I. Introduction

1. The General Assembly, in paragraph 1 of its resolution 77/33, called upon Member States to provide the Secretary-General, by 30 April annually, with a report on their military expenditures for the latest fiscal year for which data were available, using, preferably and to the extent possible, one of the online reporting forms including, if appropriate, a nil report or the “single figure” report on military expenditures or any other format developed in the context of similar reporting on military expenditures to other international or regional organizations.

2. According to the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, world military expenditures reached a record high of US$2.24 trillion in 2022, which represents an increase of 19 per cent over the past 10 years.<sup>1</sup> Against this backdrop, the Secretary-General continues to call for the reversal of the negative impacts of spiralling military spending. He urges States to move away from overly securitized and militarized approaches to peace and to reduce military expenditures through a comprehensive approach focused on sustaining peace and the attainment of the Sustainable Development Goals.

II. Actions taken by the Secretariat

3. On 3 February 2023, the Secretariat sent a note verbale to Member States seeking their inputs, followed by email reminders sent in March and April to national points of contact and permanent missions of Member States in New York. The replies received are reproduced in section III below. Additional replies received after the processing of the present report will be posted on the online database for military expenditures maintained by the Office for Disarmament Affairs in the original language received.<sup>2</sup>

4. The Office for Disarmament Affairs continued to maintain the online database for military expenditures and the online reporting tool. During the reporting period, 86 per cent of States that submitted their report did so using the online reporting tool.

5. On 22 and 23 March 2023, the Office for Disarmament Affairs, in collaboration with the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, held virtual training workshops for national points of contact and staff from permanent missions of Member States on preparing United Nations Report on Military Expenditures submissions. The training workshops contributed to raising awareness of the importance of transparency in military expenditures and building the reporting capacity of States. The training workshops were designed on the basis of a practical guide on how to leverage public national budgets to prepare national reports for submission to the United Nations Report on Military Expenditures instrument, published by Stockholm International Peace Research Institute and funded through the United Nations Trust Facility Supporting Cooperation on Arms Regulation.<sup>3</sup> In total, 70 government representatives attended the training workshops.

6. The number of reports submitted by Governments to the United Nations Report on Military Expenditures instrument increased during the most recent reporting cycle (see table 1).

Explanatory remarks

1. Discrepancies between 2022 expenditures and previously reported 2022 budget: several budget revisions and fund reallocations in the 2022 budget were carried out during the fiscal year. Therefore, the final version of the 2022 budget differs from the previously reported budget. Actual expenditures were conditioned (limited) by the final version of the 2022 budget.
2. Estimated gross domestic product 2022 (source: Ministry of Finance): €65.77 billion in current prices equals 1.48 per cent.

Explanatory remarks

1. For technical reasons, budgetary figures are presented instead of actual expenditures.
2. Details may not add up to the totals owing to rounding off.
3. Row 1 (“Personnel”) includes food for uniformed personnel.
4. For technical reasons, cost-sharing for the stationing of United States forces in Japan (fiscal year 2022: 216.7 billion yen) is included in the figures presented in the “Central support administration and command” column.
5. In addition to the expenses listed in the above table, there are expenses related to the Special Action Committee on Okinawa (fiscal year 2022: 13.7 billion yen) and those related to United States forces realignment (the portion allocated for mitigating the impact on local communities) (fiscal year 2022: 208.0 billion yen).
6. The cost for the National Security Conference has not been included in the above table because the cost has been funded as “other expenses” since fiscal year 2008.
7. The budget for fiscal year 2022 includes digital agency-related expenses (31.8 billion yen).
8. Figures for rows 3.2.1 through 3.2.6 and 4.1 and 4.2 are not available because the breakdown items for rows 3.2 and 4 shown in the table do not match the actual breakdown items.
9. The fiscal year of Japan runs from 1 April to 31 March.

Explanatory remarks

1. The 2022 report is for the period 1 July 2021 to 30 June 2022.
2. The military expenditure of New Zealand includes expenditure by both the New Zealand Defence Force and Veterans' Affairs New Zealand, but not the Ministry of Defence. The latter provides policy advice and procurement services but is not part of the New Zealand Defence Force.
3. Research and development costs are excluded from the personnel and operations and maintenance costs presented in sections 1 and 2. The costs presented in section 4 are therefore cumulative.
4. Depreciation and capital charge costs are not included.
5. United Nations peacekeeping costs do not include the base salaries of New Zealand Defence Force personnel deployed on United Nations operations.
6. The New Zealand Defence Force does not specifically record the cost of aid to civilians or military assistance and cooperation. Those costs are included under resource costs 2–6.
7. Pensions encompass war disablement pensions and surviving spouse pensions administered by Veterans' Affairs New Zealand.
8. Missiles and conventional warheads are included in ammunition procurement costs. The New Zealand Defence Force financial system does not separate missile purchases from ammunition purchases.

Explanatory remarks

Details related to personnel are mostly handled by the Ministry of Finance. The acquisition of military equipment is carried out according to the Senegalese Procurement Code. To that end, the community provisions require prior authorization for all military acquisitions. In addition, new reforms concerning the programme budget have included a new nomenclature for military expenses. Nevertheless, the canvas has been respected and filled accordingly.
