Open-ended Working Group to consider the objectives and agenda, including the possible establishment of the preparatory committee, for the fourth special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament

Third session, 27-31 August 2007, New York

Final reflection and recommendation of the Non-Aligned Movement at the conclusion of the session of the Open-ended Working Group mandated by the General Assembly in its resolution 61/60

At the conclusion of the session of the Open-ended Working Group mandated by the General Assembly in its resolution 61/60, the Non-Aligned Movement would like to reaffirm its strong support for the convening of the fourth special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament and reiterate its positions and concrete proposals on the objectives and agenda for the fourth special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament, as reflected in document A/AC.268/2007/WP.2.

The Non-Aligned Movement stresses its continued support for the guidelines, principles and priorities as agreed by consensus in the first special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament.

The Non-Aligned Movement considers it important to convene as soon as possible a preparatory committee for the fourth special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament.

The Non-Aligned Movement stresses the importance of the General Assembly continuing its active consideration at its sixty-second session of the objectives, agenda and the establishment of a preparatory committee for the fourth special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament, including by reconvening the Open-ended Working Group to consider the objectives and agenda, including the possible establishment of the preparatory committee, for the fourth special session of the Assembly devoted to disarmament.
