International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991

Draft decision submitted by the President of the General Assembly

International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991

The General Assembly, having considered the identical letters dated 31 October 2014¹ and 3 December 2014² from the Secretary-General to the President of the Assembly and the President of the Security Council, transmitting letters dated 1 October and 25 November 2014, respectively, from the President of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991, and taking note of the letter from the President of the Council dated 22 December 2014 drawing the attention of the President of the Assembly to the text of Council resolution 2193 (2014) of 18 December 2014;³

(a) Requests the International Tribunal to complete its work and facilitate the closure of the Tribunal as expeditiously as possible, with the aim of completing the transition to the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals, and expresses its continued concern over delays in the conclusion of the Tribunal's work, in the light of Council resolution 1966 (2010), in which the Council requested the Tribunal to complete its trial and appeals proceedings by 31 December 2014;

(b) Underlines that States should cooperate fully with the International Tribunal, as well as with the Mechanism;

(c) Decides to extend the term of office of the following permanent judge at the International Tribunal, who is a member of the Appeals Chamber, until 31 July 2015 or until the completion of the cases to which he is assigned, if sooner:

Mr. Patrick Lipton Robinson (Jamaica)

* Reissued for technical reasons on 23 December 2014.
