of its resolution 61/275, in which it requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Assembly at its sixty-second session revised funding arrangements for the Office of Internal Oversight Services, bearing in mind the recommendation of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions in paragraphs 31 to 40 of its report (A/61/880); requested the Secretary-General to fill all vacancies in an expeditious manner; approved the support account requirements in the amount of $356,033,000 for the financial period from 1 July 2010 to 30 June 2011, inclusive of the amount of $57,033,000 for the enterprise resource planning project previously approved by the General Assembly in its resolution 64/243, including 1,241 continuing posts, 21 new temporary posts, 134 continuing general temporary assistance positions and 29 new general temporary assistance positions and their related post and non-post requirements; and decided on the financing of the requirements for the support account for the same period (resolution 64/271).

Since then, the Council has periodically extended the mandate of UNFICYP, usually for periods of six months at a time, the latest extension of which was by resolution 1930 (2010) of 15 June 2010 for a further period ending on 15 December 2010.
