

General Assembly

Distr.: General
30 January 2020

Original: English

Seventy-fourth session

Agenda item 70 (b)

Promotion and protection of human rights: human rights questions, including alternative approaches for improving the effective enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms

Rights of internally displaced persons

Note by the Secretary-General

Report of the Special Rapporteur on the human rights of internally displaced persons

Corrigendum

Paragraph 1

The first sentence should read

Although the exact number of children¹ living in internal displacement worldwide is unknown, at least 17 million² were estimated to have been displaced worldwide by conflict and violence within their own countries by the end of 2018.

¹ A child is defined by the Convention on the Rights of the Child as every human being below the age of 18 years unless, under the law applicable to the child, majority is attained earlier.

² Internal Displacement Monitoring Centre and United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), "Protecting and supporting internally displaced children in urban settings" (July 2019).

