Introduction

The Security Council, in discharging its function of the maintenance of international peace and security, was engaged in yet another year of intensive activities. During the period under review, the Council held 191 formal meetings, 168 of which were public. It also held 18 meetings with troop-contributing countries and 124 consultations of the whole. In this period, the Council adopted 54 resolutions and 27 presidential statements and issued 42 statements to the press.

The Council remained preoccupied with various situations in Africa, including in Burundi, Chad, the Central African Republic, Côte d'Ivoire, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Guinea-Bissau, Liberia, Madagascar, Sierra Leone, Somalia, the Sudan (including Darfur) and Western Sahara. It held several debates on situations related to peace and security in Africa. During one of those debates, in December 2009, in a statement by its President (S/PRST/2009/26), the Council welcomed the intention of the United Nations Secretariat and the African Union Commission to set up a joint task force on peace and security to review immediate and long-term strategic and operational issues. In July 2010, the members of the Council held the annual dialogue and consultative meeting with members of the Peace and Security Council of the African Union.

The Council remained engaged with the situation in the Middle East, including the question of Palestine, through monthly briefings and debates. The situation in Lebanon also received the close attention of the Council. In August 2009, in resolution 1884 (2009), it welcomed the conclusions of the review of the operational capacity of the United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon, including the force structure, assets and requirements, which was to be conducted in an effort to ensure, along with peacekeeping good practice, that the Mission's assets and resources would be configured most appropriately to fulfil its mandated tasks.

The situations in Afghanistan, Iraq, Myanmar, Nepal and Timor-Leste received the attention of the Council in the Asian region.

The Council heard several briefings on the situation in Haiti, including the earthquake that occurred on 12 January 2010. In response to the disaster, the Council adopted resolution 1908 (2010), by which it endorsed the recommendation made by the Secretary-General to increase the overall force levels of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti to support the immediate recovery, reconstruction and stabilization efforts, and agreed to keep the new troop and police levels under review as necessary. By resolution 1927 (2010), the Council authorized the deployment of a further 680 police, with a particular focus on building the capacity of the Haitian National Police, and encouraged the Mission to provide logistical support and technical expertise, within available means, to assist the Government of Haiti, as requested, to continue operations to build the capacity of its rule-of-law institutions at the national and local levels and to speed up the implementation of the Government's resettlement strategy for displaced persons.

The Council continued to receive and debate quarterly reports of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Interim Administration Mission in Kosovo. Council members held different views on the status of Kosovo. The Mission continued to play a key role in the promotion of security, stability and respect for human rights, through engagement with all communities in Kosovo, with the leadership in Pristina and Belgrade, and with regional and international actors. The Council was also seized of the situation in Cyprus and adopted resolutions extending the mandate of the United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus.

The Council devoted considerable time to deliberating on thematic and general issues, including threats to international peace and security caused by terrorist acts, the protection of civilians in armed conflict, children and armed conflict, women and peace and security, peacekeeping operations, peacebuilding, peace and security in Africa, transition and exit strategies, and the illicit trade in small arms and light weapons in Central Africa. Following the open debate in April 2010, the Council emphasized the critical importance of post-conflict peacebuilding as the foundation for building sustainable peace and development in the aftermath of conflict, and also highlighted the need for effective peacebuilding strategies to ensure durable peace and development. The issue of nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation received special attention by the Council. In resolution 1887 (2009), the Council called for further progress on all aspects of disarmament to enhance global security and reaffirmed that the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction, and their means of delivery, constitutes a threat to international peace and security. By resolution 1929 (2010), additional sanctions were imposed on the Islamic Republic of Iran for failing to meet the requirements of the Board of Governors of the International Atomic Energy Agency and to comply with resolutions 1696 (2006), 1737 (2006), 1747 (2007) and 1803 (2008). The activities of the International Tribunals for the Former Yugoslavia and Rwanda were considered by the Council in regard to their completion strategies and the renewal of mandates of judges. The members of the Council also exchanged views with the President of the International Court of Justice.

The Council adjusted several peacekeeping mandates and amended sanctions regimes. By resolution 1907 (2009), the Council imposed sanctions on Eritrea to ensure that the situation on the ground would be adequately addressed. During the reporting period, the Council also conducted missions to the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Afghanistan.

A large part of the activities of the subsidiary bodies involved the Counter-Terrorism Committee, the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) concerning Al-Qaida and the Taliban and associated individuals and entities, and the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1540 (2004). The Council continued to improve its working methods and to focus on documentation and other procedural questions. The Council adopted the note by the President (S/2010/507), which builds on previous Council efforts to document its working methods and enhance its efficiency and transparency, as well as its interaction and dialogue with non-members of the Council. Through the Working Group on Peacekeeping Operations, the Council continued to engage with troop- and police-contributing countries and other relevant stakeholders with a view to making those operations more effective. The Working Group submitted its interim report (S/2009/659, annex) to the President on 17 December 2009.

In April 2010, owing to the implementation of the capital master plan, the Council relocated to its new, temporary premises. It held several discussions on the issue of access of non-members to the "quiet room". The Council also considered access of the press to the entrance area, in order to ensure access comparable to that available before its relocation.

Africa

Burundi

On 10 December 2009, introducing the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Integrated Office in Burundi (BINUB) (S/2009/611), the Executive Representative of the Secretary-General, Youssef Mahmoud, informed the Council that international assistance was still required in the country, despite its post-conflict progress. Council members welcomed the progress made in the peace process, due to the implementation by the Government of Burundi of the Permanent Forum for Dialogue between agreed political parties. They also welcomed the agreement reached by the parties to adopt a revised electoral code and the justice mechanism.

On 17 December, by its resolution 1902 (2009), the Council extended the mandate of BINUB until 31 December 2010. The Council also urged the Government of Burundi to create an environment conducive to the holding of free, fair and peaceful elections in 2010.

On 10 May 2010, the Council heard a briefing by the Executive Representative of the Secretary-General for Burundi and Head of BINUB, Charles Petrie, on the preparations for the forthcoming elections in Burundi. Council members expressed their views on the progress achieved and welcomed the recent developments in the country.

Chad, the Central African Republic and the subregion

On 22 October 2009, the Council welcomed the progress made in the implementation of the agreement of 13 August 2007 in Chad and took note of the commitment shown by the Government of Chad to implement that agreement. Members of the Council called on armed groups to lay down their arms and encouraged stakeholders in Chad to further promote the momentum of reconciliation after the signing of the Tripoli peace agreement on 25 July 2009. They remained concerned, however, about the fluid security situation and humanitarian challenges in eastern Chad and the north-eastern Central African Republic.

On 19 January 2010, the Government of Chad requested, unexpectedly, that the United Nations Mission in the Central African Republic and Chad (MINURCAT) be withdrawn after the expiration of its mandate in April 2010. On 12 March, by resolution 1913 (2010), the Council decided to extend the mandate of MINURCAT for two months, as discussions on its future continued with the Government of Chad.

On 25 May, by resolution 1923 (2010), the Council extended the mandate of MINURCAT until 31 December 2010 and called upon the Secretary-General to complete the withdrawal of all components of the Mission by that date. In the meantime, the Council decided that the military component of MINURCAT would be reduced to 1,900 military personnel in Chad and 300 in the Central African Republic. It called upon the Secretary-General to implement the initial withdrawal of the exceeding number of troops by 15 July 2010, with a final withdrawal to begin on 15 October.

Noting that the Government of Chad had committed itself to assume full responsibility for the security of the civilian population in the eastern part of the country, the Council requested the Government and the Secretary-General to establish a joint high-level working group to make monthly assessments of the situation on the ground with respect to the protection of civilians.

The Council decided that MINURCAT, for the remainder of its mandate, should continue to assist with the organization and training of the Détachement intégré de sécurité; liaise with the Government and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in support of efforts to relocate refugee camps away from the border; liaise with other security structures in both Chad and the Central African Republic; and contribute to the protection of civil rights and the rule of law in Chad. The Council acknowledged the Government's commitment to submit, by 31 July 2010, its plan for sustaining the Détachement intégré de sécurité after the Mission's departure.

Determining that the situation in the border region between the Sudan, Chad and the Central African Republic still constituted a threat to international peace and security, the Council encouraged the respective Governments to ensure that their territories were not used to undermine the sovereignty of others, and to cooperate in ending the activities of armed groups, while implementing previous agreements.

On 15 December, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General and Head of the United Nations Peacebuilding Support Office in the Central African Republic (BONUCA), Sahle-Work Zewde, briefed the Council on the establishment of the United Nations Integrated Peacebuilding Office in the Central African Republic (BINUCA). On 21 December, the Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2009/35), in which it welcomed efforts aimed at national reconciliation in the Central African Republic based on the Libreville Comprehensive Peace Agreement of 2008 and the commitments contained in the Sirte Agreement of February 2007 and the Birao Agreement of April 2007. The Council also urged the Government of the Central African Republic and all political stakeholders to ensure free, fair, transparent and credible preparation and conduct of the 2010 elections, and emphasized that the elections should be held within the time frame set by the Constitution. It also called on the Government to carry out without delay a transparent and accountable disarmament, demobilization and reintegration process, and welcomed the establishment of BINUCA on 1 January 2010.

On 28 June 2010, the Special Representative informed the Council that the Independent Electoral Commission had recommended 24 October and 19 December 2010 as the dates for the first and second rounds of the presidential and parliamentary elections, respectively, rather than April or May 2010, as had originally been hoped. She said that disarmament, demobilization and reintegration operations continued to be beset with numerous challenges. Despite some successes in the north, more needed to be done to accelerate the programme. She advocated a more coordinated regional approach to combating the threat posed by the Lord's Resistance Army (LRA). The integrated strategic framework, which would guide the peacebuilding activities of the United Nations in the Central African Republic, would be finalized by September.

Côte d'Ivoire

The Council considered the situation in Côte d'Ivoire on a regular basis during the reporting period. In particular, the Council expressed its concern at the delay in the publication of the provisional voters list for the first round of free, fair and transparent presidential elections in Côte d'Ivoire, scheduled for 29 November 2009. The Council noted that lasting peace, and the stability and development of Côte d'Ivoire, were also dependent on the balanced and comprehensive settlement of many other security, socio-economic and cross-border challenges. In its presidential statement of 29 September 2009 (S/PRST/2009/25), the Council reiterated that all Ivorian political actors were bound to respect the electoral timeline and urged all parties to comply with their commitments.

The Council shared the Secretary-General's view that successful elections in Côte d'Ivoire would provide a basis for devising an exit strategy for the United Nations Operation in Côte d'Ivoire (UNOCI). Council members supported the role played by United Nations agencies, the African Union, the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS), the Facilitator, President Blaise Compaoré of Burkina Faso, and the international community in helping Côte d'Ivoire to achieve further progress in the post-conflict stabilization and reconstruction process.

On 27 October 2009, during consultations of the whole, the Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1572 (2004) concerning Côte d'Ivoire presented to Council members the final report of the Group of Experts (S/2009/521). Two days later, by resolution 1893 (2009), the Council decided to renew until 31 October 2010 the sanctions imposed by resolutions 1572 (2004) and 1643 (2005) and to extend the mandate of the Group of Experts for another year.

On 8 December, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2009/33), the Council noted that the Permanent Consultative Framework of the Ouagadougou Political Agreement had considered that the postponement of the elections had been due to technical and financial constraints and that the first round of the presidential elections would be organized by the end of February or the beginning of March 2010. It urged the Ivorian stakeholders to meet their commitments to support the elections and to facilitate that process without delay.

The Council continued to extend the UNOCI mandate on a six-monthly basis in its current configuration until the adoption of resolution 1911

(2010) of 28 January 2010, by which it extended the mandate for four months to take into account the electoral time frame. On 30 June, the Council adopted resolution 1933 (2010), by which it provided a revised and updated mandate for UNOCI until 31 December 2010, and extended the authorization of the French forces supporting the Operation until the same date, within the limits of their deployment and capabilities.

Democratic Republic of the Congo

The Council continued to monitor closely the situation in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. The Council was encouraged by the improvement in relations between the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Rwanda. Council members agreed that security sector reform was at the heart of Guinea-Bissau's journey towards the achievement of durable peace. The Council further underlined the importance of pension fund reform as a prerequisite for peace, and emphasized the central role of the Peacebuilding Commission in this regard. The Council encouraged the United Nations to coordinate efforts of international actors and stressed that sustained support from the international community was deemed vital to the success of the peacebuilding process.

Following the events involving the detention and subsequent release of the Prime Minister, Carlos Gomes Júnior, by members of the Guinea-Bissau military on 1 April 2010, Council members expressed their concern and urged all parties to avoid acts of violence, uphold constitutional order and respect the rule of law in Guinea-Bissau. Members also stressed the need for the parties to preserve ongoing peace consolidation efforts and to resolve their differences through dialogue. On 6 April, the Council heard a briefing by the Assistant Secretary-General for Political Affairs, Oscar Fernandez-Taranco, on the situation since the events of 1 April. On 10 March 2010, the Council was briefed by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General and Head of UNMIL, Ellen Margrethe Løj. The Council noted the opinion she expressed that forthcoming elections in 2011 would be a litmus test of the sustainability of democracy in that country and that this would have a bearing on the security implications that would ultimately indicate Liberia's readiness to be weaned from dependency on UNMIL.

The Council agreed that the peace in Liberia remained fragile and that instability in neighbouring countries could have a negative impact on the internal situation. The training of the national police was recommended as a means of enhancing a country-based security sector mechanism. The international community was encouraged to be relentless in its support for institutional capacity-building and follow-through on initiatives that would enable Liberia to transform into a self-sufficient nation. It was suggested that the Peacebuilding Fund could be used to attract assistance from external sources.

They called on the parties to ensure a stable environment conducive to free, fair, credible and successful elections in 2010. The Council also underlined the importance of elections in the country and stressed that the parties must engage in genuine cooperation following the polls, no matter the outcome. Expressing high appreciation of the efforts of the United Nations Mission in the Sudan (UNMIS), they reiterated their strong support for the Mission in discharging its mandate, especially in protecting civilians and extending electoral assistance to the Government of the Sudan with a view to facilitating the process of implementing the Comprehensive Peace Agreement.

On 13 October 2009, by resolution 1891 (2009), the Council extended until 15 October 2010 the mandate of the Panel of Experts of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1591 (2005) concerning the Sudan.

It called on Morocco and the Popular Front for the Liberation of Saguia el-Hamra and Rio de Oro (Polisario Front) to adhere fully to the military agreements reached. Recognizing that the status quo was not acceptable in the long term, the Council invited the parties to demonstrate further political will towards a solution. The Council called upon the parties to continue negotiations under the auspices of the Secretary-General without preconditions, in good faith and with a view to achieving a just, lasting and mutually acceptable solution that would provide for the self-determination of the people of Western Sahara.

In this context, the Council welcomed the various initiatives of the subregion and encouraged the Central African countries to build up the capacity of the Economic Community of Central African States through, inter alia, the elaboration of a subregional legally binding instrument on the control of small arms and light weapons. The Council acknowledged the right of States to ensure their defence and security, while stressing the importance of effective regulations and controls in the transparent trade in small arms and light weapons in order to prevent their illegal diversion and re-exportation.

In his briefing, the Secretary-General informed the Council of the Quartet's statement, which reflected strong agreement on the following: the need for proximity talks to move forward and to become direct negotiations as soon as possible; the need for the parties to respect the conditions that made proximity talks possible and to act in accordance with international law and the road map, including the freeze by Israel of all settlement activity and the fulfilment by the Palestinians of security obligations; the immediate easing of the closure affecting Gaza and the commitment to a durable solution to the issues of security, unity and crossings, as envisaged in resolution 1860 (2009); and strong support for the Palestinian Authority's State-building agenda. The Council welcomed the Secretary-General's meetings with the Palestinian and Israeli authorities and the diplomatic efforts made by the Quartet to relaunch the Israeli-Palestinian peace process. The Council requested the two parties to fulfil their obligations under the road map and the relevant resolutions of the Council and invited them to make every effort to resume the peace negotiations.

Following the flotilla incident of 31 May, the Council held an emergency meeting. On 1 June, it adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2010/9) on the use of force during the Israeli military operation in international waters against the convoy sailing to Gaza. In the statement, the Council condemned those acts which had led to the loss of at least 10 civilians and the wounding of many, requested the immediate release of the ships and the civilians held by Israel, and called for a prompt, impartial, credible and transparent investigation conforming to international standards. In the same statement, the Council emphasized that the situation in Gaza was not sustainable, re-emphasized the importance of the full implementation of resolutions 1850 (2008) and 1860 (2009), reiterated its grave concern at the humanitarian situation, and stressed the need for a sustained and regular flow of goods and people to Gaza. Members of the Council underlined the fact that only a two-State solution, with an independent and viable Palestinian State living side by side in peace and security with a secure Israel and its other neighbours could bring peace to the region. The Council expressed continued support for the proximity talks and urged the parties to act with restraint.

Members of the Council agreed that a comprehensive peaceful settlement of the dispute was in the interest of all concerned. In this regard, the Council again urged all parties concerned to fulfil their mutual obligations under the road map, the Madrid terms of reference and relevant Council resolutions, thus contributing to the peaceful settlement of the Israel-Palestine and Arab-Israel conflicts, and the ultimate attainment of a just, comprehensive and lasting peace in the Middle East.

for the root causes of conflict, Council members observed that much could be achieved through the use of preventive diplomacy in tackling problems relating to weak governance, the proliferation of small arms and light weapons and other socio-economic challenges that could fuel conflict. Members underlined the need for stronger partnership with regional and local actors, investment in early prevention strategies and strengthening of the capacity of the United Nations in terms of crisis analysis.

In a presidential statement (S/PRST/2010/14), the Council, inter alia, recognized the increased material, human and financial resources required by peacekeeping operations over the past decade and acknowledged the potential benefits and efficiencies that could be achieved through an integrated approach to preventing conflicts. The Council also recognized the importance of a comprehensive strategy comprising operational and structural measures for the prevention of armed conflicts. It acknowledged the importance of continually engaging the potential and existing capacities and capabilities of the United Nations Secretariat and regional and subregional organizations as well as national Governments in preventive diplomacy efforts, including mediation, and welcomed the promotion of regional approaches to the settlement of disputes. It requested the Secretary-General to submit a report on the issue.

The promotion and strengthening of the rule of law in the maintenance of international peace and security

On 29 June 2010, the Council held an open debate on promoting and strengthening the rule of law in the maintenance of international peace and security. In a statement by its President (S/PRST/2010/11), the Council reaffirmed its commitment to an international order based on the rule of law and international law, and reaffirmed its strong opposition to impunity for serious violations of international humanitarian law and human rights law. It called upon States to settle disputes peacefully and emphasized the key role of the International Court of Justice. The Council noted that the fight against impunity for the most serious crimes of international concern had been strengthened through the work of the International Criminal Court and ad hoc and mixed tribunals, as well as specialized chambers in national tribunals, and pledged to continue vigorously to fight impunity and uphold accountability for the most serious crimes. The Council requested the Secretary-General to provide a follow-up report within 12 months.

Threats to international peace and security

On 24 February 2010, in his briefing to the Council, the Executive Director of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime, Antonio Maria Costa, noted that transnational issues, including drug trafficking and organized crime, posed serious threats to international peace and security. He called for more integrated action and indicated that criminal justice should figure more prominently in United Nations peacebuilding and peacekeeping. He further called for a system-wide response in order to address the cross-cutting nature of organized crime.

In the presidential statement adopted at the meeting (S/PRST/2010/4), the Council noted with concern the serious threats posed in some cases by drug trafficking and transnational organized crime to international security in different regions of the world, and invited the Secretary-General to consider those threats as a factor in conflict prevention strategies, conflict analysis, and the assessment and planning of integrated missions.

Post-conflict peacebuilding

On 25 November 2009, during an open debate on post-conflict peacebuilding, the Council invited the Chair of the Peacebuilding Commission, the Permanent Representative of Chile, Ambassador Heraldo Muñoz, to introduce the report of the Commission on its third session (S/2009/444). The Council welcomed the strengthening of the Commission's coordination and cooperation with relevant stakeholders within and outside the United Nations system. Council members further extended their support for the strengthening of interaction between the Council and the Commission and underlined their commitment to refining the Commission's work by constructively contributing to its 2010 review.

On 16 April 2010, the Council held an open debate on post-conflict peacebuilding. The Secretary-General, in his address to the Council, stated that three objectives of peacebuilding were to deliver peace dividends to conflict-affected people, to build State capacity and to adopt a comprehensive approach that took into account political, security and social dimensions.

The Permanent Representative of Germany, Ambassador Peter Wittig, speaking in his capacity as Chair of the Peacebuilding Commission, stated that the Commission would continue to explore measures to deepen United Nations collaboration with the main actors at the country level and monitor progress towards the attainment of critical peacebuilding objectives.

The members of the Council stressed the importance of an integrated approach to peacebuilding which strengthened coherence between political, security, development, human rights and rule-of-law activities. They noted the important role that the United Nations could play in supporting national authorities in their efforts to develop peacebuilding strategies that addressed priority needs.

Following the debate, the Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2010/7), in which it emphasized the critical importance of post-conflict peacebuilding as the foundation for building sustainable peace and development in the aftermath of conflict.

Cooperation between the United Nations and regional and subregional organizations in maintaining international peace and security

On 13 January 2010, the Council considered cooperation between the United Nations and regional and subregional organizations in maintaining international peace and security. The Secretary-General briefed the Council on cooperation between the United Nations and regional and subregional organizations and the conclusions of his retreat with heads of regional and other organizations on 11 and 12 January 2010.

In the presidential statement adopted as the outcome of the debate (S/PRST/2010/1), the Council expressed its intention to consider further steps to promote closer and more operational cooperation between the United Nations and regional and subregional organizations in the fields of conflict early warning, prevention, peacemaking, peacekeeping and peacebuilding, and to ensure the coherence, synergy and collective effectiveness of their efforts. In the statement, the Council underlined the importance of utilizing the capabilities of regional and subregional organizations in the peaceful settlement of local disputes, including by encouraging countries in the region to resolve differences peacefully through dialogue, reconciliation, consultation, negotiation, good offices, mediation and the judicial settlement of disputes.

On 4 May 2010, the High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy of the European Union, Catherine Ashton, briefed the Council on the European Union's commitment to the active promotion of peace, security, justice and human rights, as well as protection of the vulnerable, and helping people to live in safety and dignity.

Council members welcomed the contributions of the European Union to capacity-building in Africa and expressed their support for the cooperation between the United Nations and regional and subregional entities, as enshrined in Chapter VIII of the Charter. They welcomed the European Union's support for the efforts of the United Nations in maintaining international peace and security, since the two organizations shared common goals and principles, such as the promotion of human rights, the rule of law, and development.

Briefings by Chairmen of subsidiary bodies of the Security Council

On 13 November 2009, the Chairs of the three subsidiary bodies of the Council dealing with counter-terrorism, the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) concerning Al-Qaida and the Taliban and associated individuals and entities, the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism, and the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1540 (2004), briefed the Council about their Committees' work during the past six months.

The Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001), the Permanent Representative of Croatia, Ambassador Ranko Viločić, informed the Council about the adoption of the interim review of the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate, the finalization of the preliminary implementation assessments and the related stock-taking process, as well as about visits to and dialogue with Member States.

The Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1540 (2004), the Permanent Representative of Costa Rica, Ambassador Jorge Urbina, highlighted the comprehensive review of the implementation of resolution 1540 (2004), including open meetings with the participation of the wider United Nations membership and relevant international and regional organizations.

The Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999), the Permanent Representative of Austria, Ambassador Thomas Mayr-Harting, briefed the Council about the status of the implementation of resolution 1822 (2008), in particular the status of the review of all entries in the Consolidated List and the publication of narrative summaries of reasons for listing. In the subsequent debate, Member States expressed support for the activities of the three Committees.

On 14 December, the Council was briefed by the Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997) concerning Sierra Leone, the Permanent Representative of Viet Nam, Ambassador Le Luong Minh; the Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1518 (2003) concerning Iraq, the Permanent Representative of Burkina Faso, Ambassador Michel Kafando; and the Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1521 (2003) concerning Liberia, the Permanent Representative of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Ambassador Abdurrahman Mohamed Shalgham.

On 11 May 2010, the Council received updates from the Chairs of the three counter-terrorism Committees, established pursuant to resolutions 1267 (1999), 1373 (2001) and 1540 (2004). The Permanent Representative of Mexico, Ambassador Claude Heller, delivered a joint statement on behalf of the three Committees and said that the Committees and their expert groups, inter alia, were implementing a joint strategy with regard to non-reporting or late-reporting States and were elaborating a joint strategy to coordinate with international and regional organizations. Assistance to Member States, information exchange and country visits, along with the possible co-location of the expert groups, were mentioned as concrete examples of cooperation among the three Committees and their expert groups.

In a statement made in his capacity as Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1540 (2004), Ambassador Heller indicated that the resolution had prompted significant action across the globe, with nearly 160 States reporting on their capabilities and challenges in preventing non-State actors from acquiring weapons of mass destruction. He highlighted some of the recommendations of the comprehensive review of resolution 1540 (2004) carried out in October 2009 and said that many Member States had welcomed the open meetings of the Committee held during that review. He added that some countries had reported the legal measures that they had undertaken to counter non-State traffic of weapons of mass destruction, while others had reported gaps in their legal regimes.

The Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999), Ambassador Thomas Mayr-Harting, reported on improved procedures for the listing and de-listing of individuals and entities, following the directives of Council resolutions 1822 (2008) and 1904 (2009), in particular the Ombudsperson for delisting. He informed the Council about progress made during the review of the Consolidated List pursuant to resolution 1822 (2008) to ensure that the Consolidated List remained dynamic and reflected current threats.

The Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001), the Permanent Representative of Turkey, Ambassador Ertuğrul Apakan, said that the Committee had taken up issues such as border control and security, the implementation and assessment of resolution 1624 (2005), maritime security and terrorist acts committed at sea, the implementation of extradition requirements, and law enforcement. He added that the Committee was working on policy guidance for international legal cooperation. It was also increasing dialogue with Member States to identify areas where the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001) was lagging.

Council members stressed the continued need for a unified, global fight against terrorism and welcomed efforts to make the Council's three Committees more effective, coordinated and transparent.

Children and armed conflict

On 4 August 2009, by resolution 1882 (2009) concerning children and armed conflict, the Council expanded the criteria under which parties to armed conflict can be included in the annexes to the reports of the Secretary-General on children and armed conflict, namely, those parties to armed conflict that engage, in contravention of applicable international law, in patterns of killing and maiming of children and/or rape or sexual violence committed against children. In addition, the Council requested the Secretary-General to provide dedicated administrative and substantive support to the Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict.

On 16 June 2010, the Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2010/10), in which it reasserted its strong condemnation of the recruitment, killing, maiming, rape and other abuse of children during armed conflict, and expressed its readiness to take targeted and graduated measures against persistent perpetrators of these crimes.

Protection of civilians in armed conflict

On 11 November 2009, in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the adoption of resolution 1265 (1999), the Council held an open debate on the protection of civilians in armed conflict and adopted resolution 1894 (2009), in which it reiterated its willingness to respond to situations of armed conflict in which civilians were being targeted or humanitarian assistance was being obstructed.

The Council also recognized the need for comprehensive operational guidance on peacekeeping missions' tasks and responsibilities in the implementation of protection of civilians mandates, and requested the Secretary-General to develop, in close consultation with Member States, including troop- and police-contributing countries and other relevant actors, an operational concept for the protection of civilians. The Council requested the Secretary-General to develop guidelines for United Nations missions on the reporting on the protection of civilians with a view to enhancing the Council's monitoring and oversight of the implementation of protection mandates.

On 7 July 2010, the Council held an open debate in which it expressed support for the ongoing work of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, the Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs and the Department of Peacekeeping Operations in addressing the issue. It identified key challenges and called for better implementation of international human rights and humanitarian law to address the challenges.

Women and peace and security

On 7 August 2009, the Secretary-General briefed the Council on his report pursuant to resolution 1820 (2008) (S/2009/362). He underlined the importance of a multisectoral response to conflict-related sexual violence, and enhanced United Nations coordination in the field to prevent continued impunity of the perpetrators of such acts. The Secretary-General advised that an independent commission of inquiry should report to the Council in order to ensure accountability.

On 30 September, the Council adopted resolution 1888 (2009) on women and peace and security. Council members addressed the problem of impunity, called for greater participation of women in peace negotiations, and urged parties to armed conflict to uphold their international legal obligations. By that resolution, the Council strengthened tools for implementing resolution 1820 (2008) and called for the appointment of a Special Representative to focus on sexual violence in armed conflict, the creation of a team of experts to rapidly deploy to situations of particular concern with respect to sexual violence in armed conflict, the identification of women's protection advisers, and more systematic reporting on situations of sexual violence in armed conflict.

On 5 October, by resolution 1889 (2009), the Council urged United Nations bodies, Member States and civil society to ensure that women's empowerment was taken into account during post-conflict needs assessment, planning and financing, and that actions were taken to improve women's participation at all stages of peace processes, particularly in conflict resolution and post-conflict peacebuilding.

On 27 April 2010, the Council held a public meeting during which it was briefed by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General on Sexual Violence in Conflict, Margot Wallström, and the Special Adviser of the Secretary-General on Gender Issues and Advancement of Women, Rachel Mayanja. The Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2010/8), in which it reiterated its support for the mandate of the Special Representative; took note of the report of the Secretary-General (S/2010/173); and expressed its intention to take action on a comprehensive set of indicators in October 2010.

Peacekeeping operations and transition and exit strategies

On 5 August 2009, the Council held an open debate on peacekeeping, attended by some 20 force and police commanders of United Nations peacekeeping missions. The Under-Secretary-General for Peacekeeping Operations, Alain Le Roy, and the Under-Secretary-General for Field Support, Susana Malcorra, briefed the Council on the non-paper entitled “A new partnership agenda: charting a new horizon for United Nations peacekeeping”, the result of their joint review of the United Nations peacekeeping system.

In the debate that followed, there was a broad consensus among Member States on issues concerning the United Nations peacekeeping mechanisms. Speakers supported measures to improve consultation with troop- and police-contributing countries and the monitoring and evaluation of missions, and expressed the need for clear and achievable mandates. Many supported efforts to improve the transition to peacebuilding. Following the debate, the Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2009/24), in which it emphasized the central importance of a partnership drawing together the contributions and commitment of the entire United Nations system, and the importance of viewing a peacekeeping operation as an accompaniment, rather than an alternative, to a political strategy.

On 12 February 2010, the Council held an open debate on transition and exit strategies for United Nations peacekeeping operations. The Under-Secretary-General for Peacekeeping Operations and the Under-Secretary-General for Field Support stressed that exit and transition strategies could be anticipated sooner than they currently were. Moreover, they pointed out that this would be one of the most important issues related to peacekeeping operations in the near future. Members of the Council shared the view that transition and exit strategies were an important part of peacekeeping operations and should be planned at an early stage.

Other matters

Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2006/507)

The Council continued to discuss how to improve its working methods, including in the area of documentation and other procedural questions. On 22 April 2010, the Council held an open debate on this issue.

The issue had last been the subject of an open debate in the Council on 27 August 2008 under the presidency of Belgium. The debate was based on the concept paper distributed by Japan (S/2010/165, annex), in which it proposed that the discussion focus on three areas of key importance to Council members and non-members alike: transparency, interaction with non-members and efficiency.

Most delegations stressed the importance of the Council’s continuous efforts to improve its openness to non-members of the Council and the general public, while ensuring its ability to act effectively and efficiently. Most representatives of non-members welcomed the Council’s increased transparency and enhanced communications with international and regional organizations and with interested countries such as troop-contributing countries. Some delegations praised the increased transparency of sanctions committees in the process of listing and de-listing. Others stated that the question of the working methods should be linked to the overall reform of the Council. While noting the improvements made in recent years, most non-members called for fuller implementation of the note by the President in order to improve transparency and interaction with the wider membership.

Taking note of the views expressed by Member States during the open debate on this issue on 22 April, the Informal Working Group on Documentation and Other Procedural Questions undertook a revision of the presidential note (S/2006/507), to reflect current procedures and practices of the Council and to incorporate the Council’s agreements in two other presidential notes (S/2007/749 and S/2008/847).

The revised presidential note (S/2010/507) was adopted by the Council on 27 July. The revised note provided for a number of improvements with a view to greater efficiency and transparency of the Council’s working methods. It included a new section on planning and reporting for Council missions as well as a provision on communication with the Peacebuilding Commission. It also referred for the first time to the use of informal dialogue by the Council in recent years. The note clarified the Council’s intention to enhance its dialogue with countries contributing troops to peacekeeping operations, especially before considering the renewal of peacekeeping operation mandates. It also clarified expectations on the part of both the Council and the Secretariat regarding the submission of reports of the Secretary-General and briefings.

International Court of Justice

On 29 October 2009, the Council held a private meeting with the President of the International Court of Justice, Judge Hisashi Owada, during which the role of the Court as the principal judicial organ of the United Nations and its important contributions to international law, in particular in the field of the peaceful settlement of international disputes, were underlined.

On 18 March 2010, the Council met to consider a vacancy on the International Court of Justice following the resignation of Judge Shi Jiuyong, which would take effect on 28 May 2010. The Council adopted resolution 1914 (2010), in which it noted with regret the resignation and decided that the election to fill the vacancy should take place on 29 June 2010 at a meeting of the Council and at a meeting of the General Assembly. On 29 June, in a vote held simultaneously with the Assembly, the Council elected Xue Hanqin of China, by secret ballot, to fill the remainder of Judge Shi's term of office.

On 2 June, the Council met to consider a further vacancy on the International Court of Justice, following the resignation of Judge Thomas Buergenthal, which would take effect on 6 September.

The Council adopted resolution 1926 (2010), in which it noted with regret the resignation and decided that the election to fill the vacancy should take place on 9 September 2010 at a meeting of the Council and at a meeting of the General Assembly.

Annual report of the Security Council to the General Assembly

On 29 October 2009, at a public meeting, following introductory remarks made by the Permanent Representative of Viet Nam in his capacity as President of the Council for the month of October, members of the Council heard a presentation by the Permanent Representative of Uganda, who, in his capacity as President of the Council in July 2009, had had the responsibility for drafting the introductory part of the annual report of the Council. The Council then adopted its annual report to the General Assembly for the period from 1 August 2008 to 31 July 2009 (A/64/2).

On 12 November, as previously agreed by the other members of the Council, the Permanent Representative of Austria, in his capacity as President of the Council for the month, presented to the General Assembly the annual report of the Council. During the reporting period, the Council's work was characterized by an increase in the number of open debates and open briefings.

Chapter 1

Governing Council of the United Nations Compensation Commission

The mandate of the United Nations Compensation Commission is to process claims and pay compensation for losses and damages suffered as a direct result of Iraq's unlawful invasion and occupation of Kuwait from 2 August 1990 until 2 March 1991. Funds to pay compensation are drawn from the United Nations Compensation Fund, which receives a percentage of the proceeds generated by the export sales of Iraqi petroleum and petroleum products. This percentage, originally set at 30 per cent by the Security Council under its resolution 705 (1991), is currently at 5 per cent in accordance with paragraph 21 of Council resolution 1483 (2003), which provides that 5 per cent of the proceeds of all export sales of Iraqi petroleum, petroleum products and natural gas shall be deposited into the Compensation Fund.

During the period under review, the Governing Council of the United Nations Compensation Commission held two regular sessions (sixty-eighth and sixty-ninth) and a number of informal meetings, at which it considered various issues related to the activity of the Commission and payment of compensation awards to successful claimants. Since the conclusion of the main aspects of the claims processing exercise in June 2005, the Commission has focused its work with a small secretariat on the payment of awards and on the Follow-up Programme for Environmental Awards, which was established by the Council at its fifty-eighth session in December 2005. The purpose of the Programme is to monitor the use of certain funds awarded by the Commission under the F4 category of claims to four Governments (Islamic Republic of Iran, Jordan, Kuwait and Saudi Arabia) in respect of remediation and restoration projects intended to compensate for environmental damage. In total, 26 such projects fall within the scope of the Programme, and the technical and financial monitoring undertaken by a small specialized staff within the secretariat aims to ensure that the projects are designed and ultimately implemented in a transparent, appropriate and reasonable manner in the context of the original purpose of the respective awards.

During the period under review, the Commission made available a total amount of $2,524,208,889 to the State of Kuwait for distribution to successful claimants. The most recent of these payments were made pursuant to decision 267, adopted by the Governing Council at its sixty-eighth session following the conclusion of payments phases 1 and 2 under decision 256, which had been in operation from its adoption at the Council's fifty-eighth session in 2005. Currently, a total of nine claims with an outstanding balance of $22,299,341,097 remain to be paid, all in respect of claims owing to Kuwait.

The Commission has awarded total compensation in the amount of $52,383,356,716 to individuals, corporations and Governments. As at 31 July 2010, $30,148,816,544 has been made available to Governments and international organizations for payment to successful claimants.

Chapter 2

Security Council Committee pursuant to resolutions 751 (1992) and 1907 (2009) concerning Somalia and Eritrea*

The Committee pursuant to resolutions 751 (1992) and 1907 (2009) concerning Somalia and Eritrea is mandated by the Security Council to oversee the implementation of the arms embargo on Somalia first imposed by resolution 733 (1992), and subsequently amended by resolutions 1356 (2001), 1425 (2002), 1725 (2006), 1744 (2007), 1772 (2007), 1846 (2008) and 1851 (2008).

Pursuant to paragraph 11 of resolution 1844 (2008), the Committee is also mandated, in accordance with the criteria set out in that resolution, to designate individuals and entities subject to a travel ban, an assets freeze, and a targeted arms embargo imposed respectively by paragraphs 1, 3 and 7 of that resolution, and to monitor the implementation of those measures.

On 23 December 2009, the Security Council, by resolution 1907 (2009), inter alia, imposed a ban on the sale or supply to and from Eritrea of arms and related materiel, and on technical assistance and training; the Council also imposed an assets freeze, a travel ban, and a targeted arms embargo on individuals and entities designated by the Committee. As the Council, by resolution 1907 (2009), had expanded the mandate of the Committee, the Committee decided on 26 February 2010 to change its name to “Security Council Committee pursuant to resolutions 751 (1992) and 1907 (2009) concerning Somalia and Eritrea”.

On 19 March 2010, the Security Council, by resolution 1916 (2010), established for a period of 12 months an exemption to the assets freeze imposed by paragraph 3 of resolution 1844 (2008) in connection with the delivery of humanitarian assistance to Somalia; and requested the United Nations Resident and Humanitarian Coordinator for Somalia to report every 120 days to the Council on any impediments to the delivery of humanitarian assistance in Somalia.

The Committee is supported by a Monitoring Group, whose mandate was extended and expanded, during the reporting period, by paragraph 19 of resolution 1907 (2009) and paragraph 6 of resolution 1916 (2010).

In 2009, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of Claude Heller (Mexico) as Chair, while the delegations of Croatia and the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya served as Vice-Chairs. For 2010, Claude Heller (Mexico) continued to serve as Chair, and the delegations of Lebanon and Nigeria provided the Vice-Chairs.

During the reporting period, the Committee received 14 reports from Member States regarding the implementation of the measures imposed by resolution 1844 (2008), and 30 reports regarding the implementation of the measures imposed by resolution 1907 (2009).

During the period under review, the Committee met four times in informal consultations. It approved seven requests for exemptions to the arms embargo pursuant to paragraph 3 of resolution 1356 (2001) and six requests for exemptions to the arms embargo pursuant to paragraph 11 (b) of resolution 1772 (2007).

On 24 September 2009, the Committee addressed a note verbale to all Member States drawing their attention to the measures contained in resolution 1844 (2008), in particular to the procedures for exemptions from the arms embargo and to the mandate of the Monitoring Group.

During its informal consultations on 21 October, the Committee heard the midterm briefing by the Monitoring Group on Somalia pursuant to resolution 1853 (2008). The Committee also received a briefing by the Deputy Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Somalia in accordance with resolution 1844 (2008). The planned visit by the Chair of the Committee to the region was also discussed.

On 11 December, the Committee issued a press release deploring acts of intimidation and interference with the Monitoring Group’s work and urging Member States to cooperate fully with the investigations of the Monitoring Group, and to provide the necessary assistance to ensure that its activities continued unhindered.

The Committee’s annual report for 2009 (S/2010/14) was issued on 7 January 2010.

On 9 March, the Committee addressed a note verbale to all Member States drawing their attention to various provisions contained in resolution 1907 (2009).

In informal consultations on 10 March, the Committee was briefed by the Monitoring Group on its final report (S/2010/91), submitted pursuant to resolution 1853 (2008), and discussed the observations and recommendations contained therein. During its informal consultations on 24 March, the Committee received briefings by the Minister for the Environment of Somalia and the Deputy Executive Director for External Relations of the World Food Programme in connection with the findings set out in the Monitoring Group’s report. On 30 March, the Committee further considered the recommendations contained in the report of the Monitoring Group during informal consultations.

On 30 March, the Committee adopted revised guidelines for the conduct of its work taking account of the provisions of resolution 1907 (2009). It issued a press release on 1 April and dispatched the revised guidelines to all Member States by means of a note verbale on 21 April. The revised guidelines are also available on the Committee's website, which can be found at www.un.org/sc/committees/751/index.shtml.

On 12 April, the Committee decided to list eight individuals and one entity pursuant to paragraph 8 of resolution 1844 (2008). On the same day the Committee issued a press release containing the list and on 21 April dispatched the list to all Member States by a note verbale. The list is also available on the Committee's website.

From 15 to 27 April, the Chair of the Committee visited the region to raise awareness for the sanctions regime and enhance the implementation of the provisions of resolutions 1844 (2008) and 1907 (2009). He was accompanied by representatives of Committee members Turkey and the United States of America.

On 16 November 2009, and on 16 March and 20 July 2010, the Chair of the Committee briefed the Security Council during consultations on the Committee's activities during the previous 120 days pursuant to resolution 1844 (2008).

International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991

Judicial activity remained intense over the reporting period. In total, from 1 August 2009 to 31 July 2010, the Appeals Chamber delivered three judgements involving six persons. The Trial Chambers delivered the judgement in Prosecutor v. Popović et al., involving seven accused persons, and at their peak ran 10 trials in the Tribunal's three courtrooms, taking advantage of interstices in trial schedules. Proceedings against 126 of the 161 persons indicted by the Tribunal have been completed. At the close of the reporting period, appeal proceedings are ongoing for 14 persons, and 18 are currently on trial. No accused remain at the pretrial stage. Unfortunately, two more accused remain at large, their continuing flight jeopardizing the successful implementation of the completion strategy.

The Tribunal has improved efficiency by implementing various procedural reforms aimed at increasing the speed of proceedings, while respecting fully the due process rights of the accused. The Tribunal is continuously looking for new measures to improve the conduct of its proceedings and to protect the accused's right to an expeditious trial. As part of this commitment, the Working Group on Speeding Up Trials was reconstituted to undertake a third review of the Tribunal's practices in order to assess whether further improvements could be implemented in the work of the Chambers. The recommendations of the Working Group were adopted by the judges at an extraordinary plenary session held on 7 June 2010. On the basis of the efforts of the Working Group on Contempt and the Rules Committee, the judges adopted, at the 38th plenary session, held on 10 December 2009, a new rule of procedure and evidence — rule 92 quinquies — in order to regulate the admission of evidence in a trial where witnesses have been made unavailable owing to intimidation and bribery, thus allowing core proceedings to go forward even where there are attempts to interfere with the administration of justice. The Office of the Prosecutor took a number of steps to reduce the time necessary to present cases in ongoing trials by using written evidence in lieu of oral testimony, by moving the Trial Chambers to take judicial notice of adjudicated facts, and by endeavouring to speed up the transition from pretrial to trial.

The Security Council by resolution 1877 (2009) extended the terms of office of the Tribunal's permanent and ad litem judges until 31 December 2010. In resolution 1900 (2009), the Council underlined its intention to extend, by 30 June 2010, the terms of office of all trial judges until 31 December 2012 on the basis of the Tribunal's projected trial schedule and the terms of office of all appeal judges. By resolution 1931 (2010), the Council extended the terms of office of the appeal judges to 31 December 2012 and of the permanent trial and ad litem judges to 31 December 2011; underlined its intention to extend, by 30 June 2011, the terms of office of the trial judges on the basis of the Tribunal's projected trial schedule, and requested the President of the Tribunal to submit an updated trial and appeals schedule no later than 15 May 2011. In the light of the current trial and appeal schedule, a number of judges will require further extensions of their terms of office in order to complete the cases to which they are assigned.

Viewing the completion strategy as a strategy designed to allow the continuation of the Tribunal's activities by domestic courts in the former Yugoslavia, the Tribunal hosted a number of working visits, seminars, training programmes, and conferences for judicial professionals in the region. On 23 and 24 February 2010, the Tribunal staged a donor-funded conference that gathered more than 350 participants from the international community and the countries of the former Yugoslavia to discuss aspects of the Tribunal's legacy, particularly in the region. On 1 May, the Tribunal and the Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe launched a joint 18-month project funded by the European Union aimed at assisting the national judiciaries of the region in securing their capacity to investigate, prosecute and adjudicate war crimes cases. Within the framework of this joint project, the Tribunal is also directly implementing a project to translate trial transcripts and research tools into the languages of the region.

The Office of the Prosecutor further strengthened its cooperation with national prosecutorial authorities, by sharing information and expertise. A concrete example is the joint project of the European Union Commission and the Office of the Prosecutor enabling liaison prosecutors and interns from the region to work at the Tribunal. Liaison prosecutors work within the Office of the Prosecutor on their own cases, while interns assist prosecution lawyers with trials and appeals at the Tribunal. During the reporting period, the Office of the Prosecutor continued to transfer investigative materials to Bosnia and Herzegovina, including four complete case files, relating to 11 suspects.

The Tribunal continued to respond to requests from judges or parties in other jurisdictions for access to confidential case-related material relevant to proceedings before domestic courts. Such proceedings are conducted pursuant to rule 75 (H) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, which was adopted in order to assist other jurisdictions in trying war crimes cases in their own courts.

The Tribunal continued to cooperate with the Office of the Legal Counsel in the development of a residual mechanism further to the Secretary-General's report on the subject.

Chapter 4

International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January 1994 and 31 December 1994

Since August 2009, the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda has continued to pursue the implementation of its completion strategy with vigour, while upholding the principle of fairness to accused persons on trial.

The Office of the Prosecutor arrested three more fugitives during the reporting period. The ten remaining fugitives are still being tracked, especially the three whose trials are planned for Arusha (Félicien Kabuga, Protais Mpiranya and Augustin Bizimana). The other seven fugitives are to be referred to national jurisdictions. The Office of the Prosecutor experienced difficulties in securing the cooperation of Kenya in regard to the fugitive Félicien Kabuga. The incident was reported to the Security Council and the Prosecutor continues to engage Kenyan authorities for better cooperation. The Office of the Prosecutor also continued to respond to the increasing number of requests for legal assistance from national jurisdictions for the prosecution or extradition of Rwandan fugitives appearing on the INTERPOL list.

The Tribunal continued to engage with Rwanda in its efforts to address the obstacles to the referral of cases. In the meantime, the Prosecutor handed over to Rwanda the case files of 25 suspects who have been investigated but not indicted. It is expected that Rwanda will take appropriate action.

Preparations are under way for the taking of depositions of key witnesses in the cases of the fugitives whose trials are planned for Arusha. This will ensure the preservation of their evidence, should they be unavailable to testify when the fugitives are eventually tried.

Five judgements in single-accused cases were delivered, including a sentencing judgement for a guilty plea and a retrial, and the evidence phase in five single-accused trials was completed. In total, seven cases involving 18 accused are now in the judgement drafting phase, and six more judgements are expected before the end of 2010. Trials are in progress in three cases involving five persons. In all remaining trials, the delivery of the judgement is expected before the end of 2011.

At the appeals level, in addition to interlocutory decisions and pre-appeal orders, four judgements in single-accused cases were delivered, including in a contempt case. This brings to 31 the total number of persons whose cases have been completed thus far. Six appeals are pending.

The Registry continued to support the judicial process by servicing the other organs of the Tribunal and the defence, and by seeking support from States and international institutions, inter alia, to ensure the appearance of witnesses and their safety, and to secure funding for activities not covered by the regular budget.

During the reporting period, one prisoner was released after serving his sentence. Two detainees were acquitted. The Tribunal relocated one acquitted person, but three remain under the Tribunal's protection, despite the Registrar's efforts to secure a country of residence. One convicted person was transferred to a Member State to serve his sentence. One accused person, Joseph Nzirorera, died during the course of his trial.

In line with the Tribunal's completion strategy, the Registry (a) has stepped up all outreach activities, including the organization of capacity-building programmes for the Rwandan judiciary; (b) has continued its work on legacy issues; and (c) has continued to provide active support in the trial-readiness of cases.

The Tribunal continues its intense efforts to comply with the completion strategy. The Tribunal commenced 10 new trials in 2009: the evidence phase has been completed in eight of these cases, and judgement has already been delivered in four. Projections for the completion of the first instance have been modified to take into account the fact that, following additional arrests, new trials have yet to commence. Moreover, owing in particular to fair trial requirements and staffing constraints, the completion of the evidence phase and judgement drafting of some cases is delayed. By resolution 1932 (2010), the Security Council has therefore granted, at the request of the Tribunal, another extension of the mandate of five permanent and nine ad litem judges until the end of 2011 or the completion of the cases they are assigned to, if sooner. The services of the Appeals Chamber judges have been extended until the end of 2012 or the completion of their cases, if sooner. By that resolution, the Council noted the importance of an adequate staffing level for the expeditious completion of the Tribunal's work and called upon the Secretariat and other relevant United Nations bodies to continue to work with the Registrar in order to find practicable solutions to address this issue.

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997) concerning Sierra Leone

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997) concerning Sierra Leone is mandated by the Security Council to oversee the implementation of the measures imposed by resolution 1171 (1998), which consist of an arms embargo on non-governmental forces in Sierra Leone and travel restrictions on members of the former military junta and of the Revolutionary United Front as designated by the Committee.

In 2009, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of Le Luong Minh (Viet Nam) as Chair, while the delegations of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya and Turkey served as Vice-Chairs. For 2010, Nawaf Salam (Lebanon) served as Chair, the delegations of the Bosnia and Herzegovina and Brazil providing the Vice-Chairs.

The Committee did not hold any formal meetings or informal consultations during the reporting period.

During the reporting period, the Committee received eight notifications pursuant to paragraph 4 of resolution 1171 (1998).

During the period under review, the Committee granted waivers of the travel restrictions imposed by paragraph 5 of resolution 1171 (1998) to allow for the transfer from Sierra Leone to Rwanda of five individuals on the Committee's travel ban list, who had been convicted by the Special Court for Sierra Leone, for the enforcement of their sentences.

On 17 June 2010, the Committee received a communication informing it of the travel of an individual on the Committee's travel ban list from Rwanda to the Netherlands to appear as a witness before the Special Court for Sierra Leone in accordance with paragraph 8 of resolution 1793 (2007).

On 5 January 2010, the Committee's annual report for 2009 was issued (S/2009/690).

The Committee's website can be found at www.un.org/sc/committees/1132/index.shtml.

Chapter 6

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) concerning Al-Qaida and the Taliban and associated individuals and entities

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) is mandated by the Security Council to oversee the implementation of sanctions measures, consisting of an assets freeze, travel ban and arms embargo against individuals or entities belonging to or associated with Al-Qaida and/or the Taliban as set out in resolutions 1267 (1999), 1333 (2000), 1390 (2002), 1452 (2002), 1455 (2003), 1526 (2004), 1617 (2005), 1735 (2006), 1822 (2008) and 1904 (2009).

In 2009, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of Thomas Mayr-Harting (Austria) who served as Chair, with Burkina Faso and the Russian Federation serving as Vice-Chairs. Since January 2010, Thomas Mayr-Harting (Austria) has continued to serve as Chair, while Brazil and the Russian Federation have served as Vice-Chairs. During the reporting period, the Committee held one formal and 35 informal meetings.

During the reporting period the Committee completed its comprehensive review, pursuant to resolution 1822 (2008), of the 488 names that were included in the Consolidated List on 30 June 2008. For 443 entries the Committee found that listing remains appropriate, while 45 names were removed from the List after the Committee acceded to requests from Member States for the removal of those names. In addition, the information gathered and analysed during the review process has resulted in numerous updates of entries on the List and narrative summaries of reasons for listing, thereby improving the quality of the List and narrative summaries.

The Committee also continued to make accessible on its website narrative summaries of reasons for listing for each entry on the Consolidated List, including at the time a new name is added, in accordance with paragraph 14 of resolution 1904 (2009). As at 31 July 2010, the Committee had posted on its website 207 narrative summaries. Narrative summaries that have been posted on the Committee's website can be found at www.un.org/sc/committees/1267/narrative.shtml.

On 3 June 2010 the Secretary-General appointed, in close consultation with the Committee, an Ombudsperson to assist the Committee in its consideration of requests for de-listing, in accordance with paragraph 20 of resolution 1904 (2009). The Chair of the Committee held a press conference on 15 July 2010 at which the Ombudsperson participated.

In view of the appointment of the Ombudsperson, the focal point mechanism established pursuant to resolution 1730 (2006) shall no longer receive requests for de-listing concerning names included in the Committee's Consolidated List, as decided by the Council in paragraph 21 of resolution 1904 (2009). In the same paragraph, however, the Council noted that the focal point shall continue to receive requests from individuals and entities seeking to be removed from other sanctions lists.

Pursuant to resolution 1822 (2008), the Chair of the Committee undertook three visits to selected countries during the reporting period. On 8 and 9 October 2009 he visited Brussels, to discuss with officials of European Union institutions the implementation of the sanctions measures imposed by the European Union and its 27 member States. The Chair then participated in an international workshop of national counter-terrorism focal points, held in Vienna on 12 and 13 October 2009. On 3 and 4 June 2010 he attended the 9th Meeting of Heads of Special Services, Security Agencies and Law Enforcement Organizations, held on Yekaterinburg, Russian Federation.

On 28 September 2009, the Chair transmitted the tenth report of the Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team, established by resolution 1526 (2004), to the President of the Security Council

(S/2009/502). The Committee conveyed its position on the Monitoring Team's tenth report in its own written assessment, which was transmitted to the President of the Security Council on 5 March 2010 (S/2010/125).

During the reporting period, the Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team continued to assist the Committee in carrying out the tasks described in the annex to resolution 1822 (2008) and annex I to resolution 1904 (2009).

Pursuant to resolutions 1822 (2008) and 1904 (2009), the Chair presented to the Security Council his 180-day oral briefings, together with the Chairs of the Committees established pursuant to resolutions 1373 (2001) and 1540 (2004), on 13 November 2009 and 11 May 2010. By means of those briefings the Council was informed of the work of the Committee and the Monitoring Team, as well as of the implementation of the sanctions measures by States.

On 27 January and 29 July 2010, the Chair of the Committee held public briefings for Member States, at which he relayed information concerning, inter alia, the review of names on the Consolidated List pursuant to resolution 1822 (2008), on the new provisions of resolution 1904 (2009), and on the establishment of the Office of the Ombudsperson.

On 28 October 2009, the Committee met with the Special Rapporteur on the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms while countering terrorism, Mr. Martin Scheinin.

The Chair transmitted the report on the work of the Committee in 2009 to the Security Council (S/2009/676) on 30 December 2009.

On 12 January 2010, the Committee made available on its website new standard forms for listing of individuals and entities to be used when proposing the inclusion of names in the Committee's Consolidated List. New fields have been added to the standard forms with a view to improving the quality and precision of the information contained in listing requests. The Security Council, in paragraph 13 of its resolution 1904 (2009), called upon Member States to use the new standard forms when proposing names to the Committee for inclusion in the Consolidated List.

On 22 July, the Committee issued revised guidelines for the conduct of its work, in accordance with paragraph 35 of resolution 1904 (2009), including, inter alia, the sections concerning listing, de-listing, and matters left pending before the Committee. The new guidelines and other updated information reflecting the provisions of resolution 1904 (2009) have been made available on the Committee's website.

During the reporting period, the Committee added the names of 10 individuals and one entity to the Al-Qaida section and three individuals to the Taliban section of the Consolidated List. The Committee updated the information contained in 65 entries referring to individuals associated with Al-Qaida, five entities associated with Al-Qaida, and six individuals associated with the Taliban. The Consolidated List is available on the Committee's website, www.un.org/sc/committees/1267/consolist.shtml.

During the reporting period, the Committee de-listed 14 individuals and 21 entities from the Al-Qaida section and 10 individuals from the Taliban section of the Consolidated List. The Committee received 11 requests for de-listing from the focal point for de-listing during the reporting period concerning 19 names on the Consolidated List, and continued its consideration of two requests which were still being processed at the end of the last reporting period, concerning three names. Of those 22 names, the Committee removed the names of four individuals and seven entities from its Consolidated List after acceding to their requests for de-listing. Six individuals and three entities remained on the List after the process of the consideration of their requests within the Committee had been completed. ### Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism, known as the Counter-Terrorism Committee, is mandated to monitor the implementation of that resolution. The Committee has been assisted in its work by the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate, established by resolution 1535 (2004) for an initial period ending on 31 December 2007. By resolution 1805 (2008), the Council decided that the Executive Directorate will continue to operate as a special political mission under the policy guidance of the Counter-Terrorism Committee until 31 December 2010.

In 2009, the Bureau of the Committee was chaired by the delegation of Croatia, Neven Jurica serving until 18 September 2009, when Ranko Viločić became Chair. The delegations of France, the Russian Federation and Viet Nam served as Vice-Chairs, each also chairing one of the Committee's three subcommittees. From 31 January 2010 Ertuğrul Apakan (Turkey) served as Chair of the Committee, with Gabon replacing Viet Nam as one of the Vice-Chairs.

During the reporting period, the Committee held 17 formal meetings, three informal meetings and 11 subcommittee meetings.

During the reporting period, the Committee submitted three semi-annual work programmes to the Security Council, covering the periods from July to December 2009 (S/2009/389); January to June 2010 (S/2010/89); and July to December 2010 (S/2010/366).

Resolution 1373 (2001) sets out a comprehensive agenda of counter-terrorism activities, including steps aimed at bringing to justice perpetrators of terrorist acts as well as those who harbour, aid and support them. It also requires all States to cooperate on a wide range of issues related to counter-terrorism.

The Committee continued to use the preliminary implementation assessment as an analytical tool designed to provide a systematic, even-handed, transparent and effective way to monitor the extent to which States had met their obligations under resolution 1373 (2001).

The Committee also continued its "stocktaking" exercise aimed at enhancing the Committee's dialogue with each State and bolstering that State's counter-terrorism defences and capacity to cooperate internationally. In the context of the "stocktaking" exercise, the Committee approved updated preliminary implementation assessments for 63 States and sent them to those States with an invitation to provide updates including new information on their progress in implementing the resolution. The Committee also continued the practice of inviting the Permanent Representatives of certain Member States to meet informally with their relevant subcommittees to discuss the preliminary implementation assessment for those States, problems encountered by them in providing information to the Committee, and ways to further enhance their dialogue with the Committee. During the period under review, the subcommittees met with the Permanent Representatives or designated representatives of 20 States.

During the reporting period, the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate updated the technical guide to the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001), which was endorsed by the Committee on 10 December 2009.

The Committee continued, through its Executive Directorate, to conduct visits to Member States, with their consent, in order to engage in detailed discussions on the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001) in line with resolution 1535 (2004). During the reporting period, the Committee visited Azerbaijan, Bahrain, Ghana, Oman and Timor-Leste.

The Committee continued to work to deepen its engagement and cooperation with international, regional and subregional organizations; it encouraged and assisted them in the development of capacities that would improve their ability to assist their members with the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001). On 3 December 2009, the Committee with the assistance of its Executive Directorate submitted its second report on the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001) (S/2009/620), focusing on areas of counter-terrorism legislation, counter-financing of terrorism, law enforcement, border control, and international cooperation. To ensure the effective implementation of all relevant obligations of Member States in the area of international cooperation the Committee, on 14 June 2010, adopted by means of the silence procedure policy guidance on international cooperation in the work of the Counter-Terrorism Committee.

During the reporting period, the Committee was briefed by the President of the Financial Action Task Force; the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights; the President of the Financial Action Task Force of South America against Money Laundering; the Director for Legal Advice and Public International Law of the Council of Europe; and the Head of the Working Group of the Meeting of Heads of Special Services, Security Agencies and Law Enforcement Organizations.

In 2009 and 2010, the Committee held five informal briefings for Member States: on 16 December 2009, on 17 February 2010 (on international judicial cooperation), on 8 April 2010 (on maritime security and terrorist acts committed at sea); on 10 June 2010 (on cooperation with regional organizations) and on 21 July 2010.

During the period under review, the Committee continued to implement its mandate under resolution 1624 (2005), that is, to include in its dialogue with Member States their efforts to implement that resolution and to work with Member States to help build capacity, including through promoting good practices and facilitating the exchange of information. During the period to 31 July 2010, the Committee received seven reports from Member States pursuant to resolution 1624 (2005).

The three counter-terrorism-related Security Council Committees continued the practice of coordinating their periodic briefings to the Council. Those briefings were given on 13 November 2009 and 11 May 2010.

The Committee's website is maintained and updated by its Executive Directorate and can be found at www.un.org/sc/ctc/.

In 2009, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of Michel Kafando (Burkina Faso) as Chair, while the delegations of Austria and Viet Nam served as Vice-Chairs. For 2010, Emmanuel Isoze-Ngondet (Gabon) served as Chair, and the delegations of Austria and Bosnia and Herzegovina provided the Vice-Chairs.

During the reporting period, the Committee did not conduct any consultations or meetings and did not prepare an annual report.

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 (2006)

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 (2006) is mandated to oversee the implementation of the measures imposed by that resolution with respect to the Democratic People's Republic of Korea. The Security Council by resolution 1874 (2009) imposed additional measures, including an expansion of the arms embargo and the financial measures related thereto, as well as a ban on the provision of financial services, the transfer of financial assets or resources or public financial support for trade with the Democratic People's Republic of Korea that could contribute to that country's nuclear-related, ballistic missile-related and other weapons of mass destruction-related programmes. The Council directed the Committee to designate entities, goods and individuals in order to adjust measures imposed by resolutions 1718 (2006) and 1874 (2009). It also called for the inspection of cargo to and from the Democratic People's Republic of Korea under the conditions and circumstances specified in the resolution; it authorized, under specific circumstances, the seizure and disposal of prohibited items; and it introduced a ban on the provision of bunkering services and other servicing to vessels of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

Pursuant to paragraph 26 of resolution 1874 (2009), the Committee is assisted by a Panel of seven experts, whose mandate was extended by the Council until 12 June 2011 by resolution 1928 (2010).

During the reporting period, Baki İlkin (Turkey) served as Chair until Ertuğrul Apakan (Turkey) was elected as Chair on 4 September 2009. In 2009, the delegations of Costa Rica and the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya served as Vice-Chairs; they were replaced in 2010 by the delegations of Lebanon and Nigeria.

During the period under review, the Committee met five times in informal consultations.

During its informal consultations on 30 October 2009, the Committee welcomed the newly appointed experts and discussed the implementation of its draft programme of work for the period from 1 July 2009 to 30 June 2010. In informal consultations on 11 November, the Committee heard a presentation by the Panel of Experts on their interim report to the Security Council pursuant to resolution 1874 (2009), and considered the observations and recommendations contained therein. On 9 December, the Committee considered a draft report on the comprehensive review of reports received from Member States pursuant to resolutions 1718 (2006) and 1874 (2009). During its informal consultations on 20 January 2010, the Committee continued with the review of reports received from Member States on measures taken to fully implement resolutions 1718 (2006) and 1874 (2009) and discussed the modalities of visits by the Panel of Experts, which were adopted by means of the silence procedure on 1 February. In informal consultations on 1 July, the Committee heard a presentation on the final report of the Panel of Experts submitted to the Security Council on 12 May. The Committee also exchanged views on three discussion papers prepared by the Panel of Experts on luxury goods; small arms and light weapons; and the activities of diplomatic missions. Finally, the Committee considered its draft programme of work for the period from 1 July 2010 to 30 June 2011.

In accordance with paragraph 12 (g) of resolution 1718 (2006), the Chair presented periodic reports to the Council on the work of the Committee, on 20 August and 19 November 2009 and on 11 February and 27 May 2010. During the period under review, five Member States reported to the Committee pursuant to paragraph 11 of resolution 1718 (2006) and 38 Member States pursuant to paragraph 22 of resolution 1874 (2009).

The Committee's website is available at www.un.org/sc/committees/1718/index.shtml.

Chapter 16

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1737 (2006)

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1737 (2006) is mandated to oversee the implementation of the relevant measures imposed by resolutions 1737 (2006), 1747 (2007), 1803 (2008) and 1929 (2010) with respect to the Islamic Republic of Iran. Those measures include a proliferation-sensitive nuclear activities-related and nuclear weapon delivery systems-related embargo; a ban on the export or procurement of any arms and related materiel from the Islamic Republic of Iran and a ban on the supply of seven specified categories of conventional weapons and related materiel to that country; an assets freeze and a travel ban on designated individuals and/or entities.

In resolution 1929 (2010), among other things, under specified conditions and circumstances, the Council called for the inspection of cargo to and from the Islamic Republic of Iran and authorized the seizure and disposal of items identified during inspection, the supply of which to that country is prohibited. Moreover, under specified circumstances, the Council introduced a ban on the provision of bunkering and other servicing of Iranian vessels, and decided that all States shall exercise vigilance when doing business with Iranian entities, including entities of the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps and the Islamic Republic of Iran Shipping Lines. In accordance with resolution 1929 (2010), in carrying out its mandate the Committee is to be assisted by a Panel of Experts, the tasks of which are set out in paragraph 29 of the same resolution. The web page of the Committee can be found at www.un.org/sc/committees/1737/index.shtml.

In 2009 and 2010, Yukio Takasu (Japan) served as Chair of the Committee. The delegations of Burkina Faso and Costa Rica provided the Vice-Chairs in 2009. In 2010, the delegation of Nigeria serves as Vice-Chair.

During the period under review, the Committee held no meetings but conducted its work using the silence procedure.

The Committee received reports of two further violations of paragraph 5 of resolution 1747 (2007), by which the Council imposed a ban on the export or procurement of any arms and related materiel from the Islamic Republic of Iran. Both violations involved one other State in addition to the Islamic Republic of Iran. Both violations also involved the Islamic Republic of Iran Shipping Lines, which had chartered the vessels (the MV Hansa India and the MV Francop, respectively) transporting the materiel from the Islamic Republic of Iran to that other State. In response to each report, the Committee dispatched letters to the two States inviting them to provide, within a specific time frame, an explanation for the transactions as well as additional relevant information, and reminded them of their obligation to accept and carry out the decisions of the Security Council under Article 25 of the Charter of the United Nations. To date, the Committee has received responses from the reported State of destination only. The Committee also wrote to all three reporting Member States, expressing its appreciation for their responsible actions and urging them to continue to cooperate closely with the Committee and with any other States that might be investigating the cases. Finally, the Committee wrote to the States with the reported links to the MV Francop, inviting them to provide any additional relevant information. The flag State subsequently submitted documentation confirming that the vessel had been carrying arms-related materiel originating from the Islamic Republic of Iran; and the feeder company State provided additional information regarding the activities of that vessel. With respect to the incident involving the MV Hansa India, the Committee issued an implementation assistance notice — the second of its kind — which can be found on the Committee's web page.

The Committee received, pursuant to paragraph 15 of resolution 1737 (2006), four notifications, followed by additional information in two instances, concerning the intention of a State to authorize the unfreezing of assets in order to cover payments due under contracts entered into prior to the listing of an entity. Furthermore, the Committee received six notifications in connection with the delivery of items for use in the nuclear power plant in Bushehr, Islamic Republic of Iran. The Committee also addressed the issue of an intended delivery of items for use in that plant.

The Committee responded to three written requests from Member States for guidance on various aspects of the sanctions regime. The Committee received two communications in relation to the travel notification measure that was in place at the time.

With regard to reporting by States on the implementation of all relevant measures set out in resolutions 1737 (2006), 1747 (2007), 1803 (2008) and 1929 (2010), by the end of the period under review, the Committee had received 92 reports under resolution 1737 (2006), 79 reports under resolution 1747 (2007) and 68 reports under resolution 1803 (2008). Reports under resolution 1929 (2010) are due by 8 August 2010.

The Chair of the Committee delivered four periodic reports to the Security Council, pursuant to subparagraph 18 (h) of resolution 1737 (2006), on 9 September and 10 December 2009 and on 4 March and 28 June 2010.

On 23 July 2010, pursuant to resolution 1929 (2010), the Committee approved and submitted to the Council a work programme covering compliance, investigations, outreach, dialogue, assistance and cooperation.

Chapter 17

Working Group on Peacekeeping Operations

The Working Group on Peacekeeping Operations held four meetings in the latter half of 2009 and four meetings in the first half of 2010, with the participation of major troop-contributing countries and police-contributing countries, the Bureaux of the Special Committee on Peacekeeping Operations, representatives of regional organizations and other relevant stakeholders. In the second half of 2009, the Working Group had a discussion on enhancement of cooperation with troop-contributing countries, police-contributing countries and other stakeholders. The Chair of the Working Group submitted the interim report of the Working Group (S/2009/659) to the President of the Security Council on 17 December. In the first half of 2010, the Working Group had a discussion on key gaps in capabilities, resources and training which need to be closed in order to effectively implement Security Council mandates. The Chair of the Working Group submitted the interim report of the Working Group (S/2010/424) to the President on 27 July.

Ad Hoc Working Group on Conflict Prevention and Resolution in Africa

The Ad Hoc Working Group on Conflict Prevention and Resolution in Africa continues to carry out its mandate as a subsidiary organ of the Security Council, pursuant to the presidential statement of 31 January 2002 (S/PRST/2002/2), in which the Council, inter alia, recognized the need for adequate measures to prevent and resolve conflicts in Africa, and indicated its intention to consider the setting up of an ad hoc Working Group to monitor the recommendations contained in its presidential statement and to enhance coordination with the Economic and Social Council.

Following consultations among the members of the Security Council, it was agreed that the Working Group, initially established on 1 March 2002 (see S/2002/207) for a period of one year, would continue its work until 31 December 2010 (see S/2009/650).

During the reporting period, the Working Group remained under the Chairmanship of Ruhakana Rugunda (Uganda). After consultations among the members of the Council, it was agreed to re-elect Uganda as Chair of the Working Group for the period ending on 31 December 2010.

During the period under review, the Working Group held four meetings to consider issues within its remit. On 9 December 2009, the Working Group heard a briefing by the Director of the Office of the Special Adviser on Africa, Patrick Hayford, on how the special needs of countries in Africa emerging from conflict could be addressed by assisting the countries in laying the foundations for sustainable peace and development. Following the briefing, the speaker and members of the Working Group exchanged views.

On 11 June 2010 the Working Group met to consider its programme of work for 2010 as proposed by the Chair. It adopted the programme of work without any amendments. The programme of work was aimed at bringing some added value to the Security Council's discussion of various conflict resolution issues pertaining to Africa. Consequently, the Working Group agreed that it would continue to hold informal and thematic meetings, workshops, forums and, if possible, seminars, with a view to making proposals to the Council on measures that might best assist it in taking action and implementing more effectively strategies aimed at conflict prevention and resolution in Africa.

The Working Group also agreed to review how the United Nations, working with the African Union, could facilitate the implementation of more effective early warning and response mechanisms for the prevention and resolution of conflicts in Africa; examine how the United Nations working with the African Union can support security sector reform on the continent; and discuss how the peacebuilding priorities of post-conflict countries in Africa can be supported in a more effective way, to lay a foundation for sustainable peace and development. Finally, the Working Group agreed to consider ways of improving and strengthening the cooperation and the consultative process between the Security Council and the African Union Peace and Security Council.

On 18 June 2010 the Working Group met to exchange views prior to the annual joint consultative meeting of the Security Council and the African Union Peace and Security Council on 9 July and the envisaged Working Group open interactive panel discussion scheduled for July on early warning mechanisms in Africa. The Chair proposed to the members of the Working Group that the panel discussion should be a public meeting and open to non-members of the Council. He recalled that all the meetings in 2009 were closed, thus denying the Working Group the chance of benefiting from possible contributions from the general United Nations membership.

On 9 July the representative of Uganda participated in the fourth joint consultative meeting of the Security Council and the African Union Peace and Security Council. Uganda participated actively in all aspects of the meeting, including negotiation of the communiqué that was adopted. The Nigerian presidency of the Security Council (for July) was instrumental in coordinating and negotiating the communiqué that was adopted as the outcome of the meeting. The meeting, in contrast to earlier ones, focused largely on substantive issues.

On 20 July 2010, members of the Working Group were briefed by Under-Secretary-General for Political Affairs, B. Lynn Pascoe, on the proposed United Nations regional office for Central Africa. The Chair recalled that in 2009 the Secretary-General had, in a letter addressed to the President of the Council (S/2009/697), expressed his intention to establish the office. However, some Council members had at that time requested further clarification and explanation on a number of issues. The Chair noted that, subsequently, there had been a number of interactions on the proposed office. The presence of the Under-Secretary-General, therefore, was intended to provide an opportunity for further clarification.

In his briefing, the Under-Secretary-General noted that the plan to establish a regional office for Central Africa was a response to the requests of Heads of State in Central Africa, the States members of the Economic Community of Central African States, and Council members who had emphasized in a presidential statement on 31 October 2002 (S/PRST/2002/31) the importance of a comprehensive, integrated, resolute and concerted approach to the issues of peace, security and development in Central Africa. He noted that in the past year the Department of Political Affairs had held extensive consultations in the region on how to ensure that the office would be productive and effective. Moreover, as the Department had since been strengthened, it could now support the office at full capacity.

The Under-Secretary-General emphasized that the office would be entrusted with a mandate to promote peace and security in the subregion and would work closely with national and regional organizations, as well as United Nations country teams in the region. He also pointed out that since the office would carry out good offices in conflict prevention and peacebuilding it would be an effective tool for preventive diplomacy. It would also strengthen the capacity of the Department of Political Affairs to advise the Secretary-General on matters relating to peace and security in the subregion. He underlined the prospective advantage of a regional office, such as that of being based in the field, with a minimum logistical capability that would let it work closely with regional organizations and capitals.

In conclusion, the Under-Secretary-General remarked that, as the experience of the United Nations Office for West Africa (UNOWA) had shown, the presence of a regional office in Central Africa would translate to concrete savings in financial costs compared to the costs involved in peacekeeping or those associated with the various United Nations offices in the region. He also mentioned that, since the Government of Gabon had offered to provide, at no cost to the United Nations, office space and accommodation for the head of the office, and because it would share technical and human resources with other United Nations field presences, the office would have minimal set-up costs. He stressed that there was currently no plan to set up other regional offices.

Several Council members, including Nigeria, China, France, Japan and Lebanon, cited the value in having a regional office in Central Africa, and referred to the many complex issues facing the region. Citing the role of UNOWA, they drew parallels on the utility of such an office. Some also cited the possible cost-effective aspects of the office. The representative of Japan held that any costs would be offset by savings in peacekeeping missions in the region.

On the other hand, the representative of the United Kingdom conveyed his country's reservations and arguments against the proposal, considering, first, that the effectiveness of the current structure was not adequate, and there was not much information on the expected and concrete outputs. Secondly, the model of a "regional office" might not necessarily apply to other regions as it had in West Africa, where it had been effective. Furthermore, the United Kingdom considered that the office would be too expensive, even after the proposed amendments. The representative of the United Kingdom observed that the challenges to international peace and security were complex, and questioned whether, in real terms and value, the office could deliver more on conflict prevention if established to deal with the Horn of Africa, meanwhile reiterating his doubt as to the purpose and effectiveness of the office.

The representatives of the United States of America and Mexico, while acknowledging the benefits of preventive diplomacy, and hence such an office, wished to study the proposal further, especially the financial aspects. In response, the Under-Secretary-General reiterated that the cost of the planned office would be about half the cost of the two previous United Nations offices in the region. He remarked that it was blatantly obvious that setting up the office would be cost-effective, and underlined the concern on maintaining a minimal United Nations presence at the regional level, as neither peacekeeping operations nor the country teams were prepared to deal with certain regional issues.

Working Group established pursuant to resolution 1566 (2004)

In accordance with paragraphs 9 and 10 of Security Council resolution 1566 (2004) the Working Group is tasked to examine (a) practical measures to be imposed upon individuals, groups or entities involved in or associated with terrorist activities, other than those designated by the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) concerning Al-Qaida and the Taliban and associated individuals and entities; and (b) the possibility of establishing an international fund to compensate victims of terrorist acts and their families.

In 2009, Neven Jurica (Croatia) served as Chair of the Working Group. Since January 2010, the Chair of the Working Group has been Ertuğrul Apakan (Turkey).

During the reporting period, the Working Group held one meeting, on 23 March 2010, at which it heard a briefing by the Special Adviser to the Under-Secretary-General for Political Affairs on counter-terrorism matters, Jean-Paul Laborde. The briefing focused largely on the work the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force is engaged in to support the victims of terrorist acts and their families. Views were also exchanged by the members regarding the possible future work of the Working Group.

Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict

The Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict is mandated by the Security Council to review the reports of the monitoring and reporting mechanism referred to in paragraph 2 of resolution 1612 (2005) and the progress in the development and implementation of the action plans mentioned in paragraph 7 of the resolution, and to consider other relevant information presented to it.

The monitoring and reporting mechanism seeks to monitor the recruitment and use of child soldiers in violation of applicable international law and other violations and abuses committed against children affected by armed conflict, involving, in contravention of applicable international law, killing and maiming, rape and other sexual violence, abductions, attacks against schools or hospitals and denial of humanitarian access.

The Working Group is mandated, in particular, (a) to make recommendations to the Council on possible measures to promote the protection of children affected by armed conflict, including through recommendations on appropriate mandates for peacekeeping missions and recommendations with respect to the parties to the conflict; and (b) to address requests, as appropriate, to other bodies within the United Nations system for action to support the implementation of resolutions 1612 (2005) and 1882 (2009) in accordance with their respective mandates.

During the reporting period, and pursuant to resolution 1612 (2005), the Chair of the Working Group submitted a report to the Council on developments in relation to the Working Group for the period from 1 July 2009 to 30 June 2010 (S/2010/410).

On the basis of reports of the Secretary-General produced in the context of the monitoring and reporting mechanism mentioned above, the Working Group considered the situation of children in Colombia (S/2009/434), Burundi (S/2009/450), Uganda (S/2009/462), the Philippines (S/2010/36) and Nepal (S/2010/183), and reviewed the report on the mission to Sri Lanka of the Special Envoy of the Special Representative for Children and Armed Conflict.

The Working Group also adopted conclusions on the situation of children in armed conflicts in Myanmar

(S/AC.51/2009/4), the Sudan (S/AC.51/2009/5), Burundi (S/AC.51/2009/6), Uganda (S/AC.51/2010/1) and Sri Lanka (S/AC.51/2010/2).

Chapter 21

Informal Working Group on Documentation and Other Procedural Questions

During the reporting period, the Working Group held a total of 10 informal meetings to discuss various issues related to the Security Council's documentation and procedures.

In 2009 and 2010, the Chairmanship of the Working Group was held by Yukio Takasu (Japan).

On 10 November 2009, a meeting was convened with a view to holding a discussion in follow-up to the meeting held on 14 May. A draft working paper with a proposed list of recommendations relating to the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2006/507), prepared by the Chair, was discussed.

On 4 December, members were briefed by representatives of the Departments of Peacekeeping Operations and Political Affairs on the process of preparing the reports of the Secretary-General. The meeting was convened in response to a request by members of the Working Group expressing concern about the timeliness of the Secretary-General's reports.

From December 2009 to 30 March 2010 the Working Group focused on the following issues: (a) reports of the Secretary-General; (b) format of Council meetings; (c) Council missions; (d) the Council's interaction and dialogue with other United Nations organs, including the Peacebuilding Commission; and (e) matters of which the Council is seized.

In 2010, as a matter of priority, the Working Group was most engaged with the Chair's working paper on the implementation of the note by the President (S/2006/507), with a view to issuing a revised comprehensive note by the end of 2010. The Working Group also focused on a range of practical issues pertaining to meetings of the Council and other procedural questions that arose from the everyday work of the Council or were referred to the Working Group.

Relevant information pertaining to the work of the Working Group has been made available, in all official languages, on the web page, at www.un.org/sc/wgdocs/.

Chapter 22

Informal Working Group on International Tribunals

The Informal Working Group on International Tribunals was established in 2000 to consider matters relating to the United Nations and United Nations-assisted Tribunals, particularly the completion strategies and residual issues of the International Tribunals for the Former Yugoslavia and Rwanda. It consists of the legal advisers of the missions of the members of the Security Council and is assisted by the Office of Legal Affairs. Austria has held the Chair of the Working Group since January 2009.

During the reporting period, the Working Group continued to meet regularly and held 23 meetings (7 in 2009 and 16 in 2010), including with the Presidents, Prosecutors and Registrars of the Tribunals when they were in New York for their presentations to the Security Council. The members of the Working Group also had informal exchanges of views with representatives of Rwanda, Serbia and the United Republic of Tanzania in order to continue the dialogue with affected countries and host countries of the Tribunals. The members further heard a briefing by the Chief of the Archives and Records Management Section of the Secretariat on the question of archives and records management.

In September 2009 the Working Group concluded its consideration of the report of the Secretary-General on the administrative and budgetary aspects of the options for possible locations for the archives of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and the seat of the residual mechanism(s) for the Tribunals (S/2009/258) and reached agreement on recommendations (l) and (m) addressed to the Tribunals in paragraph 259 of the report. By a letter dated 28 September 2009 the President of the Security Council confirmed that the Council members welcomed those recommendations and requested that the Secretary-General write to the Presidents of the Tribunals to ask that they ensure that the tasks listed were carried out as part of their completion strategies, and that they report to the Security Council on their progress in implementing those tasks as part of their regular reporting (S/2009/496).

On 8 October, in order to increase transparency, raise awareness and provide an opportunity to hear the views of expert speakers and the broader United Nations membership, the Permanent Mission of Austria organized an Arria-formula meeting on residual issues of the two Tribunals, open to all States Members of the United Nations. Invited speakers included the Presidents of the two Tribunals, the Assistant Secretary-General for Legal Affairs, and representatives of the International Committee of the Red Cross and the International Centre for Transitional Justice. The meeting evoked great interest on the part of many Member States, which provided the Working Group with useful input for its deliberations.

In the last quarter of 2009 the Working Group resumed its negotiations on a new Security Council draft resolution on the establishment of an international residual mechanism for criminal tribunals prepared by the Chair of the Working Group with the help of the Office of Legal Affairs, based on the recommendations contained in the report of the Secretary-General. The Working Group concluded the first reading of the draft resolution in December 2009. Before the end of the year, in order to assist the Group in its future deliberations, and as a follow-up to the Secretary-General's report, the Working Group agreed to request the Office of Legal Affairs to prepare a draft statute of the residual mechanism based on the statutes of the two Tribunals, as well as two additional internal reports on the declassification of documents and review of witness protection orders by the Tribunals, as set out in recommendation (l) of the Secretary-General's report, and on possible locations for the residual mechanism.

In February 2010, the Chair presented the first revised draft resolution on the residual mechanism with an annex including the draft statute prepared by the Office of Legal Affairs. In February and March the Working Group conducted the second reading of the draft resolution and annex. After a period of bilateral consultations, internal reflection and preparation in April and May, the second revised draft resolution and draft statute were introduced by the Chair at the end of May. The Group conducted its third reading of the draft texts from mid-June to mid-July. The Working Group has made good progress in its efforts to reach agreement on a number of outstanding issues. The discussions on a further revised draft resolution and annex will resume in the latter part of 2010 with a view to reaching a final agreement.

In July 2010 the Working Group discussed the internal reports of the Office of Legal Affairs on the declassification of documents and review of witness protection orders by the Tribunals and on possible locations for the residual mechanism. The Group agreed to request the Office of Legal Affairs to conduct further fact-finding on possible locations and to ask the Tribunals to implement certain recommendations in the report on declassification of documents and review of witness protection orders.

On 3 December 2009 and 18 June 2010, at the biannual public meetings of the Security Council to hear the briefings on the completion strategies of the Tribunals, the Permanent Representative of Austria, in his capacity as Chair, briefed the Council on the progress of the Working Group. In addition, on 30 December, the Permanent Mission of Austria sent a letter to the President of the Security Council (S/2009/687), which provides a detailed account of the activities of the Working Group during 2009.

In December 2009 and in March and June 2010 the Working Group also considered various requests by the Presidents of the Tribunals for the extension of the terms of office of the judges and statutory amendments in order to facilitate the completion strategies. Following negotiations and agreement reached among its members, the Working Group made recommendations to the Security Council for the adoption of appropriate resolutions. As a result, the Security Council adopted resolutions 1900 (2009), 1901 (2009), 1915 (2010), 1931 (2010) and 1932 (2010).
