Introduction

1. Mindful of its primary responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security, the Security Council continued to engage on a wide-reaching agenda in accordance with the principles and objectives set forth in the Charter of the United Nations. During the period from 1 January to 31 December 2018, the Council held 288 formal meetings, of which 275 were public. The Council adopted 54 resolutions and 21 presidential statements and issued 87 statements to the press. During the reporting period, the Council conducted three missions.

2. In 2018, the Council continued to focus on a number of serious unresolved conflicts, in particular in the Middle East and Africa. The impact of these conflicts on civilians was severe. Large-scale humanitarian crises persisted and in some cases worsened, and large flows of displaced people within and across borders continued as a result of conflict. Divisions in the Council prevented it from taking effective action on some key conflicts.

3. However, there were also several positive developments in 2018. In Africa, countries of the Horn of Africa were able to make progress in resolving long-standing bilateral disputes, the United Nations Mission in Liberia concluded its work and a peace agreement was signed in South Sudan. In Asia, the level of tension on the Korean Peninsula reduced as a result of dialogue between the parties. In the Middle East, Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL, also known as Da'esh) was driven out of Iraq and lost control of most of the territory that it held in the Syrian Arab Republic. Progress was made in the peace process in Colombia, and elections in countries including Afghanistan, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Iraq and Lebanon made important contributions to political stability.

4. The Council remained convinced of the vital role that the United Nations and the multilateral system should play in preventing and resolving conflicts on its agenda, as set out by all Council members during an open debate on the subject in November. The Council took advantage of a wide range of tools to that end, including mediation, the deployment of peacekeeping and special political missions and the use of targeted sanctions and arms embargoes.

5. Some Council members consistently underlined the importance of taking action at every stage in the conflict cycle and focusing on sustaining peace. Council members also stressed the need to respect international law and to maintain the international non-proliferation regime. Throughout 2018, Council members continued to focus on the implementation of the Council's thematic resolutions in the context of the conflicts on its agenda, including the need to consider the role of women in preventing and resolving conflict.

6. At the end of 2018, almost 90,000 peacekeepers were deployed in 14 missions in support of Council mandates. A total of 98 peacekeepers were killed in 2018. Council members note with appreciation the contribution of United Nations peacekeepers to supporting international peace and security and pay tribute to the 98 peacekeepers who sacrificed their lives in 2018.

7. Further information on the work of the Council and more detailed accounts of its meetings can be found in the monthly assessments of the Council's work, available online at www.un.org/securitycouncil/content/monthly-assessments. Records of all open Council meetings, including the names and titles of officials providing briefings, are available at www.un.org/securitycouncil/content/meetings. This introduction does not seek to provide an exhaustive list of meetings, developments or Council responses. It is intended as a succinct and useful overview of key developments. Unless otherwise indicated, resolutions referred to in this introduction were adopted unanimously.

Africa

8. The Council continued to monitor the situation in Burundi closely. The constitutional referendum in May was a particularly significant political development. In April, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/7), the Council expressed its concern about the political situation in Burundi and reiterated its ongoing support for the efforts of the African Union and East African Community to bring about a peaceful resolution of the political situation in the country through an inclusive dialogue.

9. The Council reaffirmed its support for the United Nations Regional Office for Central Africa in 2018. In August, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/17), it noted the recommendation of the Secretary-General to extend the mandate of the Office for three years. The extension of the mandate was subsequently confirmed in an exchange of letters between the Secretary-General and the President of the Security Council (S/2018/789 and S/2018/790). The Council also expressed its support for the work of the United Nations Office for West Africa and the Sahel in presidential statements in January (S/PRST/2018/3) and August (S/PRST/2018/16). In December, the Executive Director of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime briefed the Council on the security implications of drug trafficking in West and Central Africa.

10. The conflict in the Central African Republic continued to be a major focus of the Council's work. The Council repeatedly expressed its concern about the level of violence in the country, including through nine statements to the press, and maintained consistent support for the African Initiative for Peace and Reconciliation. In January, the Council adopted resolution 2399 \(2018\), by which it extended the arms embargo and targeted sanctions until 31 January 2019. In December, it adopted resolution 2448 \(2018\) by 13 votes in favour, with 2 abstentions. By that resolution, the Council extended the mandate of the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic until 15 November 2019.

11. The situation in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and its implications for security in the Great Lakes region remained a source of concern for the Council. In particular, the Council followed closely the implementation of the political agreement of 31 December 2016, including the preparations for the presidential elections, which were held at the end of December 2018. Election preparations formed the focus of the Council's visit to the country from 5 to 7 October. During the visit, Council members met the President, Joseph Kabila Kabange, representatives of the Independent National Electoral Commission, members of the Government, representatives of political parties and civil society and the leadership of the United Nations Organization Stabilization Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (MONUSCO).

12. The Council also monitored the humanitarian situation closely, including an outbreak of Ebola. This led to the unanimous adoption in October of resolution 2439 \(2018\), in which the Council encouraged close cooperation between the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the World Health Organization and other Ebola responders to address the challenge, and called upon all parties to the conflict to ensure full, safe, immediate and unhindered access for humanitarian and medical personnel.

13. In March, the Council adopted resolution 2409 \(2018\), by which it extended the mandate of MONUSCO until 31 March 2019. MONUSCO remained the largest peacekeeping mission mandated by the Council. In the resolution, the Council also urged the Government to cooperate fully with the United Nations team deployed to assist the investigations by the Congolese authorities into the deaths of two United Nations experts in March 2017, and to ensure that all perpetrators were brought to justice and held accountable. In June, the Council adopted resolution 2424 \(2018\), by which it extended the mandate of the Group of Experts until 1 August 2019.

14. Some of the most encouraging moments of 2018 took place in the Horn of Africa. On 9 July, Eritrea and Ethiopia signed a Joint Declaration of Peace and Friendship. Subsequently, the President of Eritrea and the Prime Minister of Ethiopia signed the Agreement on Peace, Friendship and Comprehensive Cooperation on 16 September in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. In addition, the Presidents of Djibouti and Eritrea held a meeting in September. The Council welcomed these developments in statements to the press in July and September. The signing of the Agreement between Eritrea and Ethiopia made possible the Council's decision to lift its sanctions on Eritrea by its resolution 2444 \(2018\) in November.

15. The Council followed the political, humanitarian and security situation in Somalia closely. It noted in particular the importance of security sector, economic and political reforms and called for 2018 to be "a year of implementation" in a statement to the press in January. The importance of the relationship between the Federal Government of Somalia and the federal member states was a consistent theme of Council discussions throughout the year. In June, the Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/13), in which it welcomed the peaceful election of a new Speaker of the House of the People and the resumption of the Federal Parliament's activity.

16. The security situation remained a source of deep concern for the Council. In the same presidential statement, the Council expressed its concern about fighting in the Sool region and the ongoing threat posed by Al-Shabaab. In November, the Council condemned the terrorist attack in Mogadishu of 9 November in a statement to the press.

17. The Council remained committed to supporting a conditions-based transition of security responsibilities from the African Union Mission in Somalia (AMISOM) to Somali security institutions, as endorsed by the Peace and Security Council of the African Union in April and by international partners at the Somalia Security High-Level Meeting, held in Brussels in May. In July, the Council adopted resolution 2431 \(2018\), in which it decided to reduce the authorized number of uniformed AMISOM personnel to a maximum of 20,626 by 28 February 2019 and expressed its intention to follow closely the implementation of the transition plan and the handover of security responsibilities with the aim of Somali security institutions taking the lead by December 2021.

18. In March, the Council adopted resolution 2408 \(2018\), by which it renewed the mandate of the United Nations Assistance Mission in Somalia. In November, the Council extended its authorization for international naval forces fighting piracy off the Somali coast by its resolution 2442 \(2018\). Also in November, the Council adopted resolution 2444 \(2018\), by which it renewed the sanctions and arms embargo on Somalia and the ban on the import and export of Somali charcoal.

19. In February, the Council adopted resolution 2404 \(2018\), by which it extended the mandate of the United Nations Integrated Peacebuilding Office in Guinea-Bissau (UNIOGBIS) until 28 February 2019. Under the new mandate, the Council requested UNIOGBIS to focus on support for the implementation of the Conakry Agreement on the Implementation of the Economic Community of West African States Road Map for the Resolution of the Political Crisis in Guinea-Bissau and an inclusive political dialogue; the electoral process; and the review of the Constitution of Guinea-Bissau. In the same resolution, the Council also set out its support for the efforts of the Economic Community of West African States to resolve the crisis and underlined the importance of holding legislative and presidential elections on time.

20. The year 2018 saw the closure of the United Nations Mission in Liberia (UNMIL), which completed its mandate on 31 March. In a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/8), the Council expressed its appreciation for the contribution made by UNMIL, commended the commitment of the Government and people of Liberia to respect and develop democratic processes and institutions, and recognized the important role of the Peacebuilding Commission in Liberia and encouraged its continued active engagement. In addition, the Council asked the Secretary-General to prepare a report on the contribution of UNMIL to resolving conflict in Liberia.

21. In Libya, the Council continued to support the efforts of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General to find a political solution to the ongoing instability and violence in the country within the framework of the Libyan Political Agreement endorsed by resolution 2259 \(2015\). In June, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/11), the Council set out its support for election preparations and the national conference process. In the same statement, the Council also welcomed the momentum generated by the international conference on Libya hosted in Paris by the President of France, Emmanuel Macron, on 29 May. On 5 September, in a statement to the press, the Council condemned violence in Tripoli and called upon all parties to exercise restraint and engage seriously in national reconciliation.

22. In September, by its resolution 2434 \(2018\), the Council extended the mandate of the United Nations Support Mission in Libya until 15 September 2019. In November, by its resolution 2441 \(2018\), the Council renewed the sanctions regime and arms embargo and extended the mandate of the Panel of Experts until 15 February 2020. The resolution was adopted by 13 votes in favour, with 2 abstentions. In June, by its resolution 2420 \(2018\), the Council renewed the authorization to inspect vessels suspected of violating the arms embargo. In October, the Council adopted resolution 2437 \(2018\), by which it renewed its authorizations related to the smuggling and trafficking of persons, as set out in paragraphs 7 to 10 of resolution 2240 \(2015\). At the end of the year, the attack against the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tripoli underlined the seriousness of the terrorist threat in Libya. The Council responded by condemning the attack in a statement to the press in December.

23. The Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court briefed the Council in relation to the situation in Libya in May and November.

24. The Council continued to follow political and security developments in Mali with concern. The progress of the peace process, in particular the implementation of the Agreement on Peace and Reconciliation in Mali, was a major focus of the Council in 2018. In June, by its resolution 2423 \(2018\), the Council called upon the Government of Mali and the United Nations to sign a pact for peace. In October, the Council welcomed the signing of the pact in a statement to the press but stressed the urgent need for all parties to step up the implementation of the Agreement.

25. On several occasions, the Council expressed its concern about security developments in Mali, in particular the deterioration of the situation in central Mali. In October, in a statement to the press, the Council called for the implementation of the Government's plan to re-establish State presence in central Mali and emphasized the importance of close cooperation between the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in Mali (MINUSMA) and the Malian armed forces in this area.

26. In June, by its resolution 2423 \(2018\), the Council renewed the mandate of MINUSMA until 30 June 2019. In 2018, MINUSMA suffered more casualties than any other peacekeeping mission. The Council condemned attacks against the Mission in five statements to the press. In August, the Council renewed the sanctions regime and the mandate of the Panel of Experts by its resolution 2432 \(2018\).

27. There was broad Council agreement that the situation in Mali could not be dealt with in isolation and that a comprehensive approach to security challenges and instability in the Sahel was needed. In that context, the Council issued statements to the press in May and November, in which it welcomed the continued commitment of the States of the Group of Five for the Sahel (Burkina Faso, Chad, Mali, Mauritania and the Niger) to uniting their efforts to address the impact of terrorism and transnational organized crime in the Sahel region. The Council welcomed the operationalization of a robust compliance framework to prevent, investigate, address and publicly report violations and abuses of human rights law and violations of international humanitarian law related to the Joint Force of the Group of Five for the Sahel.

28. The Council monitored the progress towards the full operationalization of the Joint Force and in this context underlined the importance of international support for the Force. Key steps included the holding of the high-level conference on the Sahel in February, which resulted in pledges to the Force totalling 414 million euros, and the signing of a technical agreement between the United Nations, the European Union and the States of the Group of Five for the Sahel to provide support through MINUSMA in accordance with the conditions set out in resolution 2391 \(2017\). The Council reaffirmed the centrality of the United Nations integrated strategy for the Sahel in providing a comprehensive framework to strengthen governance, security and development in the Sahel region. It welcomed the launch of the United Nations support plan for the Sahel on the margins of the African Union summit held in Nouakchott in June 2018.

29. In July, the Deputy Secretary-General briefed the Council on her joint visit to the Sahel with the Special Envoy of the Chairperson of the African Union on Women, Peace and Security and the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Sweden, with a focus on women and peace and security, and the adverse effects of climate change.

30. The importance of close cooperation with the African Union was a key theme of many Council discussions on Africa in 2018. In July, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General to the African Union and Head of the United Nations Office to the African Union introduced the report of the Secretary-General on strengthening the partnership between the United Nations and the African Union (S/2018/678), noting that the African Union was the most important strategic partner of the United Nations. Also in July, the members of the Council and the Peace and Security Council of the African Union met in New York and issued a communiqué. Although the meeting was focused on the situations in South Sudan and the Democratic Republic of the Congo, there was also an opportunity for an informal exchange of views on the institutional reforms under way at the United Nations and the African Union and their significance for enhancing the partnership between the two organizations.

31. There were improvements to the security situation in Darfur and no significant clashes between government forces and the armed opposition. However, the Council continued to express its concerns about clashes in the Jebel Marra region.

32. The focus of Council discussions on Darfur in 2018 was progress towards the drawdown of the African Union-United Nations Hybrid Operation in Darfur (UNAMID). Following a special report from the Secretary-General and the Chairperson of the African Union Commission, the Council adopted resolution 2429 \(2018\) in July. In the resolution, the Council extended the mandate of UNAMID until 30 June 2019 and took note of the recommendation in the special report for a transition over a two-year time frame with a view to the exit of the Mission on 30 June 2020 and its liquidation by December 2020, provided that there is no significant change in the security situation and key indicators are met.

33. In December, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/19), the Council took note of the report of the Secretary-General on UNAMID (S/2018/912), in which a benchmarked exit strategy for UNAMID was set out. In February, by its resolution 2400 \(2018\), the Council extended the mandate of the Panel of Experts on the Sudan. The Council also expressed its intention to review the measures on Darfur.

34. The Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court briefed the Council in relation to the situation in Darfur in June and December.

35. The Council continued to focus on the situation in South Sudan. The Council remained concerned by continuing armed clashes across the country and repeated violations of the Agreement on Cessation of Hostilities, Protection of Civilians and Humanitarian Access of 21 December 2017. The Council maintained strong support for the efforts of the African Union and the Intergovernmental Authority on Development to address the crisis.

36. In May, the Council adopted resolution 2418 \(2018\) by nine votes in favour, with six abstentions. In the resolution, the Council renewed the sanctions measures imposed in resolution 2206 \(2015\) and the mandate of the Panel of Experts. In July, the Council adopted resolution 2428 \(2018\) by nine votes in favour, with six abstentions. In the resolution, the Council established an arms embargo and imposed a travel ban and asset freeze on two individuals.

37. In August and September, two key developments took place in the peace process within the framework of the Intergovernmental Authority on Development revitalization forum for peace in South Sudan. On 5 August, the President of South Sudan, Salva Kiir, and the opposition leader, Riek Machar, signed an agreement on outstanding issues in governance and the sharing of responsibilities (S/2018/574, annex). On 12 September, President Kiir and Riek Machar signed the Revitalized Agreement on the Resolution of the Conflict in South Sudan. The Council remained focused on the implementation of these agreements during the rest of the year and, in December, issued a statement to the press in which it condemned abuses against the Ceasefire and Transitional Security Arrangements Monitoring and Verification Mechanism team.

38. On 10 August, the permanent missions of Côte d'Ivoire, Kuwait, the Netherlands and Sweden to the United Nations called for consultations on food security in South Sudan, in line with the provisions of resolution 2417 \(2018\) on conflict and hunger. The Under-Secretary-General for Humanitarian Affairs and Emergency Relief Coordinator briefed the Council. The Council also remained concerned by the extent of sexual violence in South Sudan and issued a statement to the press on the issue in December.

39. By its resolution 2406 \(2018\), the Council extended the mandate of the United Nations Mission in South Sudan (UNMISS) until 15 March 2019. Council members remained concerned by threats against UNMISS and, in a statement to the press, condemned an attack against the Mission on 26 June that killed one peacekeeper.

40. The Council continued to support the United Nations Interim Security Force for Abyei. The focus of Council discussions on the subject in 2018 was the nature of the mandate and the size of the Force. In April, by its resolution 2412 \(2018\), the Council extended the elements of the mandate dealing with support to the Joint Border Verification and Monitoring Mechanism until 15 October 2018. In May, by its resolution 2416 \(2018\), the Council extended the mandate of UNISFA until 15 November and reduced the troop ceiling to 4,500.

41. In October, by its resolution 2438 \(2018\), the Council welcomed the progress made in implementing the Joint Border Verification and Monitoring Mechanism but noted that the measures set out in resolution 2412 \(2018\) had not been completely achieved. The Council extended the relevant elements of the mandate until 15 April 2019. In November, by its resolution 2445 \(2018\), the Council extended the UNISFA mandate until 15 May 2019, reduced the troop ceiling to 4,140 and agreed to increase the authorized number of police to 345.

42. The major development with regard to Western Sahara in 2018 was the holding of a round-table meeting of Morocco, the Frente Popular para la Liberación de Saguía el-Hamra y de Río de Oro (Frente POLISARIO), Algeria and Mauritania in Geneva in December. The Personal Envoy of the Secretary-General for Western Sahara, Horst Köhler, convened these talks as part of a renewed political process.

43. In April and October, the Council adopted resolutions 2414 \(2018\) and 2440 \(2018\). Both resolutions were adopted by 12 votes in favour, with 3 abstentions. In the resolutions, the Council extended the mandate of the United Nations Mission for the Referendum in Western Sahara by a period of six months. In resolution 2440 \(2018\), the Council also reaffirmed the objective of a just, lasting and mutually acceptable political solution that would provide for the self-determination of the people of Western Sahara and welcomed the decisions of Morocco, the Frente POLISARIO, Algeria and Mauritania to accept the Personal Envoy's invitation to a round-table meeting.

Americas

44. In 2018, the Council maintained its full support for the peace process in Colombia. In several statements to the press, the Council welcomed the commitment shown by the parties in 2018, including the new Government led by President Iván Duque Márquez, which came into power in August. It stressed on several occasions the importance of the full political, legal and socioeconomic reincorporation of former members of the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia-People's Army (FARC-EP) members. The Council also expressed concern about insecurity in some of the conflict-affected areas of the country, including the persistent pattern of assassinations of community and social leaders.

45. One setback to the peace process was the resumption of attacks by the National Liberation Army (ELN), which the Council said that it regretted in a statement to the press issued in January. In the same statement, the Council expressed its hope that ELN and the Government of Colombia would resume work to reach an agreement on renewing and strengthening the ceasefire. In April, in another statement to the press, the Council welcomed the resumption of dialogue between the parties and encouraged the conclusion of a new ceasefire.

46. The Council continued to support the United Nations Verification Mission in Colombia and, in September, adopted resolution 2435 \(2018\), by which it extended the mandate of the Mission until 25 September 2019.

47. In Haiti, the Council focused its attention on the future of the United Nations presence in the country. In April, the Council adopted resolution 2410 \(2018\) by 13 votes in favour, with 2 abstentions. By that resolution, the Council extended the mandate of the United Nations Mission for Justice Support in Haiti (MINUJUSTH) until 15 April 2019. It also decided that MINUJUSTH would maintain seven formed police units and 295 individual police officers until 15 October 2018, and that the number of formed police units would be reduced to five by 15 April 2019. The Council affirmed its intention to consider the Mission's withdrawal and transition to a non-peacekeeping United Nations presence in Haiti, beginning no sooner than 15 October 2019.

48. In July, in a statement to the press, the Council condemned the rise in violence in Haiti and called upon all parties to remain calm, exercise restraint and avoid acts that could contribute to instability.

49. In September, the Council discussed the situation in Nicaragua under the agenda item "Cooperation between the United Nations and regional and subregional organizations in maintaining international peace and security".

Asia

50. Ongoing violence in Afghanistan remained a source of great concern for the Council. During the year, the Council issued 14 statements to the press in which it condemned terrorist attacks in the country.

51. The Council continued to support the peace process in Afghanistan. In March, in a statement to the press, the Council welcomed the convening of the second meeting of the Kabul Process for Peace and Security Cooperation in Afghanistan on 28 February and commended the declaration agreed upon by its participants. Members of the Council welcomed the offer made by the Government of Afghanistan to the Taliban to engage in direct peace talks and called upon the Taliban to accept the offer without any preconditions.

52. In June, the Government of Afghanistan announced a temporary ceasefire with the Taliban for the end of Ramadan and the Eid al-Fitr holiday. In response, the Taliban announced a partial ceasefire. In a statement to the press, the Council welcomed these announcements and urged the Taliban to reciprocate the Government's temporary ceasefire in full. In August, the Government announced a second conditional ceasefire with the Taliban from the beginning of the Eid al-Adha holiday. The Council welcomed this development in a statement to the press in August and urged the Taliban to reciprocate without delay.

53. On 27 and 28 November, the Government of Afghanistan and the United Nations hosted the Geneva Ministerial Conference on Afghanistan. At the Conference, the Government of Afghanistan and the international community reaffirmed their partnership and cooperation for the peace, prosperity and self-reliance of Afghanistan. On 10 December, in a statement to the press, the Council welcomed the outcome of the Conference, including the adoption of the Geneva Mutual Accountability Framework and the joint communiqué of the Conference.

54. An important development in Afghanistan in 2018 was the holding of parliamentary elections in October. The Council followed the preparations for these elections closely. In July, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/15), the Council noted the conclusion of the voter registration process, recognized the progress made and emphasized the need to address remaining challenges and to accelerate progress on electoral preparations. In August, in a statement to the press, the Council underlined its support for peaceful, inclusive, credible and transparent elections and urged relevant actors to address outstanding issues without delay.

55. On 23 October, in a statement to the press, the Council welcomed the holding of parliamentary elections. The Council commended the participation and courage of Afghans and reiterated its support for the Government and people of Afghanistan in their efforts to develop sustainable democratic institutions. The Council also noted that voting in Kandahar had been postponed owing to recent security incidents and emphasized the importance of this voting taking place.

56. The Council maintained its support for the United Nations Assistance Mission in Afghanistan (UNAMA). On 8 March, the Council held a debate on Afghanistan and adopted resolution 2405 \(2018\), by which it extended the Mission's mandate until 17 March 2019. The Council visited Kabul from 12 to 15 January, the first such visit since 2010. The delegation held meetings with the President and the Chief Executive of Afghanistan, as well as other senior Afghan officials, members of Parliament, members of political parties, civil society organizations, the electoral management bodies and the leadership of UNAMA and the Resolute Support Mission of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. During the visit, the delegation focused on the political, security, socioeconomic and human rights situation in Afghanistan as well as on the importance of promoting regional cooperation, including economic development, for stability and prosperity in Afghanistan and the region.

57. The Council met to discuss the United Nations Regional Centre for Preventive Diplomacy for Central Asia in January and June. In January, in a statement to the press, the Council reaffirmed the importance of preventive diplomacy and expressed its support for the Centre's role in regional counter-terrorism and counter-narcotics activities and its engagement on border and transboundary water management. In January, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/2), the Council underlined the importance of making conflict prevention and resolution central to the work of the United Nations system in Afghanistan and the Central Asian States, and welcomed further cooperation and coordination between the Centre, the Central Asian States and relevant regional organizations, including those organizations of which the Central Asian States are members, to strengthen the region's capacity to overcome challenges to peace, stability and sustainable development.

58. The situation in Myanmar remained a source of concern for members of the Council. In response, the Council conducted a visit to Bangladesh and Myanmar from 28 April to 2 May. The terms of reference for the mission (S/2018/391, annex) focused on the implementation of the presidential statement of November 2017 (S/PRST/2017/22) and the recommendations of the Advisory Commission on Rakhine State, the provision of protection and assistance to refugees in Bangladesh, and the creation of conditions allowing for the safe, voluntary, sustainable and dignified repatriation of refugees. Following the visit, the Council issued a statement to the press.

59. The Council held a number of meetings on Myanmar throughout the year in order to stay up-to-date with developments on the ground. The Secretary-General gave a briefing on the subject on 28 August.

Europe

60. The Council continued to monitor the security situation in the Balkans. The Council met twice to discuss the situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina. In November, by its resolution 2443 \(2018\), the Council renewed its authorization for Member States acting through or in cooperation with the European Union to establish a multinational stabilization force (EUFOR-Althea) as a legal successor to the Stabilization Force in Bosnia and Herzegovina (SFOR) under unified command and control. The Council met on four occasions to discuss the implementation of resolutions 1160 \(1998\), 1199 \(1998\), 1203 \(1998\), 1239 \(1999\) and 1244 \(1999\) on the subject of the United Nations Interim Administration Mission in Kosovo. The briefing in December was held in response to the request for an urgent meeting of the Council made by the Permanent Representative of Serbia to the United Nations in his letter dated 14 December (S/2018/1111).

61. The Council continued to support progress towards a settlement in Cyprus following the break-up of the talks in Crans-Montana, Switzerland, in July 2017. The Special Representative of the Secretary-General in Cyprus and Head of Mission, United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus (UNFICYP), briefed the Council on prospects for a settlement on several occasions. In its resolutions 2398 \(2018\) and 2430 \(2018\), the Council reiterated its support for an enduring, comprehensive and just settlement based on a bicomunal, bizonal federation with political equality, and urged the sides and all parties involved to renew their political will and commitment to a settlement under the auspices of the United Nations.

62. In its resolution 2398 \(2018\), the Council requested the Secretary-General to submit a report on progress towards a settlement by 15 July 2018. In the report (S/2018/610), the Secretary-General noted that, 10 months after the closing of the Conference on Cyprus in Crans-Montana, there had been no further progress towards a settlement. The Secretary-General expressed his view that there was still scope for the sides to chart a common way forward and, in this regard, expressed his intention to send a senior United Nations official to the island to conduct in-depth consultations with the parties.

63. Following the publication of the report of the Secretary-General, the Council, in its resolution 2430 \(2018\), welcomed the appointment of a United Nations senior official, Jane Holl Lute, and urged the sides and all parties involved to seize the important opportunity presented by her appointment to conduct in-depth consultations on a way forward.

64. The other focus of the Council's discussions on Cyprus in 2018 was the mandate of UNFICYP. In January, by its resolution 2398 \(2018\), the Council extended the mandate of UNFICYP for a period of six months. It also welcomed the report of the Secretary-General on the strategic review of UNFICYP (S/2017/1008) and endorsed its recommendations. In July, by its resolution 2430 \(2018\), the Council subsequently extended the mandate until 31 January 2019.

65. The Council met on four occasions to discuss the letter dated 13 March 2018 from the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Mission of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Council (S/2018/218). The annex to the letter was a letter from the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the Secretary-General regarding the poisoning of Sergei Skripal and his daughter Yulia Skripal in Salisbury on 4 March. On 6 September, the Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations provided an update to the Council on developments in the case, including the death of Dawn Sturgess on 30 June.

66. The Council continued to consider the letter dated 28 February 2014 from the Permanent Representative of Ukraine to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Council (S/2014/136) and the letter dated 13 April 2014 from the Permanent Representative of the Russian Federation to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Council (S/2014/264). Following a meeting on 6 June in connection with the first of those two letters, the Council, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/12), expressed grave concern with regard to the recent deterioration of the security situation in eastern Ukraine and its severe impact on the civilian population. It condemned continuous violations of the ceasefire regime and called for the implementation of the disengagement commitments and the immediate withdrawal of heavy weapons in accordance with the Minsk agreements. It underlined the need for strict compliance with resolution 2202 \(2015\) and encouraged all the parties to recommit to the peace process and to implement all the measures agreed in the Normandy format and the Trilateral Contact Group. It also expressed its support for the work conducted by United Nations agencies to address the humanitarian situation and called upon all parties to facilitate the work of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe Special Monitoring Mission to Ukraine.

67. The Assistant Secretary-General for Political Affairs briefed the Council on the situation in Georgia under the agenda item "Other matters" on 8 August.

Middle East

68. The Middle East was central to the Council's work in 2018. Council members agreed on the interconnected nature of the conflicts in the region, and the Secretary-General delivered a briefing on that subject in June.

69. The Council held eight meetings to discuss the situation in Iraq. A key focus was the need to support Iraq in addressing the challenges it faced following its victory over ISIL, in particular post-conflict reconstruction and reconciliation. In June, by its resolution 2421 \(2018\), the Council extended the mandate of the United Nations Assistance Mission in Iraq (UNAMI) until 31 May 2019. The Council decided that the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Iraq and UNAMI should prioritize the provision of advice, support and assistance to the Government and people of Iraq with regard to advancing inclusive, political dialogue and national and community-level reconciliation. The Council also welcomed the independent external assessment of UNAMI as requested by resolution 2367 \(2017\) and encouraged UNAMI, the Secretariat and United Nations agencies, offices, funds and programmes to implement those recommendations.

70. The Council maintained its commitment to the stability, security, sovereignty and political independence of Lebanon throughout the year. In that context, in a statement to the press in March, the Council welcomed the convening of a ministerial meeting in Rome in support of the Lebanese Armed Forces and the Internal Security Forces. The Council noted the important role played by these forces in protecting the borders and population of Lebanon and saluted the role of the Lebanese Armed Forces in defeating the territorial ambitions of Da'esh, the Nusra Front and other United Nations-designated terrorist groups in Lebanon.

71. A key event of 2018 in Lebanon was the holding of legislative elections in May, which the Council welcomed in its resolution 2433 \(2018\). These were the first parliamentary elections in Lebanon since 2009.

72. The Council continued to monitor closely the situation on the border between Israel and Lebanon. In its resolution 2433 \(2018\), the Council expressed its concern at the limited progress made towards the establishment of a permanent ceasefire and other key provisions of resolution 1701 \(2006\). The Council also expressed deep concern at continuing violations in connection with resolution 1701 \(2006\) and requested the Secretary-General to report on those violations in detail every four months and to include in the reports an annex on the implementation of the arms embargo. Among the concerning developments of 2018 was the discovery by Israel of several tunnels dug under the Blue Line separating Israel and Lebanon. The Council met on two occasions in December to discuss that issue.

73. In August, by its resolution 2433 \(2018\), the Council reiterated its support for the United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon (UNIFIL) and extended the Force's mandate until 31 August 2019. On 9 August 2018, in a statement to the press, the Council condemned the attack against UNIFIL on 4 August, in which peacekeepers were threatened with illegal weapons, vehicles were set on fire and UNIFIL weapons and equipment were seized. The members of the Council underlined the need for a credible investigation to determine the exact circumstances of the attack.

74. The situation in the Syrian Arab Republic remained one of the most contentious issues on the Council's agenda. The Council met on 65 occasions to discuss the conflict in the country. Its meetings focused on chemical weapons, the humanitarian situation and political developments.

75. With regard to the issue of chemical weapons, one of the most significant moments of 2018 followed reports of the use of chemical weapons in the town of Duma in April. Council members proposed three resolutions that would have established mechanisms to investigate these reports. Draft resolution S/2018/321¹ was not adopted owing to the negative vote of one permanent member of the Council (12 votes in favour and 2 against, with 1 abstention). Draft resolution S/2018/175² was not adopted owing to the failure to secure nine votes in favour (six votes in favour and seven against, with two abstentions). Draft resolution S/2018/322³ was not adopted owing to the failure to secure nine votes in favour (five votes in favour and four against, with six abstentions).

76. Following air strikes conducted against targets in the Syrian Arab Republic on 13 April by the United States of America, France and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Council met on 14 April at the request of the Russian Federation under the agenda item "Threats to international peace and security". The Secretary-General gave a briefing. At the end of the meeting, draft resolution S/2018/355⁴ was not adopted owing to the failure to secure nine votes in favour (three votes in favour and eight against, with four abstentions).

77. With regard to the humanitarian situation, the Council adopted resolution 2401 \(2018\) in February. In the resolution, the Council demanded that all parties cease hostilities without delay and engage immediately to ensure the full and comprehensive implementation of that demand by all parties, for a durable humanitarian pause for at least 30 consecutive days throughout the country. At the same time, the Council affirmed that the cessation of hostilities did not apply to military operations against ISIL and all other individuals, groups, undertakings and entities associated with Al-Qaida or ISIL, and other United Nations-designated terrorist groups. Following the adoption of the resolution, the Council met on several occasions to discuss concerns regarding its implementation.

78. In December, the Council adopted resolution 2449 \(2018\) by 13 in votes in favour, with 2 abstentions. In the resolution, the Council reiterated its grave distress at the humanitarian situation and expressed its concern regarding the insufficient implementation of its resolutions 2139 \(2014\), 2165 \(2014\), 2191 \(2014\), 2258 \(2015\), 2332 \(2016\), 2393 \(2017\) and 2401 \(2018\). The Council recalled the need to create conditions throughout the country and facilitate the safe, voluntary and dignified return of refugees and internally displaced persons to their home areas in the Syrian Arab Republic. At the same time, it emphasized that the humanitarian situation would continue to deteriorate in the absence of a political solution. It also renewed for a further year its authorization for United Nations humanitarian agencies and their implementing partners to use routes across conflict lines and the border crossings of Bab al-Salam, Bab al-Hawa, Ya'rubiyah and Ramtha, in addition to those already in use, as set out in paragraph 2 of resolution 2165 \(2014\).

79. On 19 March, several Council members requested a briefing by the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights on the situation in the Syrian Arab Republic. Following an objection to the adoption of the agenda, a procedural vote was held. The agenda item was not adopted owing to the failure to secure nine votes in favour (eight votes in favour and four against, with three abstentions).

⁴ Proposed by the Russian Federation.

80. In its resolution 2449 (2018), the Council reiterated its call upon the parties to the conflict to make progress towards a political solution to the conflict in line with resolution 2254 (2015) and reiterated its support for the Action Group for Syria Final Communiqué of 30 June 2012 (resolution 2118 (2013), annex II).

81. The Council met frequently to discuss the situation in the Middle East, including the Palestinian question, in line with paragraph 7 of its resolution 1322 (2000) and paragraph 12 of its resolution 2334 (2016). The United Nations Special Coordinator for the Middle East Peace Process and Personal Representative of the Secretary-General to the Palestine Liberation Organization and the Palestinian Authority briefed the Council on 17 occasions. His briefings focused in particular on the following matters: the absence of a political process; the deteriorating humanitarian and economic situation in Gaza and the escalations of violence in and around the Gaza Strip; the continued settlement activity of Israel, including in areas deep into the West Bank; the demolition and seizure of Palestinian-owned structures; and the funding gap faced during much of the year by the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East. In June, the Secretary-General issued his first written report on the implementation of resolution 2334 (2016) (S/2018/614).

82. A key concern of the Council in 2018 was the situation in Gaza and the Great March of Return demonstrations, which saw increased levels of violence leading to civilian casualties. On 1 June, the Council considered two draft resolutions in response to increased levels of violence. Draft resolution S/2018/516⁵ was not adopted owing to the negative vote of one permanent member (10 votes in favour and 1 against, with 4 abstentions). Draft resolution S/2018/520⁶ was not adopted owing to the failure to secure nine votes in favour (1 vote in favour and 3 against, with 11 abstentions).

83. The Council maintained its support for the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force in 2018. In June, by its resolution 2426 (2018), the Council extended the mandate of the Force for a period of six months. In December, by its resolution 2450 (2018), the Council extended the mandate for a further six months. In both resolutions, the Council expressed grave concern regarding violations of the Agreement on Disengagement between Israeli and Syrian Forces of 1974. The Council continued to call for the immediate implementation of resolution 338 (1973).

⁶ Proposed by the United States.

84. The Council continued to follow the conflict in Yemen closely. The Council remained deeply concerned by the high levels of violence in the country and the continued deterioration of the humanitarian situation. In March, the Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/5), in which it expressed its grave concern at the continued deterioration of the humanitarian situation and its distress at the level of violence in Yemen. At the same time, it emphasized that the humanitarian situation would continue to deteriorate in the absence of an inclusive political solution. Also in March, in a statement to the press, the Council condemned the multiple Houthi missile attacks, including the use of ballistic missiles, targeting several cities in Saudi Arabia.

85. On 5 September, in a statement to the press, the Council reiterated its support for the political process led by the United Nations in Yemen and the efforts of the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General for Yemen to bring about a political settlement. It also expressed its support for the consultations between the parties that were due to take place in Geneva the following day.

86. Although the parties did not convene for consultations in Geneva in September, they were able to meet in Stockholm from 6 to 13 December. The meeting in Stockholm concluded with the signing of the Stockholm Agreement (S/2018/1134, annex). This included an agreement on the city of Hudaydah and the ports of Hudaydah, Salif and Ra's Isa, an executive mechanism on activating the prisoner exchange agreement and a statement of understanding on Ta'izz.

87. In December, in its resolution 2451 (2018), the Council welcomed the consultations in Stockholm, endorsed the Stockholm Agreement and called for its implementation. In particular, the Council insisted on the full respect by all parties of the ceasefire agreed for Hudaydah Governorate and the mutual redeployment of forces. The Council authorized the establishment and deployment of an advance team to begin monitoring and to support and facilitate the immediate implementation of the Agreement. It also requested the Secretary-General to submit proposals before the end of 2018 on how the United Nations would fully support the Agreement.

88. In the light of the humanitarian situation, in resolution 2451 (2018), the Council also called upon the Government of Yemen and the Houthis to remove bureaucratic impediments to flows of commercial and humanitarian supplies and upon the parties to ensure the effective and sustained functioning of all ports of Yemen, onward road access throughout the country and the reopening and safe and secure operation of Sana'a airport for commercial flights within an agreed mechanism. It also called upon all parties to the conflict to comply with applicable international law and to fulfil their obligations under international humanitarian law.

89. In February, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 2402 \(2018\), in which it renewed and reaffirmed the measures introduced by resolutions 2140 \(2014\) and 2216 \(2015\) with regard to Yemen. It also decided to extend the mandate of the Panel of Experts to support the work of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 2140 \(2014\).

Thematic issues

90. There were a number of significant developments in the Council's consideration of thematic issues in 2018. Several Council members continued to show significant interest in ensuring that the Council considered thematic issues, such as women and peace and security, children and armed conflict, and protection of civilians, as part of its geographical work, but the Council also considered them in a cross-cutting format.

91. On 18 January, the Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/1), in which it focused on conflict prevention and preventive diplomacy, underlining the need for a comprehensive conflict prevention strategy and expressing its support for the Secretary-General's efforts in this regard. In August, in an open debate, the Council highlighted the importance of mediation in conflict prevention and resolution.

92. The Council remained committed to peacebuilding and sustaining peace. In April, the Secretary-General briefed the Council on his approach to these issues. The following day, by its resolution 2413 \(2018\), the Council welcomed the presentation of the report of the Secretary-General on peacebuilding and sustaining peace (A/72/707-S/2018/43), took note with appreciation of the recommendations and options set out in the report and decided to discuss them further.

93. The Council continued to cooperate closely with the Peacebuilding Commission. In December, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/20), the Council underlined the importance of strong coordination, coherence and cooperation with the Commission and encouraged the Commission to present concise, targeted, context-specific and applicable recommendations to the Council, in particular ahead of relevant mandate discussions.

94. The importance of protecting children in armed conflict was reiterated by the Council in its resolution 2427 \(2018\), adopted in July. In the resolution, the Council condemned in strong terms serious abuses and violations against children in armed conflict and underlined its commitment to considering and using a comprehensive set of tools to strengthen international cooperation on their effective protection.

95. In June, in its resolution 2419 \(2018\), the Council focused on the important and positive contribution that young people could make to efforts for the maintenance and promotion of peace and security and encouraged relevant entities of the United Nations to consider how they integrate the needs of young people into their consideration of conflicts. This followed an open debate on youth, peace and security in April.

96. Women and peace and security remained a priority for many members of the Council. In April, in an open debate, the Council focused on sexual violence in conflict. In October, the Secretary-General briefed the Council on promoting the implementation of the women and peace and security agenda through the economic and political empowerment of women.

97. In May, the Secretary-General briefed the Council on the protection of civilians in armed conflict following the publication of his annual report on the issue (S/2018/462). Two days later, the Council adopted resolution 2417 \(2018\), in which it focused on the link between armed conflict and violence and conflict-induced food insecurity and the threat of famine. That issue had also been the subject of a briefing in March by the Executive Director of the World Food Programme and the Under-Secretary-General for Humanitarian Affairs and Emergency Relief Coordinator. In resolution 2417 \(2018\), the Council requested the Secretary-General to report swiftly to it when the risk of conflict-induced famine and widespread food insecurity occurs in the context of armed conflict. In September, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/18), the Council reiterated its commitment to the protection of civilians and recognized the contribution of the updated aide-memoire to the consideration of issues pertaining to the protection of civilians in armed conflict, including its enhanced focus on the protection of medical facilities and personnel and on the use of starvation as a method of warfare.

98. The Council continued to emphasize the importance of upholding international law within the context of the maintenance of international peace and security and held an open debate on that subject on 17 May.

99. In February, in its resolution 2403 \(2018\), the Council noted with regret the resignation from the International Court of Justice of Judge Hisashi Owada and decided that the election to fill the vacancy should take place on 22 June. On that day, Judge Yuji Iwasawa was elected by the General Assembly and the Council to serve on the Court until 5 February 2021. In its resolution 2422 (2018), the Council noted the conclusion of the review of the progress of the work of the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals, appointed Serge Brammertz as Prosecutor of the Mechanism until 30 June 2020 and welcomed the report of the Mechanism to the Council (S/2018/347, annex) pursuant to the presidential statement adopted by the Council in March (S/PRST/2018/6). Resolution 2422 (2018) was adopted by 14 votes in favour, with 1 abstention.

100. In October, the President of the International Court of Justice briefed the Council. The President and Prosecutor of the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals briefed the Council in June and December.

101. Non-proliferation of weapons of mass destruction remained an important priority for the Council. In January, the Secretary-General briefed the Council on preventing the spread of weapons of mass destruction. In September, the Council met at the level of Heads of State to discuss challenges to the global non-proliferation regime. The Council also met on five occasions to discuss the implementation of resolution 2231 (2015) under the agenda item “Non-proliferation”. It received three reports from the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency (S/2018/205, annex; S/2018/540, annex; and S/2018/835, annex) pursuant to resolution 2231 (2015).

102. Under the agenda item “Maintenance of international peace and security”, the Assistant Secretary-General for Rule of Law and Security Institutions briefed the Council on mine action in June, as mandated by resolution 2365 (2017).

103. The Council continued to monitor the situation in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea closely under the agenda item “Non-proliferation/Democratic People’s Republic of Korea”. In March, by its resolution 2407 (2018), the Council extended the mandate of the Panel of Experts on the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea until 24 April 2019. The Council also urged all States, relevant United Nations bodies and other interested parties to cooperate fully with the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 (2006) and the Panel of Experts. In September, the Secretary of State of the United States chaired a meeting to discuss the item “Non-proliferation/Democratic People’s Republic of Korea”.

104. The Council continued to focus on threats to international peace and security caused by terrorist acts.

In May, in a presidential statement on terrorism and organized crime (S/PRST/2018/9), the Council reiterated its concern regarding the close connection between international terrorism and transnational organized crime and called upon Member States and relevant regional, subregional and international organizations to enhance their cooperation and strategies to tackle that threat. The Council also received a briefing from the Chairs of the Security Council Committee pursuant to resolutions 1267 (1999), 1989 (2011) and 2253 (2015) concerning Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (Da’esh), Al-Qaida and associated individuals, groups, undertakings and entities, the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism and the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1540 (2004) on the work undertaken by these subsidiary organs with regard to counter-terrorism.

105. One of the most important developments of 2018 was the progress made in removing the presence of ISIL from Iraq and the Syrian Arab Republic. In relation to the threat posed by ISIL, Al-Qaida and associated individuals, groups, undertakings and entities, the Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/21) in December. In the statement, the Council noted that it had conducted a review of the measures described in paragraph 1 of resolution 2368 (2017), in accordance with paragraph 104 of the same resolution and confirmed that no further adjustments to the measures were necessary at that time. In December, the Council also received its first briefing on the work of the United Nations Investigative Team to Promote Accountability for Crimes Committed by Da’esh/Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant, which was established pursuant to resolution 2379 (2017).

106. In May, in a statement to the press, the Council condemned a terrorist attack in Surabaya, Indonesia. In July and November, in statements to the press, the Council condemned terrorist attacks in Pakistan. In September, in a statement to the press, the Council condemned a terrorist attack in Ahvaz, Islamic Republic of Iran.

107. United Nations peacekeeping operations remained at the centre of the work of the Council. In addition to the development and implementation of mandates described in the geographical section above, there were several notable cross-cutting thematic developments. Many of the developments were connected to the Secretary-General’s Action for Peacekeeping initiative on which the Secretary-General briefed the Council during an open debate in March. In May, in a presidential statement (S/PRST/2018/10), the Council welcomed the initiative.

108. In September, the Council adopted resolution 2436 \(2018\), in which it focused on strengthening performance in peacekeeping missions. This followed a debate on peacekeeping reform in September.

109. In November, the Council held an open debate on strengthening peacekeeping operations in Africa, at which the Secretary-General and the Commissioner for Peace and Security of the African Union gave briefings.

110. In December, the Council adopted resolution 2447 \(2018\), in which it focused on the police, justice and corrections component of United Nations peacekeeping operations.

111. In September, the Secretary-General briefed the Council on the links between corruption and conflict. In October, he briefed the Council on the role of natural resources in conflict. In March, the Deputy Secretary-General briefed the Council on the root causes of conflict in the Lake Chad basin, including water scarcity and climate change. In July, she briefed the Council on the complex nature of security risks related to climate change.

112. In November, the Council held an open debate on strengthening multilateralism and the role of the United Nations. The Secretary-General, the President of the General Assembly, the President of the Economic and Social Council and the President of the International Court of Justice delivered briefings on multilateralism and the role of the United Nations. Many Member States and international organizations participated in the debate, reaffirming their commitment to the purposes and principles of the Charter.

Other matters

113. The Council continued its consideration of its working methods, including through the implementation of the note by the President of the Council (S/2017/507). In January, the Council held an open debate on that issue.

114. On 30 August, the Council adopted its annual report (S/2018/797).

115. Throughout the year, the Council continued to receive regular briefings from the Chairs of its subsidiary bodies, including the regular briefing by the outgoing Chairs in December.

116. Lastly, Members of the Council were shocked and saddened by the passing away of the Permanent Representative of Côte d'Ivoire, Ambassador Bernard Tanoh-Boutchoué, in April and would like to take this opportunity to pass their condolences to the Mission of Côte d'Ivoire to the United Nations and the family and friends of Ambassador Tanoh-Boutchoué.

Part IV

Report of the Military Staff Committee

I. Introduction

1. The present report of the Military Staff Committee covers the period from 1 January to 31 December 2018.

II. Background

2. The Military Staff Committee was established in accordance with Article 47 of the Charter of the United Nations and Security Council resolution 1 \(1946\). The Committee has a mandate to advise and assist the Security Council on all questions relating to the Council's military requirements for the maintenance of international peace and security, the employment and command of forces placed at its disposal, the regulation of armaments, and possible disarmament.

III. Summary of the activities of the Committee

3. The Committee functioned continuously under its revised draft statute and revised draft rules of procedure, contained in document S/115 of 1 August 1946, during the period under review. The Committee held a total of 27 meetings and discussed a total of 37 topics (60 agenda items). During the reporting period, the Committee conducted two field missions to current United Nations peacekeeping operations.
4. Military representatives of elected members of the Security Council participated in all 27 meetings. Representatives of Secretariat departments participated in discussions: the Department of Peacekeeping Operations on 24 topics, the Department of Political Affairs on 8 topics and the Department of Field Support on one topic.
5. Current United Nations peacekeeping and special political missions were the focus of 27 meetings and 30 topics (see appendix IV. A).
6. Nine meetings included various thematic debates (see appendix IV. A).
7. The Committee conducted two missions to areas of current United Nations peacekeeping operations. Members of the Committee also visited the Peacekeeping Training Centre in China from 10 to 13 April 2018.
8. During the first mission, the Committee visited Pakistan from 13 to 16 April 2018. The primary purpose of the visit was to gain an in-depth understanding of the United Nations Military Observer Group in India and Pakistan (UNMOGIP) and its capabilities. Key recommendations from the visit were as follows:
 - (a) Conduct a military capability study of UNMOGIP with the aims of obtaining a troop-to-task analysis, evaluating the requirement to secure the Group's freedom of movement in India-administered Kashmir and identifying and evaluating the actions of the United Nations Secretariat upon receipt of confirmed investigations of cross-border violations;
 - (b) Conduct a review of the Secretariat's efforts and responsiveness to UNMOGIP, with an immediate focus on the Secretariat's actions upon receipt of UNMOGIP cross-border investigations and the timely approval of UNMOGIP standard operating procedures;

(c) Further review host nation in-kind contributions and their effect on UNMOGIP. Unfair or unnecessary expenditure of UNMOGIP resources results in fewer resources being available to the Group to fulfil the responsibilities under its mandate;

(d) The Secretariat should provide relevant documents, such as the concept of operations and standard operating procedures of UNMOGIP, to the Committee.

It is worth noting that the Department of Peacekeeping Operations subsequently refused to provide the concept of operations as requested above.

9. During the second mission, the Committee visited Mali from 12 to 15 November 2018. The primary objectives of the mission were to gain an in-depth understanding of the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in Mali (MINUSMA) and to assess the Mission's military challenges and opportunities in executing mandates, the appropriate allocation of resources and infrastructure, plans for the future of the Mission and conditions that might prompt a change in force structure. During the trip, Committee members were accompanied by military representatives of elected members of the Security Council (from Côte d'Ivoire, the Netherlands and Sweden). Key recommendations from the visit were as follows:

(a) The Committee assesses that MINUSMA has the resources necessary to deliver the mandate, but that they are not coordinated and synchronized effectively, precluding full delivery against the mission mandate. The Mission seems to have reached its limit in its current configuration and needs to adapt to fulfil the mandate in its entirety;

(b) The Mission is trying to develop a comprehensive, overarching mission-wide strategy detailed in a mission concept. It would be helpful to reflect therein the presence of all actors, such as the Malian Defence and Security Forces, the European Union Training Mission in Mali, the Joint Force of the Group of Five for the Sahel and Operation Barkhane, in order to create a coherent strategy for the wider region. It would be beneficial if more coherence between the uniformed and civilian pillars could be achieved, especially in the central part of Mali, including through political dialogue. Malian State authorities need to increase their presence, but they need the support of MINUSMA to do so;

(c) Within the mission concept, emphasis should be put on the concept of operations of the police component, ensuring that its efforts are coherent with the mission mandate, as well as an evaluation of the current footprint in relation to the mandate. The formed police units should be tasked with supporting the civilian component by ensuring its security when there is a need to deploy and engage with the local population. Capacity-building, mentoring and support for the whole rule of law sector are crucial;

(d) Information-gathering capabilities and analysis should be improved in order to achieve a better situational understanding, using the draft peacekeeping intelligence handbook as a reference. There is a need for a more comprehensive approach to information-sharing between all MINUSMA actors, as well as with other United Nations organizations, the host nation and other entities. There also seems to be a discrepancy between analysis conducted at the force level and that of United Nations Headquarters in New York;

(e) The Committee concurs with the Force Commander that MINUSMA should be transformed into a more agile and flexible force. While force protection remains fundamental to the force, there are various tools that may make it possible to reconcile the competing requirements of protection and mobility through such means as training, the implementation of more secure operating procedures and tactics or innovative technologies;

(f) The use of air assets, both civilian and military, is crucial for the Mission. As with other missions with a high level of casualties, the authority to launch medical and casualty evacuations should be delegated to the Force Commander. Special Representatives of the Secretary-General should also consider further delegating authority for the use of military air assets to Force Commanders in other appropriate situations.

10. The Committee continued to announce all meetings and provisional agendas in the Journal of the United Nations and on its website (www.un.org/sc/suborg/en/subsidiary/msc), which is available in the six official languages of the United Nations and offers swift and easy access to the programme of work and current information on the Committee.

11. In accordance with paragraph 178 of General Assembly resolution 60/1 entitled “2005 World Summit Outcome”, the Committee continued to consider its composition, mandate and working methods.

12. As part of efforts to enhance the efficiency and transparency of the Committee’s work, as well as interaction and dialogue with the Secretariat and the military representatives of the non-permanent members of the Security Council, the members of the Committee, at its 1921st meeting, adopted a note by the Chair of the Committee and endorsed the handbook of working methods of the Military Staff Committee, annexed thereto.

13. According to available records, the 1918th meeting of the Committee, held on 5 October 2018, was the first meeting chaired by a woman, Senior Colonel Min Feng (China).

14. Military representatives of Equatorial Guinea and Kuwait have not yet been appointed.

15. The Committee remained prepared to carry out the functions assigned to it under the terms of Article 47 of the Charter.
