I. Introduction

1. At its 1st meeting, on 14 September 2022, the General Committee considered a memorandum by the Secretary-General relating to the organization of the seventy-seventh regular session and future sessions of the Assembly, the adoption of the agenda and the allocation of items (A/BUR/77/1). A summary of the discussions will appear in the summary record of the meeting (A/BUR/77/SR.1).

2. The General Committee took note of the resolutions of the Assembly relating to the revitalization of its work.<sup>1</sup>

II. Organization of the session

3. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that the practical arrangements for the conduct of the seventy-seventh session of the Assembly will continue to be affected by the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic, including with regard to whether certain events take place, how they are conducted and the number of attendees. All changes reflect risk assessments and advice provided by the Occupational Safety and Health Committee of the Crisis Operations Group. The assessments are also based on host city and state guidance, the current phase of the COVID-19 reintegration plan for the United Nations Headquarters complex and an up-to-date understanding of the risks posed by the pandemic to delegates and United Nations personnel.

A. General Committee

4. The General Committee took note of rule 40 of the rules of procedure and document A/56/1005 (annex, paras. 9–10) pertaining to the functions of the Committee.

5. The General Committee also took note of paragraph 5 of the annex to resolution 58/316 pertaining to the functions of the General Committee, in particular subparagraphs (e) to (h), according to which it should continue to consider the further biennialization, triennialization, clustering and elimination of items of the customary agenda of the General Assembly; schedule informal briefings on topical issues; recommend to the Assembly a programme of, and format for, interactive debates on the items of its agenda; and consider ways and means to further improve its working methods to increase its efficiency and effectiveness in all aspects.

6. The General Committee further took note of subsequent resolutions on the revitalization of the work of the General Assembly, in which the Assembly stressed the importance of enhancing the role of the General Committee and of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly, recalling its resolutions 1898 (XVIII), 2837 (XXVI), 45/45, 51/241, 58/126 and 58/316, called upon the President of the General Assembly to make full use of the Committee throughout the session with a view to reviewing the programme of work of the Assembly and its Main Committees, in line with rule 42 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly.

7. The General Committee took note that, at the outset of each session, each Vice-President of the General Assembly should designate a liaison person for the duration of the session. This designation may be made by means of a letter to the President (resolution 55/285, annex, para. 20).

B. Rationalization of work

8. The General Committee took note of the relevant resolutions relating to the rationalization of work, including the administrative and financial functioning of the Organization.<sup>2</sup>

9. The General Committee also took note of paragraph 14 of the annex to resolution 55/285, which reads:

As regards implementation of paragraph 7 of the annex to resolution 51/241, the President of the General Assembly, after consideration by the Assembly of the report of the Secretary-General on the work of the Organization, shall inform the Assembly of his assessment of the debate on the report in order for the Assembly to determine the need for further action.

10. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 20 of resolution 75/325, in which the Assembly recognized the value of holding interactive inclusive thematic debates on current issues of critical importance to the international community, called for the rationalizing of such debates to ensure high-level attendance, called upon the President of the General Assembly to be mindful of the regular agenda of the Assembly when organizing such debates and urged Member States to be mindful of existing mandates when considering new mandates for meetings of the Assembly, and, in that regard, to refrain from mandating recurring high-level and commemorative meetings where possible.

11. The General Committee also draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 39 of resolution 75/325, in which the Assembly invited the Assembly and its Main Committees and the Economic and Social Council and its subsidiary bodies to strengthen synergies and complementarities in their respective work and outcomes, in line with resolution 73/341, when covering interrelated issues, as appropriate, paragraph 41 of the same resolution, in which the Assembly requested the General Committee, while exercising its functions under rule 40 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly, and within its mandate, to also consider discussing gaps, overlaps and duplication and make recommendations to Member States for consideration, and paragraph 42, also of the same resolution, in which the Assembly encouraged the President of the General Assembly and the President of the Economic and Social Council to continue to convene an annual joint briefing, highlighting the connection between agenda items and their interlinkages across the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

12. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly that the Main Committees shall meet in substantive session only after the end of the general debate and that the First Committee and the Special Political and Decolonization Committee (Fourth Committee) shall not meet simultaneously and may consider meeting in a sequential manner during the regular session of the Assembly. This arrangement shall not apply if it affects their respective identities, programmes of work and effective consideration of their agendas (resolution 51/241, annex, paras. 31 and 36).

<sup>2</sup> Resolutions 41/213, 48/264, 52/12 B, 58/126, 58/316, 59/313, 60/286, 63/309, 67/297, 68/307, 69/321, 70/305, 71/323, 72/313, 73/341, 74/303 and 75/325.

13. The General Committee also brings to the attention of the General Assembly paragraph 29 of resolution 75/325, in which the Assembly requested each Main Committee to further discuss its working methods.

14. The General Committee further brings to the attention of the General Assembly paragraph 23 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly requested the Chairs of the Main Committees to organize handover meetings of the outgoing and incoming bureaux to exchange views on outcomes and the upcoming agenda, and invited the Chairs of the Main Committees to present a report to their successors on best practices and lessons learned.

15. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly paragraph 25 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly called upon the six Chairs of the Main Committees to meet periodically during the Assembly session to share best practices and increase the coherence and complementarity of the work of the Main Committees.

16. The General Committee also brings to the attention of the General Assembly the pattern for the rotation of the Chairs of the Main Committees for the seventy-seventh to the eighty-third sessions of the Assembly contained in the annex to resolution 72/313.

17. The General Committee further brings to the attention of the General Assembly paragraph 45 of resolution 75/325, in which the Assembly welcomed the increasing number of women candidates nominated for the subsidiary organs of the Assembly in seeking to promote gender balance, and encouraged Member States to continue to do so, and paragraph 21 of the same resolution, in which the Assembly encouraged the President of the General Assembly, supported by the membership, to achieve gender parity among invited speakers and panellists for high-level and other relevant meetings of the Assembly.

C. Closing date of the session

18. The General Committee recommends to the General Assembly that the seventy-seventh session of the Assembly recess on Monday, 12 December 2022, and close on Tuesday, 5 September 2023, by 1 p.m. (rule 2 of the rules of procedure and para. 4 of annex IV to the rules of procedure).

19. The General Committee also recommends to the General Assembly that, during the main part of the session, the First Committee complete its work by Friday, 11 November, the Special Political and Decolonization Committee (Fourth Committee) by Friday, 18 November, the Second Committee by Wednesday, 23 November, the Third Committee by Friday, 18 November, the Fifth Committee by Friday, 9 December, and the Sixth Committee by Friday, 18 November 2022.<sup>3</sup>

D. Seating arrangements

20. The General Committee took note of the fact that, in accordance with established practice, the Secretary-General had drawn lots for the purpose of choosing the Member State to occupy the first desk on the General Assembly floor from which the alphabetical seating order will begin. The name drawn was Belize. The other countries will follow in the English alphabetical order, and the same order will be observed in the Main Committees. In accordance with established practice, the

<sup>3</sup> A mandatory deadline, not later than 1 December, should be established for the submission to the Fifth Committee of all draft resolutions with financial implications (see para. 71).

President of the General Assembly, the Secretary-General and the Secretary will occupy the seats at the podium during formal plenary meetings.

21. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly paragraph 42 of resolution 71/323, in which the Assembly decided that, with due consideration given to accessibility issues, in all plenary meetings of the Assembly, including plenary meetings of high-level events, the seating arrangement of Member States should follow English alphabetical order, beginning with the name of the country selected by lot each year and avoiding distinctions between Member States as to the rank of the head of delegation.

22. The General Committee also brings to the attention of the General Assembly paragraphs 33 and 34 of resolution 73/341, in which the Assembly decided that all meetings of the Assembly and its subsidiary organs should make provisions for accessible seating for representatives with disabilities through the following process:

(a) Upon a request by a delegation for accessible seating, the seating order in a given meeting room is changed in such way as to allow the requesting delegation to move to the closest accessible seat from the one it occupies in accordance with the order established for each session of the General Assembly, and the seating order for the rest of the delegations is moved by one seat;

(b) Should there be more than one request for accessible seating, the delegations requesting such seats will move to the accessible seats which are closest to their respective seats, which they occupy in accordance with the order established for each session of the General Assembly, and seating order for the rest of the delegations is moved by the corresponding number of seats, omitting the ones newly occupied by the requesting delegations;

and requested, in that regard, the Secretariat to inform the Member States as soon as possible of any changes to the seating plans of the conference rooms.

E. Schedule of meetings

23. The General Committee took note of the fact that, in view of financial constraints, meetings at Headquarters will not be serviced beyond 6 p.m. or on weekends. Consequently, meetings should start promptly at 10 a.m. and be adjourned by 6 p.m. on weekdays. The Committee also took note of resolution 59/313, in which the General Assembly strongly urged all officers presiding over meetings of the Assembly to start such meetings on time. The Committee further took note that, without exception, interpreters are assigned to service meetings up to a maximum of three hours; and that, beyond that, a courtesy of between 5 and 10 minutes is granted at the discretion of the interpretation team leader if it makes a significant difference to the proceedings.

24. The General Committee took note of paragraph 37 of resolution 72/313, in which the General Assembly recommended that speakers should be mindful of the speed of statement delivery, bearing in mind the need for accuracy of interpretation.

25. The General Committee also took note of paragraph 1 (b) of the annex to resolution 58/316, which reads:

With effect from the fifty-ninth session of the General Assembly, the meetings of the plenary Assembly shall normally be held on Mondays and Thursdays.

26. The General Committee further took note of paragraph 5 of resolution 76/237, in which the General Assembly noted with satisfaction that the Secretariat had taken into account the arrangements referred to in Assembly resolutions 53/208 A, 54/248, 55/222, 56/242, 57/283 B, 58/250, 59/265, 60/236 A, 61/236, 62/225, 63/248, 64/230, 65/245, 66/233, 67/237, 68/251, 72/19, 73/270, 74/252 and 75/244 concerning Orthodox Good Friday and the official holidays of Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha, and requested all intergovernmental bodies to observe those decisions when planning their meetings.

27. The General Committee took note of paragraph 6 of resolution 76/237, in which the General Assembly noted with satisfaction that the Secretariat had taken into account the arrangements referred to in relevant resolutions of the Assembly regarding the pattern of conferences, including resolution 69/250, concerning Yom Kippur, the Day of Vesak, Diwali, Gurpurab, Orthodox Christmas and Nowruz, and requested all relevant intergovernmental bodies to continue to observe the applicable decisions when planning their meetings.

28. The General Committee recommends to the General Assembly that, in accordance with past practice, it waive the requirement that at least one third of the members of the Assembly, in the case of plenary meetings, and one quarter of the members of a Main Committee, in the case of Main Committee meetings, be present in order to declare a meeting open and to permit the debate to proceed. This recommendation would be made on the understanding that such a waiver would not imply any permanent change in the provisions of rules 67 and 108 of the rules of procedure and that the requirement of the presence of a majority of the members for any decision to be taken would be maintained.

29. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly paragraph 46 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly encouraged the scheduling of future high-level meetings during the first half of the year, from within existing resources, taking into account the calendar of conferences and without prejudice to the current practice of convening one high-level meeting in September at the beginning of each session of the Assembly.

30. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 44 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly reiterated its invitation to the President of the General Assembly and the Chairs of the Main Committees, in consultation with the General Committee and Member States, as well as to the Secretary-General, to enhance the coordination of the scheduling of the meetings of the Assembly, including high-level meetings and high-level thematic debates, with a view to optimizing their interactivity, effectiveness and distribution throughout the session, and to consider ways to decrease the number of high-level events held during the general debate.

31. The General Committee also draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 22 of resolution 75/325, in which the Assembly requested the President of the General Assembly to continue scheduling the plenary meetings of the Assembly on the report of the Secretary-General on the work of the Organization and on the report of the Security Council in close coordination with the Secretary-General and the President of the Security Council, so that discussions of these important reports are not conducted in a perfunctory manner.

32. The General Committee further draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 19 of resolution 75/325, in which the Assembly underlined the urgent need to preserve the primacy, significance and established practice of the general debate of the Assembly, stressed the need to limit the number of high-level events held in the margins of the general debate to those of key significance that required immediate attention from Heads of State and Government, called upon the President of the General Assembly, Member States, in close coordination with the Secretary-General and heads of other relevant United Nations bodies, to be very mindful of those aspects when planning the events of the high-level week in September and to be guided by the existing mandates agreed upon by Member States and encouraged Member States and the United Nations system to singly and collectively limit the number of side events held in parallel with or in the margins of the general debate, as well as other high-level sessions, including by consulting one another to identify side events on similar topics in an effort to minimize overlap and informing the Secretariat of the details of planned side events, and to paragraph 40 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly encouraged the scheduling of side events at United Nations Headquarters outside of the hours when the general debate is being held.

33. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that, in accordance with past practice, the Assembly holds a single debate on the items on its agenda each session (or each time an emergency special session that was adjourned temporarily is resumed), and that a specific mandate from the Assembly is needed for any additional debates.

F. General debate

34. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly that, pursuant to resolution 57/301, the general debate of the seventy-seventh session will begin at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, 20 September 2022, and will continue on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 21–23 September, and on Monday, 26 September. The Committee recommends that the general debate also continue on Saturday, 24 September, in order to maximize the number of speakers during that week. The Committee also brings to the attention of the Assembly that the list of speakers for each day shall be completed and that no speakers will be transferred to the next day, notwithstanding the implications for hours of work. Furthermore, there shall be no time limits for statements in the general debate, but the Assembly will indicate a voluntary guideline of up to 15 minutes for each statement.

35. The General Committee further brings to the attention of the General Assembly that, pursuant to paragraph 7 of the annex to resolution 58/126, the theme “A watershed moment: transformative solutions to interlocking challenges” has been proposed for the general debate at the seventy-seventh session.

36. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly that, pursuant to paragraphs 4 and 10 of the annex to resolution 51/241 and as at previous sessions, the Secretary-General wishes to make a brief presentation of his annual report<sup>4</sup> as the first item in the morning prior to the opening of the general debate on Tuesday, 20 September 2022.

37. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 15 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly recommended that, unless decided otherwise, no other agenda items should be opened during the dates allocated for the general debate.

G. Conduct of meetings, length of statements, explanations of vote, right of reply, points of order and concluding statements

38. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to the relevant rules of procedure regarding the conduct of meetings, namely, rules 35, 68, 72, 73, 99 (b), 106, 109, 114 and 115.

39. The General Committee also draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 32 of resolution 71/323 and paragraph 34 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly recalled rule 72 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly and called for strict adherence by each speaker to the time limits in the Assembly, where applicable, and in particular during the general debate, the high-level meetings of the Assembly and the high-level thematic debates convened by the President of the General Assembly, bearing in mind that all speakers shall get the same opportunity to deliver their statements within the allocated time limit, as set out in the rules of procedure of the Assembly.

40. The General Committee further brings to the attention of the General Assembly that, in accordance with past practice, debates in plenary, including during special and emergency special sessions, should include statements, as applicable, by the President of the General Assembly, the Secretary-General, Member States and observers,<sup>5</sup> in that order (regardless of whether or not the observer is delivering a group statement and of what level the observer speaker is at), unless otherwise mandated by the Assembly; that each delegation is to make no more than one statement in a debate, delivered by no more than one accredited representative physically present in the General Assembly Hall (and not with a video recording or screen-projected presentation), unless otherwise mandated by the Assembly; that the President shall call upon speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak, in accordance with rule 68 of the rules of procedure, including among speakers on behalf of a group of Member States and, among speakers of Member States and the European Union, Heads of State, Vice-Presidents and Crown Princes or Princesses, Heads of Government, ministers and vice-ministers (or their equivalents in case of the European Union) are given priority (regardless of areas of responsibilities of the ministers and vice-ministers), in that order, with group statements given further priority within each level; that a delegation introducing a proposal or a draft amendment thereto, if any, is entitled to take the floor at the beginning of the debate among Member States, regardless of the level of the speaker; that the introduction of a proposal or a draft amendment thereto is to be made by no more than one delegation; that the consideration of proposals would take place following the conclusion of the debate; that, in the event that the Assembly resumes its consideration of an agenda item after having concluded its debate on it with a view to considering a proposal and a draft amendment thereto, if any, statements by delegations are limited to the introduction, followed by the consideration, of the proposal (see also para. 34; “general statements” can be made only during the debate on the agenda item); that, when there are multiple proposals and draft amendments thereto, if any, under an agenda item, statements in explanation of vote before the vote on any or all of them, including on parts thereof, should be made in one intervention, followed by action on all of them, one by one, and that, thereafter, there will be an opportunity for statements in explanation of vote after the vote on any or all of them, including on parts thereof, in one intervention; that the President may initially give the floor, on a point of order, to a delegation requesting the floor during a debate or during explanations of vote where it is not permitted to make such a statement, in the light of paragraph 79 of annex IV to the rules of procedure; that the Secretary-General may be represented at the podium only by the Deputy Secretary-General or by another member of the Secretariat designated by him in order to make a statement on his behalf, in accordance with rule 70 of the rules of procedure; that statements by the President or the Secretary-General are made either by themselves (and not with a video recording or screen-projected presentation) or by a Vice-President of the General Assembly or a member of the Secretariat designated by the Secretary-General in order to make a statement on his behalf in accordance with rule 70 of the rules of procedure, respectively, who is physically present in the General Assembly Hall; that, in accordance with rule 88 of the rules of procedure, when a vote is taken by secret ballot, the President does not permit statements in the explanation of vote, including those for seeking or expressing thanks for support; that, when the Assembly, upon the consideration of a report of a Main Committee and in the absence of a proposal under rule 66 of the rules of procedure, decides not to discuss the report, statements are limited to explanations of vote and there is no separate opportunity to introduce a proposal recommended by the Committee; and that no object, other than what is mentioned under “Observances and commemorative meetings” in the present document, is to be placed by delegations on or around the podium, the stage and the floor of the General Assembly Hall during formal plenary meetings. The General Committee also brings to the attention of the Assembly that a legal opinion of the Legal Counsel may only be requested by the Assembly itself; that the Legal Counsel may not give an opinion at the request of a delegation or a group of delegations; and that a request for a legal opinion may be proposed by a delegation in accordance with rule 78 of the rules of procedure in the form of a draft decision or resolution that contains a clearly formulated question addressed to the Legal Counsel.

41. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 35 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly reiterated its invitation to the Chairs of meetings of the Assembly, especially when there is very limited time available for debate, to consider recommending the “all protocol observed” principle, whereby participants are encouraged to refrain from listing standard protocol expressions during their statements.

42. The General Committee also draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 38 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly urged all presiding officers and Member States to strictly adhere to the scheduled starting time of meetings of the Assembly and its subsidiary bodies.

43. The General Committee further draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 39 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly called upon all officers chairing or facilitating intergovernmental processes to seek to conduct informal negotiations during regular working hours, in order to allow for the active and constructive participation of all Permanent Missions in the work of the United Nations.

44. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly that explanations of vote should be limited to 10 minutes; that, when the same draft resolution is considered in a Main Committee and in plenary meeting, a delegation should, as far as possible, explain its vote only once, that is, either in the Committee or in the plenary meeting, unless that delegation’s vote in the plenary meeting is different from its vote in the Committee; and that delegations should exercise their right of reply at the end of the day whenever two meetings have been scheduled for that day and whenever such meetings are devoted to the consideration of the same item (decision 34/401, paras. 6–8 (A/520/Rev.20, annex V, paras. 6–8)).

45. The General Committee recommends to the General Assembly that points of order be limited to five minutes.

46. The General Committee also recommends to the General Assembly that, in order to save time at the end of the session, the practice of making concluding statements in the Assembly and its Main Committees should be dispensed with except for statements by the presiding officers (decision 34/401, para. 17 (A/520/Rev.20, annex V, para. 17)).

47. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to resolution 59/313, in which the Assembly invited Member States that are aligned with statements already made by the Chair of a group of Member States, where possible, to focus additional interventions that they make in their national capacity on points that have not already been adequately addressed in the statements of the group in question, bearing in mind the sovereign right of each Member State to express its national position.

48. The General Committee also draws the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that the voting results are final once the voting process has concluded in the Assembly. Delegations may submit voting intention forms provided by the Secretariat in order to clarify their voting intentions, which will be further reflected in the official records of the meetings.

49. The General Committee further draws the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that, once the Assembly adopts a draft resolution or decision, Member States can no longer alter its sponsorship. Likewise, when a Main Committee has adopted a proposal and recommends its adoption by the Assembly, Member States can no longer alter its sponsorship.

50. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly that members who wish to make observations in the nature of rights of reply to addresses by Heads of State should submit their observations in writing for circulation as an Assembly document. At the 2377th meeting of the thirtieth session of the Assembly, in 1975, the President indicated that he did not consider it appropriate for oral rights of reply to be exercised in relation to addresses made by Heads of State. He further indicated that he would see no objection to observations in the nature of rights of reply to such addresses when made in writing. This has become a practice of the Assembly.

51. The General Committee also brings to the attention of the General Assembly paragraphs 47 and 48 of resolution 71/323, in which the Assembly decided that the names of candidates for election by the Assembly or by the Main Committees should be communicated to the Secretariat, where possible, at least 48 hours prior to an election, unless otherwise required by specific rules governing the elections concerned, and that those names should be printed on the ballot papers, while additional space should be provided on the ballot paper for inscribing other names, where applicable; and that, on the day of election in the Assembly or in the Main Committees, the campaign materials distributed in the General Assembly Hall or in the Committee meeting room should be limited to a single page of information regarding the candidates, with a view to preserving the decorum of the Assembly.

52. The General Committee further brings to the attention of the General Assembly paragraph 53 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly requested the continuation of the practice implemented during the secret vote counting procedure, whereby no use of mobile phones or/and other electronic communication devices is permitted in the room where counting is being conducted, thus ensuring the confidentiality of elections and integrity of secret ballots.

H. Records of meetings

53. The General Committee took note of the fact that, as at past sessions, during the seventy-seventh session, verbatim records will continue to be provided for the plenary meetings of the General Assembly and the meetings of the First Committee, and summary records will be provided for the other Main Committees and the General Committee of the Assembly pursuant to resolution 49/221 B (annex, paras. 1–2). In paragraph 76 of resolution 66/246, the Assembly stressed the importance of an open, transparent and all-inclusive United Nations, and decided to approve the live webcasting, and subsequent web storage, of all the formal meetings of its six Main Committees. The Department of Global Communications provides webcast coverage, in all six official languages and the floor language, of formal (numbered) plenary meetings and plenary segments of meetings convened by the President of the General Assembly that are held in public. Other meetings of the Assembly are not automatically covered by webcast. However, if requested, the Department could provide additional webcast coverage of a meeting on a cost-recovery basis. The 2022 cost-recovery rates are $296 for up to three hours of coverage during working hours.

54. Furthermore, the General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly that the practice of reproducing statements in extenso as separate documents has been discontinued for all its subsidiary organs that are entitled to summary records and that any exceptions to this rule may be made by the body concerned only if the statements are to serve as bases for discussion and if, after hearing a statement of the relevant financial implications, the body decides that one or more statements in extenso may be included in the summary record, or reproduced as separate documents or as annexes to authorized documents (resolution 38/32 E, paras. 8–9).

55. The General Committee recommends to the General Assembly that the practice of not reproducing in extenso statements made in a Main Committee be maintained for the seventy-seventh session.

I. Resolutions

56. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly that:

- Whenever possible, resolutions requesting the discussion of a question at a subsequent session should not call for the inclusion of a separate new item and such discussion should be held under the item under which the resolution was adopted (decision 34/401, para. 32 (A/520/Rev.20, annex V, para. 32)).
- Efforts should be made to reduce the number of resolutions adopted by the General Assembly. Resolutions should request reports of the Secretary-General only in cases where that would be indispensable for facilitating the implementation of those resolutions or the continued examination of the question.<sup>6</sup>
- In order to ensure that resolutions have greater political impact, they should be short, in particular as regards the preambular part, and should focus more on action-oriented operative paragraphs (resolution 57/270 B, para. 69).
- Whenever possible, for the adoption by the General Assembly of agreed texts of resolutions and decisions, informal consultations should be carried out with the widest possible participation of Member States (resolution 45/45, annex, para. 1 (A/520/Rev.20, annex VII, para. 1)).
- The terms “takes note of” and “notes” are neutral terms that constitute neither approval nor disapproval (decision 55/488, annex).

57. The General Committee also brings to the attention of the General Assembly paragraph 23 of the annex to resolution 60/286, in which the Assembly encouraged Member States to submit draft resolutions in a more concise, focused and action-oriented form, and paragraph 19 of resolution 67/297, in which the Assembly encouraged Member States, United Nations bodies and the Secretariat to continue to consult on the consolidation of documentation in order to avoid duplication of work, to exercise the fullest possible discipline in striving for concise resolutions, reports and other documentation, inter alia, by referring to previous documents rather than repeating actual content, and to focus on key themes, and called upon them to observe existing submission deadlines so as to allow for the timely processing of documents to be examined by intergovernmental bodies.

58. The General Committee noted the fact that the Secretary-General encourages Member States to transmit all draft resolutions and decisions in accordance with the guidelines for submission outlined by the Secretariat.<sup>7</sup>

59. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly that the numbering of resolutions and decisions is sequential, and that resolutions or decisions containing identical titles will be assigned identical symbols followed by a letter designation (e.g. “A” and “B”).

J. Documentation

60. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly that the Assembly, including its Main Committees, should merely take note of those reports of the Secretary-General or subsidiary organs that do not require a decision by the Assembly and should neither debate nor adopt resolutions on them, unless specifically requested to do so by the Secretary-General or the organ concerned (decision 34/401, para. 28 (A/520/Rev.20, annex V, para. 28)).

61. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to section III of resolution 57/283 B regarding the timely issuance of documents in the six official languages of the Assembly. The Committee also draws the attention of the Assembly to resolution 59/313, in which the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to ensure that documentation and reports were issued well in advance, in keeping with the six-week rule for the issuance of official documentation simultaneously in all official languages, and resolution 47/202, in which the Assembly urged the substantive departments of the Secretariat to comply with the rule which required them to submit pre-session documents to the Office of Conference Services at least 10 weeks before the beginning of sessions, in order to permit processing in time in all official languages.

62. The General Committee also draws the attention of the General Assembly to resolutions 48/264 and 55/285, in which the Assembly emphasized that restraint should be exercised in making requests for new reports and requested more integrated reports, and to resolution 57/270 B, in which it recognized the need to avoid requesting duplicative reports from the Secretary-General.

63. The General Committee further draws the attention of the General Assembly to resolution 67/297, in particular its paragraph 19, on the consolidation of documentation and on document submission deadlines (see para. 57).

64. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 47 of resolution 75/325, in which the Assembly requested the Secretariat to continue to improve, harmonize and unify e-services provided to Member States under e-deleGATE with a view to creating a full-fledged delegates' online workplace in all six official languages in order to save costs, reduce the environmental impact and improve the distribution of documents, and paragraphs 36 and 45 of resolution 72/313, in which the Assembly requested the Secretariat to ensure the availability through the e-deleGATE portal of provisional lists of speakers at United Nations meetings and conferences not later than by the end of the business day preceding the relevant meeting or conference, and requested the President of the General Assembly, in order to enhance transparency, to continue to attach the list of speakers at high-level thematic debates organized by the President to the summary of those events.

65. The General Committee brings the following to the attention of the General Assembly:

- Resolutions should contain requests for observations from States or reports by the Secretary-General insofar as they are likely to facilitate the implementation of the resolutions or the continued examination of the question (resolution 45/45, annex, para. 10 (A/520/Rev.20, annex VII, para. 10)).
- Documents originating in the Secretariat should be no longer than 16 pages (8,500 words) (resolution 52/214 B, para. 4), and all intergovernmental bodies are invited to consider, where appropriate, the possibility of further reducing the length of their reports from 32 pages to 20 pages (10,700 words) without adversely affecting either the quality of presentation or the content of the reports (resolution 53/208 B, para. 15).
- Member States and entities of the United Nations system should make a serious effort to submit their replies and inputs to requests for information or views pursuant to resolutions of the General Assembly within the prescribed deadlines (resolution 55/285, annex, para. 17).
- Member States, when seeking additional information, are encouraged to request that they be provided with the information either orally or, if in writing, in the form of information sheets, annexes, tables and the like (resolution 59/313, para. 17).

K. Questions relating to the programme budget

66. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to rule 153 of the rules of procedure, which reads:

No resolution involving expenditure shall be recommended by a committee for approval by the General Assembly unless it is accompanied by an estimate of expenditures prepared by the Secretary-General. No resolution in respect of which expenditures are anticipated by the Secretary-General shall be voted by the General Assembly until the Administrative and Budgetary Committee (Fifth Committee) has had an opportunity of stating the effect of the proposal upon the budget estimates of the United Nations.

67. Also with regard to rule 153 of the rules of procedure, and to paragraph 13 (d) of decision 34/401, under which a minimum period of 48 hours is required between the submission and the voting of a proposal involving expenditure in order to allow the Secretary-General to prepare and present the related statement of administrative and financial implications, the General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly the fact that, in most cases, more than 48 hours are required for the Secretary-General to review the programme budget implications of proposals before the Assembly.

68. The General Committee also brings to the attention of the General Assembly that, in accordance with rule 153 of the rules of procedure, the consideration by the Administrative and Budgetary Committee (Fifth Committee) of any proposal involving expenditure before such a proposal is voted on by the Assembly is mandatory and the rule as formulated does not provide for any exceptions.

69. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to the need for initiators of proposals with budgetary implications to clarify a timetable at an early stage with the Chair of the Administrative and Budgetary Committee (Fifth Committee) and the Chair of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, in order to ensure full compliance with rule 153.

70. The General Committee also draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 31 of resolution 71/323, in which the Assembly recalled rules 153 and 154 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly and encouraged the Chairs of the Main Committees and the Secretary-General to ensure observance of those rules, within their respective mandates.

71. The General Committee further draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraphs 12 and 13 of decision 34/401 (A/520/Rev.20, annex V), which read:

12. It is imperative that Main Committees should allow sufficient time for the preparation of the estimate of expenditures by the Secretariat and for its consideration by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions and the Fifth Committee and that they should take this requirement into account when they adopt their programme of work.

13. Furthermore:

(a) A mandatory deadline, not later than 1 December, should be established for the submission to the Fifth Committee of all draft resolutions with financial implications;

(b) The Fifth Committee should, as a general practice, consider accepting without debate the recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions on the financial implications of draft resolutions up to a prescribed limit, namely $25,000 on any one item;

(c) Firm deadlines should be set for the early submission of the reports of subsidiary organs which require consideration by the Fifth Committee;

(d) A minimum period of 48 hours should be allowed between the submission and the voting of a proposal involving expenditure in order to allow the Secretary-General to prepare and present the related statement of administrative and financial implications.

72. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to regulation 5.9 of the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation (ST/SGB/2018/3; first adopted in resolution 37/234, annex; the rules in the current revised edition are issued pursuant to resolution 72/9), as well as to Assembly resolution 54/236 and its decision 54/474. Regulation 5.9 reads:

No council, commission or other competent body shall take a decision involving either a change in the programme budget approved by the General Assembly or the possible requirement of expenditure unless it has received and taken account of a report from the Secretary-General on the programme budget implications of the proposal.

73. Furthermore, the General Committee also draws the attention of the General Assembly to paragraph 6 of its resolution 35/10 A, in which the Assembly:

Decides that all proposals affecting the schedule of conferences and meetings made at sessions of the General Assembly shall be reviewed by the Committee on Conferences when administrative implications are being considered under the requirements of rule 153 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly.

74. The General Committee further draws the attention of the General Assembly to section VI of its resolution 45/248 B on procedures for administrative and budgetary matters, in which the Assembly:

1. Reaffirms that the Fifth Committee is the appropriate Main Committee of the General Assembly entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters;

2. Reaffirms also the role of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;

3. Expresses its concern at the tendency of its substantive Committees and other intergovernmental bodies to involve themselves in administrative and budgetary matters;

4. Invites the Secretary-General to provide all intergovernmental bodies with the required information regarding procedures for administrative and budgetary matters.

75. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to the oral statement of programme budget implications read by the Secretariat prior to the consideration of a proposal containing budgetary implications that would have an impact on future budget periods and that would be included in the proposed programme budget or that would be funded from extrabudgetary resources.

76. The General Committee also draws the attention of the General Assembly to the views expressed by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions on the use of the phrase “within existing resources”<sup>8</sup> and to the report in which the Advisory Committee emphasized the responsibility of the Secretariat to inform the Assembly thoroughly and accurately about whether there are enough resources to implement a new activity,<sup>9</sup> as well as to the provisions of section VI of resolution 45/248 B and subsequent resolutions, the most recent of which is resolution 76/245, in which the Assembly reaffirmed that the Fifth Committee was the appropriate Main Committee of the Assembly entrusted with the responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters, and reaffirmed the role of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions.

77. The General Committee brings to the attention of the General Assembly that, pursuant to paragraph 5 of resolution 40/243, United Nations bodies may hold sessions away from their established headquarters when a Government issuing an invitation for a session to be held within its territory has agreed to defray, after consultation with the Secretary-General as to their nature and possible extent, the actual additional costs directly or indirectly involved. The methods of budgeting these costs should be improved so as to ensure that all additional costs are accounted for.<sup>10</sup>

78. The General Committee also brings to the attention of the General Assembly that all activities related to international conventions or treaties that, under their respective legal arrangements, ought to be financed outside the regular budget of the United Nations, may be undertaken by the Secretariat only when sufficient funding is received, in advance, from States parties and States not parties participating in the meetings.

79. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to the provision contained in paragraph 11 of resolution 69/250 and subsequent resolutions, the most recent of which is resolution 76/237, in which the Assembly invited Member States to include in new legislative mandates adequate information on the modalities for the organization of conferences or meetings.

80. The General Committee also draws the attention of the General Assembly to the estimated conference servicing-related costs of convening an additional two meetings of up to three hours each in length during working hours, which are $11,300, and that those costs do not include additional services relating to substantive support by a Secretariat office, webcast services or costs relating to the holding of meetings outside working hours, among others.

81. The General Committee further draws the attention of the General Assembly to the estimated costs relating to the issuance of an additional report or note by the Secretariat not exceeding 8,500 words in length when originating in the Secretariat or 10,700 words when not originating in the Secretariat, which are $26,400 for 8,500 words and $33,100 for 10,700 words, and that those costs relate to the editing, translation and issuance of the document and do not include additional services relating to substantive support in the drafting of its content.

L. Observances and commemorative meetings

82. Considering past practice, the General Committee recommends to the General Assembly that it adopt a format for commemorative meetings that includes statements by the President of the General Assembly, the Secretary-General, the Chairs of the five regional groups and the representative of the host country, but no cultural performance to be conducted during a formal plenary meeting, unless otherwise mandated by the Assembly.

83. The General Committee draws the attention of the General Assembly to the practice of the Assembly to hold a formal plenary meeting to pay tribute to the memory of a deceased national leader who was the sitting Head of State at the time of death. In addition to those mentioned in the preceding paragraph, the representative of the delegation of the Member State of the deceased may make a statement. A still photo of the deceased may be either displayed on the stage or projected on the screens of the General Assembly Hall during the tribute. In the case of the passing of a former Head of State or of a sitting Head of Government, there is no such formal plenary meeting.

III. Adoption of the agenda

84. The General Committee considered the draft agenda of the seventy-seventh session submitted by the Secretary-General in his memorandum (A/BUR/77/1). All proposals for the inclusion of items in the agenda of the seventy-seventh session have been communicated to Member States in the following documents:

- (a) Provisional agenda of the seventy-seventh regular session (A/77/150);
- (b) List of supplementary items proposed for inclusion in the agenda of the seventy-seventh session (A/77/200).

85. The items proposed for inclusion are listed in paragraph 97 below.

86. In paragraph 2 (a) of the annex to resolution 58/316, the General Assembly decided, inter alia, that the agenda of the Assembly should be organized under headings corresponding to the priorities of the Organization, as contained in each medium-term plan or in the strategic framework, as appropriate, with an additional heading for “Organizational, administrative and other matters”, for the purpose of giving a sense of structure to the work of the Assembly. Since the fifty-ninth session, the agenda of the Assembly has been structured accordingly.

87. The General Committee took note of the relevant resolutions pertaining to the review and coordination of the agenda, namely, annex I to resolution 48/264, the annex to resolution 51/241, the annex to resolution 55/285, paragraph 60 of resolution 57/270 B, and paragraphs 2 and 4 of the annex to resolution 58/316.
88. Bearing in mind the extremely heavy workload of the General Assembly and the need to make the most effective use of scarce resources, the General Committee also took note of the suggestion of the Secretary-General to consider deferring to a later session items for which decisions or action are not required at the current session (resolution 51/241, annex, paras. 23–26).
89. The General Committee further took note of decision 49/426, whereby the General Assembly decided that the granting of observer status in the Assembly should in future be confined to States and to those intergovernmental organizations whose activities cover matters of interest to the Assembly.
90. In connection with item 35 of the draft agenda (Question of the Comorian island of Mayotte), the General Committee decided to recommend its inclusion under heading B (Maintenance of international peace and security), on the understanding that there would be no consideration of this item by the General Assembly.
91. In connection with item 56 of the draft agenda (Question of the Malagasy islands of Glorieuses, Juan de Nova, Europa and Bassas da India), the General Committee decided to recommend that consideration of this item be deferred to the seventy-eighth session of the General Assembly and that the item be included in the provisional agenda of that session. The item therefore no longer appeared under heading B (Maintenance of international peace and security).
92. In connection with item 61 of the draft agenda (Use of the veto), the General Committee decided to recommend its inclusion under heading B (Maintenance of international peace and security).
93. In connection with item 62 of the draft agenda (Zone of peace, trust and cooperation of Central Asia), the General Committee decided to recommend its inclusion under heading B (Maintenance of international peace and security).
94. In connection with item 135 of the draft agenda (Report of the United Nations Youth Office), the General Committee decided to recommend its inclusion under heading I (Organizational, administrative and other matters).
95. In connection with item 178 of the draft agenda (Observer Status for the Digital Cooperation Organization in the General Assembly), the General Committee decided to recommend its inclusion under heading I (Organizational, administrative and other matters).
96. In connection with item 179 of the draft agenda (Observer status for the Amazon Cooperation Treaty Organization in the General Assembly), the General Committee decided to recommend its inclusion under heading I (Organizational, administrative and other matters).
97. Taking into account paragraphs 84 to 96 above, the General Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following agenda of the seventy-seventh session:

Agenda organized under headings corresponding to the priorities of the Organization

1. Opening of the session by the President of the General Assembly.
2. Minute of silent prayer or meditation.

IV. Allocation of items

98. The allocation of items described in paragraph 106 below is based on the pattern adopted by the General Assembly for those items in previous years and organized under the headings of the agenda in paragraph 97 above. The General Committee took note of the relevant resolutions and decisions dealing with guidelines for the allocation of items, namely, decision 34/401 (A/520/Rev.19, annex V), resolution 39/88 B, resolution 45/45 (A/520/Rev.19, annexes VI and VII), annex I to resolution 48/264 and the annex to resolution 51/241.

99. The General Committee also took note of paragraph 4 of the annex to resolution 58/316 and paragraph 26 of resolution 61/134 relevant to the allocation of items for the seventy-seventh session.

100. The General Committee further took note of the fact that any request by an organization for the granting of observer status in the General Assembly would be considered in plenary meeting after the consideration of the issue by the Sixth Committee of the Assembly (resolution 54/195).

101. Taking into account the recommendations in section III above regarding the adoption of the agenda, the General Committee approved the allocation of items contained in paragraph 112 of the memorandum by the Secretary-General (A/BUR/77/1).

102. Plenary meetings

(a) Item 9 (Report of the Economic and Social Council). The General Committee took note of paragraph 4 (c) of the annex to resolution 58/316, and decided to recommend to the General Assembly that the item in its entirety be considered in plenary meeting, on the understanding that the administrative, programme and budgetary aspects should be dealt with by the Fifth Committee. The General Committee also took note of the clarification that, in implementing resolution 58/316, the relevant parts of chapter I of the report of the Economic and Social Council would be considered by the Main Committees concerned, under agenda items already allocated to them, for final action by the Assembly;

(b) Item 13 (Integrated and coordinated implementation of and follow-up to the outcomes of the major United Nations conferences and summits in the economic, social and related fields). The General Committee took note of resolution 57/270 B, in which the General Assembly decided to consider under the item the chapters of the annual report of the Economic and Social Council relevant to the integrated and coordinated implementation of and follow-up to the outcomes of the major United Nations conferences and summits, including through the participation in its discussions of the President of the Council;

(c) Item 18 (c) (Disaster risk reduction). The General Committee took note of paragraph 14 of resolution 76/204, in which the General Assembly decided that the high-level meeting on the midterm review of the implementation of the Sendai

Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction 2015–2030 would be held in New York on 18 and 19 May 2023;

(d) Item 60 (Use of the veto). The General Committee decided to recommend to the General Assembly that this item be considered directly in plenary meeting;

(e) Item 61 (Zone of peace, trust and cooperation of Central Asia). The General Committee decided to recommend to the General Assembly that this item be considered directly in plenary meeting;

(f) Item 63 (Report of the Human Rights Council). The General Committee took note of paragraph 6 of resolution 65/281, in which the General Assembly decided to continue its practice of allocating the item to the plenary and the Third Committee, in accordance with its decision 65/503 A, with the additional understanding that the President of the Council would present the report in her or his capacity as President to the plenary of the Assembly and the Third Committee and that the Third Committee would hold an interactive dialogue with the President of the Council at the time of her or his presentation of the report of the Council to the Committee;

(g) Item 66 (Elimination of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance). The General Committee took note of paragraph 46 of resolution 76/226, in which the General Assembly requested the President of the General Assembly to continue to convene annual commemorative meetings during the commemoration of the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, which has been held annually under the said item;

(h) Item 99 (General and complete disarmament). The General Committee took note of paragraph 3 of resolution 72/51, in which the General Assembly requested the President of the General Assembly to organize annually a high-level plenary meeting to commemorate and promote the International Day against Nuclear Tests;

(i) Item 124 (Revitalization of the work of the General Assembly). The General Committee took note of resolutions 58/316, 59/313 and 75/325, and in order to facilitate the work of the Main Committees, decided to recommend that the General Assembly allocate item 124 to all the Main Committees for the purpose of discussing their working methods, as well as considering and taking action on their respective tentative programmes of work;

(j) Item 134 (Report of the United Nations Youth Office). The General Committee decided to recommend to the General Assembly that this item be considered directly in plenary meeting.

103. First Committee

Item 99 (General and complete disarmament). The General Committee took note of the fact that some portions of the annual report of the International Atomic Energy Agency, which is to be considered directly in plenary meeting under item 89, deal with the subject matter of item 99. The Committee therefore decided to recommend that the relevant paragraphs of the report be brought to the attention of the First Committee in connection with its consideration of item 99.

104. Fifth Committee

(a) Item 139 (Programme planning). The General Committee took note of paragraph 3 of resolution 76/236, in which the General Assembly re-emphasized the role of the plenary and the Main Committees of the Assembly in reviewing and taking action on the appropriate recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination relevant to their work, in accordance with regulation 4.10 of the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation

(ST/SGB/2018/3); and resolution 72/266 A, in which the Assembly approved the proposed change from a biennial to an annual budget period on a trial basis, and decided that parts I (plan outline) and II (programme plan for programmes and subprogrammes and programme performance information) of the proposed programme budget document shall be submitted through the Committee for Programme and Coordination and part III (post and non-post resource requirements for the programmes and subprogrammes) through the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions. The General Committee also took note of paragraph 2 of resolution 61/235, in which the Assembly requested the General Committee to take fully into account resolutions 56/253, 57/282, 59/275 and 60/257 in the allocation of agenda items to the Main Committees. The General Committee recalled paragraph 9 of resolution 60/257, in which the Assembly took note of the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services (A/60/73) and encouraged intergovernmental bodies to make use of the findings in the programme performance report of the Secretary-General and evaluation reports in planning and policymaking. The General Committee recalled paragraph 16 of resolution 76/236, in which the Assembly reiterated that whenever the Committee for Programme and Coordination could not provide conclusions and recommendations on a given subprogramme or programme of the proposed programme budget, the plenary or the relevant Main Committee or Main Committees of the Assembly responsible for those mandates would consider the said subprogramme or programme at the very start of its session in order to provide any conclusions and recommendations to the Fifth Committee, at the earliest opportunity, and no later than four weeks after the start of the session, for timely consideration by the Fifth Committee. The General Committee further recalled that the Committee for Programme and Coordination recommended, in line with Assembly resolution 76/236, that the Assembly, at its seventy-seventh session, review the programme plan of programme 3, Disarmament, programme 6, Legal affairs, programme 13, International drug control, crime and terrorism prevention and criminal justice, programme 20, Human rights, and programme 21, International protection, durable solutions and assistance to refugees, of the proposed programme budget for 2023, under the agenda item entitled "Programme planning". The General Committee decided to recommend that the Assembly allocate item 139 to all the Main Committees and the plenary of the Assembly to enhance discussion of evaluation, planning, budgeting and monitoring reports. The General Committee took note that the Assembly had previously allocated programme 3, Disarmament, for review by the First Committee and programme 20, Human rights, for review by the Third Committee;

(b) Item 145 (United Nations common system). The General Committee took note of paragraph 11 of resolution 76/240, in which the General Assembly looked forward to receiving the review of the jurisdictional set-up of the common system at its seventy-seventh session, as requested in paragraph 8 of its resolution 74/255 B and in paragraphs 8 and 9 of its resolution 75/245 B, and invited the Sixth Committee to consider the legal aspects of the report to be submitted by the Secretary-General, without prejudice to the role of the Fifth Committee as the Main Committee entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters. On that basis, the General Committee decided to recommend the allocation of item 145 to the Fifth and Sixth Committees;

(c) Item 149 (Administration of justice at the United Nations). The General Committee took note of resolution 64/119, in which the General Assembly approved the rules of procedure of the United Nations Dispute Tribunal and the United Nations Appeals Tribunal; and paragraph 21 of resolution 76/242, in which the Assembly invited the Sixth Committee to consider the legal aspects of the report to be submitted by the Secretary-General, without prejudice to the role of the Fifth Committee as the Main Committee entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters. On that basis, the General Committee decided to recommend that item 149 be allocated to the Fifth and Sixth Committees.

105. Sixth Committee

(a) Item 177 (Observer Status for the Digital Cooperation Organization in the General Assembly). The General Committee decided to recommend to the General Assembly that this item be allocated to the Sixth Committee;
