121. Revitalization of the work of the General Assembly

This item, which was included in the agenda of the forty-sixth session of the General Assembly, in 1991, had originally been proposed for inclusion in the draft agenda of that session by the President of the Assembly at its forty-fifth session (see decision 45/461).

The General Assembly considered the question at its forty-sixth to forty-eighth, fifty-second and fifty-third sessions (resolutions 46/77, 47/233 and 48/264 and decisions 52/479 and 53/491).

At its fifty-fourth session, the General Assembly decided to defer consideration of the item and to include it in the draft agenda of its subsequent session (decision 54/491).

The General Assembly continued its consideration of the item from its fifty-fifth to its sixty-eighth sessions (resolutions 55/285, 56/509, 57/301, 58/126, 61/292, 62/276, 63/309, 64/301, 65/315, 66/294, 67/297 and 68/307).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly considered the item jointly with the item entitled "Implementation of the resolutions of the United Nations". The Assembly also adopted the proposed programme of work and timetable of the First Committee for 2015 (decisions 69/520 A and B) and of the Special Political and Decolonization Committee (Fourth Committee) for the seventieth session (decisions 69/525 A and B), the draft programmes of work of the Second Committee (decision 69/548) and the Third Committee (decision 69/539) and the provisional programme of work of the Sixth Committee (decision 69/529) for the seventieth session.

At its resumed sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly welcomed the report of the Ad Hoc Working Group on the Revitalization of the Work of the General Assembly and the updated inventory of Assembly resolutions on revitalization annexed thereto. It decided to establish, at its seventieth session, an ad hoc working group on the revitalization of the work of the General Assembly, open to all Member States, to identify further ways to enhance the role, authority, effectiveness and efficiency of the Assembly, inter alia, by building on the progress achieved in past sessions of the Assembly as well as on previous resolutions, including evaluating the status of their implementation, and to submit a report thereon to the Assembly at its seventieth session. The Assembly also decided that the Ad Hoc Working Group would continue its review of the inventory of Assembly resolutions on revitalization annexed to the report of the Ad Hoc Working Group submitted at the sixty-ninth session and, as a result, continue to update the inventory to be attached to the report at the seventieth session of the Assembly. Furthermore, the Assembly took note with appreciation of the multilingual web page devoted to the revitalization of the work of the Assembly, accessible directly from the United Nations website (www.un.org/en/ga/revitalization), and invited the Secretariat to continue updating that web page and its substantive content in a cost-effective manner (resolution 69/321).

Also at its resumed sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly requested each Main Committee to further discuss its working methods at the beginning of every session and invited the Chairs of the Main Committees to brief the Ad Hoc Working Group at the seventieth session on any best practices and lessons learned with a view to improving such working methods as appropriate; encouraged scheduling future high-level meetings during the first half of the year, from within existing resources, taking into account the calendar of conferences, and without prejudice to the current practice of convening one high-level meeting in September at the beginning of each session of the Assembly; recalled the interim arrangement adopted in Assembly decision 68/505 on the pattern for the rotation of the Chairs of the Main Committees until the seventy-third session; reiterated its request that the Ad Hoc Working Group prepare long-term arrangements concerning the election of Chairs and Rapporteurs of the Main Committees of the Assembly with the aim of establishing a predictable, transparent and fair mechanism, in consultation with regional groups, and to submit them to the Assembly not later than the seventy-second session and, in this regard, invited Member States to present proposals and begin giving early attention to conclude a future arrangement which would come into effect as of the seventy-fourth session of the Assembly with the annex to resolution 68/307 containing the guidelines on the election of the Chairs and Rapporteurs of the Main Committees to be considered in this context (resolution 69/321).

Furthermore, the General Assembly requested the Presidents of the General Assembly and the Security Council to start the process of soliciting candidates for the position of Secretary-General through a joint letter to all Member States, containing a description of the entire process and inviting candidates to be presented in a timely manner, and to jointly circulate to all Member States on an ongoing basis the names of individuals that have been submitted for consideration as candidates for the position of Secretary-General together with accompanying documents, including curricula vitae; and affirmed its readiness to continue discussing all the issues relating to the selection and appointment of the Secretary-General in all their aspects within the Ad Hoc Working Group during its seventieth session, including those contained in the report of the Ad Hoc Working Group as contained in document A/69/1007 (resolution 69/321).

The Board of Auditors transmits to the General Assembly the audited financial statements for the relevant financial periods of the various accounts of the United Nations and other funds and programmes for which the Board has audit responsibility. Under the provisions of article VII of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations and the annex thereto, the Board submits reports to the Assembly on the results of its audits and issues opinions as to whether the financial statements properly reflect the recorded transactions and whether those transactions were in accordance with the Financial Regulations and legislative authority and present fairly the financial position as at the end of the financial period of each of the activities reported on, in accordance with the International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS). The reports of the Board are commented upon by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, which also submits a report thereon to the Assembly.

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly accepted the financial reports and audited financial statements and the reports and audit opinions of the Board of Auditors for the above-mentioned entities and endorsed the observations and recommendations contained in the related reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, subject to the provisions of the resolution. The Assembly commended the Board of Auditors for the continued high quality of its reports and the streamlined format thereof (resolutions 69/249 A and B). However, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General not to implement the recommendations contained in paragraphs 85 and 89, in chapter II.F, of volume I of the report of the Board of Auditors (resolution 69/249 A).

Also at its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly noted with concern general deficiencies identified by the Board of Auditors in control and fraud prevention, which are particularly necessary given the high-risk environments in which the United Nations operates, and requested the Secretary-General to take measures to address those deficiencies, such as through the issuance of standard operating procedures for addressing fraud prevention (resolution 69/249 A).

At the same session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, in his capacity as Chair of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination, to invite the executive heads of the participating organizations to report on the ratios of programme delivery and overhead costs to help to drive cost-effective delivery of mandates (resolution 69/249 A).

Also at the same session, the General Assembly reiterated its requests:

- (a) To the Secretary-General and the executive heads of the funds and programmes of the United Nations to ensure full implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors and the related recommendations of the Advisory Committee in a prompt and timely manner, to continue to hold programme managers accountable for the non-implementation of recommendations and to effectively address the root causes of the problems highlighted by the Board;
- (b) To the Secretary-General to provide in his reports on the implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors a full explanation for the delays in the implementation of the recommendations of the Board, in particular those recommendations not yet fully implemented that are two or more years old;
- (c) To the Secretary-General to indicate in future reports an expected time frame for the implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors, as well as the priorities for their implementation and the office holders to be held accountable (resolution 69/249 A).

At its resumed sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly accepted the financial report and audited financial statements of the United Nations peacekeeping operations for the 12-months period from 1 July 2013 to 30 June 2014 and took note of the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the recommendations of the Board on the subject. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to ensure the full implementation of the recommendations of the Board and the related recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions in a prompt and timely manner, to continue to indicate an expected time frame for the implementation of the recommendations and the priorities for their implementation, including the office holders to be held accountable and measures taken in that regard, to provide a full explanation for the delays in the implementation of all outstanding recommendations, the root causes of the recurring issues and the measures to be taken, and to continue his efforts to hold staff members accountable, in particular senior managers, for mismanagement and poor decision-making leading to financial loss for the Organization (resolution 69/249 B).

At the same session, the General Assembly expressed concern about the continued weaknesses in the areas of budget formulation and implementations, asset management, travel management, procurement and contracting, management of construction projects, information and communications technology and the global field support strategy, and in that regard requested the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to address those weaknesses, as a matter of priority, taking into account the comments, observations and recommendations of the Board of Auditors (resolution 69/249 B).

At its sixty-fifth session, the General Assembly noted with appreciation the work of the Independent Audit Advisory Committee, emphasized the role of the Advisory Committee in ensuring the operational independence of the Office of Internal Oversight Services, reaffirmed the terms of reference of the Advisory Committee, as contained in the annex to resolution 61/275, and decided to review the terms of reference at its seventieth session (resolution 65/250) (also relates to item 142).

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to further refine and start implementing in a phased manner the results-based management framework, to continue to implement the enterprise risk management policy, to take further concrete measures to ensure that the compacts system becomes a meaningful and powerful instrument of accountability and to take actions to address systemic issues that prevent managers from meeting their targets (resolution 67/253).

At its resumed sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly encouraged the Secretary-General to continue strengthening and improving the accountability framework and promoting a culture of self-evaluation throughout the Organization and to consider the inclusion in the senior managers' compacts of a new standard managerial indicator related to the issuance of official documentation to intergovernmental bodies and General Assembly committees (resolution 68/264).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly reaffirmed its resolution 41/213, in which it requested the Secretary-General to submit in off-budget years an outline of the proposed programme budget for the following biennium, and reaffirmed its request to the Secretary-General to propose, in future budget submissions, measures to offset budget increases, wherever possible, without undermining the implementation of mandated programme activities (resolution 69/264) (see item 134).

At its resumed sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to include in the next progress report on accountability a detailed plan, with a fixed time frame and clear milestones, for the implementation of results-based management, emphasized the importance of establishing and fully implementing

Pursuant to regulation 2.4 of the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations, the Secretary-General, in the second year of a financial period, submits to the General Assembly at its regular session his proposed programme budget for the following financial period. At its sixty-ninth session, the Assembly considered this question under the item entitled "Review of the efficiency of the administrative and financial functioning of the United Nations" (see also item 132).

At its fifty-eighth session, in 2003, the General Assembly decided that the programme narratives of the programme budget fascicles should be identical to the biennial programme plan; decided also to keep the current format of the proposed programme budget and to maintain the level of information contained therein; requested the Secretary-General to include in the introduction of the budget fascicles information on the new and/or revised mandates approved by the Assembly subsequent to the adoption of the biennial programme plan; and requested the Secretary-General to ensure that resources were clearly identified in all the sections of the proposed programme budget for the performance of the monitoring and evaluation functions (resolution 58/269).

At its sixtieth session, the General Assembly endorsed the proposal that the request for a subvention to the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research be submitted for review and approval by the General Assembly on a biennial basis in the context of its consideration of the proposed programme budget for the related biennium (resolution 60/248, sect. At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly invited the Secretary-General to prepare his proposed programme budget for the biennium 2016-2017 on the basis of a preliminary estimate of $5,558,395,600 at revised 2014-2015 rates, and requested the Secretary-General to reflect the priorities outlined in paragraph 9 of the resolution when presenting the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2016-2017 (resolution 69/264).

At the same session, the General Assembly, under the item entitled "Programme planning", endorsed the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee for Programme Coordination on the proposed strategic framework for the period 2016-2017, contained in chapter II, section B, of its report on the work of its fifty-fourth session, and decided not to take a decision on the content of part one: plan outline of the proposed strategic framework for the period 2016-2017. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to prepare the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2016-2017 on the basis of the priorities and of the strategic framework as adopted in the resolution (resolution 69/17).

Also at that session, the General Assembly recalled paragraph 9 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions on revised estimates resulting from resolutions and decisions adopted by the Economic and Social Council at its 2014 session (A/69/609), noted the consideration of the cost-sharing arrangement by the Assembly, and looked forward to receiving all relevant information on the resource requirements for the United Nations share in the arrangement in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2016-2017 (resolution 69/262, sect. At the same session, the General Assembly welcomed the efforts undertaken by the Secretary-General to increase the utilization rates of conference-servicing resources, and in that regard encouraged the Secretary-General to enhance the efficiency of conference servicing and to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventieth session, and requested the Secretary-General to propose, at its seventieth session, a comprehensive review of conference servicing, highlighting any duplication or redundancy, with a view to identifying innovative ideas, potential synergies and other cost-saving measures, without compromising the quality of the services (resolution 69/250, sect. II).

Also at that session, the General Assembly emphasized the need to continue to improve all conference facilities, including the videoconferencing infrastructure, in all four main duty stations and in the regional commissions, and in that regard requested the Secretary-General to report thereon no later than at the seventieth session of the Assembly, and welcomed the measures taken to ensure access to and use of conference services and conference facilities for persons with disabilities, including the establishment of the Accessibility Centre, and encouraged the Secretary-General to continue further efforts in that regard and to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventieth session. The General Assembly noted with appreciation the efforts of the Secretary-General in the context of the integrated global management initiative to establish and implement in the four main duty stations common performance indicators and single information technology systems (such as gData, gDoc, gMeets and gText), and requested the Secretary-General to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventieth session (resolution 69/250, sect. II).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report to it at its seventieth session on concrete measures taken by author departments and the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management to improve the predictability of document delivery and ensure accountability for the meeting of deadlines in order to ensure the timely issuance of documentation (resolution 69/250, sect. IV).

At the same session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to make further concerted efforts to promote outreach programmes, such as traineeships and internships, and to introduce innovative methods to increase awareness of the programmes, including through partnerships with Member States, relevant international organizations and language institutions in all regions, in particular to close the wide gap in Africa and Latin America, and to report thereon at its seventieth session (resolution 69/250, sect. V).

Also at that session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to refrain from making any change of a substantive nature to agreed texts of both draft and adopted resolutions and to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventieth session, including on measures to enhance the quality, efficiency and cost-effectiveness of editing services within existing resources (resolution 69/250, sect. V).

138. Scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations

The regular budget of the United Nations is apportioned among its Member States in accordance with the scale of assessments approved by the General Assembly on the recommendation of the Committee on Contributions (see item 115 (b)). The scale of assessments has also been used to apportion the costs of the capital master plan. The scale, as modified by the provisions of resolutions 55/235 and 55/236 and other resolutions concerning the financing of peacekeeping operations, has also been used to apportion the cost of peacekeeping operations among Member States. The assessment rates used for the regular budget and peacekeeping operations are also used for apportioning the costs of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals.

At its fifty-fourth session, in 1999, the General Assembly decided that requests for exemption under Article 19 of the Charter must be submitted by Member States to the President of the Assembly at least two weeks before the session of the Committee on Contributions, so as to ensure a complete review of the requests (resolution 54/237 C).

At its fifty-seventh session, the General Assembly endorsed the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee on Contributions concerning multi-year payment plans, as contained in paragraphs 17 to 23 of its report (A/57/11). Among those recommendations were that the Secretary-General should be requested to provide information on the submission of multi-year payment plans to the Assembly through the Committee and to submit an annual report to the Assembly through the Committee on the status of Member States' payment plans as at 31 December each year (resolution 57/4 B).

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly adopted a scale of assessments for the period from 2013 to 2015, based on the recommendations of the Committee on Contributions and using the same methodology applied to the preparation of the scale of assessments for the previous four scale periods. The Assembly recognized that the current methodology could be enhanced, bearing in mind the principle of capacity to pay. The Assembly also recognized the need to study the methodology in depth and in an effective and expeditious manner, taking into account the views expressed by Member States, and requested the Committee on Contributions to review and make recommendations on the elements of the methodology of the scale of assessments in order to reflect the capacity of Member States to pay, and to report thereon to the Assembly by the main part of its seventieth session (resolution 67/238).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly continued its consideration of the item (resolution 69/4).

140. Joint Inspection Unit

At its twenty-first session, in 1966, the General Assembly established the Joint Inspection Unit for an initial period of four years (resolution 2150 (XXI)), and subsequently decided to continue the Unit until 31 December 1973 (resolution 2735 A (XXV)) and then for a further period of four years beyond that date (resolution 2924 B (XXVII)). At its thirty-first session, the Assembly approved the statute of the Unit as a subsidiary organ of the Assembly and of the legislative bodies of the specialized agencies that accepted the new statute (resolution 31/192). The membership of the Unit was increased from 8 to not more than 11 Inspectors, with effect from 1 January 1978.

The General Assembly considered this question at various sessions from its twenty-first to sixty-eighth sessions (resolutions 2150 (XXI), 2360 A (XXII), 2735 A (XXV), 2924 A and B (XXVII), 31/192, 31/193 A and B, 32/199, 34/164, 37/124, 38/229, 39/242, 40/259, 41/213, 42/218, 43/221, 44/184, 45/237, 47/201, 48/221, 50/233, 54/16, 54/255, 55/230, 56/234, 56/235, 56/245, 57/284 A and B, 58/286, 59/267, 60/258, 61/238, 61/260, 62/226, 62/246, 63/272, 64/262, 65/270, 66/259, 67/256 and 68/266).

At its fiftieth session, in July 1996, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, and invited the executive heads of organizations participating in the Unit, to take the necessary measures to ensure that the thematic reports of the Unit were listed under the appropriate substantive agenda items of the work programmes of the Assembly, other pertinent organs and bodies of the United Nations and the appropriate legislative organs of the other participating organizations (resolution 50/233).

At its fifty-fourth session, the General Assembly endorsed the follow-up system annexed to the Unit's report (A/52/34) and invited the Unit to include in its annual reports approved recommendations that had not been implemented (resolution 54/16).

At its fifty-fifth session, the General Assembly decided to consider the annual reports of the Unit on an annual basis (resolution 55/230).

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly decided that the Unit should include in its annual reports information on implementation and the results achieved by organizations in respect of their follow-up to the recommendations of the Unit, as endorsed by their legislative bodies, and the arrangements put in place by participating organizations for reporting thereon (resolution 59/267).

At its sixty-first session the General Assembly requested that reports of the Unit include information on savings, acceptance rate of recommendations and implementation status by impact category (resolution 61/238, sect. I).

At the same session, the General Assembly decided to consider jointly the annual report and programme of work of the Unit starting from the sixty-second session (resolution 61/260).

At its sixty-second session, the General Assembly invited the Unit to report in the context of its annual reports on experience in the implementation of the follow-up system by the participating organizations (resolution 62/246).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly reiterated its requests that the Unit consider optimizing the number of projects in its programme of work through prioritization, and issue its reports in all the official languages of the United Nations, well in advance of meetings of the legislative organs of participating organizations so that the reports can be thoroughly and effectively utilized in their deliberations. The Assembly reiterated its request to the executive heads of the participating organizations to fully comply with the statutory procedures for consideration of the reports of the Unit and, in particular, to submit their comments, including information on what they intend to do regarding the recommendations of the Unit. The Assembly reiterated its request to the Secretary-General and other executive heads of the participating organizations to fully assist the Unit with the timely provision of all information requested by it, and its request to the Secretary-General contained in paragraph 15 of its resolution 64/262 and paragraph 7 of its resolution 65/270, in view of the ongoing development of the medium- and long-term strategy for 2010–2019, to reflect the appropriate resource requirements associated with the implementation of the relevant portions of the strategy, in the context of the proposed programme budgets. The Assembly requested the heads of participating organizations to make full use of the web-based system of the Unit and to provide an in-depth analysis of how the recommendations of the Unit are being implemented (resolution 69/275).

141. United Nations common system

The General Assembly, by its resolution 3042 (XXVII), decided in principle to establish an international civil service commission for the regulation and coordination of the conditions of service of the United Nations common system. By its resolution 3357 (XXIX), the Assembly approved the statute of the International Civil Service Commission. The United Nations common system comprises 13 organizations that have accepted the Commission's statute and, together with the United Nations itself, participate in the United Nations common system of salaries and allowances. Other organizations have not formally accepted the statute but fully participate in the Commission's work or apply the common system of salaries, allowances and benefits. Under its statute, the Commission is required to submit an annual report to the Assembly, which is also to be transmitted to the governing organs of the other organizations of the common system, through their executive heads.

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly noted the ongoing work of the Commission on the comprehensive review of compensation and looked forward to considering the results of the exercise at its seventieth session, took note of the analysis undertaken by the Commission on the impact of the suggested change in the mandatory age of separation on workforce and succession planning frameworks and all relevant human resources management policies, decided to raise the mandatory age of separation to 65 years for staff recruited before 1 January 2014, taking into account the acquired rights of staff, and requested the Commission to revert to the Assembly with an implementation date at its earliest opportunity, but no later than the seventy-first session of the Assembly, after consultations with all the organizations of the common system (resolution 69/251).

142. Report on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services

The Office of Internal Oversight Services (OIOS) was established in 1994 by the General Assembly in its resolution 48/218 B. The Assembly decided to include in the provisional agenda of its fiftieth session an item entitled “Report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services”.

The General Assembly continued its consideration of the item at its fiftieth and fifty-fourth to fifty-seventh sessions (resolutions 50/239, 54/244, 55/259, 56/246 and 57/287 A to C).

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly, under the item entitled “Review of the implementation of Assembly resolutions 48/218 B and 54/244”, requested the Secretary-General to ensure that annual and semi-annual reports submitted by OIOS to the Assembly contained the titles and brief summaries of all other reports of the Office issued during the year and that original versions of the reports of the Office not submitted to the Assembly were, upon request, made available to any Member State; and further decided that reports of the Office should be submitted directly to the Assembly as submitted by the Office and that the comments of the Secretary-General might be submitted in a separate report (resolution 59/272).

The General Assembly considered the item at its sixtieth session (resolutions 60/255, sect. I, and 60/257 and decision 60/551 A).

At its sixtieth session, the General Assembly, under the agenda item entitled "Report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services", modified the title of the agenda item to read "Report on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services" in accordance with paragraph 3 of resolution 59/272 (resolution 60/259).

The General Assembly considered the item at its sixty-first to sixty-eighth sessions (resolutions 61/275, 61/279, 62/87, 62/225, 62/232, 62/236, 62/247, 63/248, 63/265, 64/232, 65/250, 66/236 and 68/21).

At its sixty-fourth session, under the item entitled "Review of the implementation of General Assembly resolutions 48/218 B, 54/244 and 59/272", the Assembly endorsed the observations, comments and recommendations on the effectiveness, efficiency and impact of OIOS contained in the annex to the annual report of the Independent Audit Advisory Committee (A/64/288) (resolution 64/263).

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to entrust the Office with publishing audit reports on the website of the Office, on an experimental basis and decided that a final decision on the continuation of the experiment should be made in the context of the review of the mandate of the Office to be conducted during the sixty-ninth session of the Assembly. (resolution 67/258).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly reaffirmed the independence and separate and distinct roles of the internal and external oversight mechanisms and encouraged United Nations internal and external oversight bodies to further enhance the level of their cooperation with one another. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continue to ensure the full implementation of the accepted recommendations of the Office, including those relating to cost avoidance, recovery of overpayments, efficiency gains and other improvements, in a prompt and timely manner, and to provide detailed justifications in cases in which recommendations of the Office were not accepted. It emphasized the need for the Office to continue to refine its risk-based workplan in order to ensure that it fully captures high-risk areas such as those relating to procurement activities at the mission level as well as those related to fraud, including by contractors and implementing partners. The Assembly recalled paragraph 18 of its resolution 62/247, and in that regard requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Assembly at the main part of its seventieth session the report on terms of reference to strengthen the investigations function in the United Nations. It recalled paragraph 14 of its resolution 68/21, and in that regard requested the Secretary-General to report to the Assembly by no later than the main part of its seventieth session on the proposal to transfer all investigations to the Office in the long term (resolution 69/252).

Documents for the seventieth session:

143. Administration of justice at the United Nations

At its sixty-second session, the General Assembly established: (a) a two-tier formal system of administration of justice, comprising a first instance United Nations Dispute Tribunal and an appellate instance United Nations Appeals Tribunal; (b) the Office of Administration of Justice, comprising the Office of the Executive Director and the Office of Staff Legal Assistance and the Registries for the United Nations Dispute Tribunal and the United Nations Appeals Tribunal; (c) a single integrated and decentralized Office of the Ombudsman for the United Nations Secretariat, funds and programmes with branches in several duty stations and a new mediation division; (d) the Internal Justice Council; and (e) the Management Evaluation Unit in the Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Management (resolution 62/228).

At its sixty-third session, the General Assembly adopted the statutes of the United Nations Dispute Tribunal and the United Nations Appeals Tribunal and decided that those Tribunals would be operational as of 1 July 2009 and that all persons who had access to the Office of the Ombudsman under the previous system would also have access to the new informal system (resolution 63/253).

Consideration of the item in the Fifth Committee

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly reaffirmed its decision, contained in paragraph 12 of its resolution 68/254, that the interim independent assessment shall examine the system of administration of justice in all its aspects, with particular attention to the formal system and its relation with the informal system, including an analysis of whether the aims and objectives of the system set out in resolution 61/261 were being achieved in an efficient and cost-effective manner. The Assembly decided that the panel shall be appointed from a pool of experts drawn from all regional groups and judicial systems, selected to ensure the independent nature of the assessment (resolution 69/203, sect. I).

At the same session, with regard to the informal system, the General Assembly welcomed the recommendations to address systemic and cross-cutting issues contained in the report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of the United Nations Ombudsman and Mediation Services (A/69/126) and requested the Secretary-General to report on progress made in the implementation of those recommendations in his next report. The Secretary-General was also requested to provide data and other relevant information on outreach activities, focusing on conflict resolution, systemic issues and conflict competence, as well as on promotion of the benefits of informal resolution, in his next report on the activities of the Office. The Assembly further requested that information on the number and nature of cases from non-staff personnel continue to be clearly set out in future reports on the activities of the Office. It reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to ensure that the revised terms of reference and guidelines for the Office are promulgated by the end of December 2014. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to strengthen performance management skills among managers, including by enriching training programmes for conflict competence, and to continue his efforts to promote collaboration among all relevant stakeholders towards the full implementation of a credible, fair and consistent performance management system (resolution 69/203, sect. II).

Also at the sixty-ninth session, with regard to the formal system, the General Assembly recognized the ongoing positive contribution of the Office of Staff Legal Assistance to the system of administration of justice and requested the Secretary-General to implement and report on incentives for staff not to opt out of the voluntary supplemental funding mechanism with respect to additional resources for the Office (by way of a payroll deduction not exceeding 0.05 per cent of a staff member's monthly net base salary implemented on an experimental basis from 1 January 2014 to 31 December 2015, in accordance with paragraph 33 of resolution 68/254). The Secretary-General is also requested to continue to collect and examine data relating to staff contributions to the Office and to report thereon to the Assembly in his next report, as well as to develop incentives for staff and management, including through training opportunities, to enable and encourage staff to continue to participate as volunteers in the work of the Office. The Assembly further requested the Secretary-General to report on the practice of proactive case management by the United Nations Dispute Tribunal judges in the promotion and successful settlement of disputes within the formal system in his next report; to continue to track the data on the number of cases received by the Management Evaluation Unit and the Dispute Tribunal in order to identify any emerging trends and to include his observations on those statistics in future reports; and to ensure that a lessons-learned guide on performance management based on the jurisprudence of the Tribunals is completed before the main part of the seventieth session and shared with managers across the Organization. The Assembly decided to amend article 11, paragraph 3, of the statute of the Dispute Tribunal and article 7, paragraph 5, of the statute of the Appeals Tribunal to expand their application to judicial orders, in addition to judgements. It also amended article 11, paragraph 3, of the statute of the Dispute Tribunal by adding a sentence reading “Case management orders or directives shall be executable immediately.” The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report at the main part of the seventieth session on the implementation of those amendments, including with respect to the administrative implications, any implications for the timely disposal of the cases, the ultimate disposition of appeals of orders, if any, and any costs saved by reason of stays pending such appeals. Having previously requested the Secretary-General, in its resolution 68/254, to examine further the issue of the immunities of the judges of the two Tribunals and present recommendations that would not result in a change in their rank or conditions of service (para. 31), the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to review the issue of harmonization of the privileges and immunities of the judges and to submit a proposal to the Assembly in his next report on the item. Stressing the need to ensure that all individuals acting as legal representatives appearing before the Tribunals are subject to the same standards of professional conduct, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit in his next report a single code of conduct for all legal representatives, without prejudice to other lines of disciplinary authority (resolution 69/203, sect. III).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Assembly, in his next report, a refined proposal with regard to the scope of application and the title of the mechanism to address complaints under the code of conduct of judges. It stressed that the Internal Justice Council could help to ensure independence, professionalism and accountability in the system of administration of justice, and requested the Secretary-General to entrust the Council with including the views of both the Dispute Tribunal and the Appeals Tribunal in its reports. The Assembly recalled paragraph 39 of the report of the Advisory Committee (A/69/519) and paragraph 8 of its resolution 61/261 and requested the Secretary-General to present, in his next report, proposals with reference to the accountability of all individuals where violations of the Organization’s rules and procedures have led to financial loss (resolution 69/203, sect. IV).

At the same session, the General Assembly invited the Sixth Committee to consider the legal aspects of the report to be submitted by the Secretary-General, without prejudice to the role of the Fifth Committee as the Main Committee entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters (resolution 69/203, sect. IV).

Consideration of the item in the Sixth Committee

At the sixty-ninth session, as set out in a letter from the Chair of the Sixth Committee (A/C.5/69/10, annex), the Sixth Committee considered the legal aspects of the reports of the Secretary-General and of the Internal Justice Council on the administration of justice at the United Nations (A/69/227 and A/69/373, respectively) and the report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of the United Nations Ombudsman and Mediation Services (A/69/126), and it drew the attention of the Fifth Committee to a number of specific issues relating to the legal aspects of those reports.

At its resumed sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continue to take all measures necessary to mitigate potential risks and to ensure that the construction project of a new facility for the Arusha branch of the Mechanism is monitored closely and is completed within the approved timeline and resources and to ensure that, in the future, any cost overruns are first met from compensatory reductions identified elsewhere through efficiencies in order to obviate to the extent possible the need for drawdown from contingency provisions. The Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to continue to update Member States regularly, through the Office of Central Support Services of the Department of Management of the Secretariat, on the progress of the construction project, and to submit to the Assembly, at the first part of its resumed seventieth session, a progress

147. Scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of United Nations peacekeeping operations

This item was included in the provisional agenda of the fifty-fifth session of the General Assembly, in 2000, at the request of a number of Member States (A/55/141 and Add.1-3); subsequently, nine other Member States joined in requesting inclusion of the item in the agenda (A/55/193, A/55/195 to A/55/199, A/55/224, A/55/225 and A/55/230).

At its fifty-fifth session, in 2000, the General Assembly established a new system of adjustments of rates in the scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations under the regular budget, assigning each Member State to 1 of 10 levels in order to establish their rates of assessment for peacekeeping operations; decided on ad hoc arrangements for the apportionment of the expenses of United Nations peacekeeping operations to several Member States; requested the Secretary-General to update the composition of the levels on a triennial basis, in conjunction with the regular budget scale of assessment reviews, in accordance with the criteria established in the resolution, and to report thereon to the Assembly; and decided that the structure of levels to be implemented from 1 July 2001 should be reviewed after nine years (resolution 55/235).

The General Assembly continued its consideration of the item at its fifty-eighth session (resolution 58/256).

At its sixty-first session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report to it at its sixty-fourth session on the updating of the composition of levels of contribution for peacekeeping operations for the period from 2010 to 2012 in the light of the decision of the Assembly to review the structure of levels (resolution 61/243).

At its sixty-fourth session, the General Assembly reaffirmed the principles set out in its resolution 55/235 and endorsed the updated composition of levels for the period from 2010 to 2012. However, the Assembly also recognized the concerns raised by Member States regarding the structure of the levels for the apportionment of the expenses of United Nations peacekeeping operations and decided to review the structure with a view to a decision, if agreed, no later than at its sixty-seventh session. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continue updating the composition of the levels on a triennial basis, in conjunction with the regular budget scale of assessment reviews, in accordance with the established criteria, and to report thereon to the Assembly (resolution 64/249).

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly reaffirmed the principles set out in its resolution 55/235, and requested the Secretary-General to continue updating the composition of the levels on a triennial basis, in conjunction with the regular budget scale of assessment reviews, and to report thereon to the Assembly. The Assembly recognized the need to reform the current methodology for apportioning the expenses of peacekeeping operations and decided to review the structure of the levels of the scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of United Nations peacekeeping operations during its seventieth session (resolution 67/239).

Document for the seventieth session: Report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of General Assembly resolutions 55/235 and 55/236 (resolution 67/239).

148. Administrative and budgetary aspects of the financing of the United Nations peacekeeping operations

Cross-cutting issues

At its resumed sixty-ninth session, in June 2015, the General Assembly recalled paragraphs 69 and 71 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions and decided, on an exceptional basis and without setting a precedent, to apply, for the financial period 2015/16, fuel prices based on the average rates from November 2014 to April 2015 and the exchange rate as at 1 May 2015, and requested the Secretary-General to report thereon in the context of the next performance reports of the individual missions (resolution 69/307, sect. I).

At the same session, with regard to personnel issues, the General Assembly urged the Secretary-General to make every effort to reduce the recruitment lead time for staff in field missions, taking into account the relevant provisions governing recruitment of United Nations staff, to enhance the transparency of the staffing process at all stages, and to report on the steps taken and results achieved in the context of the next overview report. The Assembly recalled paragraphs 65 and 66 of the report of the Advisory Committee, with respect to vacancy rates, and decided to defer consideration of the issue until its seventieth session. The Secretary-General was requested to report on the forthcoming issuance of guidelines for the recruitment of government-provided personnel in the context of his next overview report (resolution 69/307, sect. II).

Also at that session, regarding operational requirements, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report on the implementation of all demining activities, where specified in relevant peacekeeping operation mandates, in the context of his next overview report. The Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to ensure that accommodations provided by the United Nations for uniformed and civilian personnel serving in peacekeeping operations meet the relevant United Nations standards and to report thereon at the second part of its resumed seventieth session; and to include in his budget proposals a clear vision of the construction requirements for each mission, including, as appropriate, multi-year plans. The Assembly recalled paragraph 147 of the report of the Advisory Committee and, inter alia, requested the Secretary-General to include comprehensive information, including lessons learned from the utilization of unmanned aerial systems in United Nations peacekeeping operations, in his next overview report (resolution 69/307, sect. III).

Also at its resumed sixty-ninth session, with regard to special measures for protection from sexual exploitation and sexual abuse, the General Assembly expressed concern about the response of the United Nations to the recent allegations of sexual exploitation and sexual abuse in the Central African Republic and welcomed the establishment of an independent review panel to review and assess the response of the United Nations. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report expeditiously on the findings of the review and on lessons learned and measures for improvement no later than at the main part of its seventieth session. The Assembly recalled paragraph 55 of the report of the Secretary-General and requested him to engage in consultations with Member States, in particular troop-contributing countries, on the methodology for reporting sexual exploitation and sexual abuse cases and to update the relevant Committees on the results of his efforts in this regard in his future reports (resolution 69/307, sect. IV).

At the same session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to provide in his next overview report detailed information on the final evaluation of the global field support strategy, including cost-benefit analyses, lessons learned, best practices and benchmarks for reporting on progress and assessing achievements, as well as information on planned post-strategy activities and on their mainstreaming into the ongoing work of the Secretariat. The Secretary-General was requested to develop scalability models to inform the resource requirements for the support account for peacekeeping operations, United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi and the Regional Service Centre in Entebbe and to report thereon at the second part of its resumed seventieth session. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continue the nationalization plan in the Centre in a phased manner over a two-year period; recalled paragraph 51 of the report of the Advisory Committee and decided to give the Centre operational and managerial independence; and requested the Secretary-General to submit a budget proposal for the Centre for the financial period 2016/17, to be charged against the missions that the Centre supports (resolution 69/307, sect. V).

Financing of the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy

At its resumed sixty-ninth session, in June 2015, the General Assembly approved the cost estimates for the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy, amounting to $67,157,000 for the period from 1 July 2015 to 30 June 2016; decided on the financing of the requirements for the United Nations Logistics Base for the same period; and also decided to consider at its seventieth session the question of the financing of the United Nations Logistics Base (resolution 69/309).

Closed peacekeeping missions

At its resumed sixty-ninth session, in June 2015, under the item entitled “Review of the efficiency of the administrative and financial functioning of the United Nations”, the General Assembly decided to defer until the second part of its resumed seventieth session consideration of the reports of the Secretary-General on the updated financial position of closed peacekeeping missions as at 30 June 2011 (A/66/665), 30 June 2012 (A/67/739), 30 June 2013 (A/68/666) and 30 June 2014 (A/69/659) and the related reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/66/713 and Corr.1, A/67/837, A/68/837 and A/69/827, respectively) (decision 69/553 C).

Support account for peacekeeping operations

At its forty-fifth session, in 1991, the General Assembly established the support account for peacekeeping operations, effective 1 January 1990 (resolution 45/258); it became operational on 1 May 1990.

At its resumed sixty-ninth session, in June 2015, the General Assembly reaffirmed its role in carrying out a thorough analysis and approval of human and financial resources and policies with a view to ensuring the full, effective and efficient implementation of all mandated programmes and activities and the implementation of policies in this regard; also reaffirmed that the Fifth Committee is the appropriate Main Committee of the Assembly entrusted with responsibility for administrative and budgetary matters; reaffirmed that the support account funds should be used for the sole purpose of financing human resources and non-human resource requirements for backstopping and supporting peacekeeping operations at Headquarters, and that any changes in this limitation required the prior approval of the Assembly; noted that the level of the support account should broadly correspond to the mandate, number, size and complexity of peacekeeping missions; reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to review the level of the support account on a regular basis, taking into consideration the number, size and complexity of peacekeeping operations; emphasized that support functions should be scalable to the size and scope of peacekeeping operations; and reaffirmed the need for full justification for the funding of the backstopping of peacekeeping operations in support account budget submissions and the need for effective and efficient administration and financial management of peacekeeping operations, urging the Secretary-General to continue to identify measures to increase the productivity and efficiency of the support account. The Assembly approved the support account requirements in the amount of $336,495,800 for the financial period from 1 July 2015 to 30 June 2016, inclusive of the amount of $31,306,700 for the enterprise resource planning project and $821,500 for information and systems security, including 1,322 continuing posts and 25 new temporary posts, as well as the abolishment, redeployment, reassignment and reclassification of posts, as set out in annex I to the resolution, 109 continuing and 5 new general temporary assistance positions and 52 person-months, as set out in annex II to the resolution, as well as related post and non-post requirements; and decided on the financing of the requirements for the support account for the same period (resolution 69/308).
