<sup>7</sup> Official Records of the General Assembly, Sixty-sixth Session, Supplement No. 5, vol. V (A/66/5 (Vol. V)).

6. Stresses that accountability is a central pillar of effective and efficient management that requires attention and strong commitment at the highest level of the Secretariat, as defined in paragraph 8 of its resolution 64/259 of 29 March 2010;

7. Expresses deep concern about the sudden and unexplained increase in the cost overrun of the project, which represents a projected increase of 23 per cent of the total approved budget, and the lack of transparent and timely information provided to the General Assembly on the evolution of the project budget, forecasts, risks and projected overruns;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to report on the underlying causes of the projected increases and urges him to robustly contain such overruns, and reiterates its request that the Secretary-General make every effort to avoid budgetary increases through sound project management practices and to ensure that the capital master plan project is completed within the budget as approved in its resolution 61/251, as a matter of urgency;

9. Recalls its decision 66/555 and decides to authorize the Secretary-General to enter into commitments of up to 135 million United States dollars for resources required for the capital master plan project, including its associated costs, through 2012, and requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at the beginning of the main part of its sixty-seventh session, in the context of the tenth progress report, on practical options to reduce or offset the overall projected costs and to finance such commitments while remaining within the approved budget and scope of the project;

10. Requests the Secretary-General to entrust the Office of Internal Oversight Services to urgently undertake an in-depth technical construction audit of the capital master plan, emphasizing the circumstances that led to the projected cost overrun of 433 million United States dollars, and to report the results to the General Assembly at the beginning of the main part of its sixty-seventh session;

11. Also requests the Secretary-General to make available the necessary resources to enable the Office of Internal Oversight Services to undertake the in-depth construction audit requested in paragraph 10 of the present resolution;

12. Further requests the Secretary-General to report in the context of the tenth annual progress report on the measures undertaken to address the other risks identified by the Board of Auditors in its report on the capital master plan for the year ended 31 December 2010;

13. Expresses deep concern about the lack of clarity regarding the plans for renovation of the Dag Hammarskjöld Library and the South Annex Building, and requests the Secretary-General to provide to the General Assembly, in the context of the tenth annual report, information on the progress achieved in the renovation of the South Annex Building and the Library as provided for within the overall scope of the capital master plan;

14. Urges the Secretary-General to accelerate his efforts to manage the costs pertaining to the early termination of the swing spaces with a view to optimizing, as much as possible, the renegotiated rental contracts, and to report accordingly to the General Assembly in the tenth annual report, including detailed information about their duration and payments;

15. Reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to continue to update the General Assembly through regular informal briefings, in addition to submitting annual progress reports, on all aspects of the implementation of the capital master plan project, including the current status, financial situation, significant activities carried out since the previous report and risk analysis information outlining any risks identified, actions to be taken to mitigate risks, status and trends, and to update the relevant information on its website on a regular basis;

16. Requests the Office of the Capital Master Plan to brief the General Assembly no later than the second resumed part of its sixty-sixth session, as well as in the early part of its sixty-seventh session;

17. Encourages those Member States that have outstanding assessments to the capital master plan to pay those assessments;

18. Reaffirms its resolution 62/269 of 20 June 2008, and requests the Secretary-General to comply fully with the relevant provisions contained therein;

19. Decides to revert to this matter at the main part of its sixty-seventh session.
