I. Introduction

1. The General Assembly, in paragraph 1 of its resolution 74/24, called upon Member States to provide the Secretary-General, by 30 April annually, with a report on their military expenditures for the latest fiscal year for which data were available, using, preferably and to the extent possible, one of the online reporting forms, including, if appropriate, a nil report or the “single-figure” report on military expenditures or any other format developed in the context of similar reporting on military expenditures to other international or regional organizations.

II. Actions taken by the Secretariat

2. On 18 February 2022, the Secretariat sent a note verbale to Member States seeking their views on the subject, followed by email reminders sent in February to national points of contact and permanent missions of Member States in New York. The replies received are reproduced in section III below. Additional replies received after the processing of the present report will be posted on the website of the Office for Disarmament Affairs of the Secretariat¹ in the original language received.

3. The Office for Disarmament Affairs continued to maintain the online database for military expenditures and the online reporting tool. The use of the online tool by Member States to submit reports to the United Nations Report on Military Expenditures continued to decrease during the reporting period (see table 1).

Use of online reporting tool by Member States

| Year | Percentage of States that have submitted their report using the online reporting tool |

| 2017 | 74 |
| 2018 | 82 |
| 2019 | 97 |
| 2020 | 93 |
| 2021 | 91 |

4. The Office for Disarmament Affairs continued its efforts to promote the tool among Member States. Owing to the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic, which slowed activities worldwide during the reporting period, such efforts consisted mainly of circulating notes verbales to Member States.

III. Replies received from Governments

Explanatory notes

5. As at the date of submission of the present consolidated report, the Secretary-General had received national reports from 32 Governments, including 2 single-figure reports and 1 nil report (see table 2). Some States provided clarifications and additional information on defence planning to explain their military expenditures. Those are also included in the present report.

6. The originals of the replies from States, if received by means other than the online reporting system, are on file with the Office for Disarmament Affairs.

Explanatory remarks

Since the final accounts law for 2021 has not yet been approved, the matrix does show not the spent but rather the approved defence expenditures. These numbers are equal in full to those contained in the last, similar report sent to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

“Other” operations and maintenance costs encompass those expenditures which, according to the NATO definition, are considered to be defence expenditure but are not part of the defence budget.

Explanatory remarks

1. For technical reasons, budgetary figures are presented instead of actual expenditures.
2. Details may not add up to the totals owing to rounding off.
3. Row 1 (“Personnel”) includes foods for uniformed personnel.
4. For technical reasons, cost sharing for stationing of forces of the United States of America in Japan (fiscal year 2021: 201.7 billion yen) is included in the figures presented in the column entitled “Central support administration and command”.
5. Besides the expenses listed in the above table, there are Special Action Committee on Okinawa-related expenses (fiscal year 2021: 14.4 billion yen), United States forces realignment-related expenses (the portion allocated for mitigating the impact on local communities) (fiscal year 2021: 204.4 billion yen) and expenses related to the introduction of new government aircraft (fiscal year 2021: 0.03 billion yen).
6. The cost for the National Security Conference has not been included in the above table because the cost has been funded under “other expenses” since fiscal year 2008.
7. The budget for fiscal year 2021 includes digital agency-related expenses (18.7 billion yen).
8. Figures for rows 3.2.1 through 3.2.6 and 4.1 and 4.2 are not available because the breakdown items for rows 3.2 and 4 shown in the table do not match the actual breakdown items.
9. Fiscal year of Japan runs from April 1 to March 31.

Explanatory remarks

In the first quarter of 2020, the Netherlands, like the rest of the world, was hit by the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic. Developments associated with the COVID-19 pandemic had a serious impact on the budget. Now that society is gradually opening up, COVID-19 pandemic measures will be lifted but it will take time to return to the original level of operation. Arrears must be made up. The submitted budget figures were compiled by the outgoing third Rutte cabinet. That cabinet offered to resign on 15 January 2021 owing to the hard-hitting conclusions of the parliamentary investigation related to the childcare allowance. As caretaker, the cabinet worked holding a demissionary status over the course of the elections of 17 March 2021 and nearly a year after the resignation, the fourth Rutte cabinet took office on 10 January 2022.

Owing to the world's changing security situation and growing instability, the new cabinet is in the process of making urgent financial adjustments to contributions to defence. Those financial adjustments are reflected in the coalition agreement, which emphasizes the importance of investments in defence. The structural increase in the budget will enable the Ministry of Defence to take a major step forward, which is urgently needed and will lead to a substantial improvement in the operational readiness of the armed forces. This will have an effect on the budget in 2022. Attribution of extra money to defence shows that defence is one of the top priorities of the Netherlands.

Wherever and whenever possible, the Netherlands defence organization will adopt North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO)-agreed doctrine as national doctrine.

Explanatory remarks

1. The 2021 report is for the period 1 July 2020–30 June 2021.
2. Military expenditure of New Zealand includes expenditure by both the New Zealand Defence Force and Veterans' Affairs New Zealand but not by the Ministry of Defence. The Ministry of Defence provides policy advice and procurement services but is not part of the New Zealand Defence Force.
3. Research and development costs are excluded from the personnel and operations and maintenance costs presented in sections 1 and 2. The costs presented in section 4 are therefore cumulative.
4. Depreciation and capital charge costs are not included.
5. United Nations peacekeeping costs do not include the base salaries of New Zealand Defence Force personnel deployed on United Nations operations.
6. The New Zealand Defence Force does not specifically record the cost of aid to civilians or military assistance and cooperation. Those costs are included under resource costs 2-6.
7. Pensions encompass war disablement pensions and surviving spouses pensions administered by Veterans' Affairs New Zealand.
8. Missiles and conventional warheads are included in ammunition procurement costs. The New Zealand Defence Force financial system does not separate missile purchases from ammunition purchases.
9. Recoveries of costs and credits from suppliers are included where applicable, which is the principal reason for the inclusion of negative figures in this report.
