Organization and work of the substantive session of 2022

2. The Disarmament Commission held its organizational session for 2022 at Headquarters at its 376th meeting, on 4 April 2022 (see A/CN.10/PV.376 \(Resumption 2\)). At that meeting, the Commission considered questions relating to the organization of work and substantive agenda items for its substantive session of 2022 in accordance with the “Ways and means to enhance the functioning of the Disarmament Commission” adopted by the General Assembly (resolution 44/119 C, annex) and in the light of Assembly decision 76/518. The Commission also took up the question of the election of its officers. It elected the Deputy Permanent Representative of South Africa to the United Nations, Xolisa Mabhongo, as its Chair for its session and there was an understanding that the Chair of the next session of the Commission would be from the Eastern European Group.

3. At the same meeting, the Commission adopted the provisional agenda for its organizational session (A/CN.10/L.87).

4. Also at the same meeting, the Commission elected Zhangeldy Syrymbet, Counsellor of the Permanent Mission of Kazakhstan to the United Nations, as Vice Chair.

5. Also at its 376th meeting, the Commission adopted the provisional agenda for its substantive session of 2022 (A/CN.10/L.88/Rev.1). The agenda read as follows:

1. Opening of the session.
2. Adoption of the agenda.
3. Organization of work.
4. Recommendations for achieving the objective of nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation of nuclear weapons.
5. Preparation of recommendations to promote the practical implementation of transparency and confidence-building measures in outer space activities with the goal of preventing an arms race in outer space, in accordance with the recommendations contained in the report of the Group of Governmental Experts on Transparency and Confidence-building Measures in Outer Space Activities.
6. Report of the Disarmament Commission to the General Assembly at its seventy-seventh session.
7. Other business.

6. Also at the same meeting, the Commission decided that 2022 would be considered a second year of the three-year cycle.

7. At its 377th meeting, on 4 April 2022, the Commission elected Kurt Davis (Jamaica) as Chair of Working Group I, on agenda item 4, and Szilvia Balázs (Hungary) as Chair of Working Group II, on agenda item 5.

8. At the same meeting, the Commission took note of its schedule of meetings for the session (A/CN.10/2022/CRP.1) and decided to conclude its substantive session of 2022 on 21 April.

9. The Commission held its substantive session of 2022 at Headquarters from 4 to 21 April. It held seven meetings (see A/CN.10/PV.376 \(Resumption 2\); and A/CN.10/PV.377–382). The Disarmament and Peace Affairs Branch, Department for General Assembly and Conference Management, served as the secretariat of the Commission, and the Office for Disarmament Affairs represented the substantive secretariat.

10. During the session, the Bureau was constituted as follows:

Chair:

Xolisa Mabhongo (South Africa)

Vice-Chair:

Representative of Kazakhstan

11. At its 377th to 380th meetings, on 4 and 5 April, the Commission held a general exchange of views on all agenda items (see A/CN.10/PV.377–380). Representatives of the following countries made statements: Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Bangladesh, Brazil, Cambodia (on behalf of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations), Cameroon, Chile, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Côte d'Ivoire, Cuba, Czechia, Ecuador, Egypt (first on behalf of the Group of Arab States and subsequently in its national capacity), El Salvador, France, Germany, Ghana, Guatemala, Honduras, India, Indonesia (on behalf of the Non-Aligned Movement), Iran (Islamic Republic of), Iraq, Ireland, Israel, Japan, Jordan, Kazakhstan (first also on behalf of Kiribati and subsequently in its national capacity alone), Latvia (also on behalf of Estonia and Lithuania), Lebanon, Malaysia, Mexico, Morocco, Myanmar, Nepal, Nicaragua, Nigeria, Norway, Pakistan, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines, Poland, Republic of Korea, Russian Federation, Saudi Arabia, Singapore, South Africa, Sri Lanka, Switzerland, Syrian Arab Republic, Thailand, Togo, Turkey, Ukraine, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America, Uruguay and Viet Nam. Statements were also made by the European Union, in its capacity as observer, and the State of Palestine.

12. At its 377th meeting, the Commission heard a statement by the High Representative for Disarmament Affairs.

13. The Commission entrusted Working Group I with the mandate of dealing with agenda item 4. Working Group I held 10 meetings, from 5 to 21 April.

14. The Commission entrusted Working Group II with the mandate of dealing with agenda item 5. Working Group II held 10 meetings, from 4 to 20 April.
